CLEVELAND AT HOME.

On October 2nd Grover Cleveland returned from the Capital to his home in Buffalo after the longest absence since going there when a boy, nearly thirty years ago.

His friends and neighbors accorded him the largest and grandest ovation that has ever been accorded to an American citizen. The procession was over eight miles in length, and was two hours and ten minutes in passing the Genesee House, where the Governor was stopping.

The banners, devices and uniforms surmounted in grandeur anything of the kind that has ever been witnessed in this country before. A grand stand had been erected in the large square opposite the Genesee House which was densely packed with people.

When the cheering subsided the Governor stepped to the front of the platform and spoke in a clear, strong resonant voice that could be distinctly heard throughout the vast audience. He said:

Fellow Citizens: I can hardly tell the people of Buffalo how I rejoice tonight, and how grateful I am for this demonstration of confidence and esteem of my friends and fellow citizens. I have resided among you and in this city, where all my success in private life has been achieved, for nearly thirty years.

To-night I come to you after the longest absence that has occurred in all that time; and yet within the few weeks that have passed since I saw you last an event has happened of supreme importance to me, and that places me within the nation's gaze. The honor it has brought me I ask my fellow townsmen to share, while I acknowledge with grateful heart all that they have done for me. [Applause.] But two short years ago you stood steadily by my side in every effort of mine, as chief executive of our city, to advance its interests and welfare. Whatever I was able to accomplish of value to this community was largely due to your strong and intelligent support; nor can I ever forget the generous endorsement you gave my candidacy for the high office which I now hold in the state, and I assure you that in its administration I have received no greater encouragement than the approval of my friends at home.

What I have seen and heard to-night has touched me deeply. It tells me that I have not been altogether unsuccessful in my efforts to deserve their confidence and attachment. In the years to come I shall deem myself not far wrong if I still retain their good opinion, and if surrounding cares and perplexities bring but anxiety and vexation, I shall find solace and comfort in the memory of days spent here, and in recalling the kindness of my Buffalo friends. But other friends are here to-night, and to all who tender me their kindly welcome I extend a heartfelt greeting, as citizens with me of the greatest commonwealth in the sisterhood of states, and one immensely interested in the general weal, because I love my state and her people. I cannot refrain from reminding you that she should be in the van of every movement which promises safer and better administration of the general government so closely related to her prosperity and greatness. [Applause.] And let me leave you with the thought that your safety lies in impressing upon those entrusted with the guardianship of your rights and interests pure patriotic and exacting popular sentiment. The character of a government can hardly rise higher than the source from which it springs, and integrity and faithfulness of public servants are not apt to be greater than the people demand. [Great cheering.]

HON. M. C. GEORGE asserted in his speech at the Court House Saturday night, that during the last session of Congress he voted for a Conservative proposition to restore the Morrill tax on wool. But he failed to tell the audience why he voted during the preceding session to take the tariff off the raw material and place it on the manufactured article. Why? Because George is like all other Republicans when hunting office, he is continually dodging. He will be sure to excuse himself in the Senate on his record.

Blaine's Followers.

The history and political methods of James G. Blaine make it certain that if he were elected President, that his administration will be sustained by gross abuses and official misconduct by a wanton expenditure of the public money and an increase of taxation, that will increase burthens and entail hard times upon the laboring masses of our people.

As an evidence of this we find him supported by the worst element in the nation, and that which threatens more than all other abuses, the bulwark of civil liberty. His election is advocated by an army of office holders who under the pretext system and practices of the Republican party are compelled to pay into the corruption fund a percentage of the salary which they receive for services due the people.

He is upheld and his election contended for by organized capitalists who by their corrupting influences have secured from the Republican party import duties in excess of what is needed for the support of the government and by enormous profits thus secured to their enterprises have grown immensely rich and are now contributing largely to the Republican campaign fund in order to secure a continuation of these bounties to themselves, that they may continue to hoard their millions at the peoples expense.

A host of unscrupulous contractors and star route jobbers who have grown immensely rich upon public plunder are clamoring for his election and ready to pay tithes of what they have acquired in order to avoid all risk of being called to account for the evil methods by which their wealth has been obtained. Last but not least are the great Railroad Corporations which have appropriated the great body of the public lands through the aid of corrupt agencies and practices within the Republican party, and who now believe that they will be compelled to give up their illgotten gains if that party is driven from power, are united in their support of Blaine and willing to pay a percentage of their unrighteous profits to maintain the Republican party in power.

