THE INDEPENDENT.

ROSEBURG, SATURDAY, JULY 22.

THE NEXT U. S. SENATOR.

While the Republicans have a good working majority in the next legislature there is already exhibited a want of harmony among them which promises a serious difficulty in the election of an United States Senator to succeed Senator Grover. It is unfortunate for that party that it should be divided upon such a vital principle as the division of the spoils, yet such is the fact. The Stalwarts at present have the loaves and fishes which are said to be dispensed under the present administration by ex-Senator Hipple Mitchell, and it is not surprising that the Stalwart members of the legislature should be very anxious to remove the ex from his title. The Featherheads, as they are designated by Mr. Conkling, have many members in the legislature who will strive with all the desperation of hungry office-seekers to secure the election of a Senator who may be able to reinstate them in place. It is a very pretty fight as it stands. While the Stalwarts are a unit on the election of Mitchell, the Featherheads are divided among themselves as to the choice of a candidate, besides laboring under the disability of being outside of the U. S. treasury. The Oregonian, while it emphatically declares against Mitchell and predicts that his election would destroy the party in the State, affects to treat the subject, as Toots says, "of no consequence at all." The Statesman takes a more decided stand upon the subject and is terribly in earnest. It warns Democrats and Democratic editors not to espouse the cause of Mitchell, evidently fearing that the Democratic members will join the Stalwarts and elect him. The Featherheads may as well abandon their fears; no Democrat will vote for a spoilsman of either faction, Mitchell, Thompson, Boise nor Harvey Scott. Should they nominate a pure man like C. C. Beekman, of Jacksonville, the result might be otherwise, but as it is impossible to elect a man who is not pledged to divide with his own set, there is little probability of such an event. If the opponents of Mr. Mitchell are really in earnest in desiring to secure civil service reforms and restoring the Government to its original purity of administration, they can easily demonstrate it by selecting some Democrat whose character and principles are a sufficient guaranty for his acts, and many such can be found in the State. Until they do this it is none of our fight.

THE WAR IN EGYPT.

The present war in Egypt is no doubt incomprehensible to the majority of our readers, and a short explanation may be necessary. The British capitalists owned the majority of the stock in the Suez canal from the Mediterranean to the Red sea, which they purchased from the Khedive of Egypt, who is the chief ruler, holding his power from the Sultan at Constantinople. Arabi Pasha, the chief of the rebel forces, claims that the country is an independent nation under no obligations to England nor the Sultan, and as the canal was an injury to his country he threatened to destroy it. To prevent this England sent a fleet to Alexandria, the principal seaport of Egypt, and upon the refusal of Arabi Pasha to dismantle his forts, they destroyed the city with a terrible loss of life. Arabi has retreated a short distance from Alexandria and is preparing to resist an attack. Public sentiment in England is divided on the policy of destroying Alexandria, and John Bright has resigned from the cabinet on that account. It is a matter of vital importance to England that she shall maintain the control of the Suez canal as her nearest route to her East Indian possessions, but the jealousy of her neighbors is liable to induce complications which may precipitate a general European war. Already the price of wheat has advanced.

The political situation in Pennsylvania is daily growing more serious for the Republicans, and the election of the entire Democratic ticket is a certainty. This condition is brought about by a third ticket placed in the field by independent Republicans in opposition to the Cameron or Stalwart wing. One of the gallant 306 is the Stalwart candidate for Governor.

From a very high Republican source it is asserted that Henry Villard will name the next Senator from Oregon. It has come to be that many of the representatives at Washington are nothing but paid attorneys for corporations, and so it will continue as long as the Republican party rules the land.

The condition of Senator Hill, of Georgia, is growing worse, and his death may occur at any minute.

BACKBONE WANTED.

We have tried to impress upon the mind of the Democracy that certain qualities are necessary for success. And we have tried to point out the errors of our leaders and the passive submission of the people. We have yet another field to explore, and more advice to give. Let it be remembered that we say nothing in a spirit of fault-finding, or as a chronic growler. We only desire the success of the Democratic party and the triumph of justice and right. With this we will be satisfied and until that success is accomplished we will not consider that our humble work in the vineyard of Democracy is finished. We lay down as a premise that every Democrat does, or at least should believe that the cardinal principles of his party are necessary to the good government of our Republic and for its guidance to that high destiny which is is due and which we all hope and pray for. Let us therefore be understood as talking to the rank and file of the Democracy. What we need is backbone. We need to stand by the party for the party's sake more. No good can come out of the Republican party. If there is no balm in Gilead, if there is no salvation in the Democracy, then indeed is our country lost. Back our leaders up, pat them on the back, to use a homely phrase; let them know that whatever they do we will have faith in their honesty. Let the old enthusiasm that clustered around and fought for Jefferson and Jackson be aroused. Let it gather peace around some of our leaders now, no matter who; let it exalt him. Let him understand that the party is with him, that it looks for him to link his name with Jefferson and Jackson and make a truimvirate of Democratic heroes. No matter who the man may be—Tilden, Hancock, Thurman, Bayard are all honorable and great men; or some younger leader even. Make him the Democratic idol, rally round him, declaim his good qualities to the world and let all man kind know that we are going to make him the people's President, and let us do it! Then when we have him for President, he will recognize the responsibility upon him, and with the assistance of Statesmen in the Cabinet corruption will be rooted out, navy robberies will be dispensed with and our navy put on a decent footing; suit against government thiev s will not turn out farces, the railroads and the corporations will not vile the country, and on the other hand honesty and reform would lead the country, the revenue would be brought to an equitable basis, the Indians would be justly and firmly dealt with, the Chinese problem would be more satisfactroly and permanently settled. The good old times would come again. Let us have backbone enough to stand together and accomplish this. Give our leaders a fair show.

The Standard says: From the news coming to hand from day to day it would seem that Bliss, who is prosecuting the star route cases on the part of the Government, is not above suspicion in his management, but that he is either the "villain in the play" or simply a tool in the hands of officials above him. One case is dismissed upon the threat of breaking the Republican majority in the U. S. Senate, and another, involving the payment of a million of money, is to be arbitrated. The latter is the cases against Salisbury and Parker, who had secured something like sixty different mail contracts, and afterward obtained exhorbitant advances under the pretense of increased service. The willingness of the parties to arbitrate is a tacit admission of their fraud and will be so regarded by the people. The public is rapidly losing confidence in the ability or desire of the Government officials to prosecute these fraudulent cases to a successful issue. Instead of a vigorous prosecution, there are no results apparent except vascillating action, subterfuge and evasion.

The death of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln is announced. Her remains were deposited in the vault under Lincoln's monument at Springfield, Ill., on Wednesday, with other members of the family. For many years she has not had entire control of her mental faculties.

Jones, of Nevada, and Miller, of California, are the corporation Senators from this coast. Oregon will send a third. The Central Pacific has its tools, why should not Villard?

The star route thieves are to be let off scott free. How long, O Lord, will the people keep the Republican party in power?

"The satisfaction and enthusiasm with which the Democratic State ticket of Pennsylvansa is received" beats anything in the reeollection of the Pittsburg Post.

INTEMPERANCE.

The temperance cause seems to have lost all its vitality in the community while the habit of social drinking is increasing to an alarming and filling the ranks of the drunkard by the score from the mere youths of the rising generation and so prevalent is this that we see almost daily upon our streets young men who but the day before were under the tender care of loving parents, sober and industrious, filled with hope and animation, with a bright future before them; reeling under the influence of the tempter with eyes red and swoolen, countenance destroyed, mind clowded, ambition gone and manhood lowered to a level below that of the brute all from the habit of social drinking. This too comes in a great masure from persons who are engaged in the business of vending the ardent, violating the laws of the state which make it criminal to sell or give it to persons under age, or permit such youths to loiter or hang about their places of business, which is encouraged no doubt by the seeming indifference of the officers whose duty it is to enforce these laws; during the last term a cause involving one of these provi sions was before the circuit court, and so universally was it known that its provisions are disregarded by nearly all persons engaged in the saloon business, and treated as a dead letter upon our statute books by the public and our officers, that it was with the utmost difficulty that a jury could be prevailed upon to enforce its provisions on the ground, and for the reason that the single cause; when there were known to be so many more, looked like partiality and savored of oppression. Now we have no quarrel with any person engaged in the saloon business, it is recognized by the laws of the State, and one person has the same right to engage in the business that every other person has. But some measure should be devised to arrest the increasing drunkenness among the rising generation. It is a duty which we all owe to the State, as well as to our children, for when the habit of laying around saloons fumbling over dirty pasteboards and guzzling beer becomes fixed upon a young man, his usefullness is gone, he soon looses his own self esteem, neglects his business if he has any, and soon becomes incapacitated for any useful calling, and it takes almost a super human effort to throw off the habit when it once becomes thoroughly fixed, especially while the tempter is constantly before them, and as for the old confirmed drunkard there is but little hope, but as for the youth the state should see to it that the temptation should be removed as far as possible.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfecter of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.
