LOCAL ITEMS.

Roads dusty! Fruit plenty! Weather warm! Farmers cutting hay! Farmers hauling wood! Cherries in the market! Emigrants coming to Douglas! Strawberry season about over! S. F. Flood is settling down to the dignified life of a solid business man. John Hall of Myrtle Creek, was in Roseburg Thursday. Hon. Binger Hamann is at present not enjoying his usual health. The weather seems to have settled down to its regular Summer work. Dr. S. Hamilton is as busy as a druggist and successful business man ought to be. Zigler at the Metropolitan has earned the reputation of knowing how to keep a hotel. George Damsen, an old citizen of Myrtle Creek, was in the city during the week on business. At Hamilton's drug store, quicksilver, Sulphur, lime and a cheap grade of coal oil for doctoring sheep. Judge and Mrs. Mosher, we understand, will leave this week for a visit to Camas valley. Jaanlek knows a thing or two about cigars; also, several items of interest to the public. Drop in and he will explain. Counsellor Hamilton ranks already a good first among the grave and reverend who adorn the legal circles of Roseburg. A postoffice key lost on Tuesday, is wanted at this office. If you pick one up on the street please return to this office. Call at the new millinery store next week, and see the fresh stock of ribbons, just from San Francisco. Hon. Timothy Darnard of Oakland, was in Roseburg on Wednesday on business. He remained but a short time. County Treasurer Moore is representing in Douglas county a reliable fire insurance company. For farther particulars see W. N. himself, at his office in the Court house. Rev. M. C. Miller is still anxious to sell his team and buggy. The offer he makes is really a bargain. Read the notice elsewhere entitled "For Sale." M. Josephson, Roseburg's energetic and popular merchant, is having his store remodelled and a new awning erected on the front on Jackson street. We notice many of Oakland's most prominent citizens on the streets of Roseburg this week, among whom were W. P. Kerley, Paul Reshavan, George Barr and others. Hon. C. Ball of ours, may properly be termed one of the "seven sleepers." At least the typographical department think so on pass days. Prof. Cathey is the busiest citizen yet noted here. His regular duties, to say nothing of extraneous labors, would make the average citizen perspire in anticipation. Louis Bellis the solid, has come back from somewhere, armed and equipped to stay with Douglas county until the last citizen has a full supply of everything in his line. Hon. District Attorney Hursh, our esteemed contemporary's junior proprietor, is as fat and frolicsome as any good citizen of this great and glorious country should desire to be. We learn from a private letter from Champe county, Ohio, that snow fell to the depth of four inches on the 21st of May and that the fruit trees in that section of the State have been frozen to death. Dr. A. Secord will remain in Roseburg one week longer, so that all who are troubled with catarrh and similar diseases can see his treatment and get the cure, by calling on him at the Cosmopolitan hotel. The engine that furnishes the wiper at the round-house in Roseburg employment on arrival of the freight train, ought to be declared a public nuisance, by reason of the unearthly scream of its whistle. Will some friend of erratic nerves please induce our city fathers to transport the members of the new band to the sylvan shade of a friendly fir, well up toward the summit of the Cascades? Hope long deferred, in this matter, maketh our head ache. The annual exercises of the Umpqua Academy at Willbur, will commence on the 21st inst., with an address in the evening of that day by Rev. E. T. Lee of Portland. The graduating exercises will be on the following evening. There are five young ladies and gentlemen in the class. A good time is expected. Hon. J. C. Tolman, Surveyor-General of Oregon, and General W. C. Holcomb of Washington City, are in Roseburg this week. Mr. Holcomb is inspector of the general and local land offices of the United States, and is now on a tour of inspection of the offices on this coast. Squire E. C. Sacy of Nonpareil, will be in Roseburg Monday and Tuesday upon business. He reports the new improvements on the Oregon Cinnabar and Silver Mining Company's property at that place nearing completion. The furnace will probably be fired the latter part of this week. W. L. Record, proprietor of San Francisco marble works, is in Roseburg this week. Among other orders taken here is a beautiful monument to be erected over the graves of the deceased wife and child, resting in the Masonic cemetery of this place, of Hon. S. H. Hazard now a resident of Empire City. Our good friend Ed. Hale was with us this week. He is establishing agencies for the Oregon Fire and Marine insurance company, of Portland. This company is truly a good one, being composed of the best men of Oregon. He was the first man that contributed ten dollars for the benefit of our fire department. Success attend him. Strawberries have been exceedingly plenty this season. Johnson and Fletcher, of the Bella Vista fruit farm, have realized from their berries alone more than the average farmer will make on his entire crop. From the liberality of the proprietors we are enabled to testify to the excellency of the fruit. We are well pleased to see these young men succeed so well in this new enterprise.

