

One Year.....$2 50
Six Months.....1 50
Three Months.....1 00
These are the terms for those paying in advance.
The publisher reserves the right to discontinue at any time without notice. Terms reasonable.

J. JASKULEK
WATCHMAKER, JEWELER, AND OPTICIAN.
ALL WORK WARRANTED.
Dealer in Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Spectacles and Eyeglasses, and a Full Line of Cigars, Tobaccos and Fancy Goods.
The only reliable Optician in town for the proper adjustment of spectacles; always on hand. Depot of the Genuine Brazilian Pebble Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
OFFICE—First door south of post office, Roseburg, Oregon.

DR. M. W. DAVIS,
DENTIST.
ROSEBURG, OREGON.
OFFICE—ON JACKSON STREET,
OPPOSITE THE POSTOFFICE.

MAHONEY'S SALOON
Nearest to the Railroad Depot, Oakland
Jas. Mahoney, Prop'r.
The finest of wines, liquors and cigars in Douglas county, and the best
BILLIARD TABLE
In the State kept in proper repair

Parties traveling on the railroad will find this place very handy to visit during the stopping of the train at the Oakland Depot. Give me a call.
JAS. MAHONEY.

JOHN FRASER,
Home Made Furniture,
WILBUR, OREGON.
Upholstery, Spring Mattresses, Etc.,
Constantly on hand.

FURNITURE. I have the best stock of furniture south of Portland and all of my own manufacture.
No two prices to customers.
Residents of Douglas county are requested to give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

ALL WORK WARRANTED.

DEPOT HOTEL
OAKLAND, OREGON.
Richard Thomas, Prop'r.
THIS HOTEL HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED for a number of years, and has become very popular with the traveling public. First-class SLEEPING ACCOMMODATIONS.
And the table supplied with the best the market affords. Hotel at the depot of the Railroad.

HAVING ON HAND A LARGE LOT OF FINE
Spanish Merino
BUCKS,

I offer the same for sale, cheap for Cash, at my Farm in Douglas county, six miles from Roseburg.
HENRY CONN, Sr.
H. C. STANTON,
Dealer in

Staple Dry Goods!
Keeps constantly on hand a general assortment of

EXTRA FINE GROCERIES,
WOOD, WILLOW AND GLASSWARE,
ALSO
Crockery and Cordage

A full stock of
SCHOOL BOOKS
Such as required by the Public County Schools, All kinds of STATIONERY, TOYS and FANCY ARTICLES.
To suit both Young and Old.

BUYS AND SELLS LEGAL TENDERS,
Drifts on San Francisco.

SEEDS! SEEDS!
SEEDS!

ALL KINDS OF BEST QUALITY
ALL ORDERS
Promptly attended to and Goods shipped with care.

Address, Hachney & Bene,
Portland, Oregon.

Notice.
Notice is hereby given, to whom it may concern, that the undersigned has been awarded the contract for supplying the Douglas county Paupers for the period of two years. All persons in need of assistance from said county must first procure a certificate to that effect from any member of the County Board, and present it to one of the following named persons, who are authorized to, and will care for those presenting such certificate: W. L. Dutton, Roseburg; J. L. Kellogg, Oakland; Mrs. Brown, Looking Glass; Dr. Scroggs is authorized to furnish medical aid to all persons in need of the same who have been declared paupers of Douglas county.
M. B. CLARK, Sept. of Year.
Roseburg, Or. Feb. 15, 1889

The most forcible expression of intolerance was uttered a short time ago by a Scotch clergyman of the Free Kirk, who, referring to the introduction of an organ into a neighboring Established Church, declared that "soon they would get a concert every Sabbath in the old Kirk. The devil would have his bandmaster there to discourse sweet music to them, and the captain, like a cursed pirate, would hoist his false colors to lure souls to destruction."

THE DOUGLAS INDEPENDENT

VOL. 7.

ROSEBURG, OREGON, SATURDAY, MARCH 31, 1883.

NO. 51.

LATEST NEWS SUMMARY.

BY TELEGRAPH TO DATE.

Prince Henry, of Prussia, arrived at St. Thomas, Cuba, on the 22d.

Four flouring mills were destroyed by fire at Hamilton, Ohio, on the 22d.

It is stated that Henry Villard left New York for Portland on the 22d.

John McCullough, the tragedian, who has been ailing for some time, has fully recovered.

The remains of Charles Soehner, a German, were cremated at Washington, Pa., recently.

Cardinal Manning has issued an appeal, asking for a collection for the distressed people of Ireland.

One hundred and thirty-five head of cattle perished in the flames of a large fire recently at Shipman, Ill.

The President has appointed Thos. J. Sherwood, of Marysville, Cal., receiver of public moneys at that place.

Cardinal Manning has issued an appeal, asking for a collection for the distressed people of Ireland.

One hundred and thirty-five head of cattle perished in the flames of a large fire recently at Shipman, Ill.

The President has appointed Thos. J. Sherwood, of Marysville, Cal., receiver of public moneys at that place.

