

THE INDEPENDENT.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 20TH, 1883

E. V. SMALLEY, one of the most accurate and best informed of political correspondents...

DIED.—On Saturday night, January 13th, in Roseburg, Orle, son of T. S. and Mary Roadman, aged 22 months.

A KNABE IN THE WHITE HOUSE.—There was seen yesterday at Messrs. Knabe & Co's factory a magnificent concert grand, just finished by them for the Presidential mansion.

REV. JOEL BURLINGAME, the father of Anson Burlingame, buried Thursday at Arlington Heights, was born March 3, 1800, in Oneida county, N. Y.

D. M. FERRY & Co., seedsmen, Detroit, Mich., have sent us a copy of their Seed Annual for 1883.

The Sun says substantially that Eugene Hale, his back bone having been strengthened by lucky acquisition of wealth, has set up for himself and abandoned Blaine to his enemies.

COCA BAY RAILROAD.—This enterprise which is of so much importance to the citizens of Southern Oregon is likely to prove a success.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—On Wednesday evening, January 24th, Miss A. R. Luse, teacher of elocution in the Willamette University, will give one of her characteristic and popular entertainments in the chapel of the Umpqua Academy.

A PASSENGER on the Oregon the last trip, stopped at the Norton House in Portland and went forward to Walla Walla where he died of smallpox.

LOCAL ITEMS.

If you want an imported cigar call on T. W. Morgan.

Dr. R. M. Davis has returned home from a visit to Portland.

Try one of T. W. Morgan's favorite cigars, just received.

Go to T. W. Morgan's for an oyster supper.

Wm. R. McKenzie of Gardiner, made a visit to the interior.

Wheat has taken a rise, with the prospect of a good price next season.

"Curly" Webb has turned stage driver and is now employed on the Linkville-Fort Klammath route.

J. P. Burns, a pioneer of Southern Oregon, died on the 2nd inst. at Winnemucca, Nev., of paralysis of the heart.

Col. Thomas Beale, an old-time resident of Douglas county, now of Coos county, is here on a visit to his old friends.

"Oh, say, where did you get such nice candy?" "Way, at T. W. Morgan's of course."

Chas. F. Friezel, purchasing agent of the O. & C. R. R., had business in town a few days this week.

J. C. Flood Sr. is rapidly convalescing and we hope soon to be able to announce his complete restoration to health.

G. Webster, of California, late publisher of the Coast Mail, was in Roseburg this week on business.

Hon. E. B. Watson, chief justice of the supreme court of Oregon, accompanied by his family, returned from Salem on Wednesday last, having finished his labors for a time.

Capt. Frank T. Gilmore, of San Francisco, who paid Roseburg a visit last summer with Messrs. Flint and Merrill, is at present at Coos Bay on business of the Coos Bay railroad.

Mr. C. A. Sprackels, son of Claus Sprackels, of San Francisco, is now in Portland, making arrangements to start a sugar refinery at that place.

F. Edwards, foreman of Willis & Abraham's saw mill on Cow creek, made a visit to the land office while the mill was shut down.

A special term of the Circuit court will commence in Jacksonville on next Monday. Judge Bean of the second district, will preside.

David Duval was last week found dead near Moore's saw mill at Linkville. The opinion seems to be that he laid down while in an intoxicated condition and was frozen to death.

Farmers and others desiring a general, inclusive agency business, by which $5 to $20 a day can be earned, send address at once, on postal, to H. C. Wilkinson & Co., 135 and 137 Fulton street, New York.

She went tripping down the street with a sweet smile on her face and said she had just been to T. W. Morgan's and got some of those nice candies.

Yail Perry of the Coquille, made a visit to the home of his childhood—Roseburg, last Thursday. His visits are so infrequent that some of his old friends failed to recognize him.

E. L. Bristow of the Standard, gave us a call last Thursday. He was on a business trip for his paper and had been as far south as Cayouville. The representatives of the Standard are always favorably received by the Democrats of Douglas.

D. McKay, with his family, have arrived in town. Mrs. McKay, with the children, will reside here during the absence of her husband on the line of the Northern Pacific.

The Register and Receiver of the Land Office have been engaged all week in the trial of a contest between Hughes and Tipton in regard to a timber entry. A large number of witnesses were in attendance.

HON. TIMOTHY BARNARD of Oakland was in Roseburg on business this week. He reports a much larger average of grain sown on the Calapoia than there was last year.

FOUND near the Post-office Friday morning, the 19th day of January, a small key supposed to be an inside safe key, marked with a figure six. The owner should call at this office and identify property.

The trial of W. Scott Beebe, the attorney indicted for attempting to bribe a juror in the Carrie Bradley case in Portland, was concluded last Tuesday and resulted in the prompt acquittal of the defendant. The verdict was received with applause by the audience. The indictment against Judge O. P. Mason for the same offense, will probably be dismissed.

We desire to call the especial attention of our readers to the new double-column ad of W. G. Woodward & Son, dealers in harness, etc. They have a large stock on hand and are prepared to fill all orders with promptness and in a workman-like manner. It is really a pleasure to visit this manufactory, as the proprietors take pains in keeping their establishment in "apple pie" order.

