The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will hold their regular business meeting in the lecture room of the church, Wednesday, Dec. 2nd, at 2:30 o'clock, to make final arrangements for their bazaar, entitled "The Seven Ages of Woman," which is to be given in the church, Friday, Dec. 11th.

Have a look at our new pyrographic wood. Graham & Wells.

The many friends of Pilkinton will be pleased to learn that he has been completely exonerated from all censure in the Multnomah-U. of O. game at Portland Nov. 21st. in which he was retired from the game on account of rough playing. The Portland papers say it is the first case on record where a man carrying the ball at full speed in a football game endeavoring to make yardage was ever accused of such a thing.

The many friends of Rev. C. T. Hurd will be pleased to learn that he has bright prospects in his new field of labor. In a personal letter he speaks of the large opportunities before him in a new community with several thousand people and his the only church. They have a nice church and expect it to grow rapidly. Rev. Hurd is an earnest worker with his whole soul thoroughly consecrated to the Masters' cause. He extends congratulations to the Presbyterian brethren of Corvallis on the prospect for their new church.

"We Are King" is Guaranteed.

Walker Whitesides' great success, "We Are King," will be an unusual play at the opera house next Thursday night. It is a highclass comedy by Leut Gordon Keane, author of "The Magic Melody," and was used for three seasons by Mr. Whitesides as a starring vehicle. The action of the play is in Kahnburg, a small principality in Germany, and deals with the complications in trying to dethrone King Hector, a despot who has run his kingdom into debt and ground down his subjects. A correspondent for the London Record, a light hearted fellow, wanders into Kahnburg in search of news. He is arrested as a spy. The Prime Minister and his followers who are plotting to rid the kingdom of Hector, are so impressed with the correspondent's marvelous resemblance to the king, that they induce him to impersonate the king, who is away on a secret mission. Vener under the impression that he is rendering the Court a favor, throws the palace open to the common people, lowers the taxes and gets into all sorts of ludicrous situations through his ignorance of Court affairs.

Edmund Carroll and an excellent cast with complete scenic equipment will present the play here exactly as it has been given in all of the larger cities from New York to the Coast. Seats now selling. Prices 35c to $1.

Mountain View Items.

Spencer Bicknell has rented his farm to Mr. Folks, of Washington, and has moved to Corvallis to send his children to school.

George Vernon, of Alsea, was on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Perry Totten, and took Thanksgiving dinner at her home.

Wednesday evening there was a social at the Mountain View School house which all agree was a success, the house crowded and everything passing off pleasantly.

Ed. Hill, who married Mrs. Anna Denny last week, has taken charge of the farm and is going to run farming and dairying. Success to you Ed.

Stock of all kinds looking well, considering the short grass. The fall rains coming so late and frost these nights retard the growth and grass is lacking in strength.

Otto Locke and wife go this week to Fresno, California, to live. The people here are sorry to lose them from the community but our loss is other's gain.

A surprise party by the neighbors was given Otto Locke and wife as a farewell at the A. R. Locke farm residence on November 19.

OAC Notes.

The Lewelling Club, composed of students of Horticulture, meets every Monday evening in the Horticultural building and is open to any townspeople who care to attend.

The Agronomy wing of the new Agricultural building is nearing completion and will furnish a large number of class rooms, excellently lighted.

Many townspeople visit the library and use the reference books and current magazines. This is most pleasing to the management and many more are welcomed.

The swimming pool in the basement of Shepard Hall is to be heated from the boiler room and thus be comfortable throughout the winter. The whole building will soon be turned over for student use.

A Bargain.

Why pay $100 per acre for garden and fruit land when you can get just as good for less than half. 1 1/2 miles from Philomath, Ore., 13 acres; 3 acres in cultivation, 1 acre of rich sandy loam, on river bottom, balance in brush and timber easily cleared. This would make an ideal garden and truck ranch. Only $550. Write or phone W. F. Caldwell, Philomath, Ore. Bell phone 65. 11-27-4t.

CONTEST NOTICE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

United States Land Office Roseburg, Ore., Oct. 26, 1908
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by A. J. Lattin, contestant against Homestead Entry, No. 9592, made Oct. 12, 1899, for N E 1/4 Sec. 6, Township 14 S, Range 3 W, Willamette Meridian, by Roscoe Edwards, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said Roscoe Edwards has not established and maintained a bona fide residence on the said land; that he has neither improved or cultivated the said land with the exception of the erection of a small cabin and shed; and that he has abandoned the said land having been absent therefrom for a period of more than five years last past without obtaining leave of absence; and that said alleged absence was not due to his employment in the Army or Navy of the United States in the time of war, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond, and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on Nov. 28, 1908, before Victor P. Moses, County Clerk of Benton County, Oregon, at his office in Corvallis, Oregon, (and that final hearing will be held at 2 o'clock p. m. on December 12, 1908, before) the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Roseburg, Oregon.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed October 14, 1908, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
