A FIREMAN.

Trip to the Coast.

As you are aware, you travel down the middle fork of the Coquille River from Camas Valley you enter Coos county on the west line of sec. 18, in township 30, range 9 west, a very mountainous region of country, yet the grade or fall of the river at this place is only a twenty feet to the mile.

The mountains are here and for miles below covered with the best of cedar and pine timber, underlaid with the best of building stone and coal, and the streams have abundant trout—game such as deer and elk are plenty.

There are but five settlers, yet at J. B. Fetter's you will always find the very best of fare and the hostess always wears a genial smile, and will insist on you taking a lunch with you on leaving, which will serve you to Camas Valley, or if downward bound to Myrtle Point, where if you are in luck you will find Chris Lehenhær, E. Bend, R. Dixon & Border, all live men.

If you happen to meet with Bob Lowe he will tell you all you ever knew and laugh at you for listening to him. If you take a trip down the river on the little Anna, with Capt. Ratliff, you may be sure he will land you safe at any port you may designate, and on time.

If you go on the Ceres Capt. Reid will deliver you with the mail and give you time to get your lunch at Coquille City, a place where Binger Hermann has a saw-mill doing a good business.

You must not fail to call on G. Mehl, the jolly Dutch man who runs the brewery. The next point of interest is Beaver Slough, where you will find G. M. Lowe, who will furnish you with meat and drink on short notice, of the very best kind.

The next place of interest is the site where the late Grob's mill was destroyed by a spark from the Anne's smokestack. I hope it will soon be rebuilt. Next below is Parkersburg, where you will find Capt. Parker and Capt. Tom Floyd, who will take you over the bar when the tide is right.

Manly Roberts is engineer. You should not fail to call on Adam Purshbaker at Randolph, who can tell you all about the B'ack-sand mines and how to catch salmon; and when you go to Fandon go direct to the Lewisburg Hotel where you will meet with that genial landlord, M. E. Anderson, whose lady understands catering to a hungry appetite, and whose bed chambers are well-kept and furnished.

COMPASS.

A Simple Tribute.

The death of Captain John Sidney, at Boston, the other day, recalls to the Index his early career.

During the hot times just prior to the war, young Sidney was elected to Congress. He was then considered one of the most eloquent of the younger members of the New England bar, and shortly after taking his seat had occasion to cross swords with the late Ben Hill.

He commenced his speech in a nervous, bashful manner, but gradually warming up and gaining confidence he closed with the following simple yet fervid tribute to the constitution:

"The constitution to me seems like a grand and noble tree, under the shade of whose broad limbs we are alike protected from the storms of anarchy and from the hot and scorching rays of the sun of tyranny."

Then walking straight towards Hill and throwing all the powers of a rich voice into his speech, he quoted with tender pathos the poet's lines:

"Woodman, spare that tree, Touch not a single bough, In youth it sheltered me, And I'll protect it now."

The effect was electrical, and long and loud applause and congratulations marked the occasion as one to be long remembered.

Captain Sidney received a wound in the head which almost paralyzed his splendid mental faculties, and he died the other day, a prematurely old man, having given his life to his country.

Scenery of the Pacific Northwest.

The desire to possess artistic pictures of the scenery of the Pacific Northwest is a feeling shared in common by the residents of this region, and the thousands of tourists who annually travel great distances to behold it.

To make a satisfactory collection of photographs is almost impossible, and is only accomplished at an expense far greater than the majority of people are willing or able to undergo.

To meet this urgent want, a "Souvenir Album of the Pacific Northwest" has been issued, containing thirty-five art photographs of the most prominent and representative scenes of Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho and Montana.

Among them are excellent pictures of Umpqua Mountains, Crater Lake, Mount Hood, Multnomah Falls, Yellowstone Park, etc. The album is neatly bound in cloth, embossed with gold and makes a neat ornament for the center table.

The price, seventy-five cents, only represents the cost of three ordinary photographs, and brings this collection of thirty-five beautiful scenes within the reach of all. Sent postage paid upon the receipt of 75 cents. L. Samuel publisher, Portland, Oregon.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

In conversation with School Director Friedlander, we learn that the common school fund is entirely inadequate to carry on anything like a respectable school at this place. There is no district of the same size in Oregon better able to maintain a good school than Roseburg, and yet there is none so poor but can excel her.

This is not as it should be. Our citizens should evince more pride than heretofore indicated. A meeting is contemplated to take into consideration this important matter. We hope the people will turn out and aid in a cause that will bless them now and hereafter.

