RESOLUTION OF ENDORSEMENT

WHEREAS, THE DOUGLAS INDEPENDENT a newspaper published in Roseburg, has been published in this county for the period of three years; and

WHEREAS, said newspaper is now well established, and during a three years' trial it has faithfully served the interests of the producer and tax-payer; therefore be it

Resolved, We, the members of the Umpqua Grange No. 28, do give THE DOUGLAS INDEPENDENT our unqualified endorsement. And would recommend it as a newspaper worthy the patronage of every farmer and tax-payer in Southern Oregon.

GEO. W. JONES, Master.
J. P. DUNCAN, Secretary.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The DOUGLAS INDEPENDENT has the largest circulation of any paper published in Roseburg in the counties of Douglas, Jackson and Coos, and will furnish the proof of our assertion when demanded by responsable advertisers. KELLY & WELLS.

WILL SOON BE SHOWN.

The work now being accomplished in a political sense will be shown up in a short time. Every where we hear of no friendship being shown by one wing of the Democratic party for the other, and it is certain but few efforts are being made by the leaders of either wing for a compromise which will have the effect to heal up the breach and send the party into the field united. There must come up a third element, and there must be a third "wing" in the party organization, and the third party must come in as a compromise. We do not mean that the Democrats will be compelled to go outside of its ranks to find this compromise, or that it shall, to effect a compromise, take up others than Democrats; but we mean that to take either Thayer or any one else outside of those who constitute the honest element of the party will be to kick up a row that must eventually end in the party going into the contest divided. Thayer will demand an indorsement of his administration and a chance of election to the United States Senate, and there are Democrats who do not like Thayer and yet will grant this much for the sake of harmony; and there are other members of the party who will strongly oppose packing upon the shoulders of the party in the race Thayer and his failings and who will admit of no compromise unless it is distinctly understood that the Governor and his acts shall not be defended by the party, or an indorsement given to either. Whether those who have the party's welfare at heart will succeed in securing control, and whether after success has crowned their efforts the Thayer wing will not bolt the party will be known only after the conventions have met and the policy of the party announced.

Without doubt Thayer has been very independent of his party during his term of office, and there is no doubt his independence began before his election. He has despised or treated with contempt all suggestions made by his party's members. Soon it will be seen whether through the power he has enjoyed in the Governor's office, he has been able to control the party, or the party will control him in the end—not only by repudiating the responsibility of his administration, but also in compelling him to afterwards support the party which made him what he is.

But the Democrats are not the only ones planning and working for the future. Republicans are just as busy. They are laying their plans as assiduously. Even Thayer's partner would like to repeat his trip to Washington as a congressman, and he would not object to being elected Senator—or having his partner elected. To a more or less extent the very faction that fought the return of Mitchell to the United States Senate, is now working for official preferment. Perhaps some will excuse the members thereof with this regard on the grounds that having been a long time away from the public and official table they have become quite hungry. This is only the excuse of every office-seeker. They may win in the conventions, and they may not. The danger to the Republican party is that they may all turn traitors as they did before and find a mouthpiece in the Oregonian. The danger, however, is lessened by the failure of last year of the faction to send Corbett or a Corbett man to the Senate, and in electing members to the State Senate they will not sacrifice the party solely to gratify personal malice as before for the simple reason revenge secured in this way would be a too costly article They may be so crazy, however, and in their madness prefer general ruin to particular success of the opposition inside the party, thus placing the party on an equal footing under any circumstances with the Democracy. Time will also show what will be the result in this matter.

The location of the harbor of refuge on the coast is yet unsettled. It is about time a decision was made. Congress will soon meet, and a delay in the selection of the desirable point of location should not be continued so that the matter will not receive serious consideration at Washington at an early date. So far as Cape Arago is concerned, Nature made it a natural harbor of refuge, and it is used as such half the year. Under these circumstances we cannot see why Cape Arago will not be selected, and why, when the whole country is anxious for a decision, and anxious to build a railroad to the bay, that the decision is delayed.

The Jacksonville Sentinel is authorized to say that Mr. Jay Beach, of Linkville, will trot Almonta against Stevenson's Sir Walter for $500 or $1,000, race to be mile heats, best three in five, over the Yreka track, or Bybee's track at Jacksonville. Race to be run any time between now and Christmas, under the rules of the National Trotting Association; $250 or $500 forfeit to be put up within the next 20 days.

WHAT HAVE THEY DONE.

Let us see what Independents have done for themselves in Douglas county. Prior to the beginning of Independent rule there certainly was a large county indebtedness. That county indebtedness has no longer the frightful proportions it evinced prior to the first Independent success in Douglas. In fact there is nothing now of the county debt. The first Independent dose was that of a skillful doctor, so far as the health of the patient was concerned. The disease was a mixed one—one embracing a mixture of dishonest Republicans and dishonest Democrats, and the Independent doctor prescribed a mixture of honest Republicans and honest Democrats as an antidote. In this case it has been proven that the remedy was better than the disease—in fact, cured the disease to that extent that it drove it entirely from the body politic, and made in opposition a champion so healthy that since then the disease has been afraid to put in a bold appearance. In other words, the county indebtedness—created through connivance of the ring, and divided in the way of profits pocketed by both seeming Democrats and Republicans—through Independent and mixed management has dwindled to nothing; interest-paying warrants are not to be found or are very few, and to-day county warrants are worth their face.

To be Independent then, the people people have wiped out a large county indebtedness. They have the satisfaction of knowing that none but honest men have held office. They know that this year they pay but 21 mills on the dollar in the shape of taxation; and they have the hope, based upon an almost absolute certainty, that their taxes next year will not go above 17 mills.

As an Independent expresses it, there is no doubt but that Independentism pays.

EDITORIAL DEADHEADING.

"Old Hill," of the Salinas (Cal.) Index, gets off the following in regard to editorial deadheading: "One of the beauties and charms of an editor's life is his deadheading it on all occasions. No one who has ever tasted of the sweets of that bliss can begin to take in its glory and its happiness. He does $100 for a railroad, and gets a 'pass' for a year, and rides $25 worth, and then he is looked upon as a deadhead, or a half-blown 'dead-beat.' He puffs' a theatre or a concert troup $10 worth and gets $1 in 'complimentaries.' If the hall is crowded he is begrudged the room he occupies—for if the complimentaries were paying tickets the troupe would be so much in pocket. He blows and puffs a church free to any desired extent, and does the poster printing at half-rates, and rarely gets a 'thank you' for it It goes in as a part of his duty as an editor. He does more work gratuitously for the town and community than all the rest of the population, and gets cursed for it all; but a man who donates a dollar for the Fourth of July, base ball club or church, is gratefully remembered. Oh, it is a sweet thing to be an editor. He passes, 'free,' you know."

The question now is with politicians, "Who will the Independents support in the next contest for county officers?" Well, our answer is: the best man; and before the time comes the best man's name will not be made public for the reason it will not be known. The Independents do not set up primaries, stock conventions or lay plans for any man's advancement. They, however, have the sense belonging to thinking men, and their purpose is, under all circumstances, to show a determined opposition to all dishonest and incapable office-seekers. And having the balance of power, the Independents will carry any election they desire to.

Another case of accidental shooting is reported by an exchange. The accident occurred last Friday. A young man named Fisher, working for Andrew Millard, a well-known resident of Cowlitz county, amused himself on the afternoon named by snapping caps on a shotgun, supposed to be empty, at Mrs. Millard and Miss Burt, a visitor, and frightened them. The ladies begged him to desist, but Fisher said he would snap one more and quit. The cap exploded the charge, which entered the heart of Mrs. Millard, killing her instantly.

The defeat of Robinson in New York is now considered in the East as having settled Tilden's chances for the Democratic nomination for the presidency of 1880, and Democratic journals are satisfied that Bayard, of Deleware, is the coming man. If Bayard is nominated for president, Hendricks will hardly have an opportunity to decline a second place on the ticket more than once. Bayard is the strongest man the Democrats have, and there will be found plenty of men who will gladly join Bayard in the race.

The editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean is very careless in his remarks. For instance, amiably refers to the editor of the Times, of that city, as "the hoary-headed old reprobate, whose life has been a war on purity and patriotism." The editors of the Standard and Oregonian, in their discussions, have never improved upon this, and they should at once subscribe for the Inter-Ocean that they may more effectively blackguard each other.

The New York Herald, a sort of adviser general to the whole American people, and a good share of the world besides, takes its pen in hand to say it "will go so far as to assure him that it does not believe that any third term Republicans wants or expects General Grant to assume the style and title of Emperor or King of the United States."

The business outlook over the country continues satisfactory and most promising. In nearly every New England manufacturing town the mills have been put in operation, and are working full force on full time. Employers and employes are prospering, and all are satisfied with the situation.

Our exchanges announce the indictment of John A. Carr for attempting to bribe a member of the Portland city council. Carr is not a man who would allow himself to be caught in a manner very easy, and it will be a matter of surprise to us if his conviction follows his indictment.

The warehouse of Gaston & Ferral, Albany, was destroyed by fire on the 12th inst. The total loss footed up to $36,000, and the fire was the most destructive ever known in the place.

WHEN YOU WILL DIE.

It is not every one who asks himself the question: "how long have I to live," because, strangely enough, it is the belief of most persons that their lives will be exceptionally lengthy: however, life assuarance companies are aware of the credulous weakness of those whose lives they assure, and have, therefore, compiled numerous tables of expectancy of life for their own guidance, which are carefully referred to before a policy is granted.

