

SATURDAY, APRIL 1

For Abraham has gone to the city of Portland to get the Mercury to pitch into Kelly, don't y' thee! Bring on your opium feed and that other thing, Sol!

For the Mercury's benefit we will state that the old firm of Kelly & Mosher stand ready separated individually to pay to the heirs of the late John D. Van Buren the amount due to the deceased.

Under the heading of "Then and Now," the Mercury has another article written by Sol. Abraham and corrected by the editor of that paper. Sol. writes his name "Hon. Sol. Abraham," and yet he has never occupied a public position in life that would give a right to the title of Honorable.

The majority of the delegates elected by the Democratic Convention of this county to attend the State convention in Portland are doubtless in favor of the nomination of G. M. Stroud for Governor.

FROM PORTLAND. [OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.] A Row in the Republican Camp in the Egypt of Oregon.

WHAT IS THUNDER NEXT? PORTLAND, OR., March 28, 1882.

ED. INDEPENDENT: Before this epistle reaches you, the Democratic State Convention will have met and presented a State ticket with riders mounted, ready and waiting for the Republican nominees who will be trotted out in the course of a fortnight.

delegation to secure their Representative ticket in nomination, and the "court house clique" "going for blood" on the other tack to hold the lead in the nominating convention.

The wife-work of the anti-Mitchell wing of the Republican party had fixed the State for Dave Thompson (Mr. Mayor, and an office one he is) for Governor, & the contribution of Western Oregon; W. Lair Hill (now of The Dalles) for Supreme Judge, as the sare of the state east of the Cascades; and conceding the coming Senatorship to the south, in the person of Beekman, the Jacksonville banker, who has many reputed qualities for the position in a business point of view.

In regard to Congressmen, the Republicans are about to repeat their traditional weakness of nominating a new man instead of continuing the position in the hands of some incumbent who has proved the policy of keeping him there, as they do from the southeastern States, the effect of which has given that section such immense influence in our national halls.

MARCH 29th, 12 M.—The news just come that the Borthwick and Jot Buchtel wing of the party have a ho-tel with Custom-house wing, as to whether the first primary shall be called solely for nominating delegates to a State convention, as the latter desire; or whether the call shall include nominations for county offices also, as desired by Borthwick and Jot Buchtel.

THAT TARDY JOE.

At the Democratic Primaries in the year '82 The Chairman and Tellers had nothing to do. And not a word could you hear them say, but "Joe Sheridan is only a block away."

And the Chairman, Tellers arose with a smile, As Joseph came hastily up the aisle, With his arms tight pinioned and his feet well held.
