

THE INDEPENDENT.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 13, 1884.

LAUREL LODGE A. F. M. WILL HOLD REGULAR MEETINGS ON Wednesday or before each full moon.

PHILETIAN LODGE, No. 3, I. O. O. F., meets on Thursday evening of each week at 7 o'clock, in their hall at Roseburg.

UNION ENCAMPMENT, No. 9, I. O. O. F., meets at Odd Fellows' Hall on the first and third Fridays of every month.

EMPIRE CHAPTER, No. 11, F. A. M., hold their regular communications every first and third Tuesday in each month.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING.—In response to a brief notice and a few patriotic tunes by the Yankee Doodle band, a large number of our intelligent citizens, ladies and gentlemen, assembled at the court house last Monday evening to listen to a speech from our fellow townsman, S. F. Flood.

Hon. C. Ball called the meeting to order and in appropriate remarks introduced the speaker. Mr. Flood discussed the pending issues in a calm, careful and dispassionate manner.

He presented fairly the official character of the leaders of the prominent parties, wherein he demonstrated by republican authority that Blaine's record would not warrant the people in placing him in the exalted office of President of the United States and on the other hand and by the same high authority that the people could expect from Gov. Cleveland an honest and economical administration of the affairs of government.

He criticised the two platforms and strongly condemned the policy of the Republican party in locking up large sums of the people's money in United States vaults which never saw light of day except when by legislation, ostensibly for the navy, large sums were appropriated to be used in securing the success of the Republican party.

He closed with the shibboleth, "Cleveland for reform! Hendricks for revenge! Rebuke to the gigantic fraud of 1876!"

The meeting was large and enthusiastic, and the speech was a good and sound one.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL.—On Monday our public school will re-open. The directors have been successful in their endeavors to select good teachers.

The principal, Prof. J. H. H. Maenner, who has been teaching in public and private schools for thirty years—twenty-seven years in Baltimore, Md., and three years in Portland, in this State—comes highly recommended as a teacher and gentleman by school officials in both cities.

His first assistant Mr. W. W. Caldwell, a graduate of the State University at Eugene City, is a promising young gentleman.

Miss Annie Kent, who is well known here as an able teacher, will have charge of the primary department. She will be assisted by Miss Ida Fullerton, who enjoys the reputation of being a faithful and competent teacher.

The school-rooms have been painted and other improvements made. New furniture for all the classes is expected to arrive in a few days, and everything will present an agreeable appearance.

Excellent results are anticipated, and the teachers will strive to realize the reasonable expectations of all parents who wish to have their children well educated and instructed.

In the interest of the school and for their own benefit, all the scholars should be present on the opening day, Monday, Sept. 15th, and be punctual and regular in attendance.

STORMY.—The rains during the past week have been the cause of anxiety to the farmers in this locality. A large amount of grain was stacked in the fields awaiting threshing.

This has been damaged but how much we are unable to ascertain. This is surely a pity. The price of grain scarcely paid the labor, and any loss would be a serious one.

Farmers who have hogs to which the damaged grain might be fed may not be greatly injured but certainly a large amount of wheat and other cereals have been rendered unmerchantable by the weather.

At present there is promise of a dry spell and we hope to be able to make a better report next week.

NEW VOTERS.—Four years ago twenty-one of the youth and chivalry of Roseburg marched to the polls in solid phalanx and cast their maiden vote for General Hancock.

A similar gallant company is being formed. Secretary Moore is listing their names and it is to be hoped the number will not fall short of the former.

Report at once and be ready to cast a good Democratic ballot.

Which falls like snowflakes on the sod, And excites the will of man as lightning executes the will of God.

THE FAIR.—The State Fair commences at Salem next Monday. The Oregon & California railroad company have reduced passenger rates.

From Roseburg to fair ground and return the fare is $8.75. The tickets are good from the 15th to the 20th of September.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Early rains lately. Why did Blaine burn the Mulligan letters? An abundance of venison has been in the market lately.

The Plaindealer has Chinese on its force, which exemplifies Republican doctrine. Caro Bros. have been doing a thriving trade in dry goods since the fire.

The man who goes to law for a character is sure to get it. W. G. Hill, of Wilbur, has been engaged on the Yaquina division of the O. P. road.

Hon. L. F. Lane has consented to the use of his name for the office of City Recorder. Why do not some of our Republican contemporaries explain Blaine's foreign policy?

An effort should be made by our young people to organize a literary society for the winter. G. V. Stephens is at work in Benton county, on the construction of the Oregon Pacific railroad.

Mr. A. J. Marshall, the representative of Flockenstein & Mayer, of Portland, was in town last week. Notwithstanding times are dull, Roseburg is reported by travelers to be the liveliest town in the State.

