Chapman Asked to Resign.

Alfred F. Sears jr. and W. L. Chitenden, constituting a majority of the special committee of the common council of the city of Portland, appointed to investigate the charges against Mayor Chapman, in reference to the Chapman-Besser contract, by which Besser was to furnish the money necessary to secure the nomination for Chapman, for which they in turn were to be appointed to office by the Mayor, for which Besser was also to pay Chapman one thousand dollars, when confirmed, etc., make the following report:

That the authenticity of said agreement is established, and that the parties aforesaid entered into the same with a full knowledge of its import; that the conduct of said mayor in the premises is entirely reprehensible, and without excuse or justification; that his to obtain his election to the office which he now occupies, by immoral and illegal means, and when in the occupancy of that office to secure a pecuniary compensation unwarranted by law and indefensible under any canon of ethics or morality. Plainly the intention was bribery, and the conduct of the highest officer of the city discloses a corruption at the fountain head, defiling the entire municipal government.

The power of impeachment or removal from office is not directly vested in your honorable body, but the law offers a remedy, which your committee believes it to be the duty of the common council, as the representative of the people of this city, to apply:
