A COWARDLY ACT .-- On Saturday morning of last week, about four o'clock some persons were passing along the railroad track in the southern portion of town where the Chinese tents are situ ated, and when opposite one of the tents fired into it, striking one of the Celestials in the thigh, inflicting a se vere wound, the ball forcing into the tissues a large amount of cotton batting of the comforter under which he was sleeping. While we are no admirer of the Chinese race we sincerely hope that the miscreant who would be guilty of so contemptible and cowardly an act may be ferreted out by the officers of the law and whether he be white man or Chinaman, made to suffer the penalty which such wicked and contemptible an act merits.

"MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING."-H. K. Morgan, who was arrested in Drain some two or three weeks ago and who pending his examination, unceremoniously left the newly appointed deputy sheriff, and which invoked the severe criticism of our worthy contemporary was re-arrested last Sunday night by Sheriff Purdom in Myrtle Creek, who brought him to Roseburg Monday morning and on Tuesday took him to Drain for examination. The testimony failed to show him guilty of any offense against the law and the justice of the peace before whom he was examined exonerated him of the charge and he was allowed to go at liberty Thus another newspaper desperado is transformed into an inoffensive citizen

RURAL JUSTICE .- A justice of the seace and constable were lately ap pointed to their respective offices in one of the rural precincts of this county, and finding nothing to do in their respective official positions the justice ecame engaged in an angry altercation with one of his neighbors, a decrepid old man, when a son of the eld FOR m: n interfered, a mere lad in his teens when upon a milling ensued, in which his honor succeeded in building a head on the youth. The justice, upon mature reflection, concluded he had broken the law, and sent for the constable, in whose hands he placed a warrant for his own arrest on a charge of assault and battery. The witnesses were sent for and a trial had. At the conclusion of the testimony the justice took the case under advisement and so soon as the crowd dispersed proceeded to render judgment to the effect that according to the evidence, he was guilty of
