REDUCTION OF CORNUPELUS

Statement of Mrs. Dr. B. A. Owens

Interesting to Those Inclined to Obesity.

From the "Physician and Surgeon" a magazine published at Ann Arbor, Michigan, we take a statement made by Mrs. Dr. B. A. Owens and quoted as authority in a lecture delivered by Victor C. Vaughan, M. D., Ph. D., on reduction of cornu pelus. The subject is of universal interest and we give Mrs. Dr. Owens' experience as related by herself. Her statement is as follows: For the last four years I have had a tendency to obesity, and the gradual storing up of products that should have been eliminated and expelled during the body's regular work. Great depression followed the storing up of products. I am of slight build and this condition of the body has resulted in my weighing one hundred and seventy-three pounds. GRAND APPLGATE MINES!

The Latest and Richest Discovery in Southern Oregon!

Latest News From The Mines!

From Mr. J. L. Clough, who has just returned from Jackson county, we learn that there has been a rich strike of pay dirt made in the claims of the Grand Applgate mine, probably the richest made in Jackson county within the past ten years. Mr. Clough says it is the opinion of miners of experience the company in question had once more tapped the great pay streak found in the early days of mining in this section, and set it to work. The company have at last got their claim open, and are running two shafts of hands, and the giant is kept constantly playing against thirty feet of bank. The last prospect show this bank to proceed from the top down all the way from 12 1/2 cents to 22 1/2 cents of dirt washed. Such diggings would be considered a rich strike to the miner shoveling in the dirt by hand labor into sluice boxes, but is a large fortune assured to the owners of the claim, working it as they do by the hydraulic process. In the Gin Elm claim there is hardly found a "color" to the pan, and yet the Chinaman is making a fortune. At the rate only of five cents to the pan, the Grand Applgate Mining Company would take out $60,000 per month at least; at the present prospect the yield per month should be five times greater for the same period at least, and possibly eight times the amount. A couple of miners who have visited the mine give us their opinion that the strike is an open mine within the next four weeks will reach, if it does not exceed $100,000. Since the strike a great number of Jackson county miners have visited the mine, and have generally agreed that the strike is an open mine within the next four weeks will reach, if it does not exceed $100,000.

NEW DISCOVERY!

New Mines and a New Spring.

Messrs. Compton and Strother returned home from a prospecting tour during the week.

While about the gentlemen discovered and located a placer mining claim north of the Steam Beer mines, on Gravel creek. The prospects obtained show the ground to be valuable, and with a good season's run a fortune will be taken from the mine. The owners wish to proceed to prepare the claim at once for the winter's run of water. Mr. Strother also discovered a spring which would be a fortune for its owner if it were located near a city. The spring in question is fit only for laundry purposes. While tramping through woods Mr. Strother had his clothes besmeared with pitch, and coming on to the spring thought he might as well wash his overalls before going to camp. Using his shovel he soon enlarged the spring to the size of a tub, and taking off his overalls he plunged them into the water and there let them soak. His surprise on finding them clean when he started to rub them may be better imagined than described. While the clothes had been soaking the water had removed not only all the pitch and pitch dirt also. Mr. Strother immediately pulled off the remainder of his clothing and put them in the water; in ten minutes they were as clean as if they had been through the hands of an experienced laundress. The spring flows into the water and there let them soak. His surprise on finding them clean when he started to rub them may be better imagined than described.

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

The Hutchinsons Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Thos. P. Sheridan has an important notice elsewhere.

John P. Cogan, the painter, has gone to Puget Sound. We acknowledge a pleasant call from Mr. Walter Wheeler, of Oakland. Our old friend, James Velzain, is the happy father of a pretty new baby. Capt. John U. S. Timber Agent, is in the city looking after timber deprivations. Mr. Wm. Carr, division agent of the California and Oregon Stage company, is in the city. Geo. Conn, Esq., Receiver of the U. S. Land office at Lakeview, is in the city visiting relatives. The late rain has done no damage in the country, more than to make a few acres of oats bend over. Mr. Joas, of the foundry, mended the first joint of the forefinger on the right hand Saturday evening. Marks & Co. have the finest quality of lime for sale in quantities to suit, cheaper than the cheapest. We are indebted to Asher Marks, Esq., for a bottle of Nabob Whisky, undoubtedly the best in the market. Joseph Aiken has purchased a house and lot in East Portland at which place he has determined to permanently reside. He will be washing for a city as large as Portland, and some of the water therefrom will be subjected to a chemical analysis at an early day. We suggest the spring be called Strother's Washer. The Hutchinson family. This talented family of singers will make its appearance for the first time before a Roseburg audience on Tuesday and Wednesday evening at the Court House. The Hutchinson family comprises first class singers who have traveled the world over and everywhere been highly appreciated, and the performance will give at the Court House will be worthy the patronage of all since all who go there will certainly pass away two enjoyable evenings. There will be an entire change of programme for Wednesday evening. Speaking of the Family the New York Times says: "The superior of matters, has this to say: 'They sing because they love to sing, because music and melody is their natural atmosphere; and people will crowd to hear them, because their singing meets a want which the people feel. We remember the troupe quite well when they came to the front in the anti-slavery movement, and sang their songs of emancipation. With always a sad undertone, they still sang hopefully and full of faith. How completely has that faith been justified! How triumphantly has the song of the fruit of liberty now! We always go to hear them for it is good for us. Even their saddest songs seem the sweetest. Why is it that the music of sadness is always the best? Their rollicking tunes makes us laugh, but these sweet songs, which they sing so cheerfully adapted, move us as do others can.'"

FIRE IN THE FIELD.

Two Cases of Threshing Machines Taking Fire.

While engaged in threshing wheat for Mr. A. E. McGee, on the Calapooia Tuesday evening last, the threshing machine belonging to Mr. Frank Smith, for some unknown reason, caught fire and from the stack of grain near by. In a little or no time, though every possible effort was made to extinguish the fire, the machine and grain were a solid sheet of flame, and burning like a furnace. Both the machine and wheat were destroyed. The horse-power to the machine alone was saved. The separator was valued at $800, and Mr. McGee's loss reached the amount of over 200 bushels of fine grain. It is supposed that the cylinder box began cutting and heating, and not being noticed in time set the wood work of the machine on fire. On the same day in the evening while Baker and McNabb were threshing on the place of Tim Barnard, they discovered fire issuing from one side of their machine. The machine was stopped at once, and the wind being favorable, the flames were extinguished before any damage was done. Orientated to the machine.
