THE OAKLANDIAN.—Mr. John F. Sutherland of Oakland, has been quite sick at his son's residence Fendel Sutherland but, is we are glad to say, better. Mrs. Adams, his daughter, went over last Thursday to see him.

ROSEBURG.—We call the attention of our readers to the opinion expressed of our beautiful country by the Oregonian's correspondent, who has been this week in our city. A great many good people here already, and "room for many more."

QUARTERLY MEETING.—Rev. E. G. Michael, Presiding Elder of the Oregon District, M. E. Church, South, will hold the second Quarterly Meeting for the Roseburg Circuit in our Church in Roseburg the 31st of January and the 1st of February. All are cordially invited to attend. B. T. SHARP, P. C.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the late firm of E. J. Page and Page & Vanable, will do well to come forward at once and pay off their notes and accounts. Those failing to comply with this notice, will find their accounts and notes in the hands of an Attorney for collection.

OAKLAND OR. JAN. 23d. 1885.

ANOTHER MILL.—E. J. Kyes, the veteran and indefatigable saw mill man has just returned from a trip to Roadolph, Coos county where he made arrangements with S. R. Lane, to erect a saw mill on the latter place on Deer Creek. This is good news for the people of that section as it is much needed. Mr. Kyes also reports Mr. Lane doing a good business in his mine and expecting to visit Roseburg soon.

An unpretentious episode occurred at S. Marks and Co's store Thursday week. Herman Marks, nephew of Asher Marks, became the recipient of a birthday present, a beautiful gold watch and chain, presented by his uncle Asher Marks. This young gentleman fully appreciates this golden present, which for years to come, will be a souvenir of his 21st birthday. This was missed from the hook last week. Please accept apology.

THE DEATH OF JOHN SCHNEIDER.—John Schneider, who for several years had been employed by L. Langenberg as shoemaker, becoming in bad health, went to Portland last week to gain admittance to a hospital. He registered at the New York Hotel. The next day he was found dead in the corridor of the hotel. He was an industrious German, some forty years of age, and "poor Schneider" was the heartfelt feeling of this community, when the sad news arrived.

A NEW SAWMILL.—We learn that the machinery of Mr. J. Pittman's sawmill on Pleasant Hill has been bought by a company of which Mr. Thornton and Dr. Sauter, of Roseburg, are prominent members, and taken to Portland where $1,000 worth of repairs have been made on the same. It is said that the mill will be sent to the lower Siuslaw via San Francisco, and be placed in a mill which will be erected two miles below Florence on the Lane county side. The capacity of the proposed mill will be 10,000 feet per day.—[Gland.]

THE WEATHER.—The Southern World prints a bit of "weather wisdom" which just about covers the case. To those who continually croak about the weather, it says: "Whether 'wet' or 'dry' we commend the following utterance of Colonel Richard Peters: 'We all complain of the weather, and can't see the wisdom of it, but I confess, in the light of forty years' experience, that if I could turn on the rain as I do a sprinkler at home I could have managed it as well for this one year, year in and year out, as it has been managed.' So I take the weather without complaining. I know it will come all right in the end."

THE LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature is still grinding away. The railroad freight and fare bill is being considered and the Circuit Court's time of meeting in this place has been changed to the third Monday in May, providing the Governor agrees. The vote on Senator is as follows: Slater, 36; Hirsch, 14; George, 7; Kelsey, 7; W. C. Johnson, 6; Boise, 5; Hare, 4; Failing, 3; Williams, 3; Hill, 1; Applegate, 1; C. E. Moore, 1. Shippe, W. Lox and Manning vote for Hirsch, Emmitt and Rogers for George, Riddle for Failing. The next Senator from Oregon, pro tempore, will be John H. Metcalf or Binger Hussam.

WONDERFUL CURE.—In conversation with Rev. John Howard of this city, he told us this week that the hyacinth in his yard were out in full bloom with a fragrance perfectly delicious. And also other flowers gave strong indications of soon bursting forth. He also recalled incidentally, that he had been digging and using, now potatoes all winter. Now all we have to say is this: Umpqua Valley can not be excelled for luxuriant productions, beautiful climate, and as a sanitarium in this great North-West. And the more wonderful it is, when we consider that our latitude is 43 1/2 degrees north, and 45 degrees longitude from Washington.

