BRIEF MENTION

New sheet music just received at Hamilton's.

John Chapman's son is reported seriously ill.

Treasurer Wright is once more to his post of duty.

There are four of the members of Uncle John Jones' family ill.

Philallathean entertainment at the court house next Tuesday evening.

Harry Kearns had better write to his sister. She wants to know where he is.

Prof. Heard, of Oakland, was in the city last Saturday. He made a flying trip.

Only one prisoner in the city jail, and he commences work upon the streets to-morrow.

The present rain has caused a melting of snow in the mountains, and high water is looked for to-night.

Mr. Jacob Ledgerwood, the other day, while lifting, severely injured himself. The strain caused hernia.

The Old Folks ball was a decided success. The supper given at R. Cameron's restaurant is mentioned as being extremely fine and enjoyed by all.

Attention is called to advertisement of the Chicago Ledger, which appears in another column. Send direct or apply to the postmaster for this popular family paper.

There will be no public installation of the officers of Union encampment as heretofore announced. A dispensation from the Grand Encampment could not be procured.

Notwithstanding the rough weather J. L. Clough & Co. continue to forward the mail from this place regularly to Coos Bay. The mail has to be carried on the backs of men eight miles over the mountain.

Later news from Latham is to the effect that most of the logs from Comstock's boom have lodged about a mile below the mill, and without the bar against which the logs are jammed gives way, most of them will be saved.

News brought in by the mail carrier is to the effect that the Coquille river is higher than it was during the last flood, and that nine families living on the river have been compelled to move temporarily to Laird's station to get out of the way of the rising waters.

The Mercury of December 26th opened a warm and rapid fire directed toward the present Judges of the Supreme court. The facts upon which the Mercury's articles are based have appeared already in the columns of this paper, and we heartily endorse the stand that paper has taken.

Waste of Money.

There is to be found hanging upon the walls of the different business houses of the city what purports to be a business chart of Southern Oregon. The chart is not noticed by one person in five hundred, and yet this same chart cost our business men in the way of amounts paid for advertising their cards therein about $600. The printing of the chart was an expense to the publisher—counting traveling expenses, etc.—not more than $150, and his profits were at least $450. Had the business men of Southern Oregon given this $600 to their local newspapers for advertising they would certainly have given publicly to their business, and got their advertisements in print in a way that they would have been seen; besides, they would have helped the newspapers which are always helping them.

Officers Elected.

At the last regular meeting of Roseburg Lodge No. 16, A. O. U. W., the following officers were elected for the the term commencing January 1st, 1880, and ending June 1st, 1880: P. Benedict, Overseer; E. G Hursh, Recorder; T. S. Roadman, Financier; H. Gates Receiver; Geo. W. Jones, Guide; E. M. Moore, Inside Watchman; Homer K. Castle, Outside Watchman; J. W. Strange, Past Master Workman; Trustee, Geo. W. Jones, H. Gates and Dr. J. M. Browne. We are pleased to see that this order is now among the fixed institutions of this country. It is a life insurance organization conducted upon the cheapest possible plans, and so arranged that such a thing as swindling is impossible. Each member leaves at death, a policy of $2,000, payable to any person whom he may select, and the expense of membership is about ... year, therefore this is a cheap in-...

POASTAL REGULATIONS.

A postal regulation has been in force now for two months, which is not well known among business men, or it would be more generally availed. We refer to the fact that statements, bills, etc., can now be mailed in an unsealed envelope with a cent stamp. Thus the monthly statements which are made out by wholesale and retail dealers each month, can be mailed for one cent, but no writing other than the legitimate bill can be placed on the statement. No such words a "please remit" can be, neither can a bill receipted be sent. If it is necessary to have the words "please remit" on the statement or bill they can be printed as part of the heading. Publishers of newspapers have the right to enclose bills for subscriptions in their papers, and also receipted bills for the same; but not to write the word, "please remit," which, however may be printed on the bill without infringing the law.

Christmas Tree at Civil Bend.

