SOUTHERN OREGON NOTES.

There is a five-cent beer saloon in town.

The thermometer stood at 90 in the shade on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Capt. Travers and lady and a son of Sargent were in the city during the week.

What is the use to pay a "bit" for a glass of beer when you can buy it of Hendrick for five cents?

Whole and half croquet sets, base ball bats, all kinds base balls, etc, just received at S. Hamilton's.

The Seaside Library in stock at Dr. Hamilton's. It contains all the popular novels at prices from 15 to 25 cts

The wife of Mr. James Byron is reported dying. Father Heinrich has gone to administer the last sad rites of the Church to the dying lady.

Five wagons containing 15 persons from Jackson county passed through town on Thursday. The families will settle near Oakland, in this county.

Sheridan Bros. have just received from the East a stock of the "Brighton" stoves—the best stoves ever offered for sale in this market. Go and see them.

Castor oil, lard oil, China nut oil, fish oil, coal oil, sperm oil and other lubricating oils for sale at bed rock prices in quantities to suit, at Dr. Hamilton's.

There will be a grand dance given at Looking Glass on the evening of the 5th. During the day the Looking Glass base ball club will play against any club appearing to oppose them.

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the State fair which commences at Salem on the 1st of July and ends on the 8th. Fare on the railroad to Salem and return $6.25, during fair week.

We had the pleasure this week of meeting with Mr. F. Schetter, brother of Mr. F. Schetter, of Coos Bay. Mr. Schetter has left for Empire City to visit his brother whom he has not seen for 29 years.

The people on the Coquille are fleeing to the mountains, there intending to remain several weeks. The cause of the exodus is that dread disease diphtheria. Twenty deaths have occurred on the river within a month.

We have received a letter from P. Larout announcing the arrival of that gentleman at his home in Lowell, Mass., on the 7th of the present month. The letter was dated on the 12th inst., and states that Mr. Larout proposes to soon return to Oregon.

Last Friday evening the ladies of Looking Glass gave a leap year ball and invited the gentlemen. There were thirty or more couples in attendance, and all who were there join in the statement that the party was in every way a grand success.

Mr. Lee Rodenberg has sold his interest in the Steam Beer mines to Messrs. Rast, Critezer and Fullerton for the sum of $2,000. Mr. Critezer and family will move to the mines in about a month, and there take up permanent residence.

Woodville Barker and family left last Sunday for White Bluffs, W. T. in the neighborhood of which point he will permanently settle. Mr. Barker was one of the pioneer settlers of this county, and he leaves a host of friends behind to regret his departure.

Judge and Mrs. Watson returned home Thursday evening. Judge Watson has just returned from Coos and Curry counties, where he has been presiding at Court. We are pleased to say that the Judge and his lady are improved in health, and their many friends are pleased at their return.

Prim and Kelly begged nomination of the democratic State convention that they might be "vindicated" in the charges made against them by Sidney Dell, the Mercury and the Independent. How far they were vindicated by the people is shown by the ,000 majority cast against them.

How is it that one of the members of the Board of Trustees has been given the exclusive right to do the city printing? No advertisement was inserted in any of the newspapers inviting bids for such printing, though it is true there are three printing offices in the town. Is this another bit of favoritism, or a small piece of personal spite to work which the public will have to pay for?

In view of the fact that many have said that Sol. Abraham claims too much credit for the result of the late election, that gentleman requests us to say that he claims no credit, for that alone is due the sensible men to whose votes the judicial robbers are indebted for their defeat, and to whom Sol. Abraham desires to return thanks.

A fine dance was given in Mr. Lib. Short's new barn last Friday night. The barn was handsomely decorated and well lit up, the music fine, and the attendance large. The supper was first-class in every respect, and those who attended from this city report having experienced a very enjoyable time of it.

Mr. E. C. Dry, not content with the three neat residences he has near the bridge, is now having plans drawn for another building to be used for business purposes, to be erected in the southern part of the city. It would not surprise us, knowing Ned's spirit of enterprise, should he conclude to make the building of brick.

Remember that there will be a meeting of the citizens held at the Courthouse this [Saturday] evening, to devise ways and means for the celebration of the coming Fourth of July. It is to be hoped that there will be a full attendance, and that it will not be said that Roseburg was the only town in the county where the Fourth was not appropriately celebrated. Turn out everybody.

Messrs. G. A. Beath, James A. Smith and two other gentlemen returned from a trip into the mountains the other day. They report not only that the trip was an enjoyable one, but also that Uncle Hardy Eliff is in danger of having his water shut off some day, which would discommode that gentlemen very much in his agricultural irrigation.

