NO. 12.

THE INDEPENDENT

IS ISSUED Saturday Mornings, BY THE-DOUGLAS COUNTY PUBLISHING CO.

These are the terms for those paying in advance.
The INDEPENDENT offers fine inducements to advertisers. Terms reasonable.

AND J. JASKULEK PRACTICAL WATCHMAKER, JEWELER, AND

OPTICIAN. ALL WORK WARRANTED.

in Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Spectacles and Eyegiasses, And a Pull Line of Cigars, Tobaccos and Fancy Goods. The only reliable Optometer in town for the proper adjustment of Speciacles; always on hand-

Depot of the Genuine Brazillan Pebble Spectacles and Eyeglasses. OFFICE-First door south of post office, Rose burg, Oregon.

LANGENBERG'S Boot and Shoe Store,

ROSEBURG, OGN., Ou Jackson Street, opposite the Postoffice. Keeps on hand the largest and best assortment of Eastern and San Francisco Boots and Shoes, Gaiters, Slippers And everything in the Boot and Shoe Line and SELLS CHEAP for CASH.

Boots and Shoes Made to Order-Perfect

Fit Guaranteed. I use the Best of Leather and Warrant all

REPAIRING Neatly Done On Short Notice. I keep always on hand

TOYS AND NOTIONS. Musical Instruments and Violin Strings a Specialty. LOUIS LANGENBERG.

DR. M. W. DAVIS, DENTIST, ROSEBURG, OREGON

OFFICE-ON JACKSON STREET, Up Stairs, over S. Marks & Co.'s New Store

MAHONEY'S SALOOM Nearest to the Railroad Depot, Oakland Jas. Mahoney, Prop'r.

The finest of wines, liquors and cigars in Doug las county, and the best BILLIARD TABLE in the State kept in proper repair:

Farties traveling on the railroad will find this place very handy to visit during the stopping of the train at the Oakland Depot. Give me a call. JAS. MAHONEY.

JOHN FRASER, Made Furniture,

WILBUR, - - OREGON. Constantly on hand.

FURNITURE. I have the best stock of Fortland And all of my own manufacture.

No two Prices to Customers give me a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Residents of Douglas county are requested ALL WORK WARRANTED.

DEPOT HOTEL OAKLAND, - - OREGON.

Richard Thomas. Prop'r. THIS HOTEL HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED for a number of years, and has become very popular with the traveling public. First-class SLEEPING ACCOMMODATIONS. And the table supplied with the best the market affords. Hotel at the depot of the Railroad.

H. C. STANTON,

Dealer in Staple Dry Coods!

Keeps constantly on hand a general assort-EXTRA FINE GROCERIES, WOOD, WILLOW AND GLASSWARF, Mary Druneau lost her life.

Crockery and Cordage

A full stock of SCHOOL BOOKS Such as required by the Public County Schools, All kinds of STATIONERY, TOYS and FANCY ARTICLES. To suit both Young and Old.

by a body of his pursuers to-day and YS AND SELLS LEGAL TENDERS, furnishes Checks on Portland, and procures shot to death. Drafts on San Francisco.

SEEDS! - SEEDS! SEEDS

ALL KINDS OF BEST QUALITY and thirty killed.

ALL ORDERS

Promptly attended to and Goods shipped

Hacheney & Beno, Portland, Oregon.

When a young man says his girl is "worth her weight in gold," he is not putting a very high valuation upon her, unless she is a very heavy girl. At this rating 120 pounds of girl would be worth about $30,000, and any young man who doesn't think his best girl worth more than $30,000 ought to be kicked clear over the front gate by an infuriated parent and have the dog set after him.-Middletown, Del., Transcriipt.

The stammerer who told the editor that he had brought him some Je-June poetry spoke better than he knew .- Boston Daily Advertiser.

THE DOUGLAS INDEPENDENT

last breath that the history of her life be the personal luxury, in the way of fine

VOL. VIII.

ing June 23d.