Executor's Sale of Personal Property!

The undersigned executors of the estate of David Bushey deceased will offer for sale, on the premises of the deceased, adjoining the city of Roseburg, on Saturday, June 16, 1883, at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the following described personal property belonging to said estate, to-wit: Five cows, three calves, two two-year old heifers and one bull; four head of horses, two sets of team harness, one set of buggy harness, one set of hack harness, two two-horse wagons, one two-horse hack, one two-horse buggy, one old stage, 2,500 lbs. of wool, more or less, 400 gallons of vinegar, more or less, six stands of bees, one saw and eight pigs, three saddles, 1 cedar press, one cross-cut saw, a lot of picks and sledge hammers, one revolving harrow, two drag harrows, one sulkey plow, several walking plows, cultivators, etc., and other property too tedious to mention. Terms of Sale.—Cash for all sums of $20 or less; all sums above said amount, cash or note for 60 days, with approved security. ASHER MARKS, J. C. FULLERTON, Executors. Roseburg, Oregon, June 2, 1883.

Department of Public Instruction, SALEM, OREGON, May 29, 1883.

The State Teachers' Association for 1883, has been appointed to meet in Salem, June 26, and will continue in session June 27, 28 and 29. Teachers and friends of education in all parts of the State are cordially and earnestly invited to attend and take part in its discussion. An excellent programme is being prepared and will be printed for distribution as early as possible. Superior lectures and instruction will be given by the leading educators and teachers of our higher institutions of learning and the public schools. Arrangements have been made for reduced rates on the principal lines of travel to all persons attending the Association. The proprietors of the hotels and boarding houses in Salem will make a liberal reduction to teachers and others in attendance. E. B. McELROY, Supt. of Public Instruction.

A Card from Mt Scott Precinct.

Mr. Editor: I have seen an article in a Roseburg paper recently in regard to Wm. Bradley's death, and do not feel particularly grateful to the author of that false rumor. I started on the 15th inst., on the strength of that rumor, in company with Mr. Bradley's mother and several other persons, and after riding all night we found Bradley all right and ourselves a victim of his false and wicked report. It rained hard on us all night and was a hard trip on Mrs. B., who is an elderly lady. I think the man who started such reports should be rode on a rail, and then he would try and tell the truth next time. WM. C. TIPTON.

MARBLE & GRANITE WORKS.—W. L. Record of San Francisco, who is well known on this coast, was in Roseburg during the past week, canvassing for monuments and tombstones. Mr. R. is thoroughly conversant with the business and needs only to introduce specimens of his work here to convince the most incredulous of the excellence of his designs and quality of workmanship. He also manufactures from Italian marble and Scotch granite, monuments that are unequalled for beauty and solidity.

SURGICAL SKILL.—Dr. G. B. Davidson of Cole's valley, on last Tuesday performed successfully a very difficult surgical operation upon James Tipton, in removing a small tumor from the left side of his neck. The operation was difficult from the fact that the tumor was crowded against the large artery. The tumor was about four years' growth, was over an inch long, nearly round and about a half inch in diameter. Mr. Tipton withstood the operation without chloroform and is now able to be around. Dr. Davidson one day last week, removed a much larger tumor from the right thigh of a man by the name of Patten, living near Cleveland, in this county.

