Only a woman shriveled and old; The play of the winds and the prey of the cold Cheeks that are sbrunken, Eyes that are sunken,
Lips that were never o'er bold.
Only a woman forsaken and poor,
Asking an alms at the bronze church door.

Hark to the organ ! roll upon roll The waves of its music go over her soul! Silks rustle past her, Thicker and faster;

The great bell ceases its toll. Fain would she enter, but not for the poor Swingeth wide open the bronze church door,

Only a woman--waiting alone leily cold, on an ice cold throne. What do they care for her? Mumbling a prayer for her, Giving not bread, but a stone. Under old laces their haughty hearts beat, Mocking the woes of their kin in the street.

Only a woman! In the old days Hope caroled to her her happiest lays; Somebody missed her; Somebody kissed her; Somebody crowned her with praise, Somebody faced up the battles of life Strong for her sake who was mother, or wife. Somebody lies with a tress of her hair Light on his heart where the death-shadows ar Somebody waits for her, Opening the gates for her,

Giving delight for despair, Only a woman - nevermore poor -Dead in the snow at the bronze church door !

WIFE DISCIPLINE.

There had been orange-blossoms, and white satin, and a wedding ring; turkey, white satin, and a wedding ring; turkey, champagne, and emotion, and the newly breveted Mrs. Arthur Boabdil, nee Thompson, was stepping into the carriage in a traveling suit (the loveliest thing, ashes of roses,, even to her boots, as she said), when Aunt Baker, one of as she said), when Aunt Baker, one of the satisfactory with fearfully commons the mindow she had seen Mr. your women with feaffully commonmake other people's preserves, and nurse their children, stepped up to her. the pretty little auburn head down in "Good-bye, Amina. When the honeymoon is over I will come and see you." from a letter of twenty pages, written to her bosom friend, Lizzie Waylie:

"Imagine my feelings, darling! I our wretched seamstress, if it hadn't of course I could do nothing-but I does!" looked my indignation, and answered in that Arthur and I couldn't love each away. I wish she hadn't smiled, though, being always in the right. Her words have been perfect Mordecais in the gate of my palace of pleasures. They have you think our honeymoon will ever

Miss Lizzie Waylie received this letter while Mrs. Boabdil was on her bridal tour. In the course of time, Mr. and Mrs. Boabdil settled themselves in a cottage a short distance up the Hudson, but no more treble-stamped envelopes reached Miss Lizzie, though three months had elapsed, when Mr. Boabdil pushed back his coffee cup, and looked severely at poor little Mrs. Boabdil, shaking behind the urn, at the other end of the "Amina," he said, with emphasis, "this cannot last. I have pointed out to you the fact that our whole future happiness is at stake. I have represented to you that trifles are the bridges from one phase of happiness to another. I have devoted my time and energies to the arduous task of forming your character. We now have been married three months, and I still find you untractable, unconvinced, obstinate; and I say again, this cannot last."

Mrs. Boabdil dropped her bread and ing her, pushed back his chair and took "If I only knew how to suit you."

sniffed Mrs. Boabdil. "Is there anything easier?" he demanded, severely. "I ask you simply for rare steak and well made coffee. It is brought on actually brown, and I find there are four tablepoonfuls of coffee Baker, what shall I do?" used instead of three, as I ordered. Burn all your handkerchiefs, or Four, Mrs. Boabdil and heaped up at make a vow not to use them for the next

"But this urn, that you will use is of no value.'

"And why not, madam? Am I not use it, is not that quite sufficient? Things lous and unjust accusations in unmoved are getting down to a very fine point, I silence.

"I do not mean that. I only wish to "Oh! quarreling are you? Very well, madam. You know my mind on school, with neither sense nor experience, that point perfectly. I have always said and expects her at once to assume the that if discussions must arise between responsibilities of a woman-to have my wife and myself, the sooner we part more tact, discretion and patience than the better. You will order Mary to get himself, to forget without an effort all out my trunk and see that it is packed by three o'c ock this afternoon. I must his whims with the equanimity of a have peace, at whatever cost it is ob- woman who had learned to despise them.

