WHEREAS, said newspaper is now wel established, and during a three years' trial it has faithfully served the interests of the producer and tax-payer; therefore be it

Resolved, We, the members of the Umpqua Grange No. 28, do give THE DOUGLAS INDEPENDENT our unqualified endosement, and would recommend it as a newspaper worthy the patronage of every farmer and tax-payer in Southern Oregon.

GEO. W. JONES, Master
J. P. DUNCAN, Secretary.

SATURDAY......OCTOBER 16, 1880

THE BILL BEATEN.

Last week we argued against the passage of Senate Bill No. 82, and in order to further opposition to the measure, we printed a remonstrance for signatures for Douglas county people. The remonstrance was printed on Friday evening late, but before Saturday night came, and inside of twelve hours, the remonstrance was signed by 900 of our citizens, and on Monday was sent to our senators and representatives in Salem.

Tuesday morning a dispatch was received by Judge Willis from Mr. Sol. Abraham, stating that the bill had been defeated, and that the entire Douglas county delegation had worked faithfully and earnestly for the defeat of the measure which was calculated to do Douglas county and all southern Oregon material and lasting damage. Our senators and representatives are reported as having been untiring in their work, and as having failed not in any particular in doing their duty. We anticipated this much at the outset; but we now think there should be a vote of thanks given to the men who did not fail in their duty. Of course, Douglas county expects ever man to do what is right when he is entrusted with office and its responsibilities, yet there is something more due from our people when men will work, as our senators and representatives have worked, and when this work is greater than is required by the oath of office;—and they defeated a scheme that has been maturing, and which had for its authors John M. Thompson, the ostensible governor of Oregon, and perhaps a banker in Salem.

The measure in question first found birth in the brain of John M. Thompson. Two years ago he was the father of a bill containing the same provisions; and then we attacked the measure. We must then have struck hard, for Mr. Thompson thought it necessary to write us a communication in his own defense. And [to]day Mr. Thompson must feel [that] he has some consolation in [the f]act that this time (the second time) his bill was introduced by some one else, and it will be a difficult matter to fasten the blame upon him. But in the time of his repose Mr. Thompson should be disturbed by unpleasant dreams. There should come to his table a spectre dismal to his aspirations and hopes, all of which look to his election to the position of Supreme Judge, in the shape of Memory of the People of Southern Oregon. It is true the voters of Douglas, of Benton and of Coos and Curry counties did not see fit to elect him judge of the second judicial district, and it is true that they have not experienced a single pang of remorse for their action since the time they voted against him; but all this is poor excuse for the acts of one who, because he is not liked by us in Southern Oregon—because he was not elected judge and owns town property in Eugene and holds mortgages in Lane county which he wishes were settled,—must take revenge and guard his own interests at the expense of all Southern Oregon.

We do not write any of this in personal spite. We utter only public sentiment. It may be we have used pretty plain English. Is their any plainer language in the world than the English, when it is necessary to speak of men as they are, or of self-evident facts?

Ability is appreciated in Georgia. This is the way a candidate is referred to there by a friendly journal: "Judge Hawkins is not altogether free from the 'vices of a gentleman,' but he is an able lawyer, a capable jurist, an honest man, a true friend, a valuable citizen, and eminently deserves the honor and emoluments conferred on him by the Governor."

A PARTY MEASURE.

The Oregonian is opposed to the passage by the Legislature of proposed amendments to the city charter of Portland, and urges that if the amendments become a part of the city laws, there will be no one surprised should the democrats carry the city in the forthcoming city election. To make the matter more plain, the paper named would create the impression that the success of the party in the city hereafter depends upon the defeat of the amendments, and the inference is that the republican who votes for the charter amendment votes against the interests of his party.

We have no doubt as to the truthfullness of the Oregonian's remarks; but we do know that the argument made would have but little effect when directed to a house of representatives presided over by one who is in the hands of men claiming to be democrats, and yet have so conducted themselves as to become men without a party. It the whole truth was known, it would doubtless be shown that, having lost prestige with the democratic party, Thayer, Bush and Thompson are now attempting to direct the course of republicans. If this be true, the natural result must be that the men who have destroyed one party must naturally destroy another if their advice is listened to and acted upon. We think the Oregonian had better make some kind of a plea to the triumvirate named, and by this means captured the speaker and his friends. It need not, however, talk to the republicans in the Senate. They are republicans in every essential of the term, and with Mr. Sol Hirsch as leader and Capt. Humphrey as assistant, unadulterated loyalism to party will be the watchword of every republican member.

Cheek is a good thing; but when there is a superabundance of the article we get tired of it. There is a quack firm in Rochester, N. Y., manufacturing what is called "Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure;" and this quack firm wants us to advertise a quack medicine, and in return for the same pay us in further quack advertisements, which the firm terms "scientific information." We advise our patrons not to purchase "Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure;" and as the firm has asked us to send them a paper containing a notice of it, we will send this one. We do this in all kindness, and to assure them that a publisher can once in a while (if he thinks proper) give even a quack firm and a quack medicine a free advertisement.

