

Society Meetings.

UMPUQA CHAPTER No. 11, R. A. M. hold regular communications every first and third Tuesday of each month...

PHILETIAN Lodge, No. 3, I. O. O. F. meets on Saturday evening of each week at 7 o'clock...

UNION ENCAMPMENT No. 6, I. O. O. F. meets at Odd Fellows Hall on the 1st and 3rd Friday every month...

UMPUQA GRANGE, No. 28, P. O. of U. M. will meet on the 1st Saturday of each month at Orange Hall...

P. O. Directory, 1880. One of the June 10th, 1880, mails for the south, including Oregon, Nevada and eastern States...

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1880. SOUTHERN OREGON NOTES. Weather clear and frosty.

Mr. Wm. Erwin of Ten Mile, gave us a call this week. For this season of the year South Umpqua is very low.

The last number of Harpers Weekly has a number of tipping cartoons. One hundred different styles lamps for cost price at Caro Bros.

Our street and roads are getting dusty. It beats the oldest inhabitant. Before the next issue of this paper may a strutter of the grubber species will have strut his last strut.

Ten Miles from here in a few weeks. Ed. call around next week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Perkins returned from Portland Saturday, much improved in health.

A large assortment of jewelry for less than cost, at Caro Bros, as they are bound to close out their stock.

J. M. Bowley is in town; he has got a new hat, shaved off his chin whiskers, and now he is not an altered man.

We had a pleasant call from Mr. L. G. Jackson, who is in the city on business connected with the New Idria mines.

Haffenden Bros. have on hand a lot of fine barrels, just suited for salting down your winter's meat. For sale cheap, for cash.

L. Stinger, of Canyonville, has purchased the billiard table which was formerly used in the now defunct Bureau saloon, and taken it to Canyonville.

Thos. Whitsett, of Deer Creek, lost his little child, aged three years and six months, by that fell disease, cholera, on Wednesday morning; it was buried on Thursday.

Messrs. J. C. Flood, Sr., and J. C. Fullerton have requested us to announce that they will pay Myrtle Creek a visit, professionally, on Monday next, and if there successful will continue on to Canyonville.

Hon. A. C. Stanley, of Jackson county, says he was informed by Joseph Guston that the company he represented was favorable to building a narrow gauge line to Jackson county, to connect with the prop road from Winnemucca to Oregon.

Papa says that the democrats are contract with him, at five dollars per day, to smile for them after election, and when he called at headquarters for his pay, after the news came from New York, they repudiated the contract. He has won a seven-by-nine countenance ever since.

County Treasurer Wright, on last Saturday, forwarded to the State Treasurer, in full, $1,000, making $5,000 in full for the year 1880. Mr. Wright informs us that this amount has been forwarded earlier this year than at any time since he has been in office; which speaks well for the taxpayers of Douglas county.

Those papers that have been slandered by Robert Bruce, the dog belonging to Estabrook Bros., had better find something else to do. Bruce did carry a transparency the night before election, on which appeared "Hancock of Bust," but no republican caught Bruce and changed the sentence. Bruce is still for Hancock, and will give a pass to any one who asks him for it.

An uneducated, lantern-jawed, slab-sided, big-footed, bull-whacker, walked into an apt-noun saloon the other evening, where a game called "blue-jay" was in operation, and after watching it for a while plucked down the dealer, took it in, he put down another, which was also taken down, and kept on until five dollars had disappeared. The dealer sang that the die cast, the game is made, [when the youth asked him "what he called that game?" "Blue-jay" was the reply. "Blue-jay" was d--d, in his tongue, when F. was out in the Cayuse war, after he had cooked it three weeks. I don't believe I want any more of that, but all the same."

The Holidays. Messrs. Langenberg Bros. have and will receive during the week the finest assortment of toys and novelties for the Christmas public. Go and see them.

RECOVERED HIS SPEECH.

A Mute After Many Years Suddenly Gains the Power of Speech—A Remarkable Case.

The Telegram contains an account of one of the mute inmates of the insane asylum, at East Portland, who suddenly recovered his speech last Sunday. The paper says: For years, Mr. Anderson, a dumb inmate of the asylum, has plodded along attending to his duties as a trusty faithful, being unable to speak a word. All efforts to bring back the use of his vocal organs, which had been silent for many years were in vain, and he was told that he could never again speak.

