SHOCKING MURDER.

A San Francisco dispatch has the following: Last night a man named Wheeler went to the city prison and said he had killed his sister-in-law, Adele Tillson, at No. 28 Kearney street. Officers went to the place and found the body of the girl packed away in a trunk. According to Wheeler's story he had been intimate with Adele for some time, his wife knowing their relation. The family had been living in Cisco, but some days ago Wheeler and Adele came to San Francisco and took a room as man and wife. At Cisco Adele had become acquainted with Geo. W. Peckham, and they became intimate, Wheeler says criminally so. Friday A.S. Peckham followed Adele from Cisco and took a room in the same house. Wheeler became jealous, and says he made up his mind rather than have Adele leave him he would kill her. Yesterday morning the girl told Wheeler she was going to leave him, and left the house to visit a friend. She returned soon after, however, for her clothes, and while in the room Wheeler strangled her to death by placing one hand over her mouth and choking her with the other. So quickly was this done that the occupants of rooms on either side neither heard or knew anything of the affair. He then packed the body in a trunk and shortly after went to the station house and confessed the deed. Peckham, the lover of Adele, says he has been trying for some time to get Adele away from Wheeler, and finally she had agreed to leave him.

On Tuesday morning, the 14th this month, Johnny Schyff left Ivanpah to make his first trip as mail-carrier between that camp and Resting Springs. Since that morning he has not been seen, the latest news from there being last Saturday. It will be remembered that the young man once before lost his way upon the desert between Ivanpah and the Caves, some time last spring, and when found was in a miserable condition, having suffered intensely from thirst and the scorching rays of the sun. From this adventure he has never fully recovered. Believing, however, that his strength would permit it, he started about three weeks since to resume his place on the mail line. He was selected to carry the mail between Ivanpah and Resting Springs, an untried route to him, but the route is, we are assured, perfectly plain. At last accounts a large number of Indian traders had been in search of him, together with some white men. Ted Nichols, agent of the mail line, left to-day to assist in the search. We sincerely trust that Johnny, who is a general favorite in our town, may be fortunate enough to escape from his perilous situation.

A large monument has been erected at Kahoka, Mo., with the following inscription: "The Spencer family.—We are all here, murdered with an ax, night of Aug. 3, 1877, at their home. Their bodies lie beneath this tomb, their virtues about it." It marks the spot where the five members of the Spencer family were slain, and its dedication, with elaborate ceremonies, drew together 50,000 persons, so great had been the excitement over the crime. The deed was probably committed by one man, who killed his victim one after another as he came upon them; but who he was has never been ascertained. Bill Young was hanged by a mob, but a jury had acquitted him, and there was nothing proven against him except his bad character. His last words were: "I am as innocent of this thing as the angels;" but the leaders of the lynchers replied: "You're a good man to hang anyhow." His wife has now sued the county for $10,000 damages.

Jay Gould paid the traveling expenses from the Indian territory to Massachusetts, to attend a seminary, 16 young girls.

About 2 o'clock this afternoon David Ross, an old resident of this city and in charge of the pile driver now in use at the wharf at the navy yard in drawing out piles, met with a frightful accident, which will result in his death. He was at the top of the hoisting portion of the driver engaged in clearing a rope, when he missed his footing and fell to the deck, a distance of some thirty feet, and struck on his head, fracturing his skull, causing the brains to ooze out in such a manner that the doctors say his recovery is doubtful. He was taken to the Naval Hospital for treatment. Mr. Ross has been in charge of the pile-driver for a number of years, and was a sober, steady and reliable man. While working on the machine about ten years ago he accidentally had one of his eyes torn out of its socket by the flying up of a spike he was driving into a stick of timber. He is a member of San Pablo Lodge of Odd Fellows. A San Francisco paper tells this horrible story.

An exchange says a melancholy statistical fiend of a western paper has been compiling incomplete mortuary statistics of some of the big battles of the civil war. Eighty soldiers, all shot above the hips, and all of one regiment fell dead in one volley at the battle of Gettysburg. At Fair Oaks twenty men went down one upon the other in a few feet and never moved a limb after falling. One shell at Cold Harbor, exploding in the ranks of an Ohio regiment, killed sixteen soldiers. At Savage Station, during McClellan's charge, a solid shot fired from a federal piece, at an infantry column marching by fours, killed twenty-one men. At Fredericksburg, 5,000 union soldiers were killed in less than ten minutes. Near Vicksburg, a gunboat threw a single shell at a rebel battery, and killed eighteen men, wounding fifteen others.

A telegram from San Francisco announces the death of Dr. Geo. L. Murdock, who for the past sixteen years filled the responsible position of surveyor and freight agent of the Oregon Steamship company. From 1862 to 1866 he officiated as purser on the steamship Sierra Nevada, and many of the old residents of Oregon will remember the jolly, whole-souled doctor and learn with regret that he has passed away. Up to the time of his demise he has been in the enjoyment of good health, and on Thursday evening from the effect of an apoplectic stroke. In respect to his memory the flag of the steamship Columbia, in Portland, was placed at half-mast.

A large sized poker game was running in town recently. During the game amounts varying from $3,000 to $5,000 were on the table. Pots ranged as high as $1600. Outsiders think that Piochers have not got any money. This is a mistaken idea, for there are more twenty-dollar pieces lying around Pioche than the people know what to do with. It is the small change that is troubling the natives. The mormons pack that all off into Zion and "sink" it. This is from a Nevada exchange.

DEEP CREEK, May 7, 1880.

This is to certify that we have a Plummer Fruit Dryer. During last season we dried nearly all kinds of fruit. It will do all that is recommended and more. Our apples brought nine cents per pound early in the season and are worth thirteen cents at this date. We do not believe it can be excelled by any other dryer in the State.

MRS. S. ADAMS.

WILBUR, May 4, 1888.

I used a Plummer Fruit Dryer bought of Grubbe & Co. last year and dried nearly 10,000 pounds of apples, for which I realized ten cents per pound. It did better work than was promised and I made more money than I could from any other business. I only run the machine two months. J. FRAZER.

Harvy Jones says: I have a Plummer Fruit Dryer, and it has done all recommended it would do; and turns out the handsomest fruit I ever saw. I shall run it this year to its full extent.

Wm. Boon, of Calapooia says: I hired a machine for $100 and dried on shares and made more than I could farming.

Mr. Tipton, of Mt. Scott, says the Plummer machine is the best I ever saw and it is all that is recommended, and more.
