

BORN.—To the wife of Rev. B. T. Sharp a son, Feb. 3d mother doing well, father improving, and is watchful of the young missionary.

RAINFALL.—We are indebted to J. J. Niary of the Signal Service office for the rainfall, which is quite unprecipitated: 1st, .03; 2d, .26; 3d, 1.09; 4th, .42; 5th, .77; 6th, .47; 7. 12. Total: 3.26 inches.

LARGE LYNX.—Harry Morton of Winchester says that the Coyotes in his district are very troublesome, also he captured a very large Lynx (wild cat) last Wednesday night measuring from tip to tip, 2 feet, 9 inches.

INNOCENT LAMBS.—C. W. Smith Esq informs us that the sheep prospect is good this year, already he has 400 lambs skipping on the lawn, and he and his neighbors in that section are getting the best of the wild animals that destroy sheep.

MASONIC DUEL.—Geo. Beath W. M. and Rev. H. P. Webb Grand Chaplain, and other brethren went to Myrtle creek last Wednesday and interred the remains of Geo. W. Hunter with the usual solemn ceremonies of the craft. Peace to his ashes.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.—The next United States Senator is an unsettled question as yet, but it is now a settled fact beyond question that you can secure the best bargains, in Roseburg at the old stand of F. P. Hogan's. Come on, come all, but don't you fall, poetry you see.

NEW ARR.—We call attention to our new Ads this week. And when any of our Southern Oregon business men or any others, even the afflicted, visit Portland, do not fail to call upon those who advertise in this paper. We shall notice these gentlemen more extensively in other issues.

ACCIDENT.—Rev. H. P. Webb our city pastor, being blessed with an unusual inclination to manual labor, engaged himself to the woodpile this week. Result—a cut thumb with the axe. It had been his foot, there would be no mystery, but just how a man chopping wood, would split his thumb with the axe, is incomprehensible to us. He is convalescing however.

THE FORTIETH OF MARCH JUBILEE.—The time is not far distant when we as citizens of our common country, will be called upon to celebrate either privately or publicly the event of the President's inauguration. The citizens of Douglas county are all invited to participate in the public ceremonies at the Court house some time during the day, and in raising the tallest flag pole, perhaps in Oregon, it being 107 feet in height.

LADY BURNED.—Mrs. Littleton Mathews who serves near the foundry met with quite a serious mishap last Monday morning at 10 o'clock. She being subject to spells of vertigo, took one when no one was in the house, and fell in the fire, or so near that her clothes caught and it did not been for the timely assistance of Wm. Crump, who was passing and heard her scream, she would certainly have suffered much. As it was Mr. Crump was injured more than she.

THE CHINESE NEW YEAR.—The celestials will begin their pantomimic racket next Saturday. They call it their day of jubilee or debt paying time. A square law is the rule with them and when all are out of debt, with nothing to embarrass them, they engage in their festivities. Although they are of a stolid nature, yet at this time they kill the devil "pro tem" and rejoice. If the "medician man" could enjoy a brief respite from his satanic majesty's influence for a brief space, how he would exult. So note it be.

GOING TO NEW ORLEANS.—Hon. F. P. Hogan of Roseburg boarded the south bound train last Tuesday evening for Jacksonville, and thence he goes to the great exposition now in full blast at New Orleans. And then when he has satisfied his curiosity in sight seeing, he will go to see what the people of the United States have not seen for a long time the inauguration of a Democratic President. After which he will return via Niagara falls, as all tourists are wont to do, and thence home, all of which he expects to accomplish in about six weeks.

U. S. SENATOR.—Oregon's United States Senator has not been elected as yet. Mr. Sol. H. each having received 28 votes, the highest of any one who has prospects of an election. The Democrats cast an ambiguous vote every day for some one, and of course the compliment is vague and without point so far as we can see. The Democrats may take a part yet, to prevent a vacancy which might occur, and we should have only one Senator at Washington, which to our mind is not the proper thing to do when we are entitled to two.

Now is the time to subscribe, Washington's birthday next. Five cents will buy a dozen old newspapers at the REVIEW office.