On Sunday last the inmates were given a romp in the handsome grove, which is surrounded by a high wall, in order to sun themselves. One of the inmates, a rather wild individual, imagined he was a squirrel, and away he went scampering up one of the tall fir trees to its topmost branches and would neither return to solid ground for pleadings or threats. As usual, Anderson was near at hand and volunteered to go up and bring him down. The poor unfortunate who were in the yard at the time were greatly pleased and shouted and laughed joyfully as Anderson climbed from branch to branch toward the top. He had climbed about thirty feet from the ground when a limb broke and down came Anderson bounding among the branches, finally sitting down upon the ground like the hammer of a pile driver. The wardens expected to see him killed or knocked senseless, but they were doomed to astonishment as Anderson sprang to his feet and voluted out in a volley of profanity, that would have put a trooper to blush. He kept up swearing without intermission for at least ten minutes, while everybody stood transfixed with astonishment. He had recovered his speech, and today can talk as well as any person, and to say that he is delighted in consequence of his fall, is drawing it mildly.

CANYONVILLE NOTES. D. A. Levin is doing a lively business in the merchandising line.

Toklas, Baden & Co. are selling out, preparatory to closing business.

Everybody is anxious to know if the railroad will be extended next year to Canyonville.

Ucles Sem Marks is yet undecided whether or no he will spend another summer in Canyonville. He is enjoying excellent health.

Charles Kimmel still continues in the wagon making line, while our old friend, John H. Black, is still in the tin and sheet metal business, at either place the doubtful may be convinced that there are none but good spirits.

Napoleon Roberts and W. H. Blackwood know a substantial spirits dealer. At either place the doubtful may be convinced that there are none but good spirits.

Sheep and cattle are very poor in the southern end of the county. Without a change in the present weather there will be a general thinning out in the flocks and herds this winter.

M. D. Mansion (David) holds his own with the world, and complains only of the severity in revivals in the mill building business, at which he is invariably known as the presiding elder.

Mr. Christine Beverly continues to make herself popular with the patrons of the Overland hotel, while John looks after the farm with due diligence. Christine will give a grand ball on or about Christmas at the Overland.

Mr. Schlesinger, of Toklas, Baden & Co., has the good wishes of the editor of this paper. In the language of Rip Van Winkle we say: "Here's to you and your family; may you live long and prosper."

A ride with Joe Cleugh or Harry Lambert from Canyonville to Roseburg is pleasant to travelers. Both are accommodating stage drivers, and do all within their power to make it comfortable for passengers over the California and Oregon Stage Co.'s line.

Bear Fight and Narrow Escape. The other day Mr. James McLeod was out hunting on the Gilla, accompanied by two dogs—a phiste and a large hound. While passing through the timber McLeod jumped over a log, and as he went down on the other side, he fell onto a full grown brown bear. The bear showed fight at once, but was immediately killed by the dogs. With one blow of his right forepaw the bear killed the hound, and then turned upon McLeod again. The phiste, however, was plucky, and kept after the bear in the rear. Bruce's attention was in this way turned in another direction, and when he strayed for the phiste, a well-directed shot from McLeod's rifle knocked the bear over, killing him instantly. Had it not been for the phiste McLeod would have been torn to pieces, as he was backed up against the log and could not escape.

Waiting for the Returns. In 1854, we think it was, that Judge Fitzsimmons, of Placer Co., ran on the democratic ticket for county judge. After the election the returns came pouring in from the different precincts and most adversely to the judge's favor by 100 majority. About a year after the judge had taken his seat, it leaked out that only 13 votes had been cast in Long Canyon, and there were 13 majority against the judge; but it was too late then to alter the affair. The dispatcher now states that Hancock is patiently awaiting the official returns. As soon as our lengthy democratic friend in Ten Mile is heard from, no doubt the aspect of affairs will be changed.

Highest market price paid for eggs, butter and country produce, at Caro Brothers.

