DRAIN NEWS.

Times lively. Grain mostly sound. The late rains make plenty of mud. The Christian Church will build a house of worship this summer.

Father Heinrich of your city was in town during the week.

P. Applegate, agent for D. M. Osborn & Co. has a sample self binder made by that firm, set up and in running order.

The several cases of scarlet fever reported last week have about recovered, and the future spread of that disease is not feared.

The winter term of school, under the charge of Miss Annie Gensendorfer closed last Friday, and the spring term opened Monday.

Rev. R. L. Shelly of this place has announced a basket meeting at Elkton for the second Sunday in May.

Dr. J. W. Strange was called to Elkton to perform some dental operations last week, and again this week. The Doctor is kept quite busy and has good success.

John O'Roak, of the new saloon seems to be very busy and to have a good run of business.

Jas. A. Sterling, the county assessor, leaves for Elkton in a few days.

From every hilltop we have the tempting hoot of the festive grouse, or see the light-stepping form of the deer, but can only stand and gaze in disgust knowing full well that the law has passed for the benefit of a lot of Portland sports, prevents us from shooting them.

W. C. T. U.—At a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held at the M. E. Church April 7th, a motion was passed to take steps toward establishing a reading room in Roseburg, and a committee was appointed to ascertain if a suitable place could be rented for that purpose.

This is an enterprise which ought to receive the sympathy and assistance of all friends of temperance. A room made cosy and homelike, supplied with interesting books and the current literature of the day would be of incalculable value to young men boarding at our hotels who are obliged to spend their evenings in bar-rooms or saloons.

To a young man away from home the hours of peril are those between sunset and bedtime; for the moon and stars show more evil in a single hour than the sun in a whole day's circuit.

The approaching evening brings with it a sense of loneliness and desolation, and in this mood his best impulses become a snare to him and he is led astray because he is social, affectionate, sympathetic and warm-hearted.

To such we would say "books are the friends of the friendless and a library a home for the homeless." We do not expect great results in the near future, but begin this work feeling that if we can save but one life from the environments of dissipation we shall not have labored in vain. The Church of Hope will meet at the M. E. Church Saturday, April 14th, at 2 o'clock P. M.
