ITEMS IN BRIEF.

Sol. Abraham has gone to Portland.

Gov. Chadwick is at Oakland.

Those new books at S. Hamilton's drugstore.

Mrs. T. R. Sheridan has gone to Coos Bay.

Paul Renhaven reports everything at Oakland as prospering.

H. J. Cole, an old friend of the INDEPENDENT, is visiting the city.

Our old friend Eb. Stephens is in town. Time deals kindly with the old man.

We acknowledge a pleasant call from F. M. Gabbert, the Nasby of Myrtle creek.

Times are dull and the reason for it is the farmers continue busy harvesting.

Mr. George Hall has an interesting advertisement to stockraisers elsewhere.

Assessor Strange is quite ill. He has been confined to his bed in this city for several days.

Call and examine the guarantee which is given with the Imperishable Mixed Paints. S. HAMILTON, Agent.

Another row is reported from Myrtle Creek, and another trial for assault will come up before Judge Hursh.

Geo. Haynes has returned from San Francisco, looking none the worse for his trip. We are pleased to see him in town again.

Cohansey's Fruit Jars—the best in the market and the delight of housewives—for sale cheaper than ever, at S. Hamilton's drugstore.

We have got that $25 appropriation, Western Star boys. We'll come around and treat to-morrow, and tell you we said we would get the best of the argument.

The late E. A. Buick's funeral took place on the 4th inst. The remains of the deceased were followed to the grave prepared for them by a large number of friends and relatives.

Dr. Davis, of Oakland, was in the city during the week. Though but a short time in the place, Dr. Davis has made many warm friends in Calapooia precinct.

The entertainment given by the minstrels Tuesday evening was greeted by a crowded house. It is the universal opinion that the entertainment was the best ever given in Roseburg.

Beath's minstrels will appear in Oakland this evening at Abraham's hall. The programme selected for the occasion is a fine one, and there will be a rattling performance given. Turn out.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of assignee's sale of property at the store of C. Cohen. There will be found an extra chance to secure bargains, since the sale is a bona fide one.

R. Thomas and daughters Miss Fannie and Mary have returned home. Dick retains his proverbial good humor, and will always be regarded as the most entertaining company as well as the best of landlords.

James J. Flett, of the Western Star, has returned from his trip into the mountains, looking rough and rugged. Since everybody is anxious to know the name of the hero in our last bear story, we will now report, his name is "Jim."

Owing to unavoidable circumstances, and the death of Mr. A. E. Buick, Beath's minstrels did not visit Myrtle Creek and Canyonville as announced by posters. The troupe will visit those places hereafter and by good playing will make up for the disappointment occasioned by their failure to appear on time.

Mr. Simon Caro has left for San Francisco to purchase a Fall stock of goods for the firm of Caro Bros. Upon his return to this city he will make Roseburg his permanent home. The Jacksonville papers say they are sorry to lose Simon, but we do not complain, since their loss is our gain.

Everybody in Southern Oregon will be pleased to learn that J. M. Turner, Esq of the Jacksonville Sentinel, has fully recovered his eyesight, and soon will resume editorial charge of that paper. The Sentinel of this week contains an excellent personal sketch of our old friend, C. W. Savage, of the New State hotel, and one of the early pioneers of Oregon.

Hung in Effigy.

Stick a pin in him and see if he moves, for he looks as if he is stuffed. A gentleman assuming the title of Dr. Hatch, who has made himself quite conspicuous in Gervais, was made more so Thursday morning by being extended in mid air in effigy, nothing holding him up but the end of a rope. This office has been presented with a small chromo, of artistic design, showing the effigy as it appeared on the morning of its discovery.

Arrested for Assault and Battery.

Upon the complaint of George N. Dougherty, Sheriff Hogan Friday arrested David Shambrook for assault and battery. To tell the story in a few words, Dougherty talked about Shambrook, and Shambrook hit Dougherty a slashing belt in the ear. Dougherty's ear looks like pickled souse.

The Place to Go.

The most enjoyable beverage in the world is San Francisco lager beer. It is the best beer in the world, and when kept cool always finds ready patrons. Fred Schwartz, at the depot, has just received a fresh supply, and keeps it in perfect order.

A Fine Stock of Goods.

Among the many splendid stocks of new goods being received none are more complete in every respect than that of M. Josephson, at the Cash Store. There is nothing wanting in his stock, and Joe treats everybody well.

[From our EXTRA of Friday morning.]

SAN FRANCISCOO, Sept. 5.—6 A. M.—All returns go to authorize the previous report that Republicans have elected the entire State ticket by a plurality of more than 15,000. Page and Pacheco are elected to Congress and probably McKenna. The contest is doubtful between Davis and Barbour.

Kalloch for Mayor retains a slight lead of Flint. Probabilities as the the remainder of the city ticket unchanged from previous advices.

It is possible the workmen may elect some of the supervisors and school directors.

Advices regarding legislative tickets very meagre, but seem to indicate that the Republicans will have a majority.

Penmanship.

Mr. E. P. Connor, a gentleman celebrated throughout the State as a teacher of Spencerian penmanship, will organize a class at the public school house in this city this (Friday) evening at 4 o'clock P. M. Mr. Connor is a gentleman in demeanor, and his work is endorsed by the ex-Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. L. L. Rowland, as well as by O. P. Fitzgerald, Superintendent of Public Instruction of California. Many others testify as to the qualifications of Mr. Connor; and so many are his recommendations from gentlemen of position and influence any word we might say would probably be regarded as superfluous. There should be a turn out at least to see what he can do.

Lime for Sale.

Flint & Son have the best of lime for sale at bed-rock prices. Parties wishing the same will find it to their advantage to call on either A. R., or S. C. Flint Roseburg.

RIOT AT MYRTLE CREEK.

A BOISTEROUS TIME OF IT.

A correspondent at Myrtle Creek writes as follows:

Our little village, which is ordinarily tolerably quiet, has been, since last Sunday afternoon until Tuesday forenoon, the scene of tumult, assault and battery, threatening to kill, and in fact all which goes to make hideous a community in which reside many quiet, law-abiding citizens, but which for the time being appears to have been taken possession of by a hoodloom set of rowdies. Last Sunday a young man came into town and went to the saloon of Smith & Adams. The young man was on his horse and rode across the porch of the saloon and then went out into the street on his horse.

This riding on the porch appeared to rile the dormant wrath of Smith, although rumor says Smith has heretofore got the boy to ride across the porch to create a sensation, and would treat him to drinks for doing so; and that men on horseback have been in his saloon building. At any rate Smith went into the street to the boy and wanted him to pay his bill, which Smith claimed was $32 while the boy claimed it was only $14, whereupon Smith seized the boy while he was on his horse and gave him a very severe pounding—even going so far as to beat him in the face with a revolver.

The boy got off of his horse, when Smith again assaulted him, beating him with his fist, and finally threw him against a stone porch, and then in the most shameful and brutal—murderous—manner stamped and kicked the boy in the face to a horrible extent. The boy never raised his hand to resist from the very first. At this time our respected and law-abiding citizen, Mr. D. S. K. Buick, for the sake of common humanity, ran up and asked Smith to desist his fearful battery on the boy, that he was murdering him, when he (Smith) told Mr. B. it was none of his business and for him not to interfere. Whereupon Mr. B. told Smith that if he kicked the boy again he would have him prosecuted. At this Smith turned on Mr. B. and gathering up a large club says: "You old s—n of a b—h I will kill you," and started for him with uplifted weapon. Mr. B., remembering the old coupled that—

"He who fights and runs away,
Will live to fight another day,"

Did not stand on the order of "making tracks." Smith kept after his intended victim, and was gaining rapidly on him, when Mr. B's. youngest son, "Doc," seeing the iminent danger in which the life of his gray-haired father was placed ran before Smith and implored him not to strike his father, when Smith, carrying out his murderous intent, says to Doc: "G—d d—n you I will kill you," and suiting actions to his words he struck Doc a heavy blow on the head, which felled him to the earth as quickly as a beef struck with the blow of a butcher's hammer. At the instant several parties rushed up and took hold of the club and it was taken from Smith. The club was a sawed piece, 2 by 6, about 4 feet long

Squire Purkeypile arrested Smith for his assault on the elder Mr. B. and he was released on bail.

High revelry continued all day Sunday night. On Monday at 12 M. Mr. Buick started for Roseburg on business and for the purpose of getting out a warrant for Smith, and the young Oatman, who was so terribly beaten up accompanied him also for the purpose of getting out a warrant against Smith, and they went quietly on their way till near the south side of Robert's hill when lo! up came a deputy sheriff, whose panting steed was dripping with foam, and demanded Buick to stop, that he had a warrant for Oatman. The warrant was demanded and when read proved to be only an affidavit by Harvy Smith to the effect that Oatman had ridden across his porch. The deputy called that a warrant and when Oatman declined going, was told by the deputy that he had to go; that he would take him by force. Oatman was advised not to resist the officer (?) and perhaps he had better go back. He went back. A new charge was gotten up against him to the effect that he had ridden across Smith's porch, and had several days prior picked up a couple of billiard balls in Smith's saloon while some parties were playing, and kept them awhile, and he was actually bound over to the Grand Jury in the sum of $500 on this farce. He gave bail.

Buick got out his warrants and returned here; Sheriff Hogan soon followed. Hogan took in the situation in a manner showing him to be a man of courage and a competent officer, and after much hunting around in old vacant buildings and back allies came upon his man.

There was hurrying to and fro with strong evidence of riot, and finally Smith's friends, by boisterous threatening of the crowd, managed to get Smith away from the sheriff in order that he (Smith) might be retained at this place to have a farce of a trial for his Sunday's offenses. This part of the story would not have appeared but for the advice of a lawyer who was once a Judge. Tuesday morning no prosecutor appearing against Smith the case was dismissed when the sheriff at once collared him and hurried him off to Roseburg. While the above proceedings are countenanced and offenders fostered there are many good law-abiding citizens here and in this vicinity who deprecate any violations of law.

If people expect their community to prosper and their property to hold its present value or increase in value they must see to it that the law is fully vindicated.

Death of Edward A. Buick.

Mr. E. A. Buick died at his father's residence at Myrtle Creek on the 3d of the present month at the age of 25 years, 1 month and 21 days. The cause of Mr. Buick's death was hemorrhage of the lungs. All who knew the deceased while living knew an honest, upright and moral man. He lived an examplary life, and every father of a son in the county will feel fully satisfied when they can say that in the walks of life their offspring is as good and pure as was the poor boy now resting in his last narrow home and enjoying the peaceful, undisturbed repose of the dead. Friends, he had many; enemies, he had none. Of all his acquaintances there is not one who does not feel sorrowful over his death; of those who have but heard of him not a single one exists but regrets his loss in a way never experienced before for a stanger. Peace to his ashes. In the grave there is nothing left of him whom we loved but the dust to which all mortals return. His spirit, however, must be with the angels, and our consolation comes with the thought that to-day he is among God's own chosen few.

Hunting for a Farm.

Judge Gaddis and Commissioners Cook and Applegate have been employed this week examining farms offered for sale with a view of purchasing a farm for the poor. Friday morning they left the city for the purpose of looking into the management and conditon of the paupers in Cole's Valley, and while away will examine several farms offered for sale. We would suggest that no second-class farm be purchased, and that the farm selected be located somewhere near the line of the railroad. There has been an unavoidable expense created in the sending of paupers to Cole's Valley on account of distance and difficulty of travel. A farm selected near the railroad for the reasons stated will save at least one-half in cost of travel, and can be easily reached at any season of the year.

S. Hamilton, who has been appointed agent for the new school books, has them on hand at exchange and introductory prices.

FROM JACKSONVILLE.

The shooting of Kalloch caused quite a sensation.

C. J. Howard, our county assessor, is the father of an eleven pounder.

Madame Jane Holt has been quite ill for some time and in the meantime her guests have lived high.

J. H. Hoffman, at Mrs. Bilger's hardware store, put up three gross of fruit cans in one day last week.

The weather has been so changeable and the winds so piercing cold and continuous that it is something uncommon for this time of the year.

The Jacksonville brass band and minstrel troupe have united and preparatory steps are being made towards attending the county fair of Siskyou.

Willie Young, a son of George Henry's, is serving out one year's apprenticeship at George Schump's barber shop, trying to master the art of razor handling.

John Orth, who was taken down with billiousness, was confined to his bed alternating during the day of Wednesday; but he is up now attending to business.

The soda water man from Yreka still continues in fetching that spirited stuff and says that the season is not yet over, as they are too many inveterate drinkers in Jacksonville, who are its lovers.

R. A. Miller, who has been out in the mountains rusticating, returned home and has resumed the study of Blackstone. Bob is too much on the reconoiter to ever succeed as a fortune-teller.

The old and efficient stand-bys of Josephine county, Hughs Lenard and Floyd, were in the city last week. What their business was we did not learn. They remained but a few days.

Judge Duncan, Fred Grube and others are now having their board sidewalks torn up and gravel walks put down. Supervisor Young is overseeing the work and Pete Busby is hauling the gravel.

Ed. Anthenwreath, formerly a resident of Yreka but now of Jacksonville, is a young and experienced member of the legal fraternity, and has made many friends. He has induced several capitalists to invest capital in this county.

UMPQUA FERRY.

Fall fights are in vogue,

The grain is streaming toward market from all sides.

Miss Crayton, of Oakland, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

We acknowledge a plersant call from our old friend, H. J. Cole, on the 27th ult.

We received a call from Mr. Muller, of Oakland this week. Call again, old boy.

Threshers are getting bad treatment in this section in regard to sustenance of life.

Mr. Wilson, one of Oakland's promising young men, was in this vicinity recently looking after his interests.

A young man from Oakland made a visit to these parts on Sunday last, evidently with great anticipations, but we have been informed reliably, that his expectations were not fully realized, for when he approached "the mansion on the hill" the attraction had fled to a more salubrious cline and our disappointed young hero returned to the place whence he departed with a heavy heart.

In regard to the accusation of the Star concerning the untruth of my items to the INDEPENDENT and the apologies I should have made, I will simply say that I have made no apology to any one for what I have written. And furthermore, I will say that I have written only what is true and reliable. I was rather amazed at the audacity and boldness of the editor for making the accusation which he knew to be erroneous in the extreme. Freddy, you must endeavor to confine your statements to the truth although it will be a burden to one in your occupation.

County Court.

In all civil cases, follwing is the result: Judgments were decreed against Antoine Walker for $135 30 including costs; against Wm. Russell for $72 58 and costs; against H. Hauley for $63 60 and costs; against S. Cameron for $109 75 and costs. S. W. Crane was allowed further time to answer, and the suit against C. Cohen was dismissed at plaintiff's cost. In Commissioners' Court, liquor licenses were granted to W. H Blackwood and L. Stenger for one year; and viewers were appointed to locate county roads from Looking Glass to Roseburg and from K. Ireland's to Hayes creek. The road from Whitmor's Gap to the East boundry line of J. Richard's land was declared a public highway, and Miss Fannie Hill and E. K. Wheeler were appointed to scholarships in the State University.

OAKLAND ITEMS.

Everything quiet in town.

Corporation of Oakland in trouble again.

Mr. J. C Shambrook gave us a pleasant call on Monday last. By the way, we take the liberty of congratulating the gentleman on his 23d birthday which took place on the 30th ult. And may you live long and prosper.

Mr. Geo. T. Russel will take charge of the school at New Oakland on the 15th of September. This gentleman has had a long experience in this line and surely we can recommend his ability as a teacher to parents and friends.

Complaints come to us from people down the Calapooia to the effect that one of Oakland's counter jumpers has been doing considerable depredation in that locality; having approached an old and feeble man in a strange manner, while his folks were away. We would caution the young man to be careful.

A Narrow Escape.

Last Saturday as the train bound north was rounding a sharp curve a mile north of Clackamas bridge, an Indian in an intoxicated condition was sitting on the end of a railroad tie. The pilot of the engine struck him merely turning him over so suddenly that by the time the train backed up for him he realized his condition in a sober souse of view; he was taken on the train a short distance to his wigwam and given in charge of his betterhalf, who from her cries could bring the dead to life.

Cheerfulness, courage and great activity of intellect are engendered by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and its capacity of imparting power of endurance to the brain and nervous system is shown in its property of sustaining persons through mental difficulties.

C. Dana Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, and Dr. H. C. Louderbock, of Lt. Louis, Mo., both gentlemen prominent in their profession, and which is a guarantee to all buyers of purity and quality. I can show thousands of letters from all parts of the Union and Canady, to testify to its merits and the benefits it has afforded as a family remedy and tonic.

G. SIMMONDS, Sole Proprietor.

Laboratory and Office, No. 4 State street, Boston, Sept. 9, 1873—George Simmonds, Esq.—Sir: The sample marked "Nabob Whisky," received from you, has been analyzed with the following results: It is of selected alcoholic strength and free from added flavoring oils, acids, metals, or any other deleterious substances. Respectfully,
S. DANA HAYES, State Assayer of Massachusetts.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 30. 1876—George Simmonds, Esq.—I have been using your Nabob Whisky for some time, and have no hesitation in saying that it is, without exception, the purest article that I have used medicinally, or for family purposes. To many of my patients who have been suffering with indigestion and nervous affections, I have prescribed your Nabob Whisky for their use, and I take pleasure in saying to you the effect has been satisfactory. Please send me by express six cases C. O. D., and oblige. yours truly, H. C. LOUDERBACK, M. D.

So long as there are ills to which flesh is heir to, and the cares and labors of life breed disease, so long will it be necessary to use medicine to counteract the evils produced and maintain the health of the human family. Many kinds of medicine are frequently offered to the public for one special disease and another, and if the truth were known it would doubtlessly be found that in the majority of cases these nostrums have done more harm than good. Indeed some of the greatest evils of the present day is the existence of quack compounds, which contain ingredients inimicable to health, and the greatest care, therefore, should be taken by invalids, in using many unknown drugs which cannot be taken with impunity, no matter what may be alledged to the contrary.

Now, experience has shown that Nabob Whisky is one of the best medicinal preparations known, and is highly recommended by the Faculty for all cases of nervousness, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, indigestion, etc. Its popularity throughout the Eastern States has been great, and it comes to the Pacific Coast endorsed by the certificates of Dr. S. Dana Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, and Dr. H. C. Louderback, of St. Louis, Mo. These certificates are most direct in their statements, averring that the Nabob Whisky is, without exception, the purest article that can be used either medicinally or for indigestion and nervous affections, and can be used with the utmost confidence. The analysis shows that this whisky is of standard alcoholic strength, and free from flavoring oils, acids, metals, or other deleterious substances. Dr. Hayes further says that it is pure, of superior quality, and suitable for dietic and medicinal purposes. Such recommendations are the strongest that can be furnished, and as there are thousands of letters testifying to the merits of the whisky as a family remedy and tonic, no further proof of its excellence need be given.