FOOD FOR REFLECTION.—During last winter we chronicled the death by freezing of a citizen of this county. His companion afterward suffered amputation from the same cause. A physician of the place, about to be called in to assist in discovering the injured member, in a fit of passion from imbibing too freely at the altar of Bacchus, struck another citizen across the face and the injury therefrom made him an enforced resident at the county poor farm, and while there accidentally put his hand against the circular saw in motion and probably became a county charge for life. All these events followed from two residents of this county going to a party on a very cold night in a state of intoxication. What was the least, viewed from a legal, financial or moral standpoint? R.

The Ohio Democracy have nominated Hon. J. Proctor Knott for Governor. He is sure to be elected.

The Coos Bay Railroad.

The indications are that work will soon be commenced on the Roseburg & Coos Bay railroad. Below we give a special dispatch to the Oregonian of June 5th:

"Captain Besse, who returned from the north a few days ago, where he had been in the interest of Eastern capitalists, to report upon the project of building a road from Roseburg to Coos Bay, has completed his report and will submit it to the parties interested on his arrival in Boston. It is understood from private sources that the report is favorable, and that the road will be commenced as soon as the preliminaries are arranged. A gentleman who is conversant with the plan of the projectors says capital has been subscribed and nothing remains but to complete certain transfers. It is expected that the whole matter will be settled during the present month, and that in a comparatively short time work will be commenced in earnest. Final surveys will be made and the road permanently located as soon as possible.

MYRTLE CREEK. Grain fields beautiful.

W. B. Drake is now burning coal up North Myrtle. You will always find Keeler H. Gabbert, the most popular druggist in Douglas, ever at his favorite stand on Main street.

Uncle Samuel Marks, Canyonville's most influential citizen and business man, was in Myrtle Creek last Saturday.

A few poker sharks infest our quiet little village occasionally, but they are finding very few here whom they can dupe.

H. Dyer, the popular clerk of the firm of F. M. Gabbert & Co., is one of the most obliging and genial gentlemen in our village.

E. C. Kane, one of the most efficient and agreeable railroad officials, visits our pleasant village occasionally. Come often, my good friend, for you are ever welcome.

John Hall, our worthy townsman, has a splendid prospect for a corn crop. John is one of the successful farmers in Douglas county.

Miss Ellen Gabbert, Myrtleville's prettiest fairy, is in Portland, under the treatment of Doctress Owens. Her many friends are anxious for her recovery, for she leaves a vacancy in the social circle that none other can fill.

C. F. Frezell, the foraging agent for the O. & C. railroad, has been here for several days. Mr. F. has made many warm friends here by his upright dealing. He will go into Jackson county next week to look out for the railroad interests.

Prof. Day is not only affable and useful in the school, but he is a valuable member of society. Last Saturday evening he and several others had a pleasant singing at the Overland hotel. All present seemed to enjoy themselves.

Miss Laura Thornton of Ashland, is visiting the family of Hon. D. S. K. Buick. She is a daughter of James Thornton, who is interested in the Ashland woolen mills. We hope Miss T. will enjoy her visit to the Umpqua valley.

Our old friend John W. Weaver, one of the oldest standard-bearers of the Democratic party in this precinct, is recovering from his late accident. His many friends are ever glad to take him by the hand whenever they meet him. John may live out your three-score years-and-ten in the good cause that you have thus long advocated.

Am Wonderfully Improved.

A gentleman in Coal City, Pa., who was in the first stages of consumption, having night sweats, cough and expectoration streaked with blood, with loss of flesh, ordered a Compound Oxygen Treatment in June last. In a letter dated August 23d, he makes this very favorable report: "I am wonderfully improved, and when I look back on those hours of suffering at the commencement of your treatment, I can hardly believe my eyes. I am increasing in flesh and strength, and my lungs are wonderfully developed if not quite well." Last Saturday I walked up a high hill on my way home without coughing once, a thing I have not done since last March." Our treatise on Compound Oxygen, its nature, action and results, with reports of cases and full information, sent free. DRs. STARKEY & PALM, 1109 and 1111 Girard street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment directed to H. E. Mathews, 606 Montgomery street, San Francisco, will be filled on the same terms as if sent directly to us in Philadelphia.

