The Stryker case by the jurors who acquitted the defendant. And the remedy suggested is the only one California has found this out already and adopted the suggestion above quoted to protect its people from death-dealing quacks. In that State a physician is not allowed to practice unless he first successfully undergoes an examination before a State Board of Inspectors. Even a diploma amounts to nothing unless the applicant for a license to practice first shows he is a doctor of medicine in the true sense of the word. As California has done so Oregon should do. The Legislature of the State should see to it that there is a law upon the pages of the Statute making it a penal offense for a quack to attempt to practice medicine, and a law that would demand of a man claiming to be a physician to show that he had other and better reasons than is required of a man now calling himself a physician and has to furnish but little more evidence of his skill when charged with malpractice than that the bill was done "without malice either express or implied." Of course such a law would be rough on the quack. It would have the effect of driving them from the field, would advance the interests of all learned physicians, and would guarantee in cases of illness the attendance of practitioners who by careful, honest, study and practice of medicine had a right to the name of Doctor. This is what is wanted. It is a necessity that amounts to the dignity of life protection. What is there in it in favor of a quack if he has to show that he has other reasons in order to gain a livelihood and by this change a life is saved and murder prevented? Clearly it is the duty of the Legislature to look after the matter, protect the people by the law, and prevent murder being committed.

THE TWO REPUBLICANS. It is evidently getting worse and worse for Governor Thayer. He has been charged with all manner of crimes until the catalogue was supposed to be exhausted. But here comes the Portland Bee with a new charge. It charges first that a number of Democrats would turn State's evidence against Grover's administration of State affairs were their own hands clean, and then permits us to believe that Thayer and Judge Harding are both Republicans. In speaking of the members of Grover's administration it says: "Was the testimony against them of any character it might be suborned or induced by the means of the friends of the Republicans and their evidence can be challenged, bullied, bought or deceived. Being silent it speaks for itself. The bitterness displayed against the Governor who prompts, and the Judge who is willing to let the lights of judicial investigation in upon the long columns of figures that balance to the wrong side of the State ledger."

Surely the Bee must speak in the matter with authority, but after all it would not surprise us if Thayer were found to be anything else than what he claims for himself. In the trial of Watkins it is not altogether improbable that William W. will prove more than a match for his persecutors, and before he gets through with them will point for them the way that leads to the grave into which they would hurriedly consign him. We have heard of the beginning of the investigation in the long columns of figures that balance to the wrong side of the State ledger.

Next Tuesday the New York election will take place. The result will be anxiously looked for by both parties—a feeling that upon New York will depend the solution of the question. Will Tilden be the Democratic nominee for the presidency in 1880, or will he be a solid North in deciding who shall be President? So far the Republicans have lost nothing, but gained much. In Ohio they carried the State by 20,000 majority and elected a majority on joint ballot to the Legislature amounting to 37. Iowa has given a Republican majority of over 50,000 over the Democratic ticket, and 100,000 over the Greenback ticket, or 25,000 over both. In Iowa there is in the Legislature an overwhelming Republican majority. The point remains that the Democrats must not permit the Republicans to carry New York by a majority over both Robinson and Kelly, Tilden and Tammany's candidates for Governor. A plurality will leave the question of the strength of the two parties in the Empire State debatable; but a majority for the Republican candidate will go far to convince the wavering that there will be, in the next campaign, a solid North against a solid South, and the preponderance of votes in the electoral college being in favor of the former, a Republican will be elected President in 1880. This is an impartial view of the situation as it exists; and politicians will take it and upon it base their calculations for the next contest.

In the selection of a grand jury at Salt Lake for the Third District Court of Utah, a committee was taken to exclude all Mormons. This shows fulfillment of the promise made some days ago that a vigorous prosecution would be made against the institution of polygamy. A number of the "salts" in the examination of their qualifications to serve on the panel, avowed their belief in polygamy, as authorized and sanctioned by the Bible. This was enough. They were not wanted, and stood aside. It will be a matter of some interest to know who will be among the indicted, and then to see who will be convicted, and what will be the punishment of the convicted.

A farmer in Los Angeles county, Cal., finding that his potatoes were started a starch factory, the machinery for which was made by himself. He commenced with five tons of potatoes, and was so successful that he now engages $300 from the proceeds, and is now engaged in the manufacture of what he claims to be the purest and best article before the public. He is also about to engage in the manufacture of corn starch.

The Mechanic's Fair now being held in Portland, is reported by the city papers as a first-class exposition. It would not surprise us if the Portland papers at some future time had full reports from the State Fair in the way of local news. By some means everything Portland undertakes results in complete success, and we hear nothing beyond a failure from Salem year after year.

THE ORO FINO FELLERS. A few months since there was a sudden disappearance of one Firmin Chabouin, a resident of a small town in France. There was no suspicion as to the case, but a favorite cat which followed its master around made frequent visits to a neighboring house. The occupants were watched and arrested, the pocketbook of the dead man, whose body was subsequently found, was in their possession.

A jurymen in the Criminal Court of the District of Columbia was excused recently because he had been convicted that morning of stealing a pair of shoes. He was advertised to address the Pioneer Sunday School Association of Washington on the following Sunday on the question, "What the Bible teaches man."

This is volume 4 of the INDEPENDENT, and you needn't make a note of it because a newspaper the INDEPENDENT speaks without a gentle reminder now and then. Perhaps we were surprised that the paper has lived four years, we would tell somebody about it.

The Temperance Alliance of Louisiana asserts that in the State last year spirits worth $42,000,000 were drunk, or $2,000,000 worth more than the combined value of the sugar, cotton and rice crops of the State.

A man dying recently in St. Louis left $1,000 to an individual who, years before ran away with his wife. He said in his will that he never forgot a favor.

A Louisville woman, wearing $4,000 worth of diamonds, was recently arrested for drunkenness.