Lancaster, Pa., still has smallpox in Machug has been arrested at Berlin,on a charge of complicity in the murder of Justice Young, shot five years ago.

At a recent cabinet meeting in Paris it was positively stated that the queen of Fifty members of the Texas legislature have been indicted for poker-playing. They have about all settled without trial

Fifty Texas steers recently brove out

The school board of St. Louis issued an order that after September 1, next, corporal punishment shall be abolished

Recently two feet of copper colored tale containing fine gold was struck in Nillie's mine, Leadville, on Prenton bay

A dispatch reports many incendiary fires in the Kunguar government, Russia, and that several persons have been arrested on suspicion of having started

The Germantown Telegraph, one of

The vigilantes of Butte, Mont., re cently took a man by the name of Harry Gundy in hands and gave him sixty-four lashes for the offense of brutally

Business failures for the week ending

June 22d, were 181, as compared with 186 and middle 23, western 48, southern 43,

Pacific states and territories 25 Canada last week, a decrease of 5. New England in the public schools of that city.

hill that assays $45,000 to the ton.

of the Chicago stock yards and stampeded through the streets. Nobody killed

Madagascar had been dead six months. It is stated that a cash dividend of from its midst, five deaths having occurred in one family recently.

by paying fines,

place August 1st.

of families homeless.

Oregon and Washington.

attacking a ten-year-old girl.

the fastest time on record.

moned to quell the disturbances.

The Californin Immigration Associa-

$75.85, and from other European points at equally low rates.

36, New York 7.

and only one man hurt.

ROSEBURG, OREGON, SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1883.

At the recent regatta race at Pullman, Ill., Hanlan won. pany were massacred by natives.

Gen. Sir Wm. Knollis, retired, is dead He was born in 1797. Seventy persons were drowned in floods in Siberia recently. Henry Ward Beecher celebrated his seventieth birthday June 25th. Two men were killed by a railroad accident at East Minneapolis, June 20th. Mayor Michael Nolan of Albany, New York, resigned June 22d. He gives no

Samuel J. Tilden has purchased the yacht Pauline, which is undergoing over-At Havana there were fifty-two deaths from yellow fever during the week end-

Phillips academy, at Exeter, N. H., China and France had been settled lacks celebrated its centennial anniversary June 21st. Governor Butler and staff, of Two passenger vessels recently collided off the English coast in which 25 Massachusetts, were present.

> At Salt Lake, June 21st, a fire broke out in Clawson's wagon shop and the

Wesley Warren, a negro, accused of 4 to 4½ per cent. will be paid on North-ern Pacific preferred stock next month. His body was found hanging, half a mile from town. He had also been The German government refuses to shot. allow men belonging to Germany to take | A stage coach on its way from Butte to to China the Chinese iron-clad recently, Helena, Mont., was stopped recently by two road agents and the passengers > gentleman passenger $600. until otherwise ordered, all mechanics and laborers of the city government

A Gibsontown, Pa., dispatch of June house No. 2 took fire this afternoon, and the flames spreading rapidly warehouses Nos. 2 and 3 were destroyed. They both contained about 1000 barrels of whisky. insured. Two men were seriously, and

A London dispatch of June 19th says: The secretary of the committee to place a bust of Longfellow in Westminster, has presented the American committee with 500 letters from persons of note, who subscribed them to be kept in some public institution of New England as a the oldest and most profitable weeklies testimonial of the high esteem in which Upholstery, Spring Mattrasses, Etc., of Pennsylvania, has been sold to Henry | the poet is held by the best minds of

The Mississippi river is again high, overflowing its banks, breaking levies, and doing immense damage to hundreds of plantations and rendering thousands A colony of Swedes for Oregon arrived at San Francisco June 20th.. They establishing and re-establishing the report that in another year many of court of commissioners of Alabama their countrymen intend settling in claims, on an equal footing with all other resident aliens.

