LOCAL ITEMS.

Weather hot. Extremely quiet. Everybody rusticing. Threshing has commenced.

Advertising begets wealth. Election bets are being made. Have you fixed your sidewalk?

The bridge is progressing rapidly. "Has it been hot enough for you?" Mumps and whooping cough prevalent.

City candidates are beginning to crop out. East Portland had a big fire Tuesday night. Pay your honest debts and remember the printer.

These are the days of sunstroke and cholera morbus. The small boy is happy as he takes his evening swim.

Tom. Grimale is preparing to burn another kiln of brick. Mrs. J. F. Barker has been quite ill the past two weeks.

We desire correspondence from every portion of the county. Creed Flood is express messenger on the West-side railroad.

Rev. C. H. Carson of Albany is a cousin of Grover Cleveland. The testimony has commenced in the case of Phipps vs. Kellogg.

Mrs. Emily Flood is spending the week at Snowden's springs. Dr. Sanbert has opened an office one door north of the Placidaleer.

Thos. Farquar is to establish a city express and delivery wagon. A three story brick hotel is to be built in Eugene at a cost of $12,000.

Burb. Backway has a force of men at work on the Coos Bay wagon road. The Oregon and Nevada railroad has resumed work under the new management.

San Francisco has forty eight Democratic clubs unincorporated and equipped for business. The hydrants are now "tight" and "dry."

So were several Roseburgers during the week. Thos. Farquar and Tim Ford went to Salem to attend the funeral of the late I. R. Moore.

Better than a letter to your friends in the States. A copy of the INDEPENDENT sent regularly. Mr. McCormack, the government land agent, is again in our city to remain a couple of weeks.

The fence sign painter has again been in our midst. Does tar and feathers cure these fellows? We hear of a social drink, fight and shooting scrape at Tea M. e. No harm done and no arrests.

James Sterling and deputies are busy engaged at the court house, preparing the assessment roll. Judge Mosher is visiting his brother in Cincinnati and is not expected home for about six weeks.

E. Dean, of the Coquille Herald was in our town looking after the interests of his paper last week. There will be a basket meeting at the Pine Grove church, on Deer Creek, next Saturday at 10 o'clock A. M.

The addition to the Metropolitan hotel gives plenty of room to accommodate the travelling public. Salem only boast one hotel now, the Che-meketa. The Reed House is to be made into stores and offices.

John Flook and family returned from a trip to the coast this week. As also the family of John Rast. Roseburg had what might be termed a "dark-horse" billiard Saturday last. It was not a genuine boom.

Harvey W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian arrived home Saturday, after an absence of several weeks in the East. Tom Reid, of Gardner, was in town over Tuesday night, on route home from a trip to Portland and San Francisco.

Postage on newspapers and periodicals when sent by others than the publishers is now one cent for four ounces, which will enable the largest periodicals to be sent for one cent.

A child about six months old was left in charge of some kind people at Yonocolla last week. It was presented to them by some lady from Roseburg and bears a Lane county name.

Lieut. Schwatka has resigned his commission in the army, and his resignation has been accepted. It is thought that he proposes to accept some position under a foreign government.

Rev. E. C. Hamilton will conduct Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at Grange Hall; also service every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, at the same place. All are cordially invited.

Fall wheat is solid notwithstanding its many tribulations, and so it will generally be in Oregon. Trouble is bad enough when it comes, so there is no good cause for either borrowing or stealing it.

G. Lando, John Nasburg and G. A. Lineole of Marshfield, were registered at the Metropolitan, Tuesday. The first gentleman was en route for San Francisco, and the latter were up an land business.

Parties at Medford have petitioned the Grand Master Workman of the A. O. U. W. for a charter to establish a lodge of that order there. They are already assured of a good membership to begin with.

J. S. Purdon, ex-sheriff, is visiting in Roseburg? He claims that he left the stubs of the tax receipts in the office when he turned it over to his successor. We have not heard of them being found as yet.

The fee bill enacted by the last Legislature went into effect with the coming in of the new county officers a couple of weeks ago. This makes the boys scratch about pretty lively these times to make any profit.

Arthur (Glam) and Jos. Whiteman returned Saturday from a month's recreation in the Otolla mountains. They killed fifteen deer and two black bear, and look as though the mountains had agreed with them.

The railroad offers reduced rates to induce the shipment of green fruit to Portland; but when it reaches there, there is only a market for a small quantity. Those shipping should make their sales and prices before hand.

Hoffm's dog Bruno and Laina's bull dog fought for $20 a side across the creek Monday. The fight was decided in favor of Bruno, but owing to dissatisfaction, another fight was arranged for the evening and Bruno was pronounced the victor.

There was an error in the call for those who were delinquent in their volunteer road work as published in this paper two weeks since. Mr. J. H. Whitsett informs us that he had worked his very day he was called upon. We are always pleased to see these matters right.

The principle reason why people do not visit stores that do not advertise is because they don't want to disturb the clerks, in reading time novels behind the counter, and because they have to pay such merchants high prices to make up for the loss of custom owing to their failure to advertise.

Geo. Sanbert disposed of his interest in the Placidaleer last Saturday, making the purchaser, Mr. Hursh the sole proprietor. George took a trip to Eugene Tuesday and may leave Roseburg for good. He is a good boy and deserves the best of good luck. The Placidaleer, we trust, will continue up to its present standard and we congratulate Mr. Hursh upon his investment.

The lover's tree on the hill north of town gave way before the Saturday night "blizzard" and now lies prostrate upon the scene of its former greatness. This will bring a sigh to many happy couples all over the State who in their younger days sat beneath its protecting branches dreaming love's sweet dream. Those who are accustomed to sit upon the brewery porch and watch the aforesaid dream will probably raise a fund and have the old tree raised again, and the maidens fair and laddies brave of modern Roseburg will again furnish the drama of life at the old theatre at the usual cost of admission.

We are indebted to Mr. Nany, U. S. signal service officer at Roseburg, for the following weather observations during the month of July: Highest bar, 30.15; lowest bar, 29.82; monthly range bar, .33; highest temp., 83.5; lowest temp., 43.4; monthly range temp., 40.1; greatest daily range temp., 35.2; least daily range temp., 12.0; mean daily range temp., 22.2; mean of maximum temperature, 73.1; mean of minimum temperature, 52.0; prevailing direction wind, n. w.; total movement of wind, 2345 miles; highest velocity wind and direction, 16 miles n. w. No. of fog days, 0; No. of clear days, 4; No. of fair days, 14; No. of cloudy days, 5; No. of days on which rain fell; 7; mean monthly range, 30.05; mean monthly temp., 61.4; mean relative humidity, 63.0; total rainfall, 5.03 in.

ALL THE RAGE.—To captivate the popular taste and surpass all previous efforts to please the palate, requires no small amount of knowledge and no little skill, and when we remember that the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is as beneficial to the system as it is acceptable to the stomach, we readily understand why it is the universal favorite as a cure for habitual constipation and other ills arising from a weakness, or inactive condition of the bowels, kidneys, liver and stomach. Sample bottles free and large bottles for sale by S. Hamilton, Roseburg, and Page & Dimmick, Oakland.

NEW HOTEL.—Since Mr. Gotsill moved into his fine new Depot Hotel, he informs us that his patronage has doubled. No wonder, as he understands his business, and always gives the best market afford. The rooms are nicely furnished also, and one is certain of good treatment, good meals and good rest. Try the Depot Hotel.

STAGE ROBBER.—The stage from Yreka going South was stopped by a "lone highwayman" near Bass station about 1 A. M. July 29th. The robber secured the express box but did not molest the mails. It is not thought there was much money in the box.

Messrs. Lowering and Curry, civil engineers, of Portland, are visiting Southern Oregon for pleasure.

APPORTIONMENT

Of the Common School Fund for the year ending June, 1884. Number of persons between 4 and 20 years of age, 4115. Amount apportioned, $3045 10. Rate per person, $74.

Table with columns: NO. OF DISTRICT, NAME OF CLERK, NO. OF PERSONS, AMOUNT. Lists names like J. D. McFarland, James Barrow, G. O. Hendricks, etc.

Joint District No. 1. STATE OF OREGON, COUNTY OF DOUGLAS, ss. I hereby certify that the above apportionment list is true and correct.

Witness my hand this 25th day of June, A. D. 1884. FRANK W. BEARDSLEY, County School Supt.

Quiet times. Hot sun mer days. The threshing season is at hand. Mrs. Mary Smith is visiting friends and relatives in the southern part of the county.

Sheriff Taylor was in town on Wednesday, attending business matters. A little excitement in social matters is next in order.

The silver prospects of the Elk-Head silver mines are very good. Horace Hanna, Esq., is now in the employ of Charles Hall, proprietor of the hardware business in this place.

Three divines of this place took their departure this week in search of recreation and pleasure. They were steering their cart in the direction of Coos Bay when last seen.

The health of this community was never better than it is at present. There is not a case of sickness existing here at present and the doctors are sad.

Excursions and pleasure parties are making arrangements to take in the coast and about Gardner and Coos Bay during the heated term, when they will feast and founder on crabs and oysters.

Improvements are pushing on slowly and surely; notwithstanding the hard times complained of, Messrs. Arb Stearns, J. S. Doreland's and John Wilson's residences are nearing completion and others are in a primitive condition of construction.

Our grocery merchants are enjoying a pleasant little fight at present, in their business, and groceries are sold by them at figures below the wholesale cost. This fight will last probably till there is an eruption, then everything will move gently along. XXX.

WAR IN TEN-MILE. Heavy Cannonading at the Front. A couple of citizens of Ten-Mile, boon companions and close friends, went to Looking Glass last Sunday, imbued too much of old-be-joy ul, and on their way back home got into a quarrel and a fight. William went to a house, borrowed a shot-gun, pursued his companion on horse-back and fired a couple of volleys after his retreating form. The flying forces made good its' escape, and fortunately, there was no loss of life or blood. William, however, was badly frightened and lurked in some secret place until he learned that his companion was un-injured. He has since returned to the busy haunts of life, and is engaged harvesting his crop.