From Mr. I. C. Kent we learn that there were jolly times at Civil Bend school house Christmas Eve. There was a Christmas tree and Uncle Johnny Quinn played the part of Santa Claus to the merriment of all. The tree was finely decorated with wax tapers and loaded with presents, and nobody was forgotten. After the distribution of gifts all present voted to surprise Mr. Jas. Develin, to whose house they repaired. Mr. Develin did not look for anything of the kind, but invited old and young to take possession of his residence. The party did so, and dancing was kept up long after the hour when all wish each other a merry, merry Christmas.

Death of Father Gillam.

Mr. Corbin Gillam, generally known throughout the county as Father Gillam—a devout man and a highly respected gentleman—departed this life at the residence of Mr. Jos. McKinny, Wednesday last. The deceased was aged 83 years last August. He was the father of Messrs. T. J. Gillam, Wm. Gillam, David Gillam, and also the father of Mrs. John C. Aiken, of this city. He was grandfather to Messrs. John C. Aiken, Jos. S. Aiken, Edger Aiken, Corbin Grubbe and Nolan Grubbe. His burial took place the day after Christmas; and let it be said of the deceased that a good, pious man has departed from earth to take up a home in heaven.

Czar of Rusia.

We now congratulate the Czar of Russia upon a narrow escape from an attempt on his life. In starting for Moscow, his baggage was sent on ahead, he, starting soon after passed it and reached Moscow safely, while the baggage was blown up. A tunnel was found running to a house one hundred and fifty feet from the point where the explosion occurred. It is supposed the author of this hellish plot was suffering from a diseased mind superinduced by severe pain in the back and kidneys. To prevent a repetition of like occurrences, it is said the Czar has sent to Hodge, Davis & Co., Portland, Oregon, for a large shipment of the OREGON KIDNEY TEA

Narrow Escape.

On Christmas eve Mr. and Mrs. Compton attended the ball of the Social Club. They left a fire in the parlor stove. On their return to their home on Christmas morning at 3 o'clock, they discovered the floor on fire and a hole burnt through the same two or three feet square. Had they come back an hour later the building would not escaped destruction and so closely is it connected with other buildings, the greater portion of Roseburg would have been burned. A spark from the stove probably caused the fire.

Philallathean Programme.

The committee of arrangement for the Philallathean society has reported the following programme for next Tuesday evening, January 6th: Music; opening address, W. F. Benjamin; discussion—"Resolved, That capital punishment should be abolished in the United States"—affirmative, L. H. Wells, negative, C. L. Mosher; music; declamation, H. H. Hendricks; music. We understand that it is intended to have the meetings each week.

Camas Valley.

From Mr. J. Thrush, of Camas valley, we learn that when he left home there were yet four inches of snow on the ground. Many farmers had exhausted their feed and cattle were in some instances bordering upon starvation. He reports in addition that Mr. Wm. Day has sold his interest in the saw mill to the Stanley Bros., and that Mrs. Gates (Hugh Barrs' sister) is no better. Mrs Gates is afflicted with dropsy, and her lower limbs are reported to be swollen to the size of an ordinary man's body.

Annual Meeting.

The Annual meeting of the Douglas County Bible Society will be held in the Presbyterian Church of this City at 7 o'clock, Sunday evening Jan. 4th 1880. At this time will occur the election of officers for the ensuing year, reports by the various officers for the past year, addresses by Rev. P. C. Hetzler, Rev. J. R. N. Bell and Revs J. Howard, and such other business as may come before the meeting. Good music will be furnished. An interesting time is expected and everybody is invited to attend.

Good Trade.

Mr. R. Flournoy, during the cold snap, and when general bad weather was prophesied for some time to come, purchased 48 head of cattle from Mr. Henry Waters, paying $5 per head for the same. The weather has turned out fine, and Mr. F. has as the result of his trade, 17 milch cows worth at least $20 each, and 31 head of heifers and steers, which he will now safely carry through the winter.

Grange Officers Elected.