J. H. Fisk has received a letter from the treasury department requesting him to collect for the bureau of the mint all information he can obtain regarding mines in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Mr. Fisk desires personal familiar with mines and mining of any kind to send at once all information to him to Portland, and he will compile the same in statistical form and forward to the department.

SERVICES AT THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—Bishop Morris will hold services at the Episcopal church in Roseburg on Sunday morning next at 11 o'clock a. m., and in the evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

A PASSENGER on the Oregon the last trip, stopped at the Norton House in Portland and went forward to Walla Walla where he died of smallpox. His name was R. P. Thompson, aged 28 years, from Tennessee. Up to this time there have been no other cases, and it is hoped that the contagion has not been communicated to any others.

It has Worked Wonders.

A lady writing from Racine, Wis., makes this gratifying report: "We finished taking our second supply of Compound Oxygen last month; it has worked wonders for my mother. When she began treating with the Oxygen she was extremely low and prostrate in her bed with a variety of complaints. I had no hope of her recovery. She is now able to go about the house and do many pieces of work, and is a continual testimony before me of the wonderful power of Compound Oxygen."

All orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment directed to H. E. Mathews, 605 Montgomery street, San Francisco, will be filled on the same terms as if sent directly to us in Philadelphia.

THOS. GOODMAN, general passenger agent of the Central Pacific railroad, announces his company prepared to furnish orders for transportation to San Francisco from Havre, France, steamer by steamer from New Orleans, and thence via Southern Pacific to San Francisco, third class at $65.

SWAMP LAND TITLES.—Surveyor General Tolman, says the Standard, will be ready in a few days to transmit to the general land office lists of the swamp lands in this state upon which proof has been rendered in the various local land districts, embracing in the aggregate about 30,000 acres. About 25,000 acres of this land is embraced in the Linkville land district. So soon as these lists are verified and approved by the commissioner of the general land office and returned, the agent of the general government and of the state will be ready to examine them. This service will probably require all of next year. After that the titles can be obtained.

THE following true story just reaches us: A Jamaica Plain Republican told his wife, a few days before the election, that if Massachusetts went Democratic he should leave the State, and added that he meant it, too. Upon waking the morning after election, he remarked that his olfactory nerves were not greeted with the usual odors from the kitchen; and going to the door, he called his wife to inquire the cause, noting at the same time that preparations to move were apparently going on down stairs.

A Denver dispatch of the 17th inst. says: The Republican caucus to-night to nominate a U. S. senator again adjourned after the 10th ballot, without making a choice. The following is the last ballot: Pitkin 21, Tabor 16, Hamill 11, Bowen 4, Judge Haller 1.

FIRE IN PORTLAND.—As we go to press, (Friday) the telegraph informs us that the stores of Knapp, Barrell & Co. and Corbett and Maclay were destroyed by fire. The house of Fleischer, Mayer and Co. was in great danger but escaped with little damage. The fire was under control.

FROM THE N. P. FRONT.—Business appears to be rather lively at the front, notwithstanding the cold weather. The mill of Willis & Abraham has shut down for about two months. A large force was engaged in clearing and grading the ground for the depot at that point, but have been stopped by snow, which is now about ten inches deep. A Chinaman who was cleaning his revolver, accidentally discharged it, the ball passing through his hand and through another mongolian who was inspecting the operation. The latter died at Ridgely last Tuesday. Mr. Starr, a wagon master, was forced to hit a Chinaman with a stick, which he did so forcibly as to disable him and will probably cause his death. Mr. Welch, a teamster, had a difficulty with a white man whose name we did not learn, and in the affray stabbed him in the back. It is not known whether the wound is dangerous. fatal disease has attacked the horse along the grade and ten or fifteen heads died. The veterinary surgeon does not know the disease but says it is not pinky.

THE CUMMINS MURDER.—The jury in the Owenby case, after twenty-four hours' deliberation, failed to agree, being seven for conviction. While the jury were out and before they were discharged, Owenby confessed that he and J. M. McPherson, Ezra Snodderly and J. Porter, of Pomeroy, committed the deed; that he fired the first three shots, and that McPherson and Snodderly did the balance. McPherson, he said, cut Cummins' throat. Porter seems to have been cognizant of the affair, but was not present. The confession was made in the presence of two witnesses and sworn to by the prisoner. Warrants were immediately issued for the arrest of the three men implicated by Owenby. Two of them were witnesses in his defense. Johnson Porter, of the firm of Mulkey Bros. & Porter, hardware merchants of Pomeroy, J. T. McPherson and Ezra Snodderly, farmers, were arrested on Monday upon the confession of Owenby as accomplices in the murder of E. H. Cummins.

Officers of the O. R. & N. Co. in this city regard the confession as decidedly "fishy." Cummins was robbed of about $700, and Owenby was known to have had $500 immediately after the murder. If these men were accessories, they allowed Owenby too large a share of the swag.

SENATORIAL ELECTION.

