LOCAL ITEMS.

Mrs. Singleton, wife of Jefferson Singleton, is lying very sick at Grandma Singleton's.

General Crook has returned with a large number of the hostiles with him as prisoners.

Through tickets from Portland to Chicago via St. Paul, will be sold over the Northern Pacific by the first of next month.

A boy named Abendorth, ten years of age, was drowned in the Willamette river at Portland on Monday, while bathing.

A wedding is now on the tapis in high life in Roseburg society. Listen to the ringing of the bells, for there will be "music in the air!"

Dr. S. Hamilton went to Eugene City on Thursday to attend a meeting of the Board of Regents of the State University, of which he is a member.

Last Sabbath a young son of Hen. Timothy Barnard while putting up a swing, fell and broke some of his ribs and received severe injuries.

Last Sunday a man named Maloney, living near Grave creek, was shot at and received a slight wound in the head.

Jacob Ledgerwood has sold his farm of 1637 acres, situate on Roberts creek, to H. C. Martin of California, for $15,500.

We call special attention to the advertisement of L. Langenberg, on the outside columns of our paper, and take pleasure in stating to the public that his work is all he warrants it.

"The Great Eastern Mastodon Amusement Enterprise," the name of a company organized in San Francisco for a tour of this northwestern country, will be in Roseburg June 28th, 29th and 30th, at Marks' hall.

Thomas Farquar has purchased the machinery and appliances for soda works and in a short time will commence the manufacture of that delightful beverage, at his place in Roseburg.

The Fourth of July ball which was announced to come off at the residence of Geo. Shambrook in Coles valley, will not take place, in consequence of the injury to his son Dr. Shambrook, and the recent death of his daughter.

Mrs. Selden, delegate of the Roseburg W. C. T. U., left for Portland Wednesday morning to attend the session of the State W. C. T. U. now being held in that city.

A. Nasberg, a popular merchant of Marshfield, gave us a pleasant call on Thursday evening, on his return home from the meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge, where he was honored with the office of Junior Grand Warden.

Miss Willard, President of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was given a grand reception by the temperance people of Portland, at the Taylor Street church, on Monday night.

Christian Lehnner of Myrtle Point, Coos county, is in Roseburg visiting friends. He is on his way home from Portland, where he has been attending the Grand chapter of Masons. Mr. Lehnner was for many years a resident of Happy valley in this county, and is well and favorably known by all the old settlers.

On the 13th, at Uniontown, Pennsylvania, James Nutt, a son of State Treasurer Capt. A. Nutt, shot and killed Duke, the man who killed his (Nutt's) father several months ago.

The shooting took place at the post-office door, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening. Nutt fired five shots, four of which took effect in Duke's body. He expired before any one reached him. Nutt gave himself up to the Sheriff and is now in jail.

We are in receipt of a new journal called the Oregon City Courier, published by Isaac Le Mahieu, at Oregon City. The Courier is a neat four-page, seven-column journal, well arranged and full of interesting matter.

The number we have seen has the right political ring. In a well written article it forcibly presents the great political question of the day, the oppression of capital and monopolies upon labor and the great agricultural interests of the country, and asks for appropriate legislation upon these subjects. We have not the pleasure of Mr. Mahieu's personal acquaintance, but wish him success in this new enterprise and trust that the Courier may prove a tower of strength for good in the land.

"I began the use of your Compound Oxygen Treatment just as I was taking a bad cold; the cold passed off without settling on my lungs, or otherwise hurting me. I have had no pain or rattling in my lungs after the first two weeks' treatment. It works mysteriously on my whole system. I am stronger now than I have been for two years." So writes one of our patients. Our Treatise on Compound Oxygen sent free. Drs. STARK & PALES, 1109 and 1111 Girard street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. All orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment directed to H. E. Matthews, 606 Montgomery street, San Francisco, will be filled on the same terms as if sent directly to us in Philadelphia.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.—L. T. Thompson of Coles valley, met with a serious accident on Friday of last week. He was engaged with others in raising a building at Murphy's place. Some of the beams had been raised and they were raising another when it fell toward the one that Mr. Thompson was upon. He jumped to the ground to save himself and fell, when the falling beam struck the one he had been upon breaking one of the posts, which fell, striking Mr. Thompson across the nose and forehead, fracturing the skull and mashing the nose. Drs. Page and Venable of Oakland, were called and replaced the fractured bone, dressed the wound and Mr. Thompson is in a fine way to recover. It is to be hoped that he will be able to be around soon.

THE WEST SIDE.

