LOCAL ITEMS.

A fine assortment of silverware will be sold at J. Janslek's.

The newly appointed officers of Klamath county have qualified and the residents are jubilant.

The latest attraction is the swinging clock in the show window at J. Janslek's jewelry store.

Toys of every description, dolls of wax, and dolls with curls, guns for boys, and dolls for girls, at J. Janslek's.

Rev. M. C. Miller's health being so feeble he will not attempt to fill his pulpit here next Sabbath.

Dr. George H. Flett left this week for the front, to assist Dr. Sterling in the management of the railroad hospital.

Phil. Corbin is back on the passenger train again. The passengers always feel safer when Phil. is at the throttle.

The charivari party we noticed last week were held to bail by Justice Flint in the sum of one hundred dollars each, to answer to a charge of riot.

We call special attention to the new advertisement of A. C. Marks appearing in this week's issue, of toys and holiday goods, and speak for him a liberal patronage.

J. M. Wiley of Camas valley, was in town this week and reports that the people of the valley have been severely afflicted with diptheria, but that it is now abating.

Tiff Trask, half-breed living on the north Umpqua, near Patterson's mills, on last Saturday was scuffling with a young man when he was thrown and received a fracture of the thigh bone.

Holiday goods at J. Janslek's, of the finest variety. Prices to suit customers.

Rev. J. H. Wilbur, better known here as Father Wilbur, has resigned the Indian agency which he has so long held, into the hands of his successor, and removed to Goldendale, Washington Territory.

It is said they have "struck it" in Washington Territory, near Tacoma. A Portland syndicate has incorporated a company to bore for oil. We hope it will not prove gas.

Gold and silver-cased spectacles and glasses at J. Janslek's.

See the new advertisement of L. Belfils. Concrete water pipe can be obtained by calling on him at the jewelry store, or of H. Gaterman, at his place of business in Roseburg.

J. H. Shupe and J. P. Sutherland will give a grand ball at Oakland on Christmas night. The best of music and a fine supper have been provided for and a good time is expected.

George Colvig has been appointed railroad agent at Myrtle Creek, while J. A. Small continues as agent at Kildville. The Mitchell men are still securing their reward, if Dolph was elected.

We noticed a hotel keeper from the front this week trying to buy beef from Jac. Bitzer to supply his hotel. The railroad work seems to have made a famine in the beef market in that section.

Hon. G. Webster, of Marshfield, Coos county, has removed with his family to California. Coos county could well have spared a better man. Vale: Webster.

Missing, from Roseburg one small gray terrier dog, one small black and tan shepherd dog, one black and tan shepherd dog, old and deaf. I will pay a liberal reward for the return of said dogs or reliable information that will lead to their recovery. Address H. COXS, Sr.

Fine gold watches for ladies and gentlemen, chains and jewelry to match at J. Janslek's.

The Northern Pacific railroad company with its usual disposition to monopolize everything, has undertaken to do the express business along its line.

Opera, field and marine glasses, cheap, at J. Janslek's.

Wednesday of last week at the town of Riddles, "away unto the wee small hours of night," some dry cuss, burglariously intent, entered the saloon of McCulloch & Walters and after drinking to his heart's content neglected to stop the spigots of the various casks which he had sampled and the fluid ran out and was lost to the amount of several gallons. He also took a small amount of change which had been left in the till.

All persons wanting holiday goods should call at Langenberg Bros. See their advertisement.

The article in this number of our paper in regard to the resources of Douglas county, was kindly prepared for us by Binger Herman Esq., in reply to a letter from a gentleman from the east who desired to emigrate to this country.

Mr. Hermann, whose experience in the land office as well as his extensive acquaintance in the county eminently qualified him for the work, has devoted much labor in obtaining accurate statistics on every subject. Every citizen in the county should send a copy to his friends in the east.

There is much discussion among the papers of the State in regard to the new game law, especially in regard to catching mountain or brook trout. We offer as our opinion that no mountain or brook trout can be caught with a hook and line in the months of November, December, January, February and March, but the salmon trout, which follow the salmon up all the rivers of the coast, including the Umpqua, are easily caught during those months and are in good season.

We have no doubt that the salmon trout were not referred to in the law.

