Ex-Marshall Kerns has received from Portland a fine new truck, and with his fine new social team has a splendid outfit. Peter attends closely to business and should be liberally patronized.

Lieutenant Brown proposes to recommend the construction of a military road to Fort Klamath over the route now known as the Deer creek trail. A hundred miles of travel would be saved.

Caro Brothers received during the week another large invoice of youths' and men's overcoats and ulsters, making this assortment in this line complete. They also have a few ladies' cloaks left which they continue to offer at a great sacrifice.

L. C. Rainey, a gentleman who sold to Uncle Aaron Rose, the present site of Roseburg in 1852, was in the city during the week. Mr. Rainey is now a resident of Jackson county, and is in the enjoyment of excellent health.

Lieutenant Symons and Parks are in the city on business connected with the expenditure of the $10,000 appropriated by Congress for the improvement of the old military road from Roseburg to Camp Stewart, Jackson county.

When at Marshfield remember the Bay View Brewery. Mr. Reichert, the proprietor, is a popular gentleman of sterling worth. He has been equal to the finest in the State, and knows just how to make it pleasant for his numerous customers.

For impaired indigestion, and in fact, for debility from any cause, I know of nothing equal to Felt's Food. It is a perfect food, and is strengthening the nervous system renders it suitable for the majority of diseases. Wm. S. Howe, M. D., Pittsfield, Me.

The time of the officials of the U. S. Land office in this city has been mainly taken up in the trial of the rights to a parcel of swamp land. The parties engaged are Mr. John Sternberg and others against Col. Thomas Bell. The taking of testimony was concluded Friday.

Capt. J. H. Tomlinson, a San Francisco commercial traveler, stepped off the platform at the depot Friday evening, and sustained a fracture of the collar bone, and broke a rib, the result of which he was conveyed to Portland, where his family resides. His injuries are of a serious nature.

After all, it seems that the INDEPENDENT was right when it reported by telegraph that the steamer Duncan was a wreck. The latest news from the mouth of Rogue river is to the effect that all attempts to get the steamer off the sands have proven futile, and that she will be abandoned to the wind and waves which will soon destroy her.

John Cuthbert, alias Charles Colington, taken to Illinois for forgery, has returned to Roseburg and his wife, whom he married shortly before his arrest. For good conduct and the fact that he was more suited against than slandering Mr. Cuthbert was pardoned before the expiration of the term of his sentence by the Governor.

OKLAND ITEMS.

Business is looking up.

The Sabbath school is in a flourishing condition, with a large attendance.

Mr. David Gibson, husband of our esteemed lady, returned from Red Bluff, Cal., on the 10th inst.

Gen. Sutherland is constructing a new barn out in the gap which adds much to the beauty of that place.

We learn that Timothy Gage has been selling at $50 per bushel, owing, however, to higher freights here.

We notice that Caro Bros. are opening their new store, and hope they will prove successful in their new enterprise.

Our usually quiet city presented a lively appearance on the 8th inst. All parts of the country were well represented.

The dance on last Friday night was a complete failure, in every sense of the word, all owing to the guests not bringing out the fair sex.

Mr. Alex. Hobert, newly elected city marshal, perambulates the streets with an ever vigilant eye, in search of the would-be mischief maker.

Violence has been selling for some time past for 10 cents per pound, but things have changed and the merchant wears a smile, unexcelled, upon his face.

Mr. H. N. Settle is erecting a harness shop which, when completed, will add much to the appearance of that place, which heretofore appeared to be the most squalid part of the town.

The enterprising firm of E. G. Young & Co., seems to be doing a rushing business, and has an immense stock of general merchandise, which it is selling at greatly reduced rates.

The people of this hamlet are always noted for their generosity, but we see they are no exception in this case. A class of strangers, and the result is, there are now several vagabonds to be seen on the streets.

A. J. Cole lost a bunch of keys, either here, or between Wilbur and bearing two stenils with his name thereon. The finder will be liberally rewarded upon leaving them either at John H. Shapers, or at the postoffice.

The schools of old and new towns have been adjourned for the past few days, on account of the teachers attending the institute at Roseburg. No doubt that the scholars will look forward to each institute, with smiles on their faces.

A little skirmish took place at Baker's, the other evening, in which several cars were destroyed, and had it not been for interference, probably some damage would have been done. Boys, do not touch the glass so leavy, and such disturbances will be of little occurrence.