As since the first week of their return, the said trunk had been brought down regularly from its resting place in the I lose all patience when I think of it, attic, three times a week, bureau drawers and would like to take you both and revolutionized, pantaloons and cravats | whip you soundly." stowed away with an emphasis, and John ordered to be in readiness to carry it to the depot at three o'clock, apparently for the sole purpose of keeping Mrs. Boabdil in hysterics, and her pockethandkerchief in the wash; as Mr. Boabdil had never yet spent a night from his trunk three times a week?" home, it might have been imagined that she would receive the announcement wich tolerable composure; but whatever energy of purpose or force of character were destined to develop themselves in Mrs. Amina Boabdail, nee Thompson, she was at present only a little doveeyed, peach-checked, cotton-wool-and- ready for him by three o'clock," said wax sort of woman, with a strong tendency to tears and cambric handkerchiefs -- of which latter resources she im mediately availed berself. "Another of your pernicious habits, madam," commented Mr. Boabdil, secretly hugging himself with delight at the effect of his determined measures. "When will you ever have any firmness? How often shall I be obliged to remind you that the days of your babyhood are passed, and that you are, or ought to be, a woman?

nate," whined Amina. "So you are," he returned, reddening and spluttering. "Obstinate as a mule, and -why, how are you, Mrs. Baker? I am very glad to see you."

sorely puzzled. Aunt Baker looked at the breakfast table, the sobbing Amina, and the spluttering Boabdil, in evident astonishment. Poor little Mrs. Boabdil, hastily wiped her eyes, and came forward, trying to

"Dear Aunt Baker, I am so glad to see you. I have such a shocking headache, and I am such a silly, nervous creature, I was crying about it."

"Amina," exclaimed her busband in his deepest bass! "When will you ever be truthful? My wife has no headache at all, Mrs. Baker. The plain truth of the matter is, I am forming her charac. nose before supper-time. ter, and she takes it very hard, and resents my efforts as actual injuries. It is in vain for me to say to her, 'Amina, you are a perfect child, you know you are. You have always been petted and spoiled, and need the guidance of a strong will and great common sense to make a woman of you.' She is deaf to gray suit?' all my arguments, and treats me to this sort of scene every time I open my mouth; so that were not my duty superi- go? or to all other considerations with me, I should give up in despair."

"And you are sure you are pursuing the best method?" asked Aunt Baker, quietly.

"Sure? Positive ma'am. Only way in the world-only way in the world, ma'am. Be a perfect child all her life, from the window, she had seen Mr. sense views, and a natural ability to Boabdil quite out of the gate. Then she seated herself beside her niece and drew

"Now, you little goose, what is it all We will give the new-made matron's about, and what has become of the answer in her own words, taking them honeymoon that was to shine over your graves?"

"Oh! don't, please don't, Aunt Baker," sniffed Amina. "There is no honeycouldn't offend Aunt Baker, you know, moon at all, and it's perfectly dreadful because what with mamma's nerves, and and it gets worse all the time. He will go away this time; I know he will. I been for her I don't know how my ward- never have seen him so dreadfully in robe ever would have been finished; for earnest before, and I shall die if he the words of that dear, delightful Mr. Rochester, in 'Jane Eyre:' 'Then you But why is Mr. Boabdil going away?"

But why is Mr. Boabdil going away?" will never come at all, Aunt Baker, for it will shine over our graves.' Would you believe it, Lizzie, darling! Aunt Baker smiled, that dreadful smile of hers, as much as to say; 'Go on, poor butterfly, till you scoreh your wings.' Instead of a mar-live that dreadful nrn, and he won't allow the drug firm of Plummer & reading, and will be found very valuable and instructive reading, and will be furnished gratuitously. four. And then you see, Aunt Baker that Arthur and I couldn't love each other more than we do, and that there wasn't any possibility of a change. I would far rather she had boxed my ears; but, of course, you know, I couldn't do anything, only say: 'Good-bye, Aunt anything, only say: 'Good-bye, Aunt looks out in an arbor on the top of rocks, Baker,' as sweetly as I could, and drive the cook isn't satisfied and is all the time she has such an uncomfortable way of being always in the right. Her words kind and attentive as he used to be. You know how he used to be at parties-why, he never ate a thing himself, he was so spoiled all my enjoyments, and, Lizzie, dear, I know it's all nonsense, but do dear, I know it's all nonsense, but do of chicken salad right in front of him, and I had to ask him for it three times before he helped me, though he knows that is my weakness. But I bore it in silence, and wasn't going to tell it, even to Lizzie, because I know it is a woman's duty to suffer, and there are some griefs > gravely. And then went on Amina, warming: "He wouldn't even let me write to Lizzie, but took away my pens and paper, and he says a married woman oughtn't to have friendships; and that the less you have to do with anybody that you ever knew or liked before marriage the better; because, he says, 'a woman must leave father and mother, and cleave to her husband.' Is it so in your Bible, Aunt Baker? I can't find it the war with a courage and endurance in mine.

that are sacred. But wasn't it hard?"

"Dreadful," returned Aunt Baker, her gravity. "But is this all?"

"All? oh! dear, no! I was so silly I cried when he scolded; and then he said butter, and raised her handkerchief to I was a child and didn't manage the her eyes. Mr. Boabdil, who was watch- house rightly; and he goes into all the closets and finds such dreadful things; his stand on the hearthrug, with his and he says I am so extravagant I am back to the mantel and his hands in his ruining him; and that he has made up his mind not to live with a woman who can't make him happy; and he has had his trunk packed, oh, so many times; and I have had to cry and go down on

"Burn all your handkerchiefs, or six months," returned Aunt Baker, with sudden energy. "Be blind, dumb, deaf; do anything but cry. Your husband wished you to be a woman; prove that master of my own house? If I choose to you are one by listening to his ridicu-

> "Aunt Baker!" "Yes, I say ridiculous and unjust, Mrs. Boabdil. This man comes and takes a silly little thing, just out of Because you can't do all this he storms and packs up his trunk, and you-dear

But, Aunt Baker, what in the world can I do?"

"Do you really want to know?" "Why, of course I do."

"Yes."

"Well, then, pack it for him."

"Aunt Baker!" "Go up stairs and pack it for him. Aunt Baker, deliberately.

"But he will go." "No, he won't. He ain't such a goose as you are."

Baker's eyes for a few moments. "I will go and do it now," she exclaimed, starting up suddenly.

Aunt Baker nod led and followed her seized on a coat and pitched it in. "Bravo!" said Aunt Baker. Half a dozen pairs of pantaluons fol- cannot help them. I wish I could say | Liver and idney-discusses vetoci by Dime Pills.

lentings.

"Aunt Baker, if he should go I should never forgive myself." "You little simpleton, go on, I tell you. You won't lose your precious And undoubtedly he was, for he was treasure.

In went the rest of the things, and with a sign Amina strapped and locked the trunk. Then commenced Aunt Baker's troubles. Twenty times the soft-hearted Mrs. Boabdil started to unpack it, and as often Aunt Baker held her back. it Mr. Boabdil, to her intense relief and outbursts of applause. the secret constarnation of Amina, who quaked inwardly as she sat on the sofa in a peach-blossom dress, with her hair neatly arranged, and embroidering as diligently as though the chief end of her life was to finish the tip of St. Anthony's

"Is that trunk ready?" demanded Mr. Boabdil, with a quick, amazed glance. waiting at the door with the wagon," said Amina, with a tolerable affectation | Pennsylvania, the company is authorized of indifference.

"Oh! sh! hum! Did you put in my "I packed everything that belonged to you. Will you have lunch before you

I, ah-no, thank you." "He is going!" she, exclaimed, histerically, starting up as he left the room. "Yes, to send off John," laughed Aunt Baker. "Sit down and keep cool."

Tea time came. The two ladies seated themselves at table. When it was half over, in walked Mr. Boabdill. "Why, aren't you gone?" inquired his wife, who began to enter into the joke. Mary, set a plate for Mr. Boabdil. I thought you were off by this time "

"I-1? It was so late, I concluded not to go," stammered Mr. Boabdil. Amina looked over at Aunt Baker. She was as grave as judges are, or ought to be. After supper she stole up to her room. The clothes were carefully rein the attic, where it has rested ever to be useful to lawyers going to court, to since—undisturbed even by a mention of physicians, contractors and Summer

Soldlers Return from the War.

Marine Light Infantry, such a wel- [N. Y. Times. come was extended as is hitherto unknown in English history. We make a Byerly, of the drug firm of Plummer & Byerly. As Col. LeGrand came forward at the head of his men, volley after vollev of cheers assailed him, and his gallant following. At the entrance to the triumphal arch the white-helmeted war-Alverstoke Local Board, followed by the members of that body, stepped into the center of the space. Col. Worthy Bennett thereupon said:—"Mr. Mumby, and members of the Averstoke Local Board I have much pleasured to the space. riors were formed into a hollow square, Col. Le Grand to you on his return from Egypt." When the cheering which ensued had subsided, Mr. Mumby, amid reiterated shouts of enthusiasm, said: We, the members of the Alverstoke Local Board, representing the town of Gosport, hasten to welcome your coming home to this ancient town on your return from the War in Egypt, and to offer you our heartiest congratulations you have taken in the engagements of that war. In this marvellously brief and decisive campaign the skill of the British

Frank G. Abell, the Portland photograph officers and the progress of the British soldiers have been conspicuously displayed. Under the most trying circumstances, both as to climate and sountry, you have carried out the operations of never surpassed in the history of the "We will look for it by-and-by," said Aunt Baker. with difficulty preserving her gravity. "But is this all?"

Hever surpassed in the inhabitants of this town and parish, notice with the greatest pride and satisfaction that the highest military authorities and the principle organs of public opinion declare that in this war, in which all arms | signs. of the Service have exerted themselves to the best of their ability, if any of the forces deserves special mention, you, the Royal Marines, descrie that special praise. Although not belonging to the Regular Army, you have fought side by side with our soldiers with the highest distinction. Your special training enables you to serve your country "per mare, per terram," and whether on the sea or on the land you have always done your duty nobly, and now your achieve-ments at Alexandria. Kassassin, and especially at the storming of Tel-el-Kebir, will add new laurels to your already illustrious history. We cannot forbear to mingle a note of sorrow with our words of congratulation. We deeply mourn the loss you have sustained in officers, non-commissioned officers and men, and we would specially refer to our common loss of a soldier and a citizen in the death of Major Strong, who fell while gallantly leading his men to victory into the trenches of Tel-el-Kebir. Our consolation is, and we are sure it is yours also, that both he and the brave men who fell with him died in the noblest service, the service of their country. And now, on your return from the hardships and perils of war, we hope you will enjoy the comforts and blessings of peace, and we are quite sure you will receive, as you so richly deserve, the lasting gratitude of your country.

In reply, Colonel LeGrand said: I thank you most heartily, not only on behalf of the Forton division, but on behalf of the whole corps, for the very handsome reception you have given us. I can assure you that we never dreamt even in your wildest flights of imagina-"And will you try it if I tell you a tion that our reception would be such as 1850. 32 Years Practical Experience, 1882. method to cure your husband of packing it has been to-day. The first thought we his trunk three times a week?" always had was to do our duty. and I am glad you have recognized that; but there has been another 'thought that was concurrent with the former and that was the thought. "What will they say in Eng-Put in the coat and pantaloons first. land?" You have heard now, lads, what Don't leave out so much as a cravat belonging to him. Strap it up and have it proud to be your spokesman on this oc-ready for him by three o'clock," said casion. I would that some who are not here to-day could see the honor that is showered upon us. I feel I cannot be equal to the occasion in thanking you, as I do one and all. We have been now Amina looked doubtfully into Aunt your fellow citizens for nearly forty years, and during that time I hope each year has been a credit to us, and that each year has increased our regard for the good town of Gosport, and this day ap stairs. There stood the trunk. Amina | will be deeply engraven on our memor ies. I wish we could all have come back. But there are the chances of war and we

"I thought you said I was so obsti- lewed. Then Amina was seized with re- more, but we have, you know, other claims upon us. We wish to get back to our wives, and-those of us who have them-to our families; while those who bave neither have others they wish to see. I again, therefore, thank you most heartily in the name of the Forton Division of the Royal Marine Light Infantry for the reception you have given us. Now, lads, I want you to give three hearty cheers for the lock, stock and barrel of Gosport, and one for-I need noi say who. Now one for the ladies." The cheers were given with a will and Three o'clock came at length, and with the speech was greeted with frequent

Oue-Thousand-Mile Tickets.