News reached us during the early part of the week to the effect that Mr. Wm. Carll, the efficient division agent of the California and Oregon Stage Co., was quite ill. Later intelligence proves the first report to be untrue. We are glad of it; the stage company and the public could not well afford to lose "Billy's" services, and his friends hope he will yet live a thousand years.

Strawberries, apples, and all kinds of fruit, in their season, at Haffenden Bros. Just received a splendid line of cigars, which they offer to the trade at San Francisco prices; call and examine the prices. Also, some splendid assortment of gunpowder, Young hyson teas, roasted coffees, flavoring extracts, French prunes, eastern hams, candles and syrup.

UMPQUA FERRY CELEBRATION.

The people of this vicinity, met on the 2d inst, for the purpose of making final arrangements, to celebrate the coming fourth of July. The celebration will be in Geo. Shambrook's grove. The officers of the day will be: W. B Clarke, president; Hon. A. H. Kennedy, of Looking Glass, orator; H. D Thomas, chaplain; G. H. Shambrook, reader; and E. A. Livingston, grand marshal. The amusements of the day will be various, and will consist of sack, and foot races, and a spoon race for the ladies, besides various other amusements. There will be good martial music in attendance all day at the grounds. A basket dinner will also be had. There will be a large and commodious platform on the ground, for the benefit and use of all lovers "of the light fantastic" and good music for the same, in attendance. There will be a hot air baloon ascension, in the evening, and a large display of fireworks. A greased pig will be turned loose and given to the person who succeeds in catching it.

This promises to be one of the best celebrations ever given any place in the county, and a general invitation is extended to all, to come and partake of the same.

To all who come, we guarrantee a good time, and a consideration well worth their trip. Come one and all.

V.

NOTICE TO PATRONS.

Owing to the fact that we are now alone in control of the paper, we have appointed Mr. T. S. Roadman to arrange our books and collect all accounts due us. We have a large amount of money standing out, and it is necessary, to make the improvements in the paper we contemplate, that we collect the same. We hope all those whom Mr. Roadman calls upon will cheerfully answer his call, and in a substantial manner. In many cases it is true, the sum is small, but in the aggregate it is a great deal to us. We have paid for every paper sent to our subscribers; it is no more than right that every man who has received the paper should pay us for it. There are some subscribers on our books who have gone over two years without paying. It is time they should "call at the captain's office."

JOHN W. KELLY.

"Proof of the Pudding."

We have said many things favorable of Mr. F. Tolles, the painter; but any one who may yet have doubts as to his ability to do the best of work in his line, need only examine the painting he has done in Abraham, Wheeler & Co's store. The walnut graining is as natural as nature would make it, while the oak panels in the doors would make the "tree which from a little acorn grew" ashamed of itself in attempting a better grain of wood. But the best part of all is, that Mr. Tolles did not leave any of his work half-way done; in all the painting he finished his work in an artistic manner and in every way creditable, and when his labors were ended his work was well done. After seeing his work we can cordially recommend Mr. Tolles to any one desiring the services of a first-class painter.

Going Home.

Lieut. Symons takes his departure on the northern bound train for head quarters, accompanied by his assistants and the implements with which he constructed the new road over the Grave Creek and Cow Creek mountains Lieut. Symons has completed his labors, and his work is well done. He leaves us taking with him the best wishes of our people, who have generally come to regard him in the light of a friend, and it is the universal hope that he may soon return to us and here ever remain. Bon voyage, mon ami.

Ice Cream at Drains.

Mr. Neiderstadt and Walter Hall will have an ice cream stand at the Drain celebration grounds on the 5th. They will also take with them a full supply of candies, cakes, soda water, etc., and we advise all to look for this stand, for the reason, there will be found the best of everything.

OAKLAND ITEMS.

W. T. Kerley's new residence will soon be completed.

Work on the new town school room is being rapidly expended.

Preparations are being made for the concert next Friday evening.

The little "Fink ring" of this precinct has completely "busted."

J. H. Shupe, the energetic and affable confectioner, has returned from Portland.

Many of the Oaklanders attended the campmeeting, at Wilbur last Sabbath.

Quite a number of men are engaged in the manufacture of brick, a useful enterprise for the town of Oakland.

What a curse intoxicating liquors are to the rising generation. The larger part of crime is brought about by the use of this evil.

Misses Wheeler and Abraham, two of the captivating belles of Roseburg, spent several days in this place during the present week.

One of the finest horse-shoers on the coast. If a person wants his horse or mule shod on short notice, and done in a workmanlike manner, let him give Mr. Merriman a call.

The photographer, J. P. Walling, of the firm of Smith & Walling, of Salem, has his portable gallery in Oakland. His work commends itself. Hon. B. Hermann of your city, sojourned a few days with us last week.