A trip over the west side of our county is delightful at this season of the year, notwithstanding the excessive heat. The different valleys from Hubbard Creek to Cow Creek have donned their gayest dresses, the grass and grain are green and crops look well; the stock is fat and the farmers are contented. The west side is not well known to the people of the rest of the county. The precincts of Coles Valley, Looking Glass, Ten Mile, Olalla, Camas Valley and Cleveland are familiar names at the county conventions and the delegates who represent them are much patronized by the candidates and their friends, but the topography of country and the nature of the soil are not so well known. The original settlers selected their homes on the prairie land on the river and creek bottoms where the soil was rich and easy of cultivation, where it is only necessary to build a house and the requisite fencing to make a farm. These favored spots are surrounded or divided by rolling hills of greater or less altitude, covered with oak and fir timber, which have hitherto been devoted to sheep and cattle raising or left severely alone. A large portion of these hills are capable of producing grain and when population increases will be devoted to that purpose. The county is bounded on the west by the Coast Range mountains with the exception of Camas valley, which is situated on the head waters of the middle fork of the Coquille river. It is reached by the lowest pass in the range, through which the settlers have built an excellent wagon road. It is one of the most picturesque and fertile of the whole west side. It is well watered, while the sea breeze of which it has the benefit not only prevents excessive drought but makes the climate delightful in summer. Hitherto the only means of travel down the Middle Fork was by a pack trail which was not of the best, but the citizens assisted by Coos county are now building a wagon road which will soon be completed, when access to the Ocean will be easier than to Roseburg. The west side has been sadly neglected by the county in the matter of public improvements. While it contains one third of the population and pays nearly one third of the taxes of the county, it has been compelled to build its own roads and bridge its many streams at its own expense, the only aid it has ever received from the county being seventy-five dollars towards the repair of the bridge near the mouth of Looking Glass. Owing to this neglect, the question of annexation to Coos county has been seriously discussed. The west side now rightfully demand that the county bridge the south Unquap at Roseburg. If it is to remain a part of Douglas county it certainly ought to have some means of communication with it.

THE CANYON ROAD.—Persons living in the vicinity of the road running through the big canyon in the southern part of this county, are complaining that the road is getting out of repair and becoming impassable, and in consequence of plank breaking on the bridges is absolutely dangerous to public travel. Since the judgment of the Circuit Court forfeiting the charter of the road company, there has been no work on this piece of road, some ten miles in extent through a lonely canyon. This road having been kept up by the corporation for many years, there is no supervisor who has jurisdiction over it. From its location and situation it requires constant work and attention to keep it open and safe for public travel. There is but little or no local labor along the line of the road, and as the entire travel from north to south through the state, except by rail, has to pass over it, it behooves those in authority to make provision for keeping it in repair, before some accident occurs to maul the county in heavy damages. It is extremely doubtful if any person or corporation would take the road and keep it in repair for the revenue it would yield in the way of tolls since the railroad has got beyond it, and the freight for the southern part of the State no longer passes over it.

MASONIC GRAND OFFICERS.—The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of Oregon, in session in Portland, elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Grand Master, W. T. Wright, of Union; Deputy Grand Master, D. P. Mason, of Albany; Senior Grand Warden, J. C. Fullerton, Roseburg; Junior Grand Warden, A. Nasburg, Empire City; Grand Treasurer, Jacob Mayer, Portland; Grand Secretary, F. J. Babcock, Salem.

ESTRAY.—A stray horse has been seen in the vicinity of Mr. Coan's place, west of Roseburg. It is a light bay horse, with white star in the forehead, branded "T R" above the left stifle, with large "W" underneath.

Boys, if you want the latest styles hats and neckties call on Caro Bros.

DAYS CREEK.

The many friends of Mrs. E. Raymond are sorry to see her so sick. May she soon recover.

Frank Rondeau is down on the Columbia river, receiving $65 per month. Good enough, Frank.

Hon. James Sterling, Douglas county's efficient and popular assessor, was around during the week looking out for taxable property.

Uncle John Wever and his accomplished grand-daughter, Miss Laura Beyers, have gone to the Coquille river. Success attend them.

Chapman Brothers have a handsome residence in way of construction and will complete it in a few weeks. Then one or both ought to get married.

Another donation has been made to District No. 15 by J. L. Boyle. Lee is an ambitious youth and will reflect credit on his parents by gentlemanly and upright behavior.

Joshua Newland, the ever efficient and obliging mail carrier, makes his trips on Mondays and Tuesdays, in first part of week, Fridays and Saturdays, during latter portion.

Prof. John E. Day, per agreement, came last Sunday and gave the Days creek people quite a literary feast. The Professor is master of his theme, which will continue to grow in popularity among the intelligent classes.

Mrs. Dumont, an aged citizen of this place, passed across the cold river of death last Tuesday, the 5th day of June, 1883. She leaves a large circle of friends and relations to mourn her death. "May she rest in peace until the resurrection morn."

New Grocery Firm.

Abraham, Hirstel & Co. is the name of a new firm just going into the wholesale grocery and commission business in Portland, Oregon.

