THE LOST RETURNED .- In response to our advertisement in last week's issue, Mr. Austin Myers, the lost attorney, reported himself at the Sheriff's effice, somewhat sunburned, but otherwise hale and hearty. A wild flatter of joy escaped his lady love with the exclamation: "Aust. has got backhe is safe," etc. Aust.'s stories of his slaughter of elk, bear and deer beats Sankey's snake story by all odds.

New Jan. The new jail is in course of completion, the iron cells having been finished some time ago. A few days since the new Deputy Sheriff and the newly elected County Treasurer were practicing with the patent com sination lock, and happening to step inside of the corridor, pulled the door after them, when it sprung the bars and made them secure prisoners. The boys on the work being the only rersons present, let them re main inside a considerable time, but finally yielded to their entreaties and set the prisoners free. It is now currently reported that neither the Deputy or Treasurer will stand treat to either melons or peaches. Further than this our informant sayeth not.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING .- On Sunday evening, just after the fatal affray or our streets, the news came to town that a son of William Alexander had been shot by a playmate. Dr. Bunnell, who was at once summoned, found that the boy was seriously injured, but that the wound was not necessarily fatal. He was shot through the left fore-arm, the bullet passing through the body near the lung, and close to the shoulder blade. The doctor set the arm and the little fellow, aged about nine, is doing well. The report that he had been shot by a play mate, however, proved false. Mr. Al exander had returned home from one of the tunnels, and a large Colt's revolver which he had taken with him he laved upon a shelf over the door. grove, where he resides, to be an amiable little fellow, and that he bears the pain of his injuries with remarkable

THE OLD STAGE COMPANY .- On last Saturday, as the Overland stage left Roseburg, the Silver Cornet band gave it a serenade, and it was intended that the last stage on Sunday would be honored in the same way, but on account of the fatal occurrence of that evening, it was dispensed with. On the 14th day of August, 1859, the Overland Stage Company's coaches first arrived at what, at that time, was the very small village of Roseburg. The arrival of these coac es was the opening of a new era in the history of the gations to Mr. Conn for this valuable southern portion of the State.