A Chillicothe, Missouri, dispatch of June 21 says: A tornado struck the southern part of the county, about 15 miles southwest of here, yesterday, at what is known as the Lower Gap counor twenty injured. Owing to communication being cut off by flood it is impossible to get particulars.

At the sculling regatta on Lake Calumnet, Pullman, Ill., June 22d, John Teemer, of McKeysport, Pa., won in the three mile free to all race, making the large number of whom were unarmed. distance in 20 minutes and 14 seconds, The fight lasted five hours, and the perfectoral troops were victorious. Two young ladies of St. Joseph, Michigan, recently took nearly half an five men. The prefectorals' side had ounce of arsenic for the of purpose beau-tifying their complexion. Miss Emma The Monteneros are being pursued. Singer was saved by physicians, but Miss

At Wheeling, W. Va., a well is being Mary Druneau lost her life.

A St. Gall, Switzerland dispatch of works. At a depth of 840 feet, after works. At a depth of sand rock, they such as insane. The jury believed her as insane. The jury believed her first royal wedding which occurred after the chancellor had been promoted to the planting a thick vein of sand rock, they Jews have occurred and a number of struck a strong flow of gas. It was confeet high. The gas will be used for fuel in the gas houses. This is the fourth At Vienna, La., June 23d, a colored well which has been successful in the sleeping apartment of the Misses lutionize manufacturing, as the only cost Cooper in that parish, two weeks ago, of the fuel will be the sinking of a well.

supposed with criminal intent, was found the revolutionists assassinated their most of whom were in mourning. One via New Orleans. Through rates from scriptions are arriving in Sunderland Amsterdam will be $74.35; Antwerp, from different parts to help pay the funer-

A Berlin dispatch of June 21 says: The floods in Silesia were attended by A mother and five children have waterspouts. A large part of the town mysteriously disappeared from their of Huschberg is submerged and houses home in Oakland, Cal , June 20, and all adjacent to the village flooded. The proved unavailing. The husband, John A number of cattle perished. Dispatches Green, went to work as usual Wednes- from Breslau state that during the last day morning, taking an affectionate part-ing from his family. Returning in the evening he found the house locked, but been most alarming, the water having that it was deserted. No trace of the An Evangelical church and school, two death ended her sentry. missing was left, and beyond a story of barracks and part of the postoffice are the neighbors that his wife was seen submerged. Disastrous floods are also ran thus:

"Throckmorton's Ghost."

Major John R. Throckmorton was buried in the family vault at Louisville the other day. He died some time ago in a lonely hut on a Mississippi plantation. His last moments were haunted by the thought that Ellen Goodwin was still and the family of the family value and his punishment great. If it was false, his fate was most cruel.—

Argonaut.

Of her latal love of awith vengeance, died haunted by the spectre of her terrible presence.

If her story was true, her revenge was complete and his punishment great. If it was false, his fate was most cruel.—

Argonaut.

Of her latal love of awith vengeance, died haunted by the spectre of her terrible presence.

If her story was true, her revenge was complete and his punishment great. If it was false, his fate was most cruel.—

Argonaut. Near Gilroy, Cal., June 21st, James Littleton, aged 71, and a pioneer of '49, committed suicide by shooting a bullet the woman followed him, and was known as Throckmorton's ghost. The of one of the oldest and most aristocratic they should be said to have done so, be- ment or the conveniences of travel. The his instigation, and in his interest, a writ the same level of dignity as the Cortes, track of an empress, and was so inconfluential society, by able counsel. Her men writing to men, and by ladies to place in one barouche, and moved, on only support was her alleged wrongs, her pluck, and a young, comparatively inexperienced lawyer, whom the court had pertinence from a subject to his sover-burden, choking up the roads calling appointed to defend her. This is the eign.

