KELLY, THE FRAUD.

All know the history of Judge Kelly, the democratic candidate, who denies he had knowledge of the dispatch sent in cipher to New York to bribe an Oregon elector, even though he added this to the dispatch asking for means to commit bribery: "I fully endorse this, James K. Kelly." There is something more for the people of Oregon to understand before they can appreciate the entire truth as to Judge Kelly's honesty, his freeness from wrong, and his boasted claim of incorruptibility. To have convicted Judge Kelly of an attempt at bribery, it was necessary to show that he did not know the contents of the dispatch which he "endorsed," and to prove that he knew that the State was republican before the dispatch was sent. The congressional committee did all within its power to arrive at the truth; it went that far to establish in the minds of all that Kelly was guilty, yet because it could not find corroborative evidence to establish Kelly's knowledge of the contents of the cypher dispatch, it permitted Kelly to escape impeachment. In this matter we will play the part of an independent political Darwin, and supply the needed "missing link" for the public's enlightenment.

In the first place, Kelly did not do all his work in the telegraphing line at prominent telegraphic offices. He was just then given to a mania for making discoveries of telegraphic offices in the country, consequently when the congressional committee made a demand upon certain leading telegraphic depots, it never thought of reaching the country offices. But we have been there. We have found that in the start Kelly was timid in his work in the bribery business. He went down on the train with J. H. N. Patrick, Tilden's agent, and at Albany he telegraphed the following dispatch:

ALBANY, Nov. 11, 1876.

To HON. WM M. GWYNN, New York: Oregon gave a republican majority of about one thousand.
(Signed.) JAS. K. KELLY.

Gwynn's answer to this was as follows:

NEW YORK, Nov. 11, 1876.

To JAS. K. KELLY: I have supposed I had reason to rely upon your State. I have private advices efforts being made to count us out. Spare no exertions or expense in looking after the State. I will be responsible and rely upon you. Answer at what hour you receive this to me at New York Hotel. (Signed) WM. M. GWYNN.

In the meantime came other dispatches as reported in the Congressional Record, and Kelly and Patrick sent on a dispatch asking money to buy an Oregon elector. On November 27th Kelly traveled all the way to Gervais to there secure the following answer to his request for money for bribery. Kelly went in person, and the following dispatch was given him, after receiving which he at once returned to Portland, in company with Patrick, who went to Gervais with him:

NEW YORK, Nov. 27, 1876.

To J. N. H. PATRICK, IN CARE JAS. K. KELLY, Gervais, Or.: Secure your point at all hazards. Communicate with me immediately, giving prospects. (Signed) DAVIS.

Could there be any thing more convincing? Those who may doubt the genuineness of the dispatches need only call on us. The originals are yet to be seen. We publish them a week before the election so that the opposition may deny them and that we can prove the dispatches are genuine. And we would ask the people of Oregon to consider two things irrespective of party in connection with this judicial election. The office of supreme judge is not a political office; and as it is the highest tribunal in the State, certainly no one who would secure party advantage through bribery should be judge. Certainly it is not politics or political considerations which should actuate and guide us in this matter. We should think that the judge should be above reproach, and unless he is, in defense of our lives and our property, we should vote for his defeat. We defy a contradiction as to the dispatches we this week publish.

AS RELIABLE AS USUAL.

The Plaindealer of last week attempted to give some figures concerning T. R. Sheridan's work as county clerk. The Plaindealer's article was in every way incorrect, and its statements calculated to do injustice to an honest, capable and economical county official. This paper has always claimed for Mr. T. R. Sheridan that the county never had a better clerk, and here we give the figures in proof as they appear on the county records. It will be remembered that the Plaindealer referred to Mr. L. L. Williams' work, and we compare Mr. Sheridan's work for two years with that gentleman's, as follows:

L. L. WILLIAMS.

As co. and circuit court clerk from July 1876 to July 1877	$2,361 21
From July 1877 to July 1878	3 321 91
Total	5,683 12

T. R. SHERIDAN.

As co. and circuit court clerk from July 1878 to July 1879	$2,142 75
From July 1879 to July 1880	2,450 20
Total	4,592 95

The above figures show the amount of fees received by Mr. Williams and Mr. Sheridan during their respective terms of office, and by a glance at them it will be readily seen that Mr. Sheridan will have received at the end of his term just $1,090 19 less than did Mr. Williams. There can be no doubt as to the correctness of these figures. Mr. Sheridan's fees as clerk for the late term of the circuit court have been counted up, and he has made an estimate of the fees he will receive until July fully equalling that of the last quarter last year.

