THE Sunday Welcome and the Dem ocratic Era, a new paper started in East Portland, by J. W. Keliy, simul taneously in their last week's issue, printed articles speculating upon th political decapitations about to take place in the federal offices in Oregon. They state that Hon. J. C. Fullerton, of the Roseburg land office, will be replaced by Binger Hermann, a former incumbent of the office, and that Cora is about to lose his place on account of his and his father's (Mickey) devotion to Mitchell and his cause. It is no se cret that Cora has, during the term of his office, been a devout wershiper o the great St. John, and it is altogether likely that he will retire from the office when his present appointment expires. But it would take a stretch of imagination to believe that Hon. Binger Hermann would give up his law practice, which is worth three or four times the salary, to accept a clerical position in the land office. It may be possible that there is more disaffectson in the Republican camp, between the bosses and half-breeds here in Oregon, than is generally known to outsiders, but there is no fight between Dolph and Mitchell. They both serve the same masters and were supported by nore than ordinary intellect and superior qualifications; very industrious and enterprising. During his two years, stay with us he proved himself honest and generous. His death is a loss to the country as well as to his family and friends. The landmarks of his energy, industry and enterprise still remain He leaves a wife and two children, and a very large circle of relatives and friends. He lived to plant the tree of fortune but not to gather the fruit. It seems to us he deserved a better fate. We are told that "fortune favors the brave," but this is a sad reverse. But we are teld that not even a sparrow can die until its death warant is signed in heaven. We bow in humble submission to the will of him "who doeth all things well."

RECENT investigation has brought to PERSONAL.-We had the pleasure light some of the dark methods by which the people's lands have been voted away to railroad corporations. It is shown by the memoranda of J. J. Newell that Senators Kellogg of Louisiana, and McDonald of Arkansas, rebulk of their seed on their own farms, by the person arrested during the late civil ceived over $100,000 for putting the job through Congress for the Texas Pa. cific land grant, in 1872. It was their influence and not their votes which these senators sold to the corporation. What the other gentlemen who were also members of the senate at that time and who voted for the bill, got for their votes, will remain a mystery. Had they had influence they might have sold it openly and with as much effrontery as the gentlemen from Louisiana and Arkansas.