SURPRISE PARTY.—One of these enjoyable affairs—a surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Rapp, of this city, Monday evening. Mrs. Judge Willis and Mrs. S. C. Flint were the originators of the happy affair and succeeded in their undertaking immensely. At an appointed hour, the eclat of Roseburg assembled at the residence of Judge Willis and wended their way to Mr. Rapp's. The surprise was complete, but no more entertaining host or hostess could have been found, and in this the ladies had shown their good judgment. Everything went as merry as a wedding bell, each and every one of the throng of over fifty enjoying themselves to the greatest extent, refreshments, nice and delicious, were served, and the services of Mr. Ostrander engaged, when the happy crowd adjourned to Slocum's Hall where dancing was indulged in. We would publish the names of those present as a memento but our space is so limited.

We hope to see a nice church edifice erected on the hill near the Boggs school house on Deer Creek. No more eligible spot could be selected, nor more centrally located for the accommodation of the general public. Hon. J. W. We wish the happy couple's no end of good fortune.

Riddle Notes. Farmers are all busy seeding. There has been no loafers in town for some time; all seem to be busy at work. Mrs. B. F. Lohr, of Ashland, is now visiting friends and relatives in our little valley. Mr. Chitwood and family, who came here from Washington Territory and formerly of Missouri started for Missouri Monday. The school taught by Miss Nichols is progressing nicely but has been somewhat detained by the Diphtheria, which has been at Canyonville. Last Friday some one broke into Stilly Riddle's house and stole a pair of boots and something to eat, while the occupants were away. The thief has been stealing around for some time and we cannot see why he is not arrested. He carries a shot gun and a knapsack. X. X. X.

OAKLAND NEWS.

Roses in full bloom can be seen on the streets of Oakland. If you want Arb. to smile ask him about Grover Cleveland—his boy. R. Smith, Staver & Walker's agent, was with us this week. Come, again. It seems that the Oakland Dramatic Club has patterned after the All Stars. G. B. Barr is the happiest man in Oregon. It's a boy, weight 10 pounds. Uncle Calvin Hanna is making substantial improvements about his farm at old town.

Prof. Russell, Mrs. Russell, and their pupils will give a first class entertainment in Brown's Hall soon. Mrs. Capt. G. W. Short was visiting friends in Oakland this week. She was the guest of Mrs. A. F. Brown. The lumber for C. M. Hall's temporary building has arrived and the work of construction will begin at once. G. J. Stearns, of E. G. Young & Co, returned from Portland this week and reports the Emporium dull and muddy. We learn J. H. Howard intends disposing of his fine residence and moving to Medford. We hope this is a false report.

A. F. Brown and Dr. Herbold have greatly improved the looks of Mr. B.'s building by trimming the trees in front of the same. E. G. Young is now engaged in fencing and making other improvements about his beautifully located lot, preparatory to the erection of two fine residences during the coming summer.

The Good Templars elected the following officers: Tuesday: C. A. Sheldre, W. C.; Mrs. Fannie Crouch, W. V.; Dr. Harris, Sec.; W. B. Hamilton, Fin. Sec.; D. W. Stearns, Treas. C. N. Gaddis, M.; Rev. Lockhard, Chaplain. The lodge is prospering. Our best item of last week was given to the Wilbur correspondent. It is hard for us to excuse the new Editor, as this paragraph was the pride of our column. If he was not so much our superior physically we might hold him personally responsible—but we will let him down easy this time.

The protracted meeting being conducted by Bros. Richardson and Lockhart is constantly growing in interest. The results of earnest work are plainly to be seen. Rev. Mr. Lee of Portland is now ably assisting these gentlemen. His sermons have the ring of the genuine metal. Much permanent good will result from this meeting. T. Ford of Roseburg installed the following officers Umpqua lodge No. 37, I. O. O. F. He was assisted by J. T. Bloomfield, P. G. M. and J. A. McCormack, and C. A. Sheldre N. G. Anniversary Lodge No. 19. Batt, L. S. N. G.; H. S. Marsh, R. S. V. G.; Dr. L. Hall, L. S. V. G.

As Arthur keeps on filling up the offices with Republicans, the inwardness of civil service reform comes more and more to light. From Galapooia. Cattle buyers becoming very numerous in these parts. Joe Gossett some days since on Tyee mountain killed a large panther and wounded another one. Miss Mary Winniford has returned home very sick, from Drain where she has been attending school. Jesse Day accompanied by his niece Miss Rose Day took their departure last week. Rev. J. C. Richardson held divine service at the school house last Sunday. Joan Davis united herself with the church and was baptised.

Parties well known, who are slaughtering the deer on Tyee mountain by the dozens taking the hides and leaving carcasses for the buzzards should by all means be reported and fined. P. SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, and Canker Mouth. Riddle Notes. Farmers are all busy seeding. There has been no loafers in town for some time; all seem to be busy at work. Mrs. B. F. Lohr, of Ashland, is now visiting friends and relatives in our little valley. Mr. Chitwood and family, who came here from Washington Territory and formerly of Missouri started for Missouri Monday. The school taught by Miss Nichols is progressing nicely but has been somewhat detained by the Diphtheria, which has been at Canyonville. Last Friday some one broke into Stilly Riddle's house and stole a pair of boots and something to eat, while the occupants were away. HERE AND THERE.

Times are improving. Robinson's circus is coming. New subscribers are rolling in. Everybody speaks a kind word for us. Fresh roasted peanuts at the City Bakery. Query,—when will the Cole's Valley road be opened. E. P. Hogan has returned from his trip to Portland. Thos. Sheridan has returned from a trip to Coos Bay. Winnie Gaddis has sold out his Cigar store to Wm. Rose. Notwithstanding the game laws, hunters are plentiful. D. C. McChallen is building a small house near his hotel. A letter from St. John is published elsewhere in this issue. T. Bernheim, the popular hide buyer is doing Douglas county. We have a better working Legislature this year than usual. W. N. Moore returned last Friday from a trip to the Dalles. J. W. Strange, clerk of the Senate, was in town over Sunday. W. G. Woodward made a business trip to Portland this week. John Thompson is building a new residence, just below the foundry. The marshal has been engaged in killing unlicensed dogs this week. Henry Conn Sr. lost a fine White Prince horse lately, worth at least $500. Warren Tritt has been appointed Register of the land office at Lakeview. H. D. Foste agent for Equitable Life Insurance Co. of N. Y. is in town this week. Our City Recorder, T. Ford, is adorning his lot near the depot, with shade trees. Mrs. Thos. Williams is visiting friends and relatives in Ten Mile and Looking Glass. The union services are still continuing this week, and held at the Presbyterian Church. Eastern Oregon and Washington papers say that the loss of stock will not reach 10 per cent. A delegation of Odd Fellows went to Oakland Wednesday morning to attend the installation. Mrs. Dr. Palmer, and Mrs. Rev. Smick called on us last Saturday. Success to their enterprise. We have turned out some fine job work this week, and we are constantly making improvements in this department. E. G. Hursb went north Monday morning, probably desirous of looting up as a dark horse in the Senatorial contest. H. E. Dumbleton, who has resided near town the past year, left on Tuesday morning to take up his residence at Salem. The Salem "Statesman" is putting in a complete new outfit and is evidently making money. It is bright and new. Success boys. Oregon's exhibit at the New Orleans exhibition occupies a square 35 by 90 feet on the main floor of the government building. We acknowledge receipt, and tender many thanks to Representative Manning for various reports to the Legislature he sent us. F. A. Metz Esq. of Oakland, our old time musical companion, called this week, and his short visit was both pleasant and profitable. The committee is meeting with great success and the celebration on March will be the grandest affair in the history of Southern Oregon. Roseburg is the liveliest town in the State, and is pushing forward with a steady and healthy growth. We have no booms and consequently no boomerangs. We call special attention to the drug business conducted by Willie Van Baren. He is industrious and accommodating, self-made and reliable. Give him your patronage. J. H. Evans, late Register of the land office at Lakeview, but now agent for the California Land Company, has returned home after a ten days visit to Roseburg on business. The advertisement of J. H. O'Malley, proprietor of the Roseburg Marble Works, can be found in another column. He is a first-class workman and deserves liberal patronage. J. C. Gilmore and family start for Missouri soon. They go to take care of Mrs. Gilmore's mother in her last days. Mrs. Gilmore's father died since she left there, a few weeks since. A high toned Chinese funeral, with Gin Lin's partner acting as corpse, passed through town this week. The Chinaman was killed in the mines by a bank caving on him while at work on Sterling creek.—Sentinel.

The index finger of Rev. Howard's left hand for about two months has caused him much pain and at one time threatened the amputation of the whole hand. But we are glad to say that hand and finger are improving. Rev. J. R. N. Bell has purchased the Douglas Independent and will change the name of that paper to the Roseburg Review. Mr. Bell has many friends in this city who join with the Gazette in wishing him success in his journalistic adventure.—Corvallis Gazette. W. C. McFadden, a notorious bilk, who operated as a printer and school teacher, in Southern Oregon several years ago, has been driven out of Canyon City for threatening to burn the town and other misdeeds. He will evidently adorn a lamp post some of these bright days. The annual Douglas county Bible meeting was held at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. The congregation was large and attentive. The report of the treasurer, H. C. Stanton was good, the collection was $12.85, the speeches of the pastors were well received and a very profitable meeting withal. The Oregon State Temperance Alliance will meet at Salem on Wednesday February 11th. All organizations devoted to the interests of temperance are invited to send delegates, one delegate allowed for every twenty members and each fraction above ten. The usual reduction in fares has been secured. C. Ball has sold the Douglas Independent to Rev. J. R. N. Bell for $1,000. We learn that Fred Flood will assist in the management of the paper, which thus ensures an interesting and reliable Democratic newspaper at Roseburg. We wish Brother Bell success in his new venture.—Jacksonville Times. Rev. J. R. N. Bell has bought the Douglas "Independent," and will assume control at once. The name of the paper will be changed to the "Review" and Fred Flood, who has already made a bright record as a journalistic writer, will assist in the editorial department. Mr. Bell has many friends here who wish him success in his venture.—Ashland Tidings. We had the pleasure this week of looking over the catalogue issued by the Simmon's Hardware Company of St. Louis. It is the largest book we have seen for many a day entirely eclipsing Webster's Unabridged. And to cap the climax a Supplement, one-fourth its size accompanies it. It is a veritable curiosity. Call at R. S. & J. C. Sheridan's and take a look at it. The Drain Academy and Normal School has been incorporated with W. Kuykendall, M. C. Johnson, J. C. Drain, R. A. Booth, Dr. J. E. Payton, John Kuykendall, T. J. Jones and H. L. Benson as incorporators and directors. The object of the institution is to carry on a school of academic grade, fit students for teachers, and will give diplomas and confer degrees. When we read of the work and havoc of the Dynamiters in London, the thunder of the nitro-glycerine, backed by the depraved ingenuity of those dangerous Nihilists, and, as a paragraphist well says, "when the sturdy Germans in the Reichstag, at Berlin defy the iron-handed Bismarck with the finest array on the planet at his back, we get a revelation of possibilities that make royal heads lie uneasy on their pillows. In view of all that is impending in Europe, it behooves Americans to behave particularly well just now. Singular as it may seem to those private persons holding the relation of father and son, it is a notorious fact that aged monarchs are often very jealous of the son who is to succeed them. The fact is illustrated by this anecdote of Emperor William of Germany: An artist was commanded to paint some court ceremony, and brought some sketches to the Emperor. Instead, however, of representing the crown prince standing upright by his father's side, the painter had sketched him with one foot on the step of the throne where the Emperor was seated. His majesty at once seized a pencil, scratched out the obnoxious foot, and drew it in its proper place, writing on the margin: "not yet."

The Best Evidence. Of the merits of a remedy is the effect on the system, so there can be no doubt that the California Fig Syrup Company is pursuing the wisest plan possible to make known the wonderful efficacy of Syrup of Figs for all the ills arising from an inactive condition of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowels, in giving away sample bottles free of charge. Ask our enterprising druggist, S. Hamilton, for a free sample bottle, or you can buy large bottles for fifty cents or one dollar. SHILOH'S VITALIZER is what you need or Constipation, Loss of Appetite, Dizziness and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle.