They have secured the large new brick building of A. H. Johnson, on the corner of A and Front streets, and will open on the first day of July.

The firm is composed of H. Abraham, N. A. Hirstel and Charlie Hirstel. The Hirstel Brothers are young, energetic men, who have been successfully engaged in business in Portland for some years.

The head of the firm, Hon. Hyman Abraham, is well known in southern Oregon, he having been engaged in the mercantile and produce business in Douglas county for many years, and by right and honorable dealing and close attention to business, has accumulated a large fortune, and secured the enduring friendship of the entire community in which he has done business.

The firm are making arrangements to purchase their stock on most favorable terms at the parts of New York and San Francisco, and will be able to compete with the oldest and best established firms in Portland.

They start under the most favorable auspices, and are sure to succeed. We wish them success in their enterprise.

The Queen to Abdicate.

A World's Washington special says: "A representative of one of the prominent European powers says that a very serious event is impending in England, which is the abdication of the Queen. The reasons given for this unexpected course are her majesty's fast failing health and the increasing unwillingness, and sometimes inability, on her part to perform the duties incident to government. For some years the Queen has been a mild believer in spiritualism. She thought the spirit of her dead husband assisted her in working out questions which perplexed her and sometimes annoyed her. Since the death of her favorite servant, John Brown, she has been very much depressed, and finally it was necessary to remove her to Balmoral, where some of her happiest days were spent with the lover and husband of her youth."

"I am told that some very pathetic scenes took place at her last visit there. She seemed to feel the actual presence of the dead, and talked as if they were by her side. This and other occurrences frightened and alarmed her daughter Beatrice very much, and she insisted that other members of the family should come down at once. The life of the Princess Beatrice must be something dreary beyond words."

ACCIDENT.—Dr. Shambrook, a young and rising physician of Oakland, on Wednesday of last week met with a severe accident which came near proving fatal. Seeing a horse hitched in front of Mr. Mahoney's place of business he got on the horse to try it, when it commenced bucking and broke one of the stirrups, throwing the Doctor violently. The back of his head struck the edge of a plank in the street crossing, the injury being on the skull and caused a pressure on the brain. A number of physicians have been called and a portion of the broken skull removed, since which time he has rested easier and hopes are entertained of his recovery.

COUNTY COURT.

In the estate of Daniel Raymond deceased. Second semi-annual account of Ephraim Raymond, administrator, found correct and ordered filed. Final account filed and Monday, July 9, 1883, at 10 o'clock set for hearing objections to same.

In the matter of the estate of Theophilus Dagan deceased. Final account of E. C. Sacy, administrator, filed, and Monday, July 9, 1883, set for hearing objections.

In the matter of the estate of James P. Sutherland deceased. Eliza Jane Sutherland appointed administratrix. Her bond fixed at $25,000. Bond approved and ordered filed.

In the matter of the estate of James Adams deceased. Ordered that the real estate be sold.

SUPREME COURT. SALEM, June 12. Court met at 2 P. M. Full bench present.

Mary E. Phillips, respondent, vs. George Thorpe, appellant. Decree reversed and bill dismissed. Opinion by Lord, J.

SYLLABUS.—The authorities are uniform in holding that any agreement between the parties, having for its object the dissolution of the marriage contract or facilitate that result, such as an agreement by the defendant in a pending action for divorce to withdraw his or her opposition and make no defense, is void, as contra bonos mores.

Such agreements are a fraud upon the law which favors marriage, and will not give its sanction, nor lend its aid to uphold or enforce the terms of any contract, nor countenance any contrivance which is designed to promote its dissolution.

Nor will equity interpose its jurisdiction to correct mistakes arising out of such illegal contracts, as the suppression of them is far more likely to be accomplished by leaving the parties without remedy against each other.

Where the defense of illegality is interposed, it is allowed upon grounds of public policy and not out of any regard for the interests of the objecting party.

Mary C. Wells respondent, vs. John Applegate, administrator of the estate of Charles Applegate, deceased, appellant. Judgment of the Circuit Court reversed. Opinion by Walde, J., Lord, J., concurring.

SYLLABUS.—In an action against an administrator it is essential that the complaint should show that letters of administration had been granted six months before the action was brought.

An allegation in a complaint against an administrator that on the 3rd day of November, 1879, an order or determination of the County court was duly made appointing J. A. administrator of the estate of C. A. deceased, is not an allegation that letters of administration were granted on that day, as required by section 373, civil code. The form (1 Estes Pleading, 312) is not applicable in this State.

Under the constitution of this State a contract made by a married woman is not necessarily void; but the burden is on the party setting up such a contract to show that it was entered into for an object for which she could lawfully contract.

William Taylor vs. W. H. Scott—Petition for rehearing denied.

Rehearing denied in the case of the State vs. Alfred Anderson.