Orphans—Needed. Parents in this city propose having an ordinance passed by the board of trustees requiring that no boys under 16 years of age shall be permitted to travel the streets after 9 o'clock. It is also proposed to empower the city marshal to arrest all boys heretofore caught using vulgar or obscene language at the railroad depot on the arrival of trains. We hope the city fathers will take both these questions in hand.

Buy your Christmas presents at Caro Bros. They sell at S. F. cost.

WOODSON PATTERSON.

How He Was Killed.

We have now the particulars of the death of Woodson Patterson. They differ materially with the account published by us last week, in which we were wrong in stating that the deceased was a son of Wm. Patterson, of Gardiner. The deceased was the son of Mr. Patterson, of Canby Valley, in this county. It would seem from the statement of an eye witness, Mr. H. O. Waters, who visited the scene of the accident, that Woodson had tied two deer on his saddle, one on the seat and one behind. The one behind evidently got loose, and falling across the horse, which began to buck, jerking Patterson around in such a manner as to kick him in the forehead, striking in the skull from which the brain oozed out. While kicking he struck the hammer of the gun, breaking it off in the stock and exploding the cartridge, and in running home cut himself on the leg by striking it on a snag in the road up to which place he was traced by the blood. The death of Mr. Patterson has cast a sad gloom upon his many friends, who sincerely mourn for a man who was upright and honest in all his dealings. We sincerely sympathize with his grief-stricken relatives.

Fifty Cent dress goods at Caro Bros. for 25 cents.

Hunting Locals. Mark Twain, when sort of locals, would unsparingly shoot in some of our prospect hole on the Comstock lode; Dan Quill would start a spelling school or hatch up a murder in one of the outside districts; Geo. W. Cassidy would strike chloric; Fred Hart would visit the Sazara Lying Club; John L. Gian was always ready to brag his nose around for a seduction case; John H. Dennis would in consequence pronounced by himself, while Alf Dotson would steal his from exchanges. Now the question with us is, whether we shall manufacture, steal or go without. We have noticed in the past several of these and many more or less, in the last forty-eight hours and found nothing to eat, hack or hash up, but a few dead beats trying to burn their whiskey, and right here we will tell how one of them did not get his morning cocktail. He was poor, foolish and looked much as if he stepped up to the bar, and asked for a drink. "Have you any silver?" asked the barkeeper. "No," was the reply. "Well, you see the boss has gone out mining and when he returns he will probably have money enough to buy a barrel or two of whiskey to get away." During this time the bar-keeper was busy mixing up a cocktail, and smiling at the tramp, who thought he was going to have the pleasure of humping his lip, which was watering over the expectation, of a nice champagne cocktail. When the bar-keeper raising his glass to his lip, and looking over the counter at the tramp, said "here's luck," and with that the liquid did appear down his throat. The tramp took one long look at the glass, and turning his back on the scene, bade farewell to Roseburg.

Married. At the residence of the bride's father, at Howard, Wasco county, Oregon, on Sunday, November 14, 1880, by Rev. H. B. Lane, Mr. William Churchman to Miss Alice Howard. Miss Alice was for many years a resident of Roseburg, where she has many warm friends and admirers. May the gentleman who has espoused her be as noble and charitable in character as Miss Alice, that was the prayer of her friends.

Last Sunday, in Looking Glass, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Sam'l G. Thornton and Miss F. A. Cochran, were married by the Rev. C. P. Berg. A large number of friends witnessed the ceremony, and the happy couple have the best wishes of all for their future happiness. The bride is the daughter of Hon. Wm. Cochran, of Looking Glass.

Thirteen yards of muslin at Caro Bros. for $1. You vos not lof forgot dese.

New Coal Mine. A new coal mine has been struck one and one-half miles east of the old Flourny place, in the southwest corner of the county. The coal on exhibition, the exhibits a good deal that is gaseous, and black smiths think that the coal is first-class for welding purposes. Some report the vein a large one; others, well posted, say the vein is not as yet well-developed. Humphrey and Beazley are the discoverers of the new mine, and in a few days we will report the facts as we shall find them.

"A New Racket." Mr. A. Sloum will remain with us another year, as agent for Frank Bros., of Portland. Mr. Sloum has a new bar for sale, which we think will just suit our farmers, besides other fall farming implements that must be seen to be appreciated. Mr. Sloum has made many friends in this vicinity who will be pleased to know that he is to remain in Roseburg.