Twenty-five years before that date, and when Eilen Goodwin was a young, beautiful and talented girl, but of compara- abdication, was, that he would take no empress upset the traveling arrangements fayor than such shades as fire, copper, tively humble origin, John R. Throck- pains to study the complicated etiquette of a great line for three days by her remorton met her. She fell in love with of the Escurial, but sought to introduce quirements in the way of a special train him, and he apparently loved her. simple manners in a country where even and extra precautions; but any one rich Marriage was out of the question with beggars drape themselves proudly in encugh to hire a saloon carriage for himhim, but not the gratification of his their tattered mantles and address one self, and pay for a pilot engine in front, baser passions. She trusted him too another as "Senor Caballero." He one a matter of less than a pound a mile, shall quit work at noon on Saturdays, much—she fell. He soon tired of her day told a muleteer, with whom he had would have traveled with just as much of several colors, and are used for trimand her love. What to him was a "thing stopped to talk on a country road under personal enjoyment. The empress' rank, ming dresses, maatles and bonnets; apart" had become to this girl her whole a broiling sun, to put on his hat; forgetapart" had become to this girl her whole a broiling sun, to put on his hat; forget- no doubt, helped her greatly in opening 21 says: John Gibson & Co's, ware- existence. She could not live away ting that by the fact of ordering a sub- inaccessible castles, attracting experts as from him, and entreated and supplicated him to see her, if only now and then. he created him a grandee. Marshal Prim, For a while he visited her once a week, who was standing by, hastily knocked then only once a month, then at long in- the muleteer's head-dress out of his of millions of itself produced no more The loss is estimated at $500,000; fully tervals, and then quit altogether. Her hand, and set his foot upon it, at the than thousands would have done. conduct now changed. She determined same time offering the man some gold; to follow him through life, to be his shadow, his other self. Whether from a spirit of hate or from some insane delusion, she followed and tracked him for twenty-five years. She waited for him in the morning, and saw him come out from his door. She folhis meals, to his club, wherever he went, and patiently watched the building that eye. He could not escape her, go where that she waited and watched without. Neither the sweltering heat of summer nor the biting cold of winter, neither rain, snow, hail nor sleet, neither hunger nor thirst, could drive or detain her from her vigils. Standing in a doorway on some prominent thoroughfare, clothes and face weather-beaten worn, her eye seemingly listless, unnoticing and apparently unnoticed, a to heart, and to this day the great chan-hermit in the midst of thousands, she cellor always lowers his tone and aslived her lonely, miserable life, to only by the name of "Throckmorton's brought to him from the emperor by What ever her thoughts as she stood, her love, and saw others hurrying out of practice for the state dignitaries to form grave? At the investigation she appeared | lighted taper in their bands, and conduct changed in dress and manner. On the the bride and bridegroom round the ball him, and to keep on rolling up the snowlove, her fall, her revenge. He denied thence into the throne room, where the ever having wronged her, and denounced pair do homage to the sovereign. At the that its bulk is becoming dangerous .-

Ellen Goodwin. After twenty-five years | carrying his candle bravely like other | you about. I believe in innovation."

The judge, in dismissing her, said: "A jury of your countrymen have declared by continuing your strange conduct, dis- the imperial family. Lord Dufferin, ask-herself from the public gaze. Every court, "even of the Grand Duchess one thought the verdict of the jury a just one, and admired her pluck and persistence, and sympathized with her great ciated by the rulers of this earth, for wrong.

of resting, she returned to her former habit. Throckmorton had become a part

How to Get on at Court.

An old custom of the Spanish court requires that when a baby is born in the rin her youth.

Ten years ago the papers of Louisville contained daily accounts, of the trial, or rather the investigation, of a woman by the name of Ellen Goodwin. The Courtier Journal, the leading paper of the southwest, took sufficient interest in the southwest, took sufficient interest in the matter to espouse the cause of the prosecuting witness, Major John R. Throckmorton. In the South, until recently, there was a very clearly defined aristocracy, clannish and proud, between whom and the people there also was a drawn a very distinct. was drawn a very distinct cilors actually went down on all fours line. Ellen Goodwin belonged to the people; Major Throckmorton was a scion to be supposed that the country line. Ellen Goodwin belonged to the people; Major Throckmorton was a scion to be supposed that the country line and the people is not to be supposed that the country very pleasantly; but so can the ordinary wealthy man, money beyond a certain the Pope; but etiquette demanded that cause a town council does not stand on present writer was traveling once on the his instigation, and in his interest, a writ of "de lunatico inquirendo" was issued, Ellen Goodwin was arrested, and put on her trial to establish her sanity and explain her strange conduct.

