SOUTHERN OREGON NOTES.
The county clerk is to receive only $100 per month hereafter. One clerk has too much work for so little pay. Hon. J. T. Cooper has rented his farm to Messrs. Dewitt and Gross. We hope "Uncle Jim" will come to Roseburg. Some wretch killed a two-year old Purocheron colt for Mr. Cooper, of Willbur, the other night. That is a cowardly way to get even with one you dislike. It would be far more manly to try to whip your enemy.

Ad Harmon has opened the Esmeralda in fine style with new and fashionable liquors and cigars. The saloon is well patronized, proving that "Ad" has many friends who would add by "smiling" to his prosperity. Representative Morris has introduced in the House of Representatives, and secured the passage of a joint memorial to Congress praying for an appropriation of $40,000 to carry on the Coos Bay harbor improvement.

One of the most enjoyable social parties of the season was given by the Silver Cornet and String Bands Thursday evening. The attendance was quite large, the music was excellent and everybody went home happy. Let us have more of them.

David Curtin was anxious to attend a law-suit in Roseburg. So great was his anxiety and haste, he attempted to drive his horse across the North Umpqua, over boulders, through water and up a steep bank. Well, David went one way, the horse another, and for a time it was thought the devil would get them both. But the boys at work on the bridge fixed David out of the water, and he came ashore as angry as a man's setting-bird.

We have enjoyed "doodles" of political speaking this week. First came the regular meeting of the Garfield club, at which Messrs. G. W. Kimball, A. J. Bellows and L. G. Strickland spoke, - and the latter was highly complimented by many. Following was the speech of M. C. George, then that of Judge Kelly, and last, but not least, that of Jas. F. Gazy. And yet, as the healthy mother of 17 children says: "There's more to follow!" We forgot to mention in proper order that of Hon. E. H. Antworth, who also spoke at the courthouse Friday evening to a large audience.

Patrick Quin was this week indicted by the Grand Jury on the charge of assaulting his wife with a dangerous weapon (a stick gun), and tried. Quin is a sticky looking individual, appearing not able to resist the strength of one of his own kind. He was found guilty and sentenced to the State Prison for a term of one year. The names of the jurors are: W. Ward, M. Stanley, James McCulloch, James Tipton, J. J. Long, J. J. Chadwick, Thomas Hervey, J. E. Lane, Jeff Williams, D. S. West, E. Barker, A. Lamb. We give the names to show that there are men in the world who will do right though they have to pay for it, and that they will be known. There is no doubt that Quin was guilty as charged, and yet there were extenuating circumstances in his favor. And this is the first case in our knowledge wherein a jury so acted.

Only Tuesday. The presidential election will occur next Tuesday week, and go on by all the nose we hear about Hancock and Garfield. After that time the people of these United States, outside of those praying for fat officers, will not bother themselves whether they take a Hand-Clap-Talk or a Clear-Field. But all the same the manipulators of mixed drinks will continue to ask men and women "What'll you take?" You can bet your last dollar that this time it will be temperance champagne, even though that ailer writer and plucky lady editor, Mrs. Dunning, did get her bill through the legislature, declaring that the women in Oregon shall not hereafter be considered as necessarily under the man in any sense of the term.

Why don't you subscribe for a live, lively paper without politics.

PERSONAL.
Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wheeler have returned from Portland. Sheriff Bybee is in the city. We were pleased to see him. W. H. Byrns, Esq., accompanied by his party, has returned from his surveying tour. Capt. Tichnor, of Port Orford, passed through town for Salem Thursday. He is hale and hearty as ever. Mr. L. D. Watson, an old-time friend of the Independent, arrived from Coos county on Wednesday last. He is as handsome as ever.

Mr. N. Kohn, with Rosenthal, Feder & Co., San Francisco, gave us a pleasant call the other day. Our latest string is always on the outside. Wm. Carr, Esq., division agent of the California and Oregon Stage Company, was in town during the week, accompanied by his family. All were in the enjoyment of the best of health. Friday morning Messrs. Dohrlik H. Quidling and Frank J. Ogier were admitted to citizenship by the court. We do not know of two better Americans; at least, we don't want any length of time; in fact, we consider any length of inhumanity to impede the progress of such a place, and that the continuance in false economy on the part of our country-commissioners, and we hope that they will either remodel the present building in accordance with modern plans of prison houses, or build a new jail at once.

