Good heath is impossible when the blood is impure or when it is thin and cold. Under such condittions one disease after another. Boils, pimples, headache, neuralgia, rheumatim, etc., are the result of impure blood and and the wisest course is to make the blood pure, rich and warm by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

A. M. Cannon and B. H. Burnnett undertook to "clean out" F. H. Cook edidtor of the Spokan Falls Times last last Thursday because of some statements by Cook through the Times and got sadly "worsted." Cook cleaned out both of them, injuring them so as to prevent them from leaving their room for a week. Moral: don't attack an editor.

We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of D. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit, Mich. which appears in our columns. WILL CELEBRATE.—Philetarian Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F., will celebrate the 63d anniversary of the birth of Odd Fellowship in the United States, on Wednesday, April 26, 18882. The Lodge has invited all the diffierent lodges in the county to join with it, and a grand time is anticipated.

REPRESENTATIVES ELECTED.—Through the courtesy of Mr. John Chase, secietary of Philitarian Lodge No. 8. I. O. O. F., we learn that Messrs W. F. Benjamin and Louis Belfils were elected representatives to the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., on the evening of the 30th by the Lodge above named. The gentlemen are well qualified as representatives to the Grand Lopge which meets in Portland in May.

THE CALAFORNIAN.—The April number of this magazine, which has just come to hand, opens with a beautifully illustrated article, entitled "Yatching in San Francisco Bay," from the pen of Mr. Chas G. Yale, than whom, upon this subject, no one is better qualified to write. This article is from the popular, or nontechnical, standpoin; and will interest hundreds besides those who reside near the Bay and have an opportunity to indulge in the fascinating pastime of yatching. The engravings (which, by the way, are the first among those which have appeared in The Calafornian that were entirely prepared in San Francisco) are spirited, and full of promise for the successful dovelepment of pictorial wood-engraving upon tho Pacific coast. One shows several yachts rounding the Fifteen-Fathom Buoy outside "The Heads," and is full of life and motion, while down in the corner of the engraving is a pen-and-ink sketch of placid waters, called "Taking it Easy." Another of the engravings represents the "Artist Cook," another, the first rendezvous of yachts in Napa Creek in 1868; the YachtrClub House at Saucelito is the subject of still another; while "Crossing the Channel" is a vigorous picture of a yacht crossing the current which sets out toward the Golden Gate.

The other articles in this number are of equal interest. Prof. Joseph Le Conte contributes "The Higher Utilities of Science." Lucy U. McCann gives a sprightly account of how she built a chea Greenhouse, wich, an illustration of "the way it looked." James O'Mera, always a readable writer, relates how a Calafornian accomplished the only escape made from Fort Lafayette during the War. Wm. H. Rideing has an article on the "London Newspaper. Prof. H. B. Norton gives an account of a Treaty framed under peculiar circumstances between the Pawnees and Osages. Charles H. Shion contributes a bit of poetical prose, entitled 'Calafornia Aprils."

There aro several poems of merit: the regular instalments of the serial stories are given; and "poor Ah Toy," by Mary T. Mott, a story of originality and power, completes a number of more than usual interest.

THE LATE JAMES A. SMITH.

BY A FRIEND.

In birth so noisy and complaining
So natural well sustaining;
But then, what then?

In babyhood so artless
Progressive still so harmless;
But then, what then?

In boyhood so artful
Filling mother's sorrowing heartful;
But then, What then?

In manhood's gallant struggle
Fearing neither care nor trouble;
But then, what then?

When that awful has come
The battle's lost or won;
Then, Oh! what then?

PUBLIC EXAMINATION.—At the regular quarterly public examination for the last Saturday of March, School Supt. J W, Strange called to his assistance Prof.'s H. L. Benson and B. A Cathey, and there were present for examination Misses Anna, Alice and Emma Mosher, Dulcina Parrott, Carrie Furguson, Ella Ragon, Edith Callahan, Hattie Benjamin, Messrs Freelin Cornutt, H. S. Strange and John E. Day, all of whom passed, and nine out of the eleven obtained first grade certificates. Special mention should be made of Misses Ella Ragon, Hattie Benjamin, Carrie Furgason, and Mr. H. S. Strange all of whom obtained a grade upwards of 93 deg.

LIKES ROSEBURG.—We had the pleasure of meeting with Mr. T. J. Mc Dowell, of Corvallis, who arrived in Roseburg Tuesday evening. Mr. Mc Dowels brought his family with him and and intends to remain here. Eight years ago he was wellknown to Roseburgers and during his absence he has desired to return to our place to our place to help his wife in health and make a home here. He is a first-class man in railroad work, and his old friends, (we and every one of of them) will work for him to be with us always.

PLEASURE TRIP AND BUSINERS.—Mr. Jos. Cornelison, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alice Cornelison, left Wednesday morning for Umatilla county. Mr. Cornelison has business interests in Umatilla, and while there will look after a large drove of sheep which he has had kept the past winter in the alkali regions of Eastern Oregon. Miss Alice accompanies him to visit her sisters, and for the benefit of her health. We wish both a pleasant journey and safe return.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Mr. J. L. Quackenbush, one of the directors and general agen for the North Pacific Mutual Life Association of Portland, was in the city during the week. The company which he represents is directed and embraces some of the best men of Oregon, and one is safe in patronizing it. We hope to see Mr. Quackenbush whenever he visits the city and here say to him, whenever he calls, he will find our latch-string on the outside.

It is with sorrow we announne the death of three of Aaron and Frances Rose's children—John, Winnie and Olive. The first was aged 12, the other two, and the third nine years. They died of diphtheria, were buried in Masonic cemetery. The children were bright and handsome, and in their loss our citizens sincerely sympathize with the founder of this city and his Inestimable wife.

It was reported on the streets that among a gang of Chinamen sent south Tuesday was one suffering from smallpox, but upon investigation we ascertained that the report was without foundation. The only diseased Chinaman in the gang was a poor fellow who had had a "head put on him," hence the scales taken to be smallpox.