SELF DEFENSE.—The question is being agitated in this county whether a man would be liable under the game law for killing deer doing damage to his grain. One farmer living within sixteen miles of Roseburg says that deer come onto his oats every night in numbers and mow it close to the ground, to such an extent that he, though a law-abiding citizen, has come to the conclusion that such a case is not intended to be covered by the law and proposes to defend his property, protection or no protection.

The Ohio Democracy will nominate Gen. Durbin Ward for their standard-bearer. He will be elected.

FROM DAY'S CREEK.

Some of the people are having plenty of strawberries and cream. Many young grouse are congregating in the grain fields.

Napoleon Poole is off with his cattle and will remain for several days. S. T. Garrison has gone to Salem to see his sick daughter, who is not expected to live long. May he find her better than he had anticipated.

Prof. John E. Day of Roseburg, is posted for a lecture here at 11 o'clock A. M. next Sunday. His theme, "Life and growth of Language," is one that elicits attention, and many will come out to hear him.

M. Sullivan, Roseburg's tombstone chiseler, was here during the week. He has erected a handsome monument over the last resting-place of Warren Fate, son of the Mexican veteran David Fate.

Mrs. McNeal is to be congratulated upon taking the utmost care of her boarders who are attending school. Her kind and motherly ways will long be remembered after she passes from this mundane sphere.

James Buffington, who has been up in Washington Territory for several years, has returned to his old home, where he wishes to buy a farm. He has numerous friends here who bid him welcome.

An interesting little story is told of two young gentlemen who are working in Canyonville. It seems both are smitten with the same girl. Their case is fully illustrated by the following incident relative to two poets, Thomas Moore and Robert Burns, who lived in the same city. Burns was clerk in a bookstore. As Moore and his girl, or "Daisy," were passing along they saw Robert sweeping in front of the bookstore. Moore said to the lady, "There is Billy Burns; now come, let us have some fun." As they came up to Burns, Moore said:

"You weary loon, Put down that broom, And let a stranger by." Bobby replied: "You stupid ass Between the wall and me!" It is useless to say Burns took the prize.

WILBUR ITEMS.

Miss Ella Grubbe departed for Salem last Monday. Mrs. F. B. Waits of Portland, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Grubbe.

School Superintendent F. W. Benson is now visiting schools in the southern part of the county.

H. V. Smith and H. S. Strange of Greenville, gave our village a call last week.

Miss Helena Holman has departed for Portland, and is missed here. The well wishes of many friends attend her.

Our worthy merchant G. W. Grubbe, has now on hand an excellent stock of goods, and we are pleased to learn that he is liberally patronized.

Work on the Presbyterian church is being pushed forward and will be ready for use by the return of the pastor, Rev. W. A. Smith.

The family of Rev. F. G. Strange, of Hiawatha, Kansas, arrived here last Friday, and are now visiting with Mr. J. A. Strange. Mr. S. is now at Seattle, but will be here in a few weeks to visit his parents, before moving his family to Seattle, where he will reside.

Road Supervisor Jos. Haines is doing good work on our roads. A young man in this vicinity refused to work the road. As a result he had to pay tax and costs, amounting to $13 50. More Supervisors should follow his example.

School will close within two weeks. The graduating class consists of Ida Booth, Addie Smith, John Critser, Geo. M. Brown, and John S. Mires. The annual address will be delivered by Rev. E. T. Lee of Portland. Dr. Lee is said to be a fine speaker, and all who attend will be no doubt be fully paid for so doing.

NOTICE.—I hereby give public notice that in pursuance of the act of October 24th, 1882, I have posted notices as required by said act, forbidding all persons from trespassing on my lands, and that any person found trespassing will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. JOHN JONES.