The following is one of these well authenticated tables in use among assurance companies, showing the average length of life at various ages of persons of average health, and in the second column we are enabled to peep, as it were, behind the scenes of an assurance office and gather from their table the number of years they will give us to live. This table has been the result of careful calculation, and seldom proves misleading. Of course sudden and premature deaths, says the N. Y. Mercury, as well as lives unusually extended, occasionally occur; but this is a table of the average expectancy of life of an ordinary man or woman:

Age.	Years to live.	Age.	Years to live.
1	50	50	21
10	51	60	14
20	41	70	9
30	34	80	4
40	28

Our readers will easily gather from the above tabulated statement the number of years to which their lives, according to the law of averages, may reasonably be expected to extend.

SOUTHERN OREGON MINES.

Reports received from all parts of Southern Oregon are favorable to a prosperous mining season. From every point we hear that heavy snow storms have visited the mountains surrounding the different camps; and that they came just in the "nick o' time," when the earth was charged with water from heavy rains. Snow of itself, without the earth has been before thoroughly watered, amounts to but little; but snow following a heavy rain storm and several nights of heavy frosts insures about three times as surface flow of water and is three times longer in duration. There have been heavy rain storms in the mountains, heavy snow storms, every flake from which has only made the white covering deeper and more solid. It is the opinion of the miners that the season's run—begining earlier than usual—will extend three months beyond the time occupied in making the last year's runs, and that the yield of the precious metal for 1880 will exceed that of any year dating back a period of eight years.

The dead body of James McKillup was found on the 8th inst., on the farm of Mr. E. F. Lamson, near Williamina, in Yamhill county, partially buried beneath a huge pile of rails, and horribly crushed and maugled. He had been missing since about the 20th of October. In driving down a hillside with a heavy load of rails, his wagon was upset and he being caught beneath it and its heavy load is supposed to have been instantly killed. The wagon still remained, and attached to it was one of the horses, the other having escaped.

The official count has given the New York election to the Republicans. They have elected every one of their candidates for State officers with the exception of the candidate for State Enquirer, and have a large majority in both branches of the Legislature.

A woman who was called as a witness in an assault case tried in the Edinburgh police court recently, on being asked by the magistrate what was the profession of her husband answered promptly: "My husband is a bankrupt, sir."

Rev. Wm. McKay, after reading several notices from his pulpit in the Methodist church at Genoa, Ind., said there was another matter to which he desired to inform his congregation. His wife had eloped with Mr. Hatton—a neighbor.

A white man in Maryland shot at a negro with murderous intent, but instead of killing him killed his grandchild. The republican papers declared this to be another democratic outrage until the discovery was made that the white man was a republican.

During the past six months the Chinese have emigrated into the Sandwich Island in such large numbers as to create considerable alarm in the little kingdom. Nearly 2,500 of the Celestials have landed at Honolulu in the above period.

Senator Grover has announced to the Albany Democrat that he will retire to private life at the expiration of his senatorial term of office. We have heard before the story "why Jack lost his supper."

ANOTHER TRIUMPH FOR THE WEBB-OT STATE!
No MORE KIDNEY TROUBLES
NO MORE BACK ACHES!
Oregon has long been noted for the wonderful variety of her natural resources. Her hills and vallies are stored with the choicest of Nature's lavish gifts. One by one these elements of her greatness are being sought out, understood and adapted to the use of her people. The latest of these discoveries is
THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA,
A plant which grows in the mountain fastnesses which are seldom trodden by the foot of man. This remedy presents the leaf in its natural state, and is not one of those nauseous liquids, put to sell, and which too often cover noxious and deleterious drugs, but is kind nature's own remedy her "last, best gift to man." The tea made by steeping this leaf is a CERTAIN AND SPEEDY CURE FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND URINARY ORGANS.
The leaf is put up in air-tight tin caddies which preserve intact its peculiar medical properties and the decoction is made by the person using it, thus securing its absolute purity.
There are thousands afflicted with diseases of the kidneys or urinary organs who suffer in silence rather than make known their troubles. Others seek relief by the use of various patent medicines which, if they do not aggravate the disease, at least do not lessen it. Even those who secure the advice of physicians often fail to get relief, owing to the very complicated and delicate nature of the organs affected The OREGON KIDNEY TEA is a strictly vegetable production and will not injure the smallest child, nor the most delicate woman, but will cure Pain in the back and Kidneys, Non-retention of Urine, Leucorrhœa, Diabetes, Inflammation of the Bladder or Kidneys, Brick Dust Deposit in Urine, Painful or Suppressed Menstruation, and all complaints arising from a diseased or debilitated state of the kidneys or urinary organs of either sex.
Many mistake the pains arising from defective action of the Kidneys for RHEUMATISM, and in attempting to cure the latter by outward applications, fail entirely to reach the seat of the disease. We do not offer the OREGON KIDNEY TEA as a specific for Rheumatism, but are satisfied that many cases of so-called RHEUMATISM would yield to its remedial virtues.