As to Mr. Sheridan ever attempting a wrong while in office is something no one ever believed, and as the editor of the Plaindealer knows, he was shown the truth and could have obtained the same figures we now publish had he not evidently intended to do Mr. Sheridan injustice.

But it is well enough since the Plaindealer can do Mr. Sheridan no harm. He is the choice of the people of this county by a large majority, and he will be re-elected as certain as election day comes about and he lives to see it. He has done his duty by the people, and they will vote for him—not because he is a democrat, or an independent, but for the reason that for the last two years he has worked faithfully and honestly and made the best county clerk the county ever had.

WHO ARE THE TAXPAYERS.

It has been asserted in different parts of the county that A. Riddle and J. M. Dillard, candidates for the offices of county commissioners, are not only farmers, but the heaviest taxpayers It, moreover, seems to be the purpose of the ring not only to say all that is possible in this direction, but to make it appear that Messrs. Cook and Applegate are not farmers or taxpayers. The charge that Messrs. Applegate and Cook are not farmers is answered by the statement that all they possess in the way of property has been made by farming, and by that alone; and the records show they must be successful farmers. The tax list in the hands of the sheriff show that the various candidates for county commissioners pay property tax as follows:

Perry Cook	$20 16
R. S. Applegate	57 13
A. Riddle	1 16
J. M. Dillard	Nothing

With the above showing it is to be wondered at that the opposition to Cook and Applegate would make the statements above referred to. It is not to be wondered at, however, that the independents throughout the county are giving Messrs. Cook and Applegate a hearty support They look at it in the way that the men who are taxpayers themselves will have a personal interest in keeping down the rate of taxation.

RUNNING AHEAD.

Reports received from different parts of the State are to the effect that M. C. George is leading in the race for Congress, and we cannot but think his majority in the State will be at least 2,000 over Whiteaker. M. C. George is a man of ability. His reputation in private life is that of a strictly honorable man. In "Old Linn," the democratic stronghold in Oregon, where Mr. George grew to manhood, it is thought he will run Whiteaker a very close race, a fact in argument for his hearty support elsewhere. Whiteaker, on the other hand has not attempted a defense of the bribe he received in the lock and dam swindle. His friends have not tried to offer an excuse for his action with this regard. When this is no longer doubted and it is remembered that Whiteaker never secured the passage of a bill of his own through the State legislature or during the time he has been in congress through that body, no one in the State who has the welfare of Oregon at heart can but earnestly hope for Mr. George's success.

FROM MR. HINKLE.

The following letter from Mr. Robert Hinkle explains itself:

ROSEBURG, May 22, 1880.

ED. INDEPENDENT: The article in the Star stating that the money lost by the running away of the mule in charge of Marks Abraham was found in my house is a deliberate and intentional falsehood. Not one cent of the money was ever found in my house, and the fellow who wrote the article knew this when he wrote it. The editor of the Western Star knows that I am telling the truth, and if he were a man of honor he would never written what he did. Respectfully.

ROBERT HINKLE.

The cut-throats of Salonica who made a fortune out of the capture of Colonel Synge, the British officer, are now getting their deserts. Fifty brigands were killed recently, and the remainder of the band captured.

A dispatch states that the American newspaper representative offered Bismark $130,000 a year for one weekly article from his pen, and that the offer was declined. Great is the science of advertising.

THAT MULE AND THE TRUTH.