Dr. Baker, one of the first settlers of Oakland, and one of the business men on the Pacific slope, visited his old home and acquaintances this week. He looks somewhat old, but his mental powers are in the full vigor of manhood.

A young man, of a generous heart, but bad appetite, was arrested last Saturday, for disorderly conduct, and bound over to appear before E. C. Sacry, Esq., on the following Monday. The hour came and the unfortunate gentleman was before Justice Sacry. After hearing the charges read, the young gentleman plead guilty and was fined the sum of $10 and costs. Few justices would have been so lenient as Mr. Sacry.

Three magnificent monuments have recently been placed in the old town cemetery. One to the memory of Absalom Clements, who died two years ago; another to the memory of J. B. Smith, who departed this life, a little more than twelve months since; and one to the memory of Richard Smith and wife; the former died many years ago, and the latter, only one year, lacking a couple of weeks. The monuments will last for many centuries, and are fit tokens of respect to those who rest beneath them.

Page, the arrogant M. D., and the noted Fiddler, who was a mere catspaw in order to strengthen his giant frame, worn out by many sleepless nights, praying for the election of Prim and Kelly. They were elected by an overwhelming majority! What W'nt dey! Alas! that poor fiddle! "Its strings are all unstrung and it is now hung upon the willows," where nothing but the doleful sound of the wind is heard. When the democratic party places such men as boastful doctors and broken down saloon men to the front, defeat is certain, and that too, in a most signal manner. A certain man of Oakland went to the democratic county convention as a delegate, and after helping to make up the ticket, worked and voted for several Republicans. The same man two years previous, went to the democratic county convention as a delegate, and when F. P. Hogan received the nomination for sheriff, walked out of the courthouse, and said he could control forty-seven votes in Calapooia precinct and he should vote the last one against F. P. Hogan. Now, to-day, the democrats of this county have this "Judas," this traitor to their party, as one of the central committee of Douglas county, the man who is well known in Oakland, as the champion for dealing in merchandize.

UMPQUA FERRY.

Weather—splendid.

The roads are in a good condition.

Prof. Heard paid us a flying visit last week.

Another petition is in circulation, praying for another county road, from the valley to Hubbard creek.

Teaming and travel is increasing, which is owing mainly to the fast improving roads.

H. W. Churchill and family, of Myrtle Creek, are in this vicinity, visiting their many friends and relatives here.

Our landlord proposes to erect a large and commodious addition to his hotel, which goes to show that his patronage is increasing.

We understand that there was a sociable given on the Calapooia, last week, by one of our Tennessee friends, and from some cause or other, not many invitations were extended.

We understand that there is some talk of having a celebration, on the 5th day of July, here in the valley. Nothing has been done as yet, and if the people intend to have one, they will have to hurry up, for that day will soon dawn upon us.

The census enumerator has been around, and has presented his big book, and has asked five hundred questions, to us all, as far as we have heard.

George Shambrook, Sr., has purchased a Plummer fruit dryer from Messrs. Grubbe and Newcomb, which he will have in operation by the middle of August, at this place.

We understand that our friend Mr. Peters and a young lady who makes her home here, but is now stopping in Roseburg, intend to enter the holy bonds of wedlock, upon her return. A general invitation will be extended to all.

Times are "booming" at the sawmill, and lumber is being turned out by the wholesale, which is unsurpassed in quality. How else could it be under the efficient management of Mr. Wm. B. Clarke, who is one of the best millmen on the coast.

UMPQUA GEORGE.

Miss Hay's School.

We had in type a full account of the standing of Miss Lucy Hay's school, but just as we were going to press an unlooked for accident occurred and the table of standing was "pied." We will give the table next week, however, since it is so flattering in its details of the lady's skill as a schoolmistress, and because Miss Hay is one of the best lady teachers in the county.

From the People.

EDITOR INDEPENDENT:—If you will allow me a small space in your valuable paper, by which to make a brief reply to Prof. Heard's last letter, I will not again ask your indulgence for this purpose. This correspondence was imposed upon me by Prof. Heard, who unjustly saddles the report of the directors all upon my shoulders. The cause of our report was, that Prof. Heard passed through our neighborhood without giving our school a notice. Prof. Hockett who is our teacher, was at the time, a candidate for county treasurer, and as Mr. Hockett is our neighbor, and a man whom we regard as superior to Prof. Heard, in his mental ability, as well as his moral capacity we thought the school superintendent did us, as well as Mr. Hockett, an injustice, by passing without giving the school a notice. Consequently, the directors met and made a report which was published in your paper. In reply to the compliment which the Professor made me, I would say, I do not profess to be very talented, but I do claim to be as good as Prof. J. Heard, either morally, mentally, or physically, and yet I do not wish to make a display of my ability with a man whom I consider beneath the dignity of a gentleman to notice. The professor has made a grand display of his talent in the little speech he has committed to say before every school which he visits. A little speech which has no practical utility or bearing whatever, in the interests of common schools. In answer to the request made by the professor, I have to say if the school superintendent will call upon me, I can give him the names of good and respectable neighbors who report him to have been so intoxicated as to be boisterous when he passed through our neighborhood. They are men who have the vim to say it to his face, what they have to say to his back.