The New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company, familiarly known to the public as the Erie, has put on sale at its principal ticket offices one-thousand-mile tickets, at the rate of two cents a mile-s large reduction from the regu-"Yes; here is the key and John is lar rates. Under the railroad laws of the states of New York, New Jersey and to charge from three to three and a half cents a mile for carrying passengers. In deference, however, to a frequently expressed desire on the part of its local patrons for a lower rate of fare for those whose business or inclination takes them frequently over the road, these new tickets have been issued. Ordinarily, these tickets are available only for use by the person to whom issued, and whose name appears on the face of the ticket; but, when the head of a family buys a mileage book, the book may also be used by the members of the family, so that, if the wife or daughter want to go shopping of visiting, they can use the book as a family pass, the conductors detaching coupons corresponding with the number of persons traveling together and the distance travelled. In the same way, if a mileage book is bought by any business firm. It can be used by any member of firm-not more than one at a placed in the drawers, and the trunk was time. They are recommended as likely travelers. A very liberal time allowance is made in which the mileage books may be used. They are good for a year from the date of purchase. The one-thou-The prompt and decisive manner in and-mile ticket of the Erie road seems to which the war between England and be the embediment of all the praise-Egypt was terminated, excited the won- worthy features of cheap travel; and the der and admiration of the whole world. | members of every household and busi-Next follows the happy return of the ness establishment, from end to end of victorious forces. Upon the arrival at the road, will now be able to travel more Portsmouth and Gosport of the Royal and for less money, than ever before.-

reading, and will be furnished gratuitously. Send your name and postoffice address to FARMERS and MECHANICS STORE, 184 First street, Portland, Oregon. sep7-1m

Slaven's Yosemite Cherry Tooth Paste

AKIN, SELLING & CO. BOOK AND MUSIC BUYERS: - Send to Wiley B.

Allen, 153 third street, Portland, for any book or music published. Orders by mail filled promptly. The "Musical Pastime," a monthly journal of music, 50 cts. a year. Send stamp for big catalogue of music. RHEUMATISM! No one suffers from this distressing complaint if the blood is pure and healthy. OREGON BLOOD PURIFIER makes upon the important and successful part | very Rich Blood and cures Rheumatism, Pains in the Back, Limbs, etc. Try it. $1 a bottle, Frank G. Abell, the Portland photographer is leading the profession in all the novelties of the art. His work is always of the best and his customers are satisfied with what they receive. Send $1.00 to W. D. Palmer, Portland, for one year's subscription to the Pacific Overseer, the great semi-monthly A. O. U. W. paper. The male and female minstrels at the Elite theater in Portland are drawing crowded houses. The Tudors are the latest sensation and more TURKISH RUGS.—Send to John B. Garris n 167 Third street Portland, for catalogues of ie-The best liver regulator known, a sure cure for Dr spensia and indigestion is D. . denley's California I. V. Difference in I.

fornia I. X. L. Bitters. Garrison repairs all kinds of sewing machines

MUSICAL. THE MUNICAL PANTIME.—A monthly jour-nal of music (both vocal and instrumental.) sent to any address for 50ts per year, Address Wiley B. Allen, publisher and music dealer, 153 Third street, Portland, Oregon. Catalogue free.

SURVEYORS. W. B. MAYRE—Civil Engineer, Contractor as surveyors. Office—Room No. 8 Lane's Buildin East Portland. All kinds of surveying and draftin done for any part of the country.

Fihr, Props. Manufacturers of Pilot bread, Soda, Picuic, Butter, Boston, Sugar and Shoe Fly crackers, Orders from the trade solicited and promptly at-

W. G. JENNE & CO.—109 Front street nea Washington. Ores. metals, mineral waters, coal-etc., carefully analyzed. Assays for gold and slive $3, other metals from $3, to $5. Gold dust bough and bars made. Orders by mail carefully attende

J. B. McINTOSH, -Cor. Front and Stark. Chemical analysis made of coal, mineral waters, etc. Ordinary assays of gold, silver, lead or copper, from $3 to $5. Dr. P. Harvey, Consulting Chemist.