And in regard to the sheriff's office we would recommend that it be supplied with a suitable safe for the safekeeping of his books, papers and other valuables for which the office may be responsible. The safe now in the office is entirely worthless. So far as a casual inspection enables us to judge, the various books in the county clerk's office, containing the records, etc., are well kept; but the paper on file are well preserved and conveniently arranged for inspection, and the same may be said in regard to the treasurer's office.

The stairway leading to the interior of the courthouse is filthy, and should be cleaned thoroughly, the woodwork repaired and the walls whitewashed. Now nothing ought to be put upon the floor of the courtroom and hall-way leading to the sound. During sessions of the court the noise from that cause is intolerable. A new stove and some furniture, including such as window shades, ought to be procured for the benefit of your court-room, and ornamental trees ought to be planted under the supervision of some competent person in the park around the county buildings.

All of which is respectfully submitted. Foreman of the Grand Jury, COLES VALLEY. Mr. George Shamrock has moved into his new and handsome residence at Umpqua Ferry. Mr. R. Peters, the inextinguishable, is still engaged in his erection of contractor and builder. Go in, boy; you will strike a bonanza yet. Mr. K. B. Martindale will take his departure for the Golden State on the 20th inst. He has the best wishes of his many friends in this section. Shamrock's fruit dryer is in full operation. The good folk have engaged the use of the machine to dry the tears of the democrats after the presidential election.

Mr. Martindale has sold his fine single mill to Haron Jordan and Woodruff who will shortly move it to the mill creek where they will engage in the manufacture of shingles on quite an extensive scale. There is a party organizing here for the purpose of making out a road from the mouth of Hubbard creek in the most direct line to Coos river. The party is headed by the irrepressible W. B. Clark, who will in the double capacity as guide and hunter for the party. The railroad route proposed by Umpqua George a short time ago attracted our attention a little at the time; but after giving it a little thought the conclusion is it looks flattering on paper. We cannot see the benefit to be derived from a road on the proposed route; give us some figures, George.

Dr. Coon lectured here on the night of the 17th inst. to quite a large and appreciative audience. The Dr. is the right man in the right place. The cause in which he is engaged is one which should command the attention of every good citizen. He has a large lodge of the champions of Honor here with seventeen charter members. Good for the Dr.; come again we need your wise counsel. PUTZ. Notice. The first quarterly conference of the Roseburg circuit, for the M. E. Church South, will convene at Hudson's temple at 10 o'clock, A. M., 1880. The following are members of the conference for the ensuing year: W. A. Willis, W. S. Adams, J. N. Barker, T. S. Roadman, J. S. Linnville, Thos. Hervey Sr., Wm. Ledgerwood, G. W. Hervey, A. M. Woodruff, M. Dean, J. D. Combs, J. J. Whitsett, Dr. S. Hamilton, S. Robinson, Jacob Ledgerwood, Thomas Hervey, Jr., Jas. D. Burnett, Henry Wiley, Jno. R. Roberts, Wm. J. R. N. N. Bell, P. E. Just as Good.

One of my friends who had been using Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites for Consumption, was induced by one of our druggists to take another preparation of Hypophosphites which, he said, was "just as good, if not better." The use of half a bottle taught him that, if he would continue to use the best, he must return to your Syrup again. Geo. C. Foot. Mansion-house Hotel Baltimore, Md. Appointments Made. Appointments made by the Columbia annual conference for the M. E. Church, south for Southern Oregon, held at Weston Oregon Oct. 18, 1880, that Jacksonville district, J. R. Bell, P. E. Roseburg, J. R. Bell, P. E.; Jacksonville, M. C. Miller; Williamsburg, H. B. Swafford; Coquille, B. F. Sharp; Grand, A. J. Harrison; Linkville, John Harswell.

A Happy Father. Mr. M. Johnson was made the happy father of a bouncing baby boy last Sunday. Baby and its mother and father doing well. We wish friend Joe much happiness in his newly-found treasure. Married. J. J. Farquar and Mrs. Mary A. Norman, at the residence of John Thompson, Rev. J. R. N. Bell officiating. We hope for the happy and reunited couple a long and prosperous wedded life.

Hamilton, Roseburg, Oregon. The most popular and fragrant perfume of the day is HACKMETHACK. Try it sold by S. Hamilton, Roseburg, Oregon.