Were it not that it is a duty with us to show the public the truth, we would never refer to the running away of, as stated by the Star, "Sol Abraham's mule." In the first place the mule question amounts to nothing, since by the running away of the the mule, and loss of the gold dust—weighed in this city by responsible parties who aided in packing the same on the mule's back, injured no one but Sol Abraham, and all his creditors were paid the full amount o their bills, and Sol. Abraham is today so far responsible financially to say if he owes a dollar he will pay the same on the presentation of the bill. But the point is, the Star has brought this mule question into politics, and it seeks to answer all charges against Prim and Kelly by refering to the mule in question, and by stating that the mule ran away from Sol Abraham, an assertion in direct contradiction with the truth, and unmindful of the maxim: "Let truth prevail though the heavens fall"—a good motoe for any one, not excepting the editor of the Star. The truth is: THE MULE NEVER RAN AWAY FROM SOL ABRAHAM! The following letter is from a life-long democrat, and one whom every one in the county is well acquainted with:

ROSEBURG, May 22, 1880.

ED. INDEPENDENT: I have been asked the question—who did own the mule that run away as often charged to Sol. Abraham? I here say that Marks Abraham had the mule in charge on the Calapooia mountains, and Sol. Abraham was in Roseburg at the time. J. M ARRINGTON.

In addition to the above E. M. Moore will testify that Sol Aoraham hired of him a horse to ride to the scene of the accident when the news of the runaway was brought to this place, and such gentlemen as J. C. Flood, W. F. Owens, Dr. Hamilton, and others, if questioned, will corroborate Mr. Arrington's statement.

We would have stated the facts before but we had a curiosity to see how far the Western Star would go in its misstatements concerning "that mule," and a desire that the people of this county might learn what an unreliable and unscrupulous newspaper it is.

THE RIGHT MAN.

A letter received from Mr. L. D. Montgomery, one of the independent candidates for the legislature, contains he following paragrah, which we consider worthy of space in these columns:

Thanking you for the kind notice you have given me as a candidate for the office of representative, I desire to say, if elected, I shall to the best of my ability, faithfully and impartially represent the people of Douglas county in the State legislature. I am a republican, and have been since the organization of the party in 1856. I regard the duties of a legislator to be to prevent profligacy and extravagance, husband resources, encourage and project improvements and the development of natural resources, protecting the weak against the encroachment of the strong, and promote the welfare of all.

Mr. Montgomery would not have been endorsed by the independents had they not thought him to be an upright, honest and capable gentleman, and that he will be elected no one doubts.

HON. JOHN C. DRAIN.

This gentleman is gaining in popularity as election approaches. We are confident that the Independent Central Committee took up the right man in the person of Mr. Drain, and if he is not elected, we will sadly miss our guess.

NEW TO-DAY.

PLUMMER
FRUIT DRYER.

TO ALL FARMERS!

Preserve Your Fruit and Pay Off Your Mortgages.

Read the following testimonials from some of the best citizens of Douglas county who speak from experience only:

DEER CREEK, May 7, 1880.

This is to certify that we have a Plummer Fruit Dryer. During last season we dried nearly all kinds of fruit. It will do all that is recommended and more. Our apples brought nine cents per pound early in the season and are worth thirteen cents at this date. We do not believe it can be excelled by any other dryer in the State.
MRS. S. ADAMS.

WILBUR, May 4, 1880.

I used a Plummer Fruit Dryer bought of Grubbe & Co. last year and dried nearly 10,000 pounds of apples, for which I realized ten cents per pound. It did better work than was promised and I made more money than I could from any other business. I only run the machine two months.
J. FRAZER.

Harvy Jones says: I have a Plummer Fruit Dryer, and it has done all recommended it would do; and turns out the handsomest fruit I ever saw. I shall run it this year to its full extent.

Wm. Boon, of Calapooia, says: I hired a machine for $100 and dried on shares and made more than I could farming.

Mr. Tipton, of Mt. Scott, says the Plummer machine is the first I ever saw and it will do that is recommended and more.

SUGAR PINE MILLS!

The undersigned would announce to the public that they have full lines of the best sugar pine, cedar and other lumber—dry or green—ever manufactured in the county and at rates less than can be purchased elsewhere. FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.
The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.
The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.
The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Lose of Voice Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epilepti. Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.