The odds against her were heavy. Her conduct had been most unprecedented and remarkable. Her opponent was backed by a powerful journal, by an influence of "de lunatico inquirendo" was issued, whose members are supposed to kiss hands when they take leave." The three letters B. S. P. (beso sus pies), which mean, "I kiss your feet," are still used by gentlemen in Spain when signing letters addressed to ladies, and by subjects to their king. The letters B. S. M. (beso sus manos), which are used by eighty; but she could only sit in one duential society by able coursel. Her

> One of the chief reasons of the Duke ject to cover himself in a royal presence, | ciceroni, and securing her near Naples a but the muleteer, who was mortally offended, spurned the money and a few days later, when Prim was assassinated, a rumor was circulated that the mortified | but when the colossal once enters into an individual who had narrowly missed be- enterprise of that kind, it becomes unencoming a grandee was an accessory to joyable. No private man would be hapthe crime. On another occasion King pier even in his own thoughts for cregroom of his in the second person singu- half a million well laid out will do all write "Yo el Rey" ("I the King.") great people keep lesser ones in proper snuff boxes, or jade bowls, or fine cat's the generic name of veilings, will be respect. Prince Bismarck, when a boy, eyes to be procured, a thousand more much worn in combination with merveilwas rebuked by his father for speaking specimens add very little to your gratifiof the king as "Fritz." "Learn to speak cation. A collection loses its charms reverently of His Majesty," said the old when once it is magnified into a museum. squire of Varzin, "and you will grow accustomed to think of him with veneration." Young Bismarck laid the advice sumes a grave worshipful look when he thousands who saw her daily known alludes to the Kaiser. If a message is poverty. The true mammoth Crossus is word of mouth or in writing, he stands up to receive it. When a wedding takes dignity of prince and highness, Bismarck The writer was in the crowd that had failed to appear in the candle procession, ministers. Prince Gortchakoff was always equally careful to observe the minutest points of you of sane mind. See that you do not, etiquette in relation to the late czar and ing him whether the emperor's cold was For about two years she obeyed the better, was rather startled to hear him Gortchakoff remained prime minister But this did not last. After two years throughout the whole of the emperor's

Mammoth Millionaires.

Those who watch the new mammoth Bibbons are used to excess on white reached.

that she was going to see a sick family. Shortly, as the river Jun and mountain shortly, as the river Jun and mountain from the top. These shoots are now streams are rapidly rising. The quay at love, had passed away, asking with her love, had passed away, asking with her love. These shoots are now forty to fifty feet in height, and yield an love, had passed away, asking with her love. These shoots are now forty to fifty feet in height, and yield an love, had passed away, asking with her love. These shoots are now forty to fifty feet in height, and yield an love, had passed away, asking with her love. These shoots are now forty to fifty feet in height, and yield an love, had passed away, asking with her love. These shoots are now forty to fifty feet in height, and yield an love, had passed away, asking with her love.

THE INDEPENDENT HAS THE

FINEST JOB OFFICE

IN DOUGLAS COUNTY. CARDS, BILL HEADS, LEGAL BLANKS

And other printing, including Large and Heavy Posters and Showy

Hand-Bills.

Neafly and expeditiously executed AT PORTLAND PRICES

FASHION NOTES.

The most stylish parasols match the French boots and shoes show a marked tendency to pointed toes.

The loveliest shades of salmon, rose, sorn blue and water green are seen in the new China crapes. wants something more. He wants to Purple violets and barbes of Valenciennes lace trim the fine Milan straw bonnets designed for elderly ladies. feel the value of the difference between his resources and those of the merely

The summer silks which come in large plaids of brilliant blues and reds are said to sell more readily than any other in New York for dress skirts.

Brocades with very large figures the used for elegant mantles instead of are oriental cashmeres. They are lined with light silks, and trimmed with lace chenille balls, and gilt and jet ornaments.

A pretty novelty consists in tinted satin "gilets" or waistcoats embroidered in sprays of arbutus, lilies of the valley or other fine flowers, or worked all over with white silk rosebuds, outlined with tiny mother of pearl beads. These pretty vests can be worn with different toilets

Summer fans are enormous and more "bizarre" than ever. Red is still the creating wearisome delays. There was a favorite color for both sunshades and Cockade bows are all the fashion. They are made up of a number of loops and tapered ends of narrow velvet, satin or faille ribbon, either monochrome or cockade-like clusters for the bodice. coiffure and bonnet trimming.

One of a score of novel French bonnets, all set in a row in an importing house on Broadway, was a fanchon of hunter's green crape, with a wreath of dark moss buds encircling the crown. Upon a bud here and there was poised a large yellow butterfly with wings out-stretched as if just alighting. There were: seven of these upon the bonnet.

At a wedding which occurred last week the modiste who prepared the toilets gave a list of the dresses as follows: The bride wore a dress of crocus white satin the bride's mother a dress of biscuit colored surah, the groom's mother a costume of sand colored satin brocade with sprays of hawthorne, the bride's young sister a crushed strawberry ottoman silk, the married sister a toilet of lobster red surah, draped with black lace, and the bridesmaids were attired in butteroup India mull over silk slips, with garniture of Softly draping and semi-diaphanous leux, white polks dotted foulards, fine patterned brocades, and also with moire Francais. The most beautiful imported materials in veilings, zephyrs and summer cashmeres are those in box robes be done to any reasonable extent by a adorned with borderings of various man with a hundred thousand a year; widths, according to price, the handsom-

How Flies Climb.

This problem in natural history has been studied by numerous naturalists. but only recently has it been satisfacbusiness operations. That is the reason why, in America, he continues his trade; and why his son, with still greater wealth, will be tempted to continue after the feet of the flies by fastening one of the insects to the under side of a plate of ball till smaller men declare as they are glass, and viewing it under the microdeclaring now about the railway kings, scope. A perfectly clear liquid was seen to that its bulk is becoming dangerous.— flow from the ends of the foot-hairs and attach the foot to the glass. When the foot was lifted up, to be put down in another place, the drops of the sticky matter were perceived to be left on the glass "My daughter is to be married next in the exact places where the foot-hairs eek," he said as he sat down and re- had rested. The adhesive fluid appears moved his hat.

"And you will present her with a check for $50,000, of course?" replied the broker.

"Well".

"And you will present her with a check for $50,000, of course?" replied the foot in 1850. A similar adhesive "Well, no, that's what I called to see ou about. I believe in innovation." by many larve, and probably by all insects that climb the stems and the under sides of the leaves of plants.

Sentimental Gush.

Some people are beginning to discover that the craze for naming everything "Garfield" which arose on the death of the late President was very silly. There were Garfield hospitals and Garfield homes, and Garfield libraries, and Garof God, amen, they will look the more important. See that the paper is good, the printing clear, the signature in a bold, heroic hand, and send your bill to me. The time has gone by when the public can be fooled by a check."—Wall Street News.

I was chatting with a bright young

I was chatting with a bright young

> It was thought aterrible diagrace that in Poland, several centuries ago, a noble could kill a peasant for $12 to $15 expense, but, it must be confessed, murder as a pastime is cheaper than that in this Republic.—Taunton Gazette.

