"FOUNTAIN CITY, INDIANA, April 17th, 1882.

"DRS. STARKEY & PALEN: Dear Sirs—My lungs have been affected for years, it being hereditary with me, my mother having died of Consumption. One year ago this last winter I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs and finally resulted in a severe hemorrhage. I had a hard, hacking cough all spring; in fact, all through the summer, at times. Last fall, as the cold weather came on, my cough increased and I was having night sweats every night and had one or two severe hemorrhages. I was very much reduced in flesh. The color had left my lips and I was expectorating thick, yellow matter, often mixed with blood. Had to lie propped on pillows at night. I had about made up my mind that a few more months would end my earthly career, and my friends have told me since I began to improve that some of them had only given me until next May to live, but if I die before that time now I will have to go in some other way than Consumption. I have not had a single night sweat since I first began your Treatment. My cough has almost disappeared and I am rapidly improving.

"Very gratefully yours,
"J. LINDON PARKER."

PAPILLON

"A SEVERE CASE OF CATARRH CURED."

Mr. Asa B. Rowley, of the firm of Pierce & Rowley, Druggists and Apothecaries, cor. 35th and Indiana Ave., says: "I was afflicted with a very aggravated form of Catarrh, several physicans predicted that it would soon end in consumption. We have sold PAPILLON CATARRH CURE for nearly two years and heard such good reports from our customers that I was induced to use the remedy for my own case; the result was unprecedented. I commenced to get well after using it the first time, I continued using the remedy for several weeks, and am now entirely cured. I will be glad to give any one calling upon me further particulars. Papillon Catarrh Cure we are confident is the only sure cure for Catarrh—acute or chronic, Hay Fever or Rose Cold."

"A REPORT FROM HOME."

Last winter I was afflicted by a carbuncle, followed by several boils on the back of my neck. I tried your remedies, and by keeping the inflamed parts saturated with Papillon Skin Cure, I was entirely cured. The relief obtained from the soreness and inflammation was immediate and effectual. I have used the Skin Cure upon styes, and found it the most satisfactory remedy for that trouble I ever tried; it gives immediate relief from inflammation of the eyelid, and effects a speedy cure.