The great wonder is what they have to eat and drink at McCulloch's saloon and restaurant in Roseburg. A lank, hungry looking stranger was passing along the street the other day and was heard to soliloquize: "That he could not see how McCulloch kept up such an establishment. There are three bar-keepers, as big around the waste as a hundred dollar mule and as fat as a Chinese slaughter hog and I would like to find out what he gave them to eat and drink."

The latest amusement was the Odd Fellows Ball on Thursday night, which for social enjoyment eclipses any entertainment which we have had for years.

A $200 Bible reward. The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their monthly for December, among which is the following: We will give $200 in gold to the person telling us how many verses there are in the New Testament Scriptures (not the new Revision) by December 10th, 1882.

A new bank is about to be started at Eugene City. Business will be commenced on the 1st of January.

Col Gardiner, Indian inspector, whatever that may be, has concluded his work in Oregon and returned to Portland.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Roseburg Academy, to be found elsewhere in this issue.

The Pacific Overseer, the organ of the A. O. U. W., will no longer be run as a private enterprise.

James Short, while hunting last week on Rafe Dixons place, killed one of the largest cougar that has been found for many years.

Bill Nye on the Elections. We have met the enemy and we are his. We have made our remarks and we are ready to listen to the gentleman from New York.

THIEF CAUGHT.—A party giving his name as Charles Anderson, was arrested on Saturday last week, by Sheriff Purdon, while asleep in a wagon under Flood's warehouse, charged with having stolen a span of horses and wagon from A. T. Ambrose, near Yoncula, the night before.

MYRTLE CREEK. There will be a grand ball here on Christmas. Also a Christmas tree for the little ones.

Mr. Gabbert, the polite agent of Wells Fargo & Co., is at present absent from town, recreating. His place is ably filled by our friend Ezra Dyer.

A former correspondent of your paper recently intimated that he could hear wedding chimes not far off. He was correct in that statement, but a little "off" as regards the parties thereto.

OBITUARY.

Our loved one is gone. His sainted spirit fled to the sinless land on the morning of the 11th of November, 1882. Long and weary days and nights of suffering are over held with little Oscar Thompson, he was held in the prison of clay only waiting for the door to be opened and a voice bidding come. Death came and set his angel spirit free. The final chill that freezes the blood, plucks the rose from the cheek and sends a mysterious shudder through the heart, came and a loving child, the affectionate and beautiful little Oscar is now waiting in the blissful abode of Heaven where sickness and pain will never come and free from all snares of this world.

As bowed by sudden storm the rose Little Oscar breathed his last, Down to the grave our jewel goes In silence there to rest.

No more with us his pleasant voice The shouts of joyful play shall swell, No more his cheerful heart rejoice No pleasing story tell.

Now in yonder cloudless sphere Amid a sinless throng, He utters in a Saviour's ear The everlasting Song.

No more we'll mourn the absent child But lift our earnest prayer And daily every effort try To rise and join him there.

NEW ASYLUM PHYSICIAN.—The Eugene City Guard has the following to say about the new resident asylum physician: Dr. A. I. Nicklin has accepted the position of resident physician of the Oregon Insane Asylum at East Portland, in place of Dr. Nottage, resigned. Dr. Nicklin takes charge at once, and will leave Eugene City in a few days for that purpose.

We are pained to see the American people thus betray our confidence, and throw a large wardrobe into the hands of the relentless foe.—Boomerang, Nov. 8.

ANNUAL REPORT.—We have received from the Board of Trade of Portland their eighth annual report, which contains much valuable information relative to the rapid development of the State and city.

From it we learn that passengers have arrived at that port during the past season at the rate of 150 per day, and it is estimated that fully fifty per cent of that number have come within the State overland during that period.

At the present rate of increase Oregon will, at no distant day, rank with the first States in the Union in wealth and population.

It is time that the country as well as the city were making preparations to receive and utilize this vast increase of wealth and population.

Roseburg, surrounded as it is by vast water privileges, which needs but a moderate outlay to utilize them and make them the finest power for turning machinery to be met with anywhere; with our mild and even climate and the best wool in the world, offers strong inducements for milling enterprises.

If such enterprises were inaugurated here the freights on the exports of the raw material and import of the manufactured goods would be saved to the people of Southern Oregon, as well as the profits and percentages which every middleman and operator retains out of the fleece before it returns to clothe the family of the farmer who clipped it from his sheep in the Umpqua valley.

Call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the old stand of