THE election of Henry Villard and Frederick Billings of the Northern Pacific as directors of the New York, Lake Shore and Buffalo railroad company, lend additional strength to the general opinion that the letter road will form the eastern end of a transcontinental line leading from Portland to New York city.

A Nashville dispatch of the 16th says: In the Legislature Isham G. Harris was re-elected to the U. S. Senate to-day.

A Little Rock dispatch says: In the Senatorial election Garland was re-elected, receiving all the votes but three Greenbackers. The Republicans even voted for Garland.

A Dover telegram informs us that Senator Saulsbury has been renominated.

A Springfield dispatch says: Shelby M. Cullom was elected Senator to-day. The voting stood—Cullom 107, Palmer 95, Adams not voting.

A Raleigh dispatch says: The Legislature in joint session elected Ransom as U. S. Senator on the 17th inst.

A Boston dispatch says: On joint ballot for Senator Hear 129, Long 41, Bowersman 90, Crapo 11, others 32; necessary for choice 133.

A Detroit dispatch of the 17th says: Result of the Senatorial ballot to-day: House—Ferry 45, Stout 38, scattering 17. Senate—Ferry 14, Stout 13, scattering 5. Aggregate, Ferry 59, Stout 50, scattering 18. Necessary to a choice 60. Joint ballot to-morrow.

A Lincoln dispatch of the 17th inst. says: The Legislature balloted for Senator without result. The most prominent candidates are Senator Saunders and Millard of Omaha.

A St. Paul dispatch of Jan. 7th says: Two ballots were taken in joint convention to-day. Windom got 65 on the first and 61 on the second, a dead loss from yesterday. A caucus of his friends is called for this evening. There are 16 candidates and it is impossible to name the coming man.

A Denver dispatch of the 17th inst. says: The Republican caucus to-night to nominate a U. S. senator again adjourned after the 10th ballot, without making a choice. The following is the last ballot: Pitkin 21, Tabor 16, Hamill 11, Bowen 4, Judge Haller 1.

NEW YEAR'S OUTLOOK.—As we go to press, with many acts of lawlessness and casualties, and judging from what has happened thus far we fear that 1883's outlook is not very flattering. Weekville contains many peaceable citizens, who came here to build up a town and to do business. Following in their wake is a gang of lawless out-throats and vampires, who eagerly watch their chance to knock down any one they can and rob him of even a nickel. They are the scum and leavings of Montana and even of other points. Their rendezvous are gambling dens and dead-falls. The law abiding citizen is afraid to go beyond his own door at nightfall, the surgeon does not venture out on the highway at night without being stopped on his mission to attend the sick or injured, and his purse demanded. Revolvers are being fired off at any time of day or night and no one is safe even on the main thoroughfares. A telegram of the 16th from Weekville says the vigilantes shot "Billy the Kid" and that three others of his stripe were taken a mile from town and notified that if they returned they would be similarly dealt with. Notices signed by the committee of safety are posted in all conspicuous places, giving twenty-four hours' notice for spotted parties to leave on pain of death.

The United States revenue steamer Oliver Wolcott, Capt. Louis N. Stoddard, left for Fort Simpson, B. C., to quell an Indian disturbance, at the request of the authorities of British Columbia, no British naval vessel being in the waters. It will be recollected that H. M. ship Opal went to Alaska on the occasion of the Indian trouble in 1879, and the present troubles in British Columbia furnishes an opportunity of returning the courtesy.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, while Judge Stott was holding court, word was brought to him that his infant son, 16 months of age, was seriously ill. Court was immediately adjourned, but before the judge reached home the little one was dead. It had been seized with convulsions, brought on by teething, and before any assistance could be obtained life was extinct.

THE private term of School, consisting of 14 weeks, will begin on Monday, December 4th, 1882.

Mrs. J. Webb, who has been teaching for many years, and whose reputation as a teacher is established, will have charge of the lower grades.

MARRIAGES.—PARZO—DONPIER.—January 9th, 1883, at the residence of the bride's parents, by W. J. CHITSON, J. P., Peter Parzo to Adelaide Donpier, all of Douglas county.

LONG—AMBROSE.—Sunday, January 14, 1883, at the Cosmopolitan hotel in Roseburg, by Hon. J. S. Fitzgugh, Robert W. Long to Verbena E. Ambrose, both of Youell's, Douglas county, Oregon.

KERNAN—THORNTON.—January 14, 1883, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. John Howard, W. H. Kernan to Miss V. C. Thornton, both of Douglas county, Oregon.

We congratulate our friend Kernan and his fair bride and venture the hope that their matrimonial skies may be clouded by nothing more serious than an occasional little "squawl." Not long since the happy bridegroom was very much elated at seeing a baby by wagon at the door of a newly married attaché of this paper. He probably knows by this time that it is no sign of a duck's nest to see a drake sitting on the fence.

SUMMONS.—In the Circuit Court in and for Douglas County, State of Oregon. Elizabeth A. McCarty, Plaintiff, vs. William McCarty, Defendant. Suit in equity for divorce.