ATTORNEYS. D. P. KENNEDY,—Attorney and Counsesor a Law Room 5 Dekum's building. Legal busines pertaining to Letters Patent for inventions, before the Patent Office or in the Courts, a specialty.

Dealer in Fine Chemicals, Perfumery. Toilet Articles, Sponges, Soaps. & Rubber Loods. Cor Morrison & 2d st Portland, or. Special attention paid to orders by mail when secom panied with the cosh

MEN AND WOMEN Boys and girls, anyone who, wants light, pleasant ployment in which from $3 to $10 per day can be a will send their name and postoffice address to u

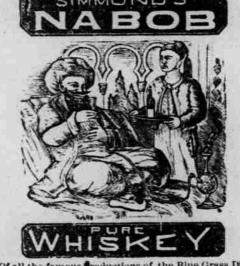

BETTER THAN GOLD. CALIFORNIA FRUIT SALT.

A Pleasant and Efficacious Remedy. LAVENS Raliforn

IF YOU HAVE ABUSED YOURSELF By over indulgence in sating or drinking; have sick or nervous headache; dryness of the skin, with a feverish tendency; night sweats and sleeplessness; by all means use

Slaven's California Fruit Salt. And feel young once more. It is the woman's friend. Try it; all per bottle; 6 bottles for $5. For sale by all druggists. HODGE, DAVIS & CO., wholesale Agents. R. E. QUEEN,

Simmond's Kentucky Nabob Bourbon Whiskey. SIMMOND'S

"NABOB"

Is notorious. It is made from pure bariey and wheat spirits, and its various component juris blended with scientific accuracy. The Best and Purest Brand in the Market. Sole Agents for Portland, Orecer and the Territories, where the trade can be supplied by the barrel, half barrel or case, at the same piece and terms as in Kentucky or San Francisco.

WILLIAM COLLIER, MACHINIST Dealer in New and SECOND HAND MACHINERY, 68 Madison St., Portland, Or. es destring Botters, Engines or MILL MACHINERY can secure by addressing Mr. Collier. New and Second Hand Machinery

SEND FOR CIRCULAR

D. J. MALARKEY & CO.,

PORTLANT OR.

Wheat, Oats, Flour, Wool & Dairy Produce.

Send for WEEKLY PRICES CURRENT, mailed free on application. Laberal Advances on Consignments. psignments and Orders Solicited. 41 PRONT ST., PORTLAND, QR.

USE ROSE PI'LS. DR. SPINNEY,

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM THE EF fects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boors ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR SITNNEY will guarantee to forfelt $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private diseases of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to care. MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty whate troubled with too frequent evacuations of the pladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting of urning sensation and a weakening of the system is a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumer will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue ugain changing to a dark and torpid appearance there are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of Seminal Weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure is all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genite urinary organs. all such cases, and a beauty strong cases, and a beauty strinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, 55.

Call or address DR. SPINNEY & CO.,

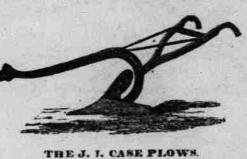

No. 11 Kearny street, San Francisco, Call

81,000 REWARD FOR ANYONE WHO WILL LEARN Kellogg & Jillson's System of Bress and Cloak Cutting, and, with a corret measure and perfect cutting, produce a bad fitting garment. Several improvements have jurbeen made. Agents to sell and teach wanted in every town. n every town. Good agents car ...ake from $10 to $25 per day. KELLOGG & JILLSON, Cheney, Spokane Co., W. T

USE ROSE PILLS. Write to Cleve and Lispensary, Cleveland, O., for Pamphlet in plain sealed envelope, describing

Liquid on DRY, PRICE $100; "ATMOSPHERIC Insuffictors," price $0c. Dry Cure and Insuffictors mailed on receipt of price, with full direction for use, etc. S. G. SKIDMORE & Co., Druggists 151 First FARMING MACHINERY.

The TRIUMPH SEEDERS and DEILLS.