Hon. J. M. Heard is president of the Hubbard College at Overton, Texas. We wish him success. Harry Roberts has the contract for the brick work on Sheridan Bro.'s new store, and has it well under way.

A public examination of applicants for teachers' certificates will be held in Roseburg on Monday, Sept. 29, 1884. Dr. G. W. Hoover returned from a visit to his sons, at Phoenix, who are engaged in the hardware business at that place.

The farmer should remember that the tariff on wheat keeps up the price. Phillips, late collector for the INSUREMENT has turned up on the line of the Yaquina railroad, as proprietor of a lunch house.

The gentlemanly John McCurdy now rules supreme in the Palace saloon. Gentlemen wishing "to indulge" will, of course call on him. The farmer who advocates a tariff for the manufacturer is like the man who starved himself that others might live. He is truly a philanthropist.

From Hansen, Kufke & Co., of San Francisco, we learn that the European wheat market has gone still lower. We presume it will soon reach the bottom price. Bishop Granbery of the M. E. church, south, will preach in the Southern Methodist church next Monday evening at the usual hour. All are cordially invited to attend.

Was it a real senstroke Blaine had the day before he was to have testified before the committee in reference to his conduct in interpreting and destroying the Mulligan letters? J. A. Smith, Roseburg's popular confectioner, received last week a large invoice of new goods. He now has one of the largest stocks of candies and canned goods outside of Portland, in Oregon.

The services announced for next Monday night at the Episcopal church will be deferred, and Rev. Octavius Parker will preach as usual on the fourth Sunday of this month, morning and evening. One of the grave charges laid to Cleveland is that he hanged a murderer while sheriff. He has the Republican party suspended at present, and life will soon be pronounced extinct. It will be buried on the isles of November.

J. J. Flett, formerly foreman of this paper, returned to Roseburg on a visit from his home in Benton county. He has kindly assisted our typographical force in getting out this issue of the INDEPENDENT. Empty houses are a thing of the past in this town, and there is a chance for some public spirited citizen to spend his money with advantage to himself and the community at large by building a dozen or two houses for rent.

The work of repairing the N. & O. track will commence next week, and in a very few days trains will be running between Reno and the front. It is understood, also, that the road will be extended to the Junction this fall.—Reno Journal.

Why does not Mr. Blaine explain in his book entitled "Twenty Years in Congress" how a man can go to congress a few years, support his family in the mean time, and come out worth several millions of dollars, on as a lady of a few thousands?

George W. Kimball, county clerk, left Monday morning for a visit to his father in Massachusetts, who is in feeble health. He left the office under control of W. T. Wright. We wish George a prosperous journey, and feel safe in predicting that the office will be conducted as well during his absence as when in charge himself.

A Pennsylvania farmer writing to Blaine concluded his letter with "Mr. Blaine, we want no more of you or your party at present. The advertisement won't pay for the printing in this section. The bloody shirt has been washed. Give us low taxes and reform. Please excuse great haste and credit all errors in grammar and spelling to Logan."

Hon. Wm. Hudson, of Myrtle Creek, was in Roseburg this week. The old gentleman is enjoying good health and in the best of spirits. He is a great reader and keeps himself well informed on the affairs of the country. He is sanguine that Cleveland will carry New York by more than fifty thousand majority over all opposition and that Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin are safe for Cleveland, Hendricks and reform.

ALL THE RAGE.—To captivate the popular taste and surpass all previous efforts to please the palate, requires no small amount of knowledge and no little skill, and when we remember that the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is as beneficial to the system as it is acceptable to the stomach, we readily understand why it is the universal favorite as a cure for habitual constipation and other ills arising from a weakness, or inactive condition of the bowels, kidneys, liver and stomach. Sample bottles free and large bottles for sale by S. Hamilton, Roseburg, and Page & Dimmick, Oakland.

Southwestern Oregon Agricultural Society.

At a special meeting of the board of managers of the Southwestern Oregon Agricultural Society held at the fair grounds, Sept. 6th, 1884, the following business was transacted, viz:

It was decided that the fall races and show should commence Tuesday, Oct. 7th and continue three days. Rules and regulations for the government of the races shall be those governing the races at the annual fairs of the Oregon State Agricultural Society.

Racing.—The first days racing shall consist of a single dash of one mile, free for all horses owned in Douglas, Coos or Curry county on or prior to the first day of September 1884, for a purse of one hundred dollars together with entrance fees to be disbursed as follows: The first horse shall receive two-thirds the entire purse, and the second horse one-third. Entrance fee, twenty-five dollars.