Grand Ball. The Silver Coronet and String Band will give a grand ball at Masonic hall on Thanksgiving evening, to which all are invited. The best of music and calling guaranteed. Tickets only $1.

In alluding to the great prevalence of smallpox in San Francisco, the Astorian says: "The state health officer at Astoria has been unremitting in his attentions, and proceeded to Portland with the steamer on Sunday to make careful inspection of all passengers on board. The company have also been very careful at San Francisco to make inspection before any passengers were allowed to come on board bound this way."

The Census of 1880. The census of 1880 is now a thing of the past, but it has produced many bubbles, and left behind it many heartburnings. The ruthless figures have brought low the pretensions of ambitious towns and cities, but the number of persons who have cured of backache and kidney diseases by the use of the Company's Kidney Tea is no much greater than the proprietors hoped for or imagined, that they have doubled their capacity for manufacturing it to keep pace with the demand. Sold everywhere.

Ladies' shoes for $1.75, worth $2.50, at Caro Bros.

A Murderer Arrested.

Leut. Upton has arrived at headquarters, Vancouver, having in charge the Ner Peres murderer, a large savage fellow heavily shackled and who was looked up to await his trial. This prisoner, it will be remembered, got intoxicated some time ago, and getting on the way path crossed the wigwam of We-zan-pook, and seizing a Henry rifle shot one Indian and attempted to kill another. The probabilities are that he will pull hemp.

He who by farming would get rich, Must plow, and sow, and dig, and ditch. Work hard all day, sleep hard all night, Save every cent, and don't get tight.

The best Indian cloaks for sale at Caro Bros. for San Francisco cost, and don't make a mistake.

NEW TO-DAY. SANTA CLAUS HEADQUARTERS ESTABLISHED. LANGENBERG BROTHERS

World announce that they have imported and are receiving the largest assortment of TOYS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Ever imported to Roseburg, from the Eastern States manufacturers, and by purchase of first cost, they are enabled to sell their goods in this line cheaper than they were ever sold before. The Stock on hand—

Doll Babies, Doll Wagons, Drums and Horns, Whistles, Accordions, Jumping Jacks, Balls, Tots, Whips, Knives, Etc., Etc., And everything else in the Toy Line.

A glance at the stock will convince all that the stock is large and fine, and that—

Santa Claus Has made his Headquarters at Langenberg Bros' Store.

The trade will be supplied on the most reasonable terms, and orders from the interior solicited. Come young and old and see the opening of Santa Claus' bargains as fast as they arrive.

LANGENBERG BROS., 62nd Roseburg, Oregon.

NOTICE FOR FINAL PROOF. Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, November 9th, 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof on Thursday, December 23, 1880, at the Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, viz: Henry M. Copeland, Homestead Application No. 3339, for the W 1/4 of section 6, T 28 S 3 W, R 12 E, Co. 1, Oregon.

Witness my hand and seal of said office, this 9th day of November, 1880. W. F. BENJAMIN, Register.

NOTICE OF Sale of Delinquent Stock. NOTICE is hereby given that the following Certificates of Stock in the New Idria Mining Company will be sold for sale on public auction in front of the U. S. District Court, at Roseburg, Oregon, on Monday, the 6th day of December, 1880, at 10 o'clock A. M., as delinquent on an assessment, to wit: The 20th day of September, 1880, notice of which was given in the Oregonian, a new paper of general circulation in the State, of October 1st, 1880, and also in the Western Star, of same date, a paper of general circulation in the county where the works of the company are located.

Wm. J. MAY, Sec'y, I. C. M. Co.

THE ABOVE NAMED ELM WOULD ASSOCIATE TO THE ELK OF THE southern portion of Oregon that they have imported to Roseburg, Oregon, for sale.

BLACKSMITHING. Dearling and Gibson, OF PLAND, OGN.

Would announce to the public that they are prepared to do the best of iron and steel work in their line. Having enjoyed over twenty years' experience in their trade, all work performed by them is guaranteed to be first-class, and strictly according to order.

Gibson's Celebrated Harrows FOR SALE BY J. W. STRANGE, ROSEBURG, OGN.