MARRIED.

WAGNER-KIRKLEY.—On July 12, 1884, at the residence of Joseph Kirkley, near Drain, by R. L. Shelly, minister of the gospel, Walter L. Wagner to Miss Eunice Kirkley.

SELECT SCHOOL.—I will commence a select school on Monday, July 7th, in the house of Mr. Newcomb, in the southern part of the city of Roseburg. Terms, five dollars per quarter. I solicit the patronage of the public.

MISS F. J. HOWELL.

ALL THE RACE.—To captivate the popular taste and surpass all previous efforts to please the palate, requires no small amount of knowledge and no little skill, and when we remember that the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is as beneficial to the system as it is acceptable to the stomach, we readily understand why it is the universal favorite as a cure for habitual constipation and other ills arising from a weakness, or inactive condition of the bowels, kidneys, liver and stomach.

Sample bottles free and large bottles for sale by S. Hamilton, Roseburg, and Page & Dimmick, Oakland.

FOR SALE, CHEAP FOR CASH OR APPROVED CREDIT, A SUPERIOR CLASS OF PURE-BRED MERINO RAMS.

Eldorado Mineral Water.

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS. CHEMICAL LABORATORY, ASSAY OFFICE, BULLION ROOMS AND THE ROYAL MINT, STRAITS STREETS, SINGAPORE, NOV. 23, 1883.

Messrs. Holbrook, Merrill and Silson, Gentlemen. I have submitted to your analysis the sample of Eldorado water handed me for examination and find it to consist of the following constituents: Chlorine, Iodine, Carbonic Acid, Iron, Alumina, Lime, Magnesia, Soda and organic matter.

Eldorado Gaily belight, a gallant knight, In sunshine and in shadow, Had journeyed long, singing a song, In search of Eldorado.

But he grew old, this knight so bold, And o'er his heart a shadow Fell as he found no spot of ground, That looked like Eldorado.

And as his strength failed him at length He met a pilgrim shadow, "Shadow," said he, "where can it be, This spring of Eldorado?"

Quoth the shadow: "For the benefit of suffering humanity I will state that the Eldorado spring is situated three miles west from Roseburg, and a supply of the water is kept constantly on hand and for sale by Dr. S. Hamilton, agent, Roseburg, Oregon."

Dr. Geo. W. Jones. Dear Sir: I have been troubled with neuralgia pains in my head and cheek bones, for several years, and had all the best of every getting cured. I went to your medical springs with my son James and got some of the water, and drank it freely and found that it was a mild physics. I used it three times a day for a little more than two months, and the pains left me. I have not felt them since, and that has been 17 months ago.

H. COHN, SR. Roseburg, Jan. 25, 1884.

Julius Joseph, of the well known firm of Hoffman and Joseph, of Albany, bears the following testimony:

ALBANY, OGN., December 30, 1883. Dr. Geo. W. Jones. Dear Sir: I would be glad to state to you that a year ago I suffered under agonies on account of piles (hemoid) and went to Portland to get relief from doctors there. I met with the result, however, that I was advised to have the doctors to try your Eldorado Mineral Water. I did so and had one dozen bottles sent to me by the country. I used one-half dozen bottles, taking right before every meal, one small glass full. I was only relieved, but certainly cured by what I used, and thankful for it, because I suffered more than I can express. I would advise any one suffering from this disease to try your Mineral Water. Should you have any objection to this statement do so. You are at liberty on my account. I think this is the least I can do for you, as I was cured by it. Be respectfully yours, JULIAN JOSEPH.

ROSEBURG, Dec. 3, 1883. GEO. W. JONES: Dear Sir: From sheer curiosity I was induced to try Eldorado Water and was not only surprised but highly gratified with the result. I have for many years been a sufferer from dyspepsia and have tried every kind of means known to pharmacy and without result. The country was my experience from the use of your mineral water. Taken according to directions it produced immediate relief and in a short time, if continued, would secure permanent cure. To any who will avoid irritating stimulants, I am satisfied it will prove of valuable comfort and benefit. As a general regulator I found it most excellent.

DALLAS, Dec. 1, 1883. From Mr. M. W. Parsons, last August, I received one bottle of the Jones Eldorado water, from Dr. Hamilton of Roseburg. I used half a bottle for each meal and can fully recommend it for that dreaded disease, as I have not been troubled with the complaint since.

I have also used the Eldorado spring water from Jones' spring, Douglas county, Oregon, and am fully satisfied with the result. I was bothered with constipation. W. C. BROWN, merchant.