Second day's races shall consist of a race of three-eighths of a mile, two best in three for a purse of twenty-five dollars and entrance fees. The entrance fee shall be five dollars, the first horse receiving two-thirds the entire purse, and the second horse one-third. Only second-rate horses, or such as have never run in a public race shall be admitted to run in this race.

Third day.—A half-mile race, two best in three, free for all for a purse of fifty dollars and entrance fees. The first horse shall receive two-thirds of the whole purse, and the second horse, one-third. Entrance fee, ten dollars. In all the above races, three horses must be entered and at least two must start.

Each day's races must come off at 11 o'clock A. M. All entries for these races must be made on or before the first day of October; 50 per cent of the entrance fee to be paid on entrance fee to be paid on entry, and the remainder before the race comes off.

TICKETS.—Season tickets will be sold at one dollar each; day tickets fifty cents each. The grounds of the society not being fenced, the society rely upon the honor of a just and generous public to enter the grounds at the gate and procure an honorable entrance to the grounds and the privileges of the same.

The president will receive and receipt for all entrance monies. Privileges for booths and stands within or near the grounds of the society can be procured of J. Henry Schroeder, who has been appointed by the board to license the same for the benefit of the society. No spirituous liquors shall be sold upon the grounds during the fair.

By order of the board. JAMES AIKEN, O. C. HUNTINGTON, President, Secretary.

Grand Rally. The committee appointed to perfect a permanent organization of the Cleveland and Hendricks club at Roseburg, announce the following platform:

Resolved by the Democracy of Deer Creek precinct, Douglas county, Oregon, First, That we fully endorse the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention at Chicago, July 11th, 1884.

Second, That we most heartily approve of the nomination of Governor Cleveland of New York for President and Thomas A. Hendricks of Indiana, for Vice President of the United States and pledge every honorable effort on our part to secure their success, to the end that true principles may prevail, the country be restored to genuine prosperity and fraud and corruption forever rebuked.

The deliberations of this club shall be governed by the usual parliamentary rules. The following named were selected permanent officers: President, C. Ball; Vice Presidents, Aaron Rose, Dr. G. W. Hoover, John Richards, James Cox, Secretary, W. N. Moore; Treasurer, E. E. Sheridan; Finance Committee, John M. Rowley, Thos. Bogges, J. J. Farquar, W. F. Owens and W. G. Woodward.

The club list is now in the hands of Secretary Moore and can be signed at any time by persons desiring to become members. There will be a meeting of the club and a grand rally of the Democracy, generally, at the court house, Wednesday evening Sept. 17. This is the anniversary of the adoption of the Federal constitution, and a good occasion for Democrats to celebrate. Neighboring clubs are requested to be present, and participate. Ladies and gentlemen, regardless of political sympathies are cordially invited to attend. We are determined upon victory, if possible, and a good time under any and all circumstances.

J. W. HAMILTON, W. F. OWENS, J. M. ROWLEY, E. F. SHERIDAN, L. F. LANE, Committee.

Correspondence.

ED. INDEPENDENT: Sir, I have always been a staunch Republican; have always acted with the grand old party; when it called upon me; twenty-three years ago, when I was only a beardless boy, I put on the blue uniform and stood by the old flag to the close of the bloody conflict. I have been acting and voting with the Republican party ever since, I am a hard working industrious man; have a small family to support, and have, for many years, been using my utmost endeavor to lay by a few dollars for my old age, and declining health, which was impaired by the hardships of campaign life. In my efforts to lay by money for a rainy day, I have not been as successful as I would desire to be. I have earned plenty of money—but it all goes to sustain myself and family. When I look around and see so many men in the same condition that I am in, with industrious and saving habits it has caused me to believe that there must be something wrong somewhere with our government and condition. This has caused me to ask myself what the Republican party has done and is doing for me, and upon investigation, I find that it is and has been robbing me in almost all the necessities of life, which me and my family consume. If it was necessary for the support of the government, I would not make this complaint; but when the report of the treasury department shows that the government vaults have to be enlarged from time to time to hold the surplus revenue that is collected off the people. I am forced to believe that there is something wrong with the policy of the Republican party, and that change is needed in the administration of the government. You may put me down for "CLEVELAND, HENDRICKS AND REFORM!" OLD SOLDIER.

Oakland Items. Incessant rain. Drummers are plentiful. Business matters are quiet. Nothing of an exciting nature to report.

Wheat hauling has subsided on account of the late rains. Arthur Williams wields the pen at C. M. Hall's, at present occupying the position made vacant by the death of Horace Hanna.

Our late rain is doing a great deal of damage to the unthreshed grain, and unless it ceases in a short time all the grain will be lost that was left in the fields. The loss of grain by this unfriendly rain in connection with the low price paid for wheat and other commodities will make things very sad and gloomy for every one in this section.