ED. LABRIE.

UNDERWOOD'S SCHOOL HOUSE.

Pleasant weather, after a few showery days.

Jas. A. Sterling is visiting friends, around here.

Let everybody attend the singing it is free to all.

Mr. R Harness killed a bear last Friday, and also a cougar, a few days ago. This makes his fifth bear this year.

William Williams, Wiley Pilkington and Willie Underwood, went fishing on Pollac creek Saturday, and caught a few fine trout.

We heard that Mr Jas. Medley was going back to Missouri, but do not know whether he is going to take back a partner or not. Anyway, we hate to lose him.

MORE MEANESS.

Without consulting Messrs Fullerton and Rast, and outside of the council chamber, the board of trustees has decided to appeal the case of the city against Sol. Abraham in the matter of the opening of the street to the river through Mr. Abraham's property, to the supreme court.

There is something of the Star tribunal in all this. Judge Watson has already given the law in the premises, and against the city. To manage th t case the city has been put to considerable expense, and to continue the matter and carry it to the supreme court, it is quite clear the first expense will be doubled. And what is all this for? Certainly to open the street as desired by A. A. Fink and others, would not create a public convenience. Outside of those who lead in the movement, we have not heard one single individual say that the opening of the street was desirable. Every citizen, outside the little spiteful ring, will agree with us in this, and in also that it is apparent that the continued litigation in the matter is nothing less than for the continued harrassment of Sol. Abraham, to work personal ends, and at the expense of the taxpayers of the city. We wonder how long the intelligent citizens of Roseburg will submit to such outrages? We are curious to know how long they will pay taxes to fight Sol. Abraham because somebody don't like him. This is all there is in the matter, and there is every reason to condemn this last action on the part of the ring. If Sol. Abraham was not the owner of the property, and the street had not been closed for over twenty years, and the opening of the street through his property would be a public benefit, we would have nothing to say; but to put the city to several hundred dollars, and perhaps more than a thousand in expense, is too much pay for the luxury of permitting the little ring to work injury and do spite work to one who is their equal as a taxpayer and a bearer of the burdens of city goverment.

We have heard it said on the streets that the ring would not do all this if the expense came from the individual pockets of its members; that it is because they can make the people pay for it the ring continues in its law suit. It begins to look undoubtedly like this is the case.

Let the people of Roseburg hunt up all the facts, and judge for themselves, honestly and without prejudice. If they will do this they will find how sadly they are being abused by those who ought to do better.

HANCOCK AND ENGLISH.

The National Democratic Convention has met, nominated and adjourned. The nominees of the convention are W. S. Hancock, of Pennsylvania, for President, and James E. English, of Connecticut, for Vice President.

Of the candidates, let us say this; They make the strongest ticket the Democratic Convention could have possibly placed before the people. The Democratic delegates must have followed after the example set them by the Republicans, who have undoubtedly "put their best foot forward" in contemplation of the November political dance.

The Democrats at Cincinnati must be given credit of considerable foresight. They nominated one of the bravest Union generals of the war, and thereby forestalled the cry of the "bloody shirt." They took up a man who has served in public life only as a soldier, and, therefore, unlike Garfield, he has no political record to attack. They found in this candidate a veteran of the war of Mexico, and this is something to glory over. They chose one who has known Democracy as he learned it from the immortal Stephen A. Douglas, and who, to-day, stands alone among the generals of the war on the Union side whom the Democrats have not fought or complained of. He is a man of brilliant military achievements, and one who has nothing to answer for in private life. He is opposed, however, by as brave a general and as good a man, perhaps. The point in the race between the two is in the matter of leadership, and all will wait till November before they decide which of the two is the greatest general.

J. E English has the reputation of having most always carried Connecticut for Governor. His private and public reputation is good, that he is an honest and able man no one will deny.

Wait untill the returns come in, and we will tell you which party has nominated the strongest ticket.

Testimonial.

The writer of the following is a Baptist minister of many years standing, well known as a Missionary to the Indians, and is now a teacher in the school recently established at Forest Grove for the education of Indian youth:

Forest Grove, Or., March 8, 1880.

I have been troubled many years with weakness of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies, sought aid from different physicians and even changed climates to obtain relief, but have met with indifferent success. Hearing through a friend, of the value of the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, I obtained a box of it and have derived greater benefit from it than any thing else I have yet found.