Six persons were severely, if not fatally, injured in a gas explosion recently in a colliery near Shenandoah, Pa.

Queen Victoria met with an accident on the 17th, in which she injured one of her limbs, and is now confined to her rooms.

Four prisoners confined in the penitentiary at Boise City, Idaho, overpowered the guards and made their escape on the 22d.

The New York Public of the 23d says the business transactions for the past week show a decided increase over the same week one year ago.

An eruption of Mount Etna has begun on the 21st, accompanied by an earthquake, causing a panic in the vicinity. Several houses have fallen.

The Enreka cotton mills at Mount Atery, N. C., were destroyed by fire on the morning of the 22d. Loss, estimated at $20,000; insurance, $15,000.

The Chicago cigar makers at a recent meeting resolved to go on a strike about May 1st, if manufacturers did not give them a raise of one dollar per thousand.

Rev. Lawrence Walsh, treasurer of the Irish national land league, of New York, has $30,000 for the relief of victims of famine in the west of Ireland on the 22d.

Rev. J. Gillfillan, Protestant Episcopal missionary of the White Earth reservation, says the Indians suffered severely from the ravages of smallpox during the winter.

A hair dispatch of the 22d says that there is the greatest frost on California river known for years. Trains ceased running on account of washouts on the roads.

The steamer Burgundia arrived at its pier at Brooklyn on the 22d, bringing the body of John Howard Payne, the author of "Home, Sweet Home," back to its native land.

It is rumored that Salmi Morse will produce his "Passion Play" at Louisville during the latter part of the summer, providing he can obtain a license from the city authorities.

A Tucson dispatch of March 25th says: The Apaches are still east of the Magdalena. Some say there are 15 Apaches, and others say 200. Three men are reported killed this evening.

General Diaz and party from Mexico have been banqueting at New Orleans, St. Louis, Chicago, New York and Washington, visiting Niagara Falls and a number of other places of interest on their way.

The estimated expenditures of the dominion of Canada for the financial year ending the 30th of June, 1884, is $45,000,145. The amount voted for the present year, ending the 30th of June next, is $54,897,264.

The New England milk producers, recently assembled at Boston, discussed their grievances against the Boston contractors and inspectors, and charged adulteration by the middlemen. The price fixed was 35 cents per can for eight and a half quarts, on the cans.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press of the 21st publishes a lengthy article from Montreal as to the stock of that territory, stating that leading stockmen have been interviewed and say that the winter has been most favorable for stock, not counting a loss of more than five per cent.

A Vienna dispatch of March 22d says: The recent demonstrations of a reading club of students in memory of Wagner, have led to twenty duels among the students, the combatants being German on one side and Austrian on the other. One of the participants was severely wounded.

A Tombstone dispatch, of March 22nd, says: This afternoon a report reached this city of a terrible conflict between cattlemen and Mexicans, in which about six men were killed and two wounded. It occurred at Morrison's ranch, on the Barbacora, thirteen miles from Fort Huachuca.

It is rumored that Captain Kirk, late master of the Tacoma, will appeal from the decision and sentence of Inspectors Freeman and Hillman to Supervising Inspector C. C. Bemis. It is said the Captain considers his suspension for two years unjust, and his proposed appeal will be for the purpose of lessening that term.

In the senate of the New York legislature recently a bill prohibiting contracts labor, and the bill regarding the use of convict labor, and the bill giving the convict a share of the product of his labor, were all killed. In the house the bill prohibiting the manufacture in prison of shoes, stove and iron hollow ware, was lost, while the bill prohibiting the manufacture of stoves by convicts got only as far as the committee of the whole, which, it is thought, will be the limit of its progress.

A number of improvements are contemplated by the life saving service of the Pacific, including improvements at Cape Gregory station, near Coos Bay. Among other things, a boat-house will be constructed at a more accessible point. It is also proposed to connect that station by telephone with Empire City. A new building will be constructed at the station at the mouth of the Columbia, to which a life boat, wagon and a number of Castor patrol lights and other supplies were recently shipped.

Lord Haldon died on March 25th. Jerome Holt, a negro, was hanged at Graham, N. C., on the 23d.

Gen. Charles Crut did of heart disease at Terre Haute, Ind., on the 23d.

A fire in the Catholic cathedral, Brooklyn, N. Y., destroyed the drapery and grand altar.

Sigismond Lacroix, a radical, was elected as Gambetta's successor, on March 25th.

The bridge across the St. John river, St. John, N. B., was carried away by the ice gorge on the 23d.

Oakland, like San Francisco, has an empty treasury, and no funds to pay its salaries for the present month.

At Duluth, Minnesota, March 25th, a fire destroyed 13 buildings and contents. Total loss, $47,500; insurance, $35,000.

Capt. Carey who commanded the party of English soldiers with Prince Napoleon when he was killed in Zealand, died recently.

Alaska is to have a mail route from Haines to Juneau, a distance of 150 miles. The mail will be carried by canoe monthly.

Williams' sewing machine manufactory was burned at Montreal on March 25th. Loss estimated at from $200,000 to $300,000.

