In the brief time left us last wee our reference to the candidates nom nated last week at The Dalles was so full as we desired it should be. The more we reflect the better are we satis fied with them.

As for the electors it is quite unnecessary to make extended mention. They are simply selected to represent the voice of the people as to who shall be president and vice president, for the ensuing term. If the Democracy in national council select good and able men for these exalted positions we have no doubt that Hons. Mr. Ison. Fenton and Jones will well and nobly present their claims and that of the platform to the people of Oregon. We are much gratified with their selection.

Hon. John Myers is the right man in the right place, and let it not be fersanguine of Democratic success in June gotten that such is the case. In fact like good wine, he improves with age. There is no retrograde idea in either his mental moral composition. He has repeatedly overceme large edds in his home county for important offices, from sheriff to State senator, and is amply able to do so next June. He is a successful business man and comprehends fully every material business interest of our State. Democrats, you can elect such a man and therefore fail not to do your duty nobody will regret his election.

The Portland Standard becomes daily more and more joyful over our ticket, platform and prospects.

The Oregonian speaks in the very highest terms of John Myers and Gov. Thaver, and thus it refers to our tariff

"The tariff resolution adopted by the Democratic convention is a good onefor Oregen. But it will not be accepted, even by the Democratic party, in manufacturing States. And though Oregon and other non-manufacturing States were plundered by the protection which the east exacts, remonstrance on our part is almost useless against the overwhelming political weight of those States which insists en Dr. Saubert returned from Siuselaw this a policy that keeps out foreign goods in week and reports the country fair for lum- order that their own profits may be en-

The Sunday Welcome truthfully says: "The man who would refuse to support the platform adopted by Democratic State convention at The Dalles would refuse to support his own family. The planks referring to forfeiture of unearned railroad lands; a more effective mechanics' lien law: the abolition of the prison contract system and a law to bring about uniform as sessment and taxation are especially strong and timely, and will meet with much favor among the people throughout the State."

Every fair-minded Republican paper in the State mention a good word for the work done at The Dalles. Occathe Eugene Journal, which thinks Mr. Myers is net qualified to represent Oregon in congress. The mental caliber of that journal warranted us in exclaiming: "Bully; success is now certain." THE old-fashioned wreckers of the Republican party are on top again and verily are the Richmonds of the field. Most marked of all, because most loud of sound, is Hon. George Riddle, who boasts upon the street that the forthcoming Republican convention nominate a nondescript independent what you-may-call-it Republican for Congress and will elect him, regardless of the fusion Republicans or stalwart means, but trot him out and we shall see what we shall see.