Last Saturday, at a regular meeting of Umpqua Grange No. 28, the following officers were elected: G. W. Jones, M.; J. T. Cooper, O.; Thos. Smith, L.; H. Jones, S.; W. F. Owens, A. S.; P. Peters, C.; H. Coon, T.; J. P. Duncan, Sec'y; Jas. Jones, G. K.; Sister H. Cooper, Ceres; Sister Buick, Pomona; Lucy Duncan Flora; Sister Emory, S. A. S. The majority of the officers of the Grange are re-elected, especially our friend Mr. J. P. Cooper, to whom we are indebted for many favors.

Put Under Bonds.

On examination before Judge Hursh W. C. Evants was placed under bonds of $250 to await the action of the next Grand Jury, upon the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. James Adams and A. G. Downing became bondsmen for the accused's appearance, and the defendant was released from the custody of the sheriff.

School Books Found.

A parcel of school books have been left at Caro Bros.' store. The owner can have the same by proving property, and paying for the advertisement.

Private Installation.

Umpqua Chapter No. 21, will privately install its officers on the evening of the first Tuesday in January.

L. Belfils will be found at his old stand, ready to wait upon all old and new customers. Louis knows how to treat all who patronize him with due courtesy. His prices are seasonable.

HUBBARD CREEK.

We have an abundance of snow on the ground.

Samuel Hubbard has a new warehouse.

Most all on Hubbard creek passed Christmas at home.

Mrs. R. L. Stephens, who has been ailing with consumption for some time is gradually sinking.

Dr. G. B. Davidson will commence work on his shingle mill next week, and will have it in operation soon.

John Woodruff has leased the farm of W. E. Jordan, and will move to Hubbard creek shortly. Mr. Woodruff is a man of energy and enterprise and we welcome him to our midst.

E. Stephens & Co. are having a fine lot of logs cut for their mill, and parties desirous of purchasing lumber for fencing or fine finishing lumber for building purposes, can get it there to suit both as to quality, quantity and price.

We learn through a friend that the notorious "Apwer" at the Calapooia Christmas tree received the gold ring for being the ugliest man in the county. He doubless now has matrimonial intentions; but we would advise him to go to Woodward's garden and be placed on exhibition.

One of Coles valley's young gentlemen, whose name we refrain from mentioning, started down to Hubbard creek Christmas Eve after his previously engaged dulcina, and succeeded in getting within about a mile of his destiny when his horses broke through the ice. One horse fell pulling the other down on him, which resulted in crippling one horse and ruining the harness, leaving the hack to await a thaw. The young man returned to Umpqua Ferry sadly and alone.

RICE HILL.

Butchering all the go.

Weather cold and business dull.

F. Thiele caught a young Santa Claus in the fishpond.

The fishpond was more than twice as large this year than it was last.

Au[...] Mary Rice got a fine set of furs on the Christmas tree.

The Christmas tree and fishpond were a success, attendance large and everybody appeared to enjoy themselves.

Mrs. Alice Parker, wife of P. C. Parker, Jr., started home from Albert Parker's yesterday morning, in company with one of her children, she attempted a near cut home and got lost. But fortunately found about 2 o'clock of the same day. The farthe[r]est way around is the nearest way to the fire.

UMPQUA FERRY.

Indications of a storm.

There was a raffle for a gun here on the 30th ult.

The ball on Christmas Eve was a complete success, and every one who attended pronounces it the best they ever participated in. There were 29 numbers sold.

We understand "Apwer" carried away the prize as the ugliest man on the Calapoola, decided by a vote at the Christmas tree. We congratulate him on his bad looks. So mote it be.

The Dog is Dead.

The East Portland Vindicater brings the sad intelligence of the death of Thomas C. Raffety at that place on December 16th. Thos. C. Raffety was one of the largest stub-tailed dogs we ever met with. For years he he had been met with at the drugstore of Raffety Bros., East Portland, and was known by at least a thousand people in the State. Thomas C. was the father of many barkers, but no son or daughter of his ever equalled the father in worth or general notoriety. Mallory Raffety was Thomas' owner. To him we say, old man, we sympathise with you in your great bereavement.

Annual Statement

The following is the annual statement of the common school fund for Douglas county, which has been kindly furnished us by county treasurer, W. T. Wright, up to January 1, 1880: Value of notes on hand, $36,-676.64; cash on hand—principal, $10-40; interest $1,252.44. The school fund is now in better condition than ever before. Most of the interest on the money loaned has been collected up, and, in many instances, interest on amounts borrowed of the fund has been paid six or seven months in advance. There are but three persons, if we mistake not, who are behind in their payments.

Letter List

Following is the list of letters remaining in the Roseburg postoffice: Geo W Alderson, Johnny Burge, Frank Comastm, John M Cog, Henry A Clarke, Aaron Hysert, Dr Dunbar, Richard Freeborn 2, Joseph Fitzell 2, Miss Carrie Fergusson, Eugene Garly 4, Robert C Haskell, J O Kern, Miss Jennie Kyer, John Kallahan, John Levins, Daniel Lenox, John Miller 3, Wm Clayton, Mc Fadden, J M McDaniel, Mrs R M Manning, Mrs Mattie Matthews, Mrs Martha Pierce, Mr Jay Shepard 4, E M Smith, J H Tomlinson, Tom Whister, August Walters.

Rumor of Poisoning.

It was rumored on the streets last evening that Uncle John Jones and two of his family had been taken seriously and suddenly ill, and that the symptoms of their complaints were those of persons who have taken poison. We were unable to trace the rumorto any reliable source, and can only hope that the rumor is unfounded, so far as the poisoning part of the story is concerned. There can be no doubt as to the illness of the family.

Serious Loss.

A private dispatch received in this city states that the boom holding the logs at Mr. J. J. Comstocks' mill near Latham has broke and the logs contained therein have been swept down the coast fork of the Willamette river. The logs and the boom are a total loss.

Following are the transactions of the Roseburg land office for December: 202 acres sold for cash; 19 homestead entries, embracing 2,936 acres; 11 final homestead entries, embracing 1,668 acres; 13 preemption filings; 4 donation certificates issued.

Preaching by Rev. J. R. N. Bell, Sunday, January 4th, 1880, in the Southern Methodist church. All invited to attend.

Silverware, including napkin rings, vases, etc., are to be had by calling at the jewelry store of Jaskulek, opposite the postoffice. Come early or the stock will be exhausted.

A LIVELY COMPETITION.

CANYONVILLE, Ogn., Dec. 30, 1879.

EDITOR DOUGLAS INDEPENDENT:—I see the "competition" has not received "encouragement" enough to repair the canyon road; yet it must have more encouragement soon, or the road will be impassable. Now, the court should know that the amicus curiae that stood in the right position to receive the benefits of this "competition" and take the road, requires a large amount of encouragement. It is a long, hungry subject—one end in Canyonville and the other in Roseburg, (I do not know which end—the head or tail—is here, but the disbursing pocket is in Roseburg and the receiving pocket is here) and must have more encouragement. Some of the people here are not in favor of giving this "competition" any more encouragement. They say there is no competition, the first company being enjoined from collecting toll the present company has no opposition, and they say it is no benefit to the public; for the rates of toll allowed the first company was only sixty cents for a wagon and one horse, and eighty cents for a wagon and two horses, and the present company, or the "competition," are allowed eighty-eight cents for a wagon and one horse, and ninety-six cents for a wagon and two horses. Well, I do not see myself how this encourages competition or benefits the public; but I am a friend of the court and know it does do it, or the court would not have said it did. And I know it was right to take the road from the other company that built it, and give it to the amicus curiae, or the court would not have done it; for I am a friend of the court, and these grumblers will soon learn that they will gain nothing by abusing this court. But this conyon road is a small matter compared with what I wish to have done to encourage competition, and when I have unfolded my plans you will readily see the immense benefit it will be to the public, and what a lively competition it will make. It is simply this: The railroad between Roseburg and Portland, as now conducted, is a monopoly. Now to encourage competition and break down this monopoly, "for the public good, rather than private gain" I wish the court to take that railroad from the present owners and give it to me. I am the amicus curae that will stand in the right position to receive the encouragement to this competition. And if I get the road all the courts and attorneys, all newspaper men, stage men, hotel and saloon keepers shall have "free passes" over the road, and everybody else, without regard to nativity, color, or previous condition of servitude shall travel for half-fare (not merely high days and holidays, but all the time,) and all freights shall be carried at half-price. Now all that is necessary to insure success in this enterprise, is for the parties to be benefitted by it, the parties to have "passes," half-fare and half-price freight, to "stand in" with me and the court, (I am a friend of the court) in this matter, and we are bound to succeed. I tell you, Mr. Editor, this is a grand enterprise and no chance for a failure, for the court will undoubtedly follow its decision in the Canyon road case and "everybody" being interested with me, I should like to know where any opposition is to come from. Just "stand in" everybody and I will get this railroad sure. Then "come out of the house, Mc Cartney," and we will all take a ride at the expense of