A statement prepared by the treasury department estimates the receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, to be $495,000,000.

Patton, the brakeman of the Southern Pacific train accident at Tehachapi, and tried on a charge of criminal negligence, was acquitted.

The East Hampton, Mass., Catholic church, a brick building just finished, was burned March 25th. Loss, $30,000; partly insured.

Frank O. Hamilton, while locked up in a building at Eldorado, Kan., for being drunk, set fire to the same and was burned to death.

Wm. Banks and Green Cunningham, colored, were hanged at Lafayette, Ga., on the 23d, for the murder of H. H. Rudd last January.

A frightful accident occurred at the San Francisco gas works on the morning of the 23d, in which Horence O'Halloran was burned to death.

San Francisco and others, representing a New York company, propose erecting smelting and milling works in the Agui river, near Sonora, Mexico.

Commissioners from several little states in Central America have under consideration the terms of a projected federation of their governments.

The issues of standard silver dollars from the mints for the week ending March 24th, was $218,495; for the corresponding period last year, $188,500.

Mrs. Helen Hunt Jackson, of Boston, has been appointed special agent of the Indian Bureau, to investigate the condition of the Mission Indians in California.

A Vienna dispatch of March 25th says: Several localities at the foot of Mt. Avar were destroyed by snow avalanches. It is stated that 160 persons were killed and 100 injured.

A Braidwood, Illinois, dispatch of March 25th says: The diamond miners of that town are making a search, so far as possible, for the bodies of the drowned miners.

A late dispatch says the eruption of Mount Etna is increasing in violence. A new crater has opened, and the lava threatens to overwhelm the towns and other villages. People are deserting their homes, and troops are assisting to save property.

A strong effort is making in the south toward conversion to Mormonism. A presiding elder of the Mormon church recently arrived in Nashville, Tenn., and is endeavoring to attract converts to Utah. He says there are now 90 Mormon missionaries at work in the south.

Iron ore has been offered in the Pittsburgh market during the past few days by the Republic Ore company for $8 50 per ton, delivered at Cleveland, $1 50 less than last year. This, it is believed, will break the ranks of the ore producers, who were then united in holding up the price and fighting the blast furnace men.

The London Mark Lane Express of March 25th says: In wheat and flour there was only a holiday trade, and prices were only nominally unchanged. The same may be said of foreign maize, which was lower. Barley was in little demand and quiet; foreign, unchanged. Oats, lower; foreign, dull.

The statement of the U. S. treasurer of March 24th shows gold and silver, as follows: Gold coin and bullion, $182,610,755; silver dollars and bullion, $106,487,192; fractional silver coin, $277,795,519; total, $366,925,388. Certificates outstanding, $40,075,940; silver, $60,705,870; currency, $9,875,000.

Business failures for the last seven days, ending March 23d, as reported by N. G. Dun & Co., of the mercantile agency, number 195, against 265 last week, a reduction of 70. New England state, 17; middle, 39; western, 57; southern, 38; Pacific states and territories, 12; New York city; 8; Canada, 24. Total, 195.

A Winnipeg dispatch of March 24th says: Word has reached here of the wrecking in the latter end of August, while going across the Great Slave lake from Fort Resolution to Fort Rae, of the British Circum Polar expedition, detailed to take polar observations last year. No lives were lost, but considerable hardship was endured. The expedition arrived at Fort Rae, its destination, September 21. They placed their instruments and have taken two observations.

A St. Louis dispatch of March 23d says: Reports of the winter wheat crop from more than 200 counties in those parts of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Kansas, Missouri and Texas, where winter wheat is grown, show that in Kansas and Missouri the condition is good and the acreage fully equal to last year. Tennessee and Illinois give fair reports; Kentucky and Indiana, especially the latter, show considerable damage; from Texas the reports are meagre, but good as they go.

How the Fates Work Against Poor Jones.

It has sometimes been doubted that there is a divinity which shapes our ends rough-hew them how we may, but there is one man in this city, who believes he is foreordained, predestined, pre-arranged to suffer. Poor Jones! He seems to spend his whole life in offering to Mrs. Jones—an excellent woman, by the way—a series of apologies for doing things he never did, and he no sooner gets out of one scrape than he plunges into another. If Mrs. Jones has a fault it is that of loving Mr. Jones too much for his own good; and being so particularly fond of him herself, she imagines every other woman must be, so at times Jones finds his life hardly worth living.

It always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying:

"I always happens, too, at some time when he is in a peaceful, pious frame of mind, walking firmly in the paths of rectitude and flourishing like a bay rum tree, that misadventure, at a few minutes he said, after supper, that he believed he'd go down town a few minutes and look at the new electric light, and Mrs. Jones asked him to mail some letters for her, and he started out, whistling over his shoulder, and never returned.

On the way down it occurred to him that he might as well stop at the barber's and get shaved, and he did so. Then he went to look at the light, and as he walked along the sidewalk, when it was as bright as day, he saw a lady in front of him drop a folded paper out of her purse. He started forward, picked it up and presented it gallantly to the lady, saying: