THE CRANE-PURDOM SUIT. - EX Sheriff Purdom has filed his answer to the complaint 'wought against him by S. W. Crane in the Circuit Court of Hotel. Multnomah county to recover ten thousand dollars damages for false imprisionment while sheriff of this county. In his answer Purdom claims that he was acting under a judgment of contempt of the Circuit Court for this county. The facts are that the judgment had been appealed, and its execu tion stayed by an undertaking and Crane released on habeas corbus.

THE GAME LAW .- The time during which male deer are allowed to be killed expired on the 31st day of last October, and whoever kills a male deer, or buck, between the 1st of November and the 1st of July is guilty of a misdemeanor. Hunters are permitted to kill female deer or dock, until the first of Deceraher of each year, beginning the 1st of July, but at no other time. It will be observed, therefore, that does hunting must be suspended until the 1st of next July All fines are to be equally divided between the informer and the prosecuting attorney.

To the Public. Rosenurg, Or., Oct. 29th 1884.

To THE PUBLIC: Desiring to engage in other pursuits I have determined to close out my entire Stock of General Merchandise within the next sixty days, atactual cost prices. This is no humbug; I mean what I say. Any parties purchasing pared to family any amount of the best quality o of me can have the liberty of examining my invoice books and satisfy themseives as to the wholesale price paid for each atticle. Those desiring to purchase their winter supply of Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Crockery, Glassware and Groceries, will make on an average from 20 to 30 per cent by availing themselves of this opportunity. My terms will be strictly cash for all bills under $50., and over that amount approved notes will be taken on three, four and six months' time, bearing inerest. This will enable those having wheat and wool to sell to retain it until a mere favorable price can be had. I shall begin selling out on the the above terms on and after Novem-