We are the sole agents for Oregon and Washington Territory of the celebrated J. I. CASE PLOWS, "TRIUMPH" SEEDERS and DRILLS, Studebaker Farm and Spring Wagons, J. I. Case Traction Engines, Portable Engines, Engines on Skids, and single or double Saw Mills. Call and see us or write for Catalogues STAVER & WALKER, Front St. foot of Salmon, Portland.

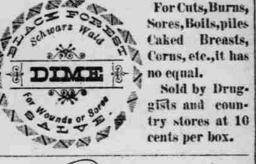

SPORTSMEN'S EMPORIUM. WM. BECK & SON

Importers and dealers in Guns, Rifles, and Revolvers Sinkers, Rods, Reels, Floats. Sturgeon Lines, Baskets, Flies, Leaders,

FISHING TACKLE Six Spliced Split Bamboo Rods, 165 and 167 Second st., Portland, Or is on every pair. EVERY PAIR GUARANTEED. AKIN, SELLING & CO.

try stores at 10 cents per box.

Portland Business College,

PORTLAND MECHANICS' FAIR, For the best exhibit of Plain Writing, Card Writing Flourishing, Lettering and Pen Drawing. The Portland Business College Journal, Containing specimens of ornamental pen work, executed by Prof. Wesco, will be sent free to any address Send name on postal card. Address
A. P. ARMSTRONG,
se7tf Lock Box 10), Portland, Dr

PFUNDER'S

VIGOR HEALTH AND LIFE REMEMBER, by PURIFYING your BLOOT you Regulate the Liver and Kidneys, cleanse the stomach of all Morbid Secretions, and enjoy that great boon, Good Health. No sufferer should fall to give this popular remedy a trial. Get the GENVINI and observe the Trade Mark. One Dollar per bottle bor sale overwhere.

NO MORE DYSPEPSIA.

Recommended by all Physicia s. Read Co-tificates on back of Bottle. A cure Cure for Indigesion, Loss of Appetite and the Rest Liver Regulator known.

SOLD ONLY IN GLASS. To fil or sell any but the genuine article out of our bottle is felony and when detected, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law our bottle is felony and when detected, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Trade supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co.

| 580 Washington St., San Francisco, Cal. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. |
| 580 Washington St., San Francisco, Cal. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for this supplied by Arpad Haraszihy & Co. | Shift of the Will be growing demand for the Will be growin

82,000. 82,000. A CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP

-FOR-TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS Universal Benevolent Ass'n

Of California for Unmarried Persons incr ases at the rate of $20 per month the first year, $35 the second year, $50 the third year and $76 the second year, $50 the third year and $76 the fourth year. For further particulars and terms send for a copy of our new paper, "The Ideo graphic." which will be sent free. RELIGIBLE LIVE AGENTS WANTED in every town and county in Oregon and Washington Ter. Send for terms at once to W. WHITEWELL, Gen'l Agt. Oregon and Washington Territory. Room 48 Union the Portland or.

The Finest BITTERS to the WORLD. THEY EFFECTUALLY CURE

MALARIAL DISEASES.

Ask your Druggist or Wine Merchant for WILMERDING & CO., Agents, San Francisco. W. J. VAN SCHUYVER & CO., Portland

ZEPHYR WOOL. GERMAN AND GERMANTOWN WOOL, KNIT ING AND EMBROIDERING SILK, CAN-VASSES, FELIS, all kirds of Fancy work. ADIES' UNDERWEAR, MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR.

FANT'S COMPLETE WARDROBES. 24 PIECES—$27 00. 34 PIECES—$27 00.

165 Third Street, Portland, Or.

SEWING MACHINE REPAIRING DONE ON SHORT NOTICE. MACHINES THREAD. ATTACHMENTS, etc. GENERAL AGENT

HOUSEHOLD & WHITE $1000 REWARD ILL BE PAID TO ANY PERSON PRODUCor. Keck's Sure Cure for Catarrh, USE ROSE PILLS HUDSON'S GUN STORE.

SS First street, Portland, Oregon. GUNS, PISTOLA AND AMMUNITION

THE "WHITE." WE HAVE THIS DAY SOLD