James G. Blaine during his twenty years in Congress chaperoned and worked for these corrupt measures, by which these peoples substance has been taken for the aggrandisement of concentrated capital. He is a fit leader for such followers of a doughty Knight of such a shoddy aristocracy. With his election to the Presidency we may expect to see these corrupt practices continue for four years longer, with an increase of hard times. But no! Why speculate! The people will never place the writer of the Fisher-Mulligan letters in the White House.

Rainy weather—clear and sunny. The grass looks fresh and green and the stock is fat and the venison tender. A party of hunters from Tin Pot killed 23 large deer. They sold the meat for seven cents per pound in Oakland.

Al. Burns sold his farm to C. Hazard for $12,000. Tin Pot can boast of the accession of a number of Portugees to her population. They come from New Orleans. Business is dull in Drain. Our farmers go to Oakland to trade. Persons have lately been frightened at a ghost in Green hollow, and we would like to know if it is a real spook or not.

Chemical Analysis.—CHEMICAL LABORATORY, ANALYSE OFFICE, BULLOCK ROOMS AND ONE ROOM, 221 SACRAMENTO STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, NOV. 23, 1883. Messrs. Hubbrook, Merrill and Shanon, Gentlemen. I have submitted to me for analysis the sample of Eldorado water handed me for examination and find it to consist of the following substances: Chloride, Sodium, Carbonic Acid, Iron, Alumina, Lime, Magnesia, Soda and organic matter.

Eldorado. Gaily bedight, a gallant knight, In sunshine and in shadow, Had journeyed long, singing a song, In search of Eldorado.

But he grew old, this knight so bold, And o'er his heart a shadow Fell as he found no spot of ground, That looked like Eldorado.

Quoth the shadow: "For the benefit of suffering humanity I will state that the Eldorado spring is situated three miles west from Roseburg, and a supply of the water is kept constantly on hand and for sale by Dr. S. Hamilton, agent, Roseburg, Oregon."

Mr. Geo. W. Jones Dear Sir: I have been troubled with neuralgia, headache and rheumatism, for several years, and had given up hope of ever getting cured. I went to your medical springs with my son James and got some of the water, and drank it freely and found that it was a mild, pure, and useful tonic, and I have not felt this since, and that has been 17 months ago.

Roseburg, Jan. 25, 1884! H. COX, SR. Julian Joseph, of the well known firm of Hoffman and Joseph, of Albany, bears the following testimony: Geo. W. Jones, OREGON, December 20, 1883.

Geo. W. Jones, Dear Sir: I would here state you that a year ago I suffered under agonies on account of piles (hemorrhoids) and went to Portland to get relief from doctors there. I met Mr. Apple of Roseburg, who advised me before seeing the doctors to try your Eldorado Mineral Water. I did so and had one dozen bottles sent to me, by A. E. Champagne. I used one bottle seven times, taking it right before every meal, one small glass full. I not only was relieved, but I am certainly cured by what I used, a thankful fact, because I suffered more than 10 years. I would advise any one suffering from this disease to try your Mineral Water. Should you have any objection to this statement do so. You are at liberty on my account. I think this is the least I can do for you, as I was cured by it. Be respectfully yours, JULIAN JOSEPH.

ROSEBURG, Dec. 5, 1883. From sheer curiosity I was induced to try Eldorado water and was not only surprised but highly gratified with the result. I have for many years been a sufferer from dyspepsia and have tried every kind of remedy known to pharmacy and without result. The contrary was my experience from the use of your mineral water. Taken according to directions it produced immediate relief and in a short time I continued, would secure permanent cure. To any who will avoid irritating stimulants, I am satisfied it will prove of valuable comfort and benefit. As a general tonic I find it most excellent. L. F. LANE.

DALLAS, Dec. 5, 1883. From Mr. W. M. Parsons, of Eugene, Oregon, I received one bottle of the Jones Eldorado water, from Dr. Hamilton of Roseburg. Used half a bottle for five days and can fully recommend it for that dreaded disease, as I have not been troubled with the complaint since. D. T. SEARS. I have also used the Eldorado spring water from Jones' spring, Douglas county, Oregon, and am fully satisfied with the result, as I was bothered with catarrh. W. C. BROWN, merchant.