PICK-HANDLE DICK.

P. S.—Do not forget that I am a friend of the court.

JACKSON COUNTY.

From the Jacksonville Sentinel, one of our best exchanges, we take the following interesting items of news:

Dr. J. A. Callender arrived here from Roseburg last Monday and is the guest of John Miller, his father-in-law.

Died in Ashland, December 14th, 1879, Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, relict of Isaac Hill, aged 73 years, 3 months and 3 days.

We saw last week a lucious looking orange weighing ten and a half ounces that had just ripened on the tree of our fellow townsman, Peter Britt.

A circular from the heaviest wool dealers in New York, informs us that Oregon wool rates are higher in that market than any on this coast or in Texas.

It is the opinion of one of our most thorough "sheep men" that if the present weather continues two weeks longer, Jackson county will be $50,-000 loser in sheep alone.

On the first of the storm, Mr. Marks of Ashland, who has a large number of Angora goats on little Applegate, lost ten of the flock by freezing and on the next day in cutting down a tree for them to browse one he killed thirteen more.

Advices from Lake county indicate that the prospects for stock are very gloomy. On the 23d there was ten inches of snow at Linkville and the mercury had fallen to 10 degrees below zero. Many large bands of cattle are scattered on the range where they must shift for themselves.

It is with regret that we note the loss of the schooner May D. Pomeroy, which sailed from Crescent City for San Francisco on Dec. 14th. She is supposed to have capsized near Point Reyes having been found bottom up off the Point. All hands have perished besides twelve passengers, among whom was David Pomeroy, of the firm of Hobbs, Pomeroy & Co. of San Francisco.

R. M. Garret brought into the Sentinel office on Saturday a handsome nugget of gold mixed with quartz, about the size of a small hen's egg and worth $106. The "specimen" was taken out of the claim of John Meldrum on the Carberry Fork of Applegate, and on the same day Meldrum took out twelve ounces besides of smaller pieces, varying from fifty cents to twenty dollars, the result of only a week's ground sluicing.

Jaskulek can supply you with rings, watches, clocks and jewelry.

Since vitalty or nervous strength is engendered most speedily by the use of Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites, it is the remedy calculated not only to mitigate the violence of wasting diseases, and induce a rapid recovery, but also to protect such as use it from being attacked by epidemic maladies.

The CHICAGO LEDGER, a literary and family paper, can be had by sending to Chicago, Illinois. Price, $2 00 per year. The Ledger is published weekly and has eight pages, and the tone of its stories and other matter is pure and moral, and well adapted for the family.

The Great Benefits

Conferred upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation which AYER'S SARSAPARILLA enjoys. It is a compound of the best vegetable alternatives, with the Iodides of Potassium and iron, and is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial or blood disorders. Uniformly successful and certain in its remedial effects, it produces rapid and complete cures of Scrofula, Sores, Boils, Humors, Pimples, Eruption, Skin Diseases and all disorders arising from impurity of the blood. By its invigorating effects it always relieves and often cures Liver Complaint, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, and is a potent renewer of vitality. For purifying the blood it has no equal. It tones up the system, restores and preserves the health, and imparts vigor and energy. For forty years it has been in extensive use, and is to-day the most available medicine for the suffering sick anywhere. For sale by all dealers. Hodge, Davis & Co. Portland, wholesale agents.
