Additional Locals.

Corvallis Lodge No. 14, A. F. and A. M. held a regular communication Wednesday evening, December 16, and the following officers were elected: W. F. Groves, W. M.; Prof. Frederick Berchtold, S. W.; E. L. Strange, J. W.; R. W. Scallarnd, Sec; Z. H. Davis, Treas; A. K. Russ, S. D; M. H. Bauer, J. D. The newly elected officers were then duly installed by the retiring W. M. Professor John Fulton.

The captains of each of the class teams at O. A. C. have made their recommendations for the line up of the inter-class eleven and the following have been selected to represent the College colors: Center, Plankington, 11; guards, Nelson, '10, and Loosly, 12; tackles, Starker, '10, and Hawley, '11; ends, Freeman, 11, and Bower, '09; halves, McMahan, '10, [capt] and Beaty, '09; quarter, Gilbert, '12; full, Knapp '10.

The Rebekah meeting last Monday night was exceedingly interesting. About sixty members and visitors were present to witness the degree work conferred upon two candidates. We feel we can safely say that there is not a Rebekah Lodge in the State of Oregon doing nicer, or more impressive work and to this cause is largely due the present prosperous condition of the lodge.

The Ladies' Aid of the Evangelical church conducted their sample sale last Friday and Saturday, and despite the unfavorable weather there was a large attendance and the results were very satisfactory, the ladies having cleared over $80. They greatly appreciated the hearty response, both from their Corvallis friends and those at a distance, which enabled them to make such a gratifying display.

Mr. Jamison, the noted football player of OAC, has deemed it necessary to drop out of school on account of finances and go to work. He will spend the holiday season with relatives and friends at Logan, Utah, after which he will go to eastern Washington to take up work as an electrician. Mr. Jamison is a bright young man, a handsome specimen of humanity and by his manly bearing and pleasing manners, has drawn about him a host of friends at the college who will greatly miss him.

Specifications will be furnished at the Business Office of the College. J. A. BEXELL, Financial Secretary. 12-18-4t

Chapter Officers Elected.

At a meeting of Ferguson Chapter No. 5, Royal Arch Masons, held Wednesday evening, December 9, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Z. H. Davis, H. P.; John Allen, K; E. B. Horning, S; J. A. Harper, C. H; S. L. Kline, P. S; John B. Horner, R. S. C; S. N. Lilly, Sent. The impressive installation ceremony was conducted last Friday evening.

Pendergrass Is Captain.

Frank Pendergrass has been elected by O. A. C. football men as captain for the coming year and the choice seems to give universal satisfaction, his excellent record on the team and the marked ability he displayed when chosen captain before, presages the same series of coming victories as when he led the O. A. C. men and with them won the northwest championship.