An old lady looking at her glass, and finding it too faithfully reflected her gray

LATEST NEWS SUMMARY The British government announces its intention to abandon the criminal procedure bill the present session. BY TELEGRAPH TO BATE The British North Borneo Company officially deny that the staff of the com-

The Ohio Democratic state convention. in session at Columbus, June 21st, nominated Judge Hoadley for governor.

A recent dispatch from Indian terri-tory says: The Cuddo chief, George Washington, a warm and steadfast friend of the whites, is dead.

hauling, and it will soon make its ap-The report that the difficulty between pearance on the Hudson.

It is stated that John Russell Young, The closing services at Harvard uni- United States minister to China, is enversity took place June 22d, and was largely attended.

gaged collecting material for a work on largely attended.

whom and the people whom a very largely attended.

flames spread to other buildings, damaging about $100,000 worth of property. Several men were injured by falling the murder of a young man named Price, near Veto station, Alabama, was taken from jail by a large mob recently,

The new steamer Oregon, built for the searched. The robbers succeeded in Guion line, to run between New York getting only $25, although a lady passenand Liverpool, was launched June 23d ger had $700 about her person and a The New York aldermen have adopted a resolution that from the 15th of June to the 15th of September, every year, without abatement of wages.

a number of others slightly injured.

J. Raymond, Jr., the transfer to take Great Britain. The court of commissioners of the Alabama claims decided that subjects of Great Britain, residents at the time within the United States, and sailing on the high seas under the protection of the United States flag, were embraced within the beneficial provisions of the two acts > try, and swept over twenty-five or thirty farm houses, spreading havoc in its track. Two men were killed and fifteen

A Panama dispatch of June 19th says: An encounter took place at Morrope, Peru, on the 13th, between 200 prefectoral troops and 300 Monteneros, a Monteneros lost two officers and twenty-

June 23d says: Serious riots against the Jewish shops were pillaged and the ducted from the mouth of the well by police stoned while endeavoring to stop pipes and lighted, making a blaze thirty the excess. Soldiers have been summan by the name of Duke, who entered striking gas in that place. It will revo-

A Sunderland dispatch of June 19th catastrophe in Victoria Hall has now A Matamoras dispatch of June 23d reached 202. The funerals of a great says: One hundred and fifty revolution- many of the victims of the Saturday disists attacked Chiattua, and carried off aster took place to day. The streets two officials. The cavalry pursued and were crowded with sympathetic people, prisoners. The revolutionists were over- hundred graves were prepared in one taken by the cavalry and cut to pieces | cemetery for the victims. Exclusive of those for which the parents of children who lost their lives will pay, fifty-four tion has effected arrangements with the | bodies were interred in the cemetery to-Southern Pacific railroad for low rates to day and thirty-one in a smaller cemeimmigrants from Europe to California, tery. Large numbers of generous sub-

$72 25; Cologne, $74; Paris, $68; Zurich, al expenses of the unfortunate children.

buried in the same grave with her tired and worn out body. He, the real victim of her fatal love or awful vengeance, to wish for, but in those things there is A short paragraph appeared in one of the morning papers of recent date. It families in all the Southern States. At story as told at the trial.