The well-known shipbuilder Donald MaKay, died at Hamilton, Mass., a few days since, aged seventy years. He built a great many well-known ships, among them, in 1851, the clipper ship Flying Cloud, 1,700 tons burthen, which made the passage from Boston to San Francisco in eighty-nine days; in 1852 the Sovereign of the Seas, of 2,400 tons burthen, the largest, longest and sharpest merchant ship afloat at the time; and in 1853, the Great Republic, the largest merchant ship ever built, measuring 4,450 tons, and 15,653 yards of canvas in a suit of sails.

There are, we understand, spies sent out by both political parties to learn each and every man's political behalf in the State. "They say" there are some of them in Roseburg. If you find one, talk his way, even if you don't believe as he does. To such fellows there is no harm done if one does lie about 999½ times in a thousand answers.

During the year ending the 30th of June 30,751 tons of newspapers and periodicals passed through the United States mails, being an increase of 5,098 tons over the year ending June 30th, 1879. The revenue derived from this source is $1,126,462, an increase of $112,266 over the revenue for the previous year.

Senator Burnside tells this story at the expense of his colleague, Senator Anthony: They were dining together one day when ham formed one of the dishes. "If ever I turn farmer," said Mr. Anthony, "I shall raise plenty of calves so that I can get some nice hams like this."

The total value of petroleum and petroleum product export for the past year was in round numbers, $34,000,000, being a falling off of $3,000,000, as compared with the year preceeding.

Colonel Bob Ingersoll in closing a lecture in Chicago on a recent Sunday, said: "I have made up my mind that if there is a God he will be merciful. Upon that rock I stand."

It is recorded that among the persons returned to the parliament of 1361 (35, Edward III.) were Marie, Countesse de Norfi; Alianor, Countesse March; Agnes, Countesse de Pembroke, and Catherine, Countesse de Athol. In the preceeding year, also, there had been writs tested at Royston, on April 5, issued to divers earls, bishops and to four abbesses, requiring their attendance at Wesminster on the morrow of the Trinity for the purpose of treating to aid to make the king's eldest son a knight, etc. It does not appear, however, that any ladies actually took their seats in parliament by virtue of these summons; but there are numerous instances on record where of both squires and knights having sat in the house of lords in right of their wives.

A Baltimore claimant has just arisen to the authorship of the famous ballads, "Kathleen Mavourneen" and "Dermot Astore." It is Frederick W. N. Crouch, a professor of music sixty years old who formerly lived at Plymouth, England. He produces the necessary proofs that he composed both melodies, for words written by a woman, and has assigned them to a London publisher for twenty pounds. Mr. Crouch says that "Kathleen Mavourneen" was first sung in public at his former home in Plymouth, July 14, 1836 and "Dermot Astore" at London in 1840.

Multnomah county has certainly four energetic representatives in the persons of Hons. Kelly, Plummer, Yates and Beebe. They not only work late and early, but they work for the promotion of the interests of the State, and with the idea that their party is to be benefitted more by the passage of meritorious measures than by the consumation of personal projects. It is a pity, and it is a pity it is true, that all counties in the State are not represented by men of their character and worth.

Tim Connor, or Tim McCullough, as he finally confessed his real name to be, who was recently hanged at Salmon city, Idaho, was executed in a different mode from that usually practised on the Pacific Coast. Instead of dropping from a scaffold, he was jerked off the ground by weights. At the expiration of twenty-five minutes the body was lowered and it was found that the neck was broken. This is acknowledged, beyond question to be the most humane mode of hanging.

The New York Herald has compiled a census table giving the population of all the States in the union, the approximate result being 40,302,154. The population of six territories, 563,098, brings the total up to 40,865,142; and the population of four territories not included in the table will make the grand total 50,000,000, or an increase of 11,720,000, or something more than thirty per cent. since the census of 1870.

The ground on which two armed attempts have been made this year by white men to settle in the Indian Territory, is that the tribes have released sundry lands in the territory to the government, and that these have accordingly become public lands, and are open to settlement under the homestead and pre-emption laws.

FRUIT DRYER.

TO ALL FARMES

Preserve Your Fruit and Pay Off Your Mortgages.

Read the following testimonials from some of the best citizens of Douglas county who speak from experience only:

DEEP CREEK, May 7, 1880.

This is to certify that we have a Plummer Fruit Dryer. During last season we dried nearly all kinds of fruit. It will do all that is recommended and more. Our apples brought nine cents per pound early in the season and are worth thirteen cents at this date. We do not believe it can be excelled by any other dryer in the State.

MRS. S. ADAMS.

WILBUR, May 4, 1888.

I used a Plummer Fruit Dryar bought of Grubbe & Co. last year and dried nearly 10,000 pounds of apples, for which I realized ten cents per pound. It did better work than was promised and I made more money than I could from any other business. I only run the machine two months.

J. FRAZER.

Harvy Jones says: I have a Plummer Fruit Dryer, and it has done all recommended it would do; and turns out the handsomest fruit I ever saw. I shall run it this year to its full extent.

Wm. Boon, of Calapooia says: I hired a machine for $100 and dried on shares and made more than I could farming.

Mr. Tipton, of Mt. Scott, says the Plummer machine is the best I ever saw and it is all that is recommended, and more.
