KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO HOLD SERVICE

Albany Commandery To Commemorate

CORVALLIS MASONS INVITED

Impressive Service to be Held Christmas Morning in the Masonic Temple at Albany.

Impressive services at Temple Commandery, Albany, will be conducted at nine o'clock Christmas morning, by D. P. Mason, Past Grand Commander, assisted by Rev. J. R. N. Bell, Grand Chaplain, R. A. M., and Rev. D. H. Leech, of De Molai Commandery. The vocal music will be led by the Masonic quartette with Professor John Fulton as first tenor and Professor William Boone of OAC at the piano. Two sacred selections will be rendered by the orchestra. These services with the occasion they celebrate are very solemn and full of sentiments exalting in their character. Two years ago the Albany Masons came on a chartered train to Corvallis to participate in the Easter devotions. A handsome opportunity is now offered to all Corvallis Masons and Eastern Stars with their friends to participate in the Christmas devotions at Albany temple, which is one of the finest Masonic homes in Oregon.

A special round trip rate of 50 cents will be granted on the C. & E. A number of Corvallis Masons with their wives and friends will leave on the 6:30 train Christmas morning and return on the noon train in time for Christmas dinner at home. Although early, this service comes but once in a year.

"In Wyoming" next Wednesday.

"In Wyoming," a romance of the Western Plains, strong in emotions and beautiful in sentiment, will be the attraction at the opera house next Wednesday, December 23. The story of the play teems with the breath of the prairies, it fascinates with its powerful plot of love, intrigue and adventure, and compels many a hearty laugh with light comedy, softened anon with a gentle touch of pathos. The beautiful story is so naturally unfolded that it instantly appeals to the heart of every man and woman in the audience. It is the most original and diverting play of Western life ever written, there is not a shot fired during the entire performance, and in this respect will be a great relief from usual melodrama.

"In Wyoming" is on the order of "The Virginian" and it is as good as "The Girl of the Golden West," the producing company is strictly high class and is positively guaranteed to be the best seen in Corvallis in a long time. Reserved seats now selling. Special bargain prices 35, 50 and 75.

WANTED.—Carpet and rug weaving. Am prepared to do good work at reasonable prices. Give me a trial. Mrs. Lalal C. Cooper, 363, Fourth and B. streets, Corvallis.

KILLED BY ANTI-KAMIA

Mrs. Fred Griggs died From Overdose

TOOK TABLETS FOR HEADACHE

All Efforts to Revive Her were Unavailing and Death Followed Sunday Morning.

Mrs. Fred Griggs died just before six o'clock Sunday morning at the Stephen Griggs farm, a few miles north of Corvallis, from an overdose of Anti-Kamia powders which she had taken to relieve a severe headache.

Mrs. Griggs had long been a sufferer from excruciating headaches and Saturday evening, when one of these severe attacks came on, she unconsciously took a number of the Anti-Kamia tablets, and was unable to rally from their effect upon her heart.

When it was known that her condition was serious medical aid was promptly summoned, but all efforts to revive her were unavailing and she passed away early Sunday morning.

The family recently came here from Nebraska, Mr. Griggs being a brother of Ira Griggs, who lives near this city.

Besides a bereaved husband, deceased left two small sons, four and five years old, to mourn her loss and miss her loving care.

Telegrams were sent to relatives in the east of the sad event. The funeral took place Monday, interment being made in the Locke burying ground.

LETTER LIST

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Corvallis postoffice for the week ending Dec. 19, 1908:

George Clay, B. M. Lacy, J. O. Padon, Mrs. H. Reynolds.

B. W. JOHNSON P.M.

Additional Locals.

Roy Bell was initiated as a member of the "Best People on Earth" at Albany last week.

The Evangelical church has arranged to hold a series of revival services commencing February 1 and continuing for several weeks. Rev. H. H. Farnham, of Dallas, will assist in the meetings.

George Armstrong has on exhibition in the windows of Holtenberg & Son's furniture store an apple display that is a convincing argument in favor of this section being the finest fruit producing country in the world.

Six members were received into the Evangelical church last Sunday morning, they being Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gellatly and daughter, Mrs. Shaddock and daughter and Mrs. Beal. The church is well organized and making most satisfactory progress.

Scene from "In Wyoming," the charming Western comedy to be given at the Opera House Wednesday night.