Proclaimed by all who have used them to be the best ever invented, always ready to supply all the work in the county.

FARM MACHINERY REPAIRED, Give Them a Call.

ABRAHAM, WHEELER & Co. Wholesale and Retail Dealers in GENERAL MERCHANDISE. ROSEBURG, OREGON.

THE ABOVE NAMED ELM WOULD ASSOCIATE TO THE ELK OF THE southern portion of Oregon that they have imported to Roseburg, Oregon, for sale.

Largest Stocks Merchandise, EVER BROUGHT TO SOUTHERN OREGON.

The stock in question is complete in every detail, and was purchased in San Francisco at low figures that we are able to sell at our prices as low as permit us to duty competition in wholesale and retail prices. The stock consists—

First-class Dry Goods, Full Lines of Clothing, Ladies' Dress Goods, Fancy Millinery Goods, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes Etc

WE HAVE COMPLETE LINES OF GROCERIES & CROCKERY

Glassware, Tobacco, Cigars, Wines and Liquor

We have also everything in the way of HARDWARE, and can supply farmers with FARMING MACHINERY

Highest Price Paid for Wool, Grain and Produce.

In connection with the store and near the railroad depot we have a commodious warehouse for the storage of grain, and adjoining the warehouse we have the latest improved Steam, Hydraulic and Grain Cleaner, which farmers will find advantageous. Country store-keepers will find on application we can offer them superior bargains. Give us a call, for we will not be undersold. ABRAHAM, WHEELER & CO.

A Sensible Body.

Contrary to the expectations of many, the present band of trustees is one of the most cautious and business like bodies we have seen for many a day. Each individual member of the board seems to desire nothing more than to promote the welfare of the city, and in his treatment of the others each member conducts himself in a sensible, gentlemanly manner. Those who have attended the meetings (and they are open to every one) declare the present board to be the best ever elected, and if the board continues to do as well the rest of the official term, the taxpayers will certainly see that they are re-elected.

NEW TO-DAY. FREE BOOKS. Having made arrangements to club the OREGONIAN WEEKLY COMMERCIAL, we announce that we will furnish the DOUGLASS WEEKLY COMMERCIAL, a large 8-page Weekly Commercial, a large 8-page 56-column Family Newspaper, one year, for $3 and will give as a free gift to each subscriber a copy of the following valuable books: 1. "The History of the United States," by Harper's Editors, unabridged, beautifully printed on good paper, in paper cover. 2. "The Days of Pompeii," Balzac's historical romance of universal popularity, the most fascinating of his productions. 3. "John Halifax, Gentleman," Miss Mitford's masterly story of the life of a poor and struggling man associated with low birth and iron fortune. 4. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 5. "The History of a Crime," by Victor Hugo. The terrible narrative by the great French poet, never a story of the life of a poor and struggling man associated with low birth and iron fortune. 6. "Henry Emmond," the story of the life of a poor and struggling man associated with low birth and iron fortune. 7. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 8. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 9. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 10. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 11. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 12. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 13. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 14. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 15. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 16. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 17. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 18. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 19. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 20. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 21. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 22. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 23. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 24. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 25. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 26. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 27. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 28. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 29. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 30. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 31. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 32. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 33. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 34. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 35. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 36. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 37. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 38. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 39. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 40. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 41. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 42. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 43. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 44. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 45. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 46. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 47. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 48. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 49. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 50. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 51. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 52. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 53. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 54. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 55. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 56. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 57. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 58. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 59. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 60. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 61. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 62. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 63. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 64. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 65. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 66. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 67. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 68. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 69. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 70. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 71. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 72. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 73. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 74. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 75. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 76. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 77. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 78. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 79. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 80. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 81. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 82. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 83. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 84. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 85. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 86. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 87. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 88. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 89. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 90. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works.

By Daniel Defoe, author of "Robinson Crusoe." The true history, by one of the greatest and most popular writers in language, of the mysterious and awful visitation of the Plague to England. 91. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 92. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 93. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 94. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 95. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 96. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pickwick Club," the work that gave Charles Dickens his celebrity; the most humorous and amusing and most popular of his works. 97. "The Journal of the Papers of the Pick