lowed him to his place of business, to Amadeo inconsiderately addressed a ating a Versailles, and short of Versailles, held him until he left it. He could not Italian; for, as a court chamberlain rep- the English sense, is in America or Aussurprise her by beginning the day earlier resented to his majesty, a Spaniard tralia impossible; and a great estate gives than usual; he could not tire her by end- spoken to with his familiarity might comparative little influence, and beyond ing it later than was his wont. If he have claimed that the monarch had a certain limit quite attainable by any traveled he failed to elude her watchful dubbed him cousin-that is, had enno- rich man, no particular pleasure. What and when he might. For a period of worried Italian prince had to learn was nobody will "cap" to you, or vote for twenty-five years he was conscious of the presence of this too faithful follower. letter to a subject with any friendly or way that is not half hostile? Of course, When he dined or danced, drove or walked, gambled or gossiped, he knew night after night, alone with her hate or place at the Prussian court, it is the the darkness and storm to comfortable a candle procession-that is to say, that homes and bright firesides? Have they ministers, chamberlains, high stewards, been revealed on the other side of the take each a silver candlestick with a witness stand she told the story of her room, where guests are assembled, and gathered to hear the verdict. There was and court gossips quickly concluded that a quiet, deep sentiment of sympathy for he now thought himself too great a man the woman, which pervaded the court, to take part in a semi-menial ceremony. and which found vent in a hearty cheer | The truth was, however, that the chanwhen the verdict was announced. This cellor had been seized with a sudden sympathy, this kindly notice, this long attack of gout; and at the next wedding deferred vindication was too much for he was careful to silence all carpers by appoint them.' injunction of the court. Her insane de- answer in a reverent voice, with his head lusion seemed to have disappeared, or her spirit of revenge had been complete- majesty has deigned to feel a little betly satisfied by her complete vindication. ter this morning." The Duke de Morny She paid more attention to her dress, attended church regularly, and withdrew purr when he talked of any creature at

of her life. This second crusade resulted in an assault by Throckmorton, a mutual efforts to unearth their whereabouts have | railway near Zalzsburn is washed away. | arrest and fine, and in a second trial for insanity, and a second judicial confirmation from commonplace assomillionaires now coming forward in such poetical, answered, "A daughter of the by separation from commonplace assomillionaires now coming forward in such gods." "I don't know her." my partner ciations.—St. Louis Globe Democrat. tion for sanity. Her physical strength numbers from America and Australia, began now to fail. Her frail woman's say that one definite reason for dreading body, though long sustained against the ; them is their incapacity for spending most wearing strain by an almost super- their fortunes in amusing themselves. A finally making an entrance discovered reached the highest mark since 1824. human will power, broke down, and man who has made twenty millions death ended her sentry.

Four years afterward, far from his way shares, finds that unless be goes on hotel and club-room, from his surround- making money or is one of those fortuspeaking to a woman, as if in an angry reported in Bohemia and Moravia. The ings of luxuriant ease, in a lonely hut on nate persons who can continuously determined tone, and that she subsequently stated Danube is expected to overflow its banks a Mississippi plantation. Major Throck-vote themselves to an object, the excess horizontal position, but sent up shoots burden, enoking up the roads, calling forth tiresome crowds and sometimes paradise to live in which no money would have purchased; but the command As to creating a grand place—the idea which Edgar Poe puts into the head of his imaginary millionaire-it is to be done, no doubt, with skill and judgment;

lar as "tu." Happily the man was an that is required. To "found a family" in bled him. Another thing that the much is the use of owning square miles when complimentary formula, but must simply if the mammoth millionaire is a collector he can make a mammoth collection; but fabrics, such as "voile de religeuse." Etiquette is the code of rules by which | when once you have acquired all the and many other varieties known under Besides, all these things cost comparatively little. They can, any one of them, and we are talking of the millionaires, to est patterns being in Irish point or whom that income seems respectable Venetian cut work, ten inches deep. forced to accumulate by the difficulty of getting rid of his money, and soon finds that really to use it with a visible result adequate to the power expended, there is no way except to increase his

An Innovation.

"Well, no, that's what I called to see "No, sir. I was thinking that you might take about $500 and buy about $75.000 worth of some sort of bonds." "As an investment for an income?" "No-for a show. Get $1000 bonds, if possible. Get some that are printed in red and blue ink, if you can. If they have big red or blue seals on so much the better. If they begin 'In the name of God, amen,' they will look the more important. See that the paper is good, girl the other evening, at a small german when our attention was directed to a tall and handsome woman who had just entered the room. "Who is she?" asked my companion, and I, wishing to be dimmed. It will rather be brightened gods." "I don't know her," my partner replied, critically examining the new comer through her lorgnette, "the gods are not in our set."

The hurricane of 1866 blew over hundreds of thousands of cocoanut trees in the Bahama Islands. Instead of dying,