The temperance movement is assuming magnificent proportions in this and is moving along under bright colors. We will be more explanatory in our remarks at some future time.

Dr. H. Little, who has been receiving medical instruction in San Francisco, during the summer is expected to arrive home in a few days. He will prosecute his professional labors in this place during the winter.

Miss Clawson, of Portland, delivered a series of lectures to the people of this place last week. The lectures were well attended and highly appreciated by those in attendance.

Mrs. Dr. Venables who has been afflicted for some time, with serious illness, is now rapidly convalescing, and it is hoped that the lady will not be afflicted with trouble of like import.

It is with sorrow of the deepest dye that we announce the death of Horace Hanna, which occurred on the 6th of Sept. Horace H—, had been suffering from that fatal disease, consumption, for a long period of time, but his vital powers gradually faded away and he succumbed to the decree of the inevitable. Horace was a young man of noble attainments, loved and respected by all who were so fortunate as to know him. Born and married in this county, and known by every one living in this region. He was loved and respected by all, and his sudden demise, has cast a gloom over the entire community. We tender our heartfelt sympathies to the relatives of the deceased, and hope they outlive this irreparable loss. XXX.

Riddles. Remember the Holiness camp meeting, which begins on the 12th of September, continuing over two Sabbaths. The tabernacle is on hand. Bros. Aschcraft will be here to conduct the meeting, the Lord willing. We expect to have the grounds in good condition for service. The tabernacle protecting the people from the night air and from the storm, in case it should rain. Let all who can, come prepared to tent on the ground. We are expecting a grand meeting. Come one, come all. F. W. CATHEY.

Daniel McWeeney's Opinion of Blaine.

The following letter from Daniel McWeeney, the gallant Irish patriot, has been received by one of the employees of the Missouri Republican at St. Louis:

CARROW CANNON HOUSE, August 10, 1884. MY DEAR MR. GALLAGHER: For the past month I was engaged in almost a life-and-death struggle against the enemy. For the last five years I have been almost single-handed fighting the worst landlords ever in Donegal—the landlords in this union. No coercion act would reach me, but at last they resorted to a new plan to drive me out of the country, if possible. They brought an action for libel against me, laid its venue in Derry, selected twelve Orangemen to try the case, and, of course, the result was not for a moment doubtful. The judge who tried the case, declared that I had libeled the government, and, of course, must be punished. The jury retired, and in two minutes brought in a verdict against me for £100 and costs, which will amount to about $2000. Thus they think they have silenced me in future, but I am not through with them yet.

Enough on this subject, as you will probably see a letter from me in the Irish-American papers in a few days. Let me thank you for sending me the Republican and Celt. But tell me, is it possible, in the face of the treatment received by Irish-Americans abroad during Blaine's administration. I will write a public letter soon on the subject, but in the meantime you are at full liberty to publish any letters of mine from "Victoria's dungeon." I feel strongly, I assure you, on this subject, and had it not been for the lost I have just sustained here in my fight with the enemy. I certainly would have gone to the States to work against Blaine and his party, armed with Lowell's original letter, to tell the story of my imprisonment and Republican sneers at my appeal for protection.

I met Mr. Apple of Roseburg, who advised me before seeing the doctors to try your Eldorado Mineral Water. I did so and had one dozen bottles sent to me by A. E. Champagne. Hoffman, Merrill and Sifton, Gentlemen: I have submitted to qualitative analysis the sample of Eldorado water handed me for examination and find it to consist of the following substances: Chlorine, iodine, Carbonic Acid, Iron, Alumina, Lime, Magnesia, Soda, and organic matter. THOMAS PRICH.

Gaily bedight, a gallant knight, In sunshine and in shadow, Had journeyed long, singing a song, In search of Eldorado.

But he grew old, this knight so bold, And o'er his heart a shadow Fell as he found no spot of ground; That looked like Eldorado.

And as his strength failed him at length He met a pilgrim shadow, "Shadow," said he, "where can it be, This spring of Eldorado?"

Quoth the shadow: "For the benefit of suffering humanity I will state that the Eldorado spring is situated three miles west from Roseburg, and a supply of the water is kept constantly on hand and for sale by Dr. S. Hamilton, agent, Roseburg, Oregon."

Mr. Geo. W. Jones Dear Sir: I have been troubled with neuralgic pains in my head and cheek bones, for several years, and had given up all hopes of ever getting cured. I went to your medical springs with my son James and got some of the water, and drank it freely and found that it was a mild tonic. I used it three times a day for a little more than two months, and the pains left me and I have not felt them since, and my health has been restored. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, JULIAN JOSEPH.