We interviewed the notorious and highly esteemed "Star-man," better known as "Apoor," on the 9th inst. He has given up reporting now and has once more gone to grazering for one of Calapooia's farmers, and undoubtedly has matrimonial intentions.

The Question Answered.

For the past two weeks, the leading question has been: "What do you leave that blank space in your paper for?" The answer is found this week in Flood & Co's. new advertisement.

The firm has on hand the largest stock of Fall and Winter goods ever brought to Roseburg, and this large and elegant assortment of goods must be sold this year in order to make room for an immense stock of Spring styles to be shipped to Roseburg as soon as the Spring fashions are announced East.

The determination of the firm is expressed in the motto found at the bottom of the advertisement in question; and, speaking to our readers privately—there never was a better opportunity offered to lay in Winter supplies than Flood & Co. now will give you.

Rich Stock of Cloaks.

Mr. Josephson has just received an immense stock of Ladies' Cloaks. The stock has arrived late in the season, although it embraces every style, and pattern; and all must be sold within the next thirty days. There never was a better stock of cloaks offered by any firm in the city, and certainly never a better chance given for them to secure bargains. Go and see them.

Flooded.

We are without our usual Coos Bay dispatches this week. Reports from the country are to the effect that the whole country is flooded, owing to the last storm and the melting of snows in the mountains. The latest news on time for the next three or four days will be owing to the efforts of the contractor, Mr. Jos. Clough, who knows no such word as fail.

Caro Brothers' New Store.

As stated last week, Caro Bros. have opened up a fine stock of general merchandise, and have moved to the old stand of Wheeler Bros. Go and see "Uncle Aaron" and you will find him the most obliging of storekeepers. He will suit you in everything you need, and we cordially recommend him to all our Calapooia friends.

FROM UMPQUA FERRY.

The tilters of the soil are taking advantage of the present good weather, and some of the fields already present the appearance of Spring-time.

Prof. Clayton, the knight of the Red Bluff, Cal., on the 10th inst.

Gen. Sutherland is constructing a new barn out in the gap which adds much to the beauty of that place.

We learn that Timothy Gage has been selling at $50 per bushel, owing, however, to higher freights here.

THE JUNIOR'S GOSSIP.

MARSHFIELD, Nov. 8th.

FERRIS KOTAY, Esq., has just returned from his trip to the coast.

Your Junior, after saying good-bye, on November 4th, commenced the tour of Coos county. The route taken by the boat was over the Coos Bay Wagon Road, by the stage line of J. C. Clough & Co.

This line is well managed, has splendid horses, careful drivers and good wagons. The comfort of the traveler is the "special care" of both proprietors and drivers. My experience with Oregon stage lines, and I have had considerable, is that this line of stages is the best managed in the West.

It is thoroughly systematic, and no delays or annoyances to travelers occur. At Looking Glass I met the genial Wm. Cochran, Judge Kennedy and others. The stoppage made here is only long enough to exchange greetings, and of sufficient time to hear encouraging remarks about the INDEPENDENT.

Mr. Cochran provides good accommodations at Siskiyou. A short distance from Mr. Laird's dance was given at a farm house, and by request I witnessed the festivities. All who attended enjoyed themselves, but being married I took no active part.

The young people present are intelligent and full of life and vigor. I have not mentioned Coos river or the Coosville country, and said nothing of the agricultural and stock-raising facilities, the fisheries and products of the beach. A careful note, however, has been made of them.

CALAPOOIA ITEMS.

Rain plentiful.

Health of the community—good.

Snow on the Tye mountain the 7th inst.

The late rain storms have swollen Calapooia eight feet above low-water mark.

The farmer can speed the plow to his heart's content, as the soil is sufficiently wet for plowing.

James Chenoweth purchased Wm. Stephens fine lot of fattening hogs. Price paid for them was three and a half cents per pound, gross. Mr. C. ships them to Portland.

Lamuel Williams, one of Calapooia's intelligent young men, who has been some time visiting the Palouse country, has returned looking hale and hearty.

We advise those Tennessee gent who feel matrimonially inclined, before visiting Wilbur again, to procure letters of introduction, then, perhaps, their company will be acceptable.

CALAPOOIA GEORGE.