We were pleased to form the acquaintance this week of Mr. Charles Stein, with Lorus Bros, Chicago and New York. This is Mr. Stein's first visit to Roseburg, but all who have met him hope it will not be the last. Our old friend, T. D. Marks put in an appearance Thursday evening, as a representative of the firm of E. G. Goffin & Co., San Francisco. "Teddy" many friends were pleased to see, and quite heartily welcomed one of the best commercial travelers visiting the State. Miss Mollie Abraham left San Francisco on the last steamer for Oregon, and will probably arrive at Roseburg Monday or Tuesday evening. She is accompanied by Mr. Randolph Abraham. Miss Abraham will be welcomed home by many friends, and we hope Mr. Abraham's visit will call to his mind much that was enjoyable with friends in the days of said lang isyne.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.
The Board of Trustees met at the council chamber Thursday evening. Present Messrs. Fullerton, Willis, Abraham and Fink, trustees, J. S. Tibbitts, recorder, and Marshal Cox, absent. A. Marks. The chairman of the board appointed the following standing committee: Ways and means, Marks, Willis and Fink; current expenses and accounts, Willis, Abraham and Fink; fire and water, Abraham, Marks and Willis; city improvements, Fink, Willis, Tibbitts, Fullerton; health and police, Marks, Willis and Fink; elections, Abraham, Willis and Fullerton; judiciary, Willis, Marks and Abraham. Bills were allowed as follows: G. W. Kimball, $3.70; Daniel Stephens, $2.00; John Clements, 4; N. Imbler, 2; D. C. McClellan, 2; E. Newcomb, 2; Max Lawinton, 2; G. A. Brodie, 2; T. Ford, 2. P. W. Carl was allowed $150 as part of the salary of the auditor.

On motion of Sol Abraham, it was ordered that the committee on streets, and public improvement be and is hereby authorized to have out at the top of the Deer Creek hill graded, or to construct a new street, within the corporate limits of the city, adjoining to Thursday, November 4th, 1880. The Commissioners to carefully consider the matter they would have after appropriate no moneys for the improvement of roads unless the improvement was done after the manner adopted by Mr. P. G. Strickland in the matter of the road from Roberts hill to this city. The road to be built is certain to last a quarter of a century if the least care is taken with it; and so far as the cost of repairs is concerned, it will amount to only the filling up of a few little cuts and the keeping of the ditches clean. Mr. Strickland is doing his work so thorough, painstaking way, and every foot of it is solid and done to last. This is the opinion of every freighter who drives over the road. And how much better would it be were all our county roads so improved? Had we our own way Mr. Strickland would be general road supervisor for the county. Then there would be no wasteful expenditures of money to build temporary roads, and no second appropriations of funds to make again what had once been officially reported as finished.

At Haffenden's. Oregon prunes and grapes at Haffenden Bros. in large quantities for putting up at very low prices. An immense stock of sugar candies just received and arranged to dazzle the eyes of the rising generation; sugar, coffee, tea, syrup, candles, coal oil, fine salt and ground alum at bedrock prices; the best place in the city to lay in your supplies for winter and the finest assortment and best of goods to choose from; try those Oatmeal cakes and cracker meal, ground coffee in coffee pots, milk buckets, dinner buckets and coal oil cans, Oregon hams, shoulders, and fresh buckwheat flour, oatmeal and cornmeal, immense Oregon onions, apples and potatoes, sweet potatoes, fine new Japan tea very cheap; cranberries, coconuts, etc.

The High Water of 1880. Did not reach a point equal to that of 1874, but it was high enough to do deal of damage. Time, however, will repair this, but time only makes worse every case of disease of the kidneys and urinary organs which a single box of Oregon Kidney Tea would cure. Sold by all druggists.

Grand Union Meeting. There will be a union basket meeting at the new church house on Deer creek, five miles east of Roseburg, for the purpose of dedicating the new church building. The meeting commenced on Friday Oct. 29 at 11 o'clock, A. M., holding over Sunday. A general and cordial invitation is extended to the members of all denominations and their friends.

Killing Sheep. There is a rush of sheep to the valleys in this county just now. The reason is that the crop of acorns is as great as it has ever been known in Douglas. But the bear is a mean animal; he will not be satisfied with acorns alone, but must have a "hankering after" sheep meat—something "Old Uncle Tom" is reported as hunting for "too good for niggers." The report of all this is, that while the bears are hunting for acorns, he eats the farmers' sheep, and the farmers are determined to make war on the bear. Among other men, P. Linn Cooper starts out next week on a grand bear hunt, and so a good hunter is he that we expect a thrilling item for our next issue.

Political Speaking. Hon. J. W. NeSmith will address the citizens of Roseburg on Tuesday evening next, at the court house; subject politics.

A Portland exchange mentions a former resident of this county as follows: "Tim Lince, a Journeyman tailor who had a bench room in a shop on the corner of Front and Washington streets, has skipped out without saying farewell to his wife and little ones."