Rev. B. T. Sharp, will preach at the Stephens school house on the Calapooia next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. All invited.

George Genger has some fine farm and ranch land for sale in quantities to suit. His advertisement will appear next week. D. C. McClellan's new hack is a beauty, and runs from the McClellan House to the Depot upon the arrival, and departure of all trains.

George W. Jones, the carpenter, returned from Portland, Thursday evening, well pleased with his visit, but says, no place like Roseburg after all.

That sack of superfine biscuit flour, which we received from Mr. Gates the miller, this week, our better half says, is the best she has had for a long time. Rev. F. P. Tower of Willamette University will preach in the M. E. Church in this city next Sunday, both morning and evening. Go and hear him, he is pleasant and forcible in his address.

We have just received an invoice of new job type this week, and are better prepared than ever before to do good work in that line. So bring along your job work and we will try to give satisfaction.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Valentines. The river is falling. A few straggling drummers. The roads are simply horrible. Lots for sale across the river. Our city schools are doing finely. Times are improving just a little. Our farmers are still seeding some wheat.

A few more hotel arrivals than a few weeks past. "The Dole on the I" is the latest fashionable song.

Murray, the Portland murderer hangs to-day (Friday). Our bridge across the South Umpqua, is an eminent success.

Much religious interest in Portland lately and it still continues. The fishing business at the mill dam is still a lucrative employment.

Our business men are hopeful of a good year after all. So note it be. The Review goes as a pleasing valentine to many happy homes to-day.

Mr. John R. Ley has bought the Allen farm near Drain and will turn it into an orchard.

The posters for the big 4th of March celebration are out. The job was done at the REVIEW office.

Douglas County's efficient County Clerk, says that he may be the dark horse yet in the Senatorial contest.

Again we must ask correspondents to send in their articles by Wednesday evening or Thursday morning's mail.

Fresh Caudy every day at the City Bakery; also everything usually kept in a first-class bakery and confectionery store.

A genuine republican in Roseburg is inclining to the Democracy somewhat, if one may judge by his labor on the new flag-pole.

Mrs. Lou Trimble formerly of Oakland, now of Canyonville, was adjudged insane by the authorities, and was taken to the Asylum Friday.

With the buildings we hear of being in contemplation the coming year, Roseburg is evidently entering on an era of great prosperity.

Corvallis is to be congratulated on its energy and enterprise in securing the permanent location of the State Agricultural College within her borders.

Rev. S. McKee and Bell will hold services next Sunday, in the new Presbyterian Church at Myrtle Creek. All cordially invited to attend, and more especially so, since this will be the first regular service held in this church.

Desiring to accommodate all of our subscribers we shall change our publication day to Friday from Saturday. Correspondents will make a note of this and send their communications correspondingly earlier, by Wednesday night or Thursday morning at latest.

The head of the Mormon church, John Taylor, has an accommodating conscience. Apologizing in a recent sermon for his evasions in the Clawson case, in which he was examined as a witness he said the reason he testified he had no knowledge of certain matters known to him was "because he did not know them to divulge".

A couple of boys last Tuesday afternoon walked out to the woodpile above Drain's Station in order to get a free ride to town. But the wide awake conductor Mr. Conser, asked for the fare to the station, which would be the fare from Comstock, 55 cents each where upon he was presented with a five dollar gold piece, which was broken, and their change returned. One dollar and ten cents for a 200 yard pile, rather costly boys.

E. G. Harsh, Esq., editor of the Plaindealer, of this city, was in Corvallis lately and asked the City Council to reimburse him to the amount of expenses incurred in consequence of the fire hose cart running over him last March, and disabling him for months, and in fact he is not well yet by any means. The Corvallis Gazette thinks that it was all settled long ago. Now we know nothing of the settlement, but we do know something of the occurrence, and believe in justice between man and man, that Brother Harsh ought to be paid his reasonable expenses without further ceremony.

Our usual budget of Oakland news did not come to hand this week, much to our regret. We shall expect it next week.

Hons. W. I. Friedlander and Sol. Abrams are still at the capital, important members of the third house and will return home just as soon as well, the house adjourns.

An enjoyable party was given at the residence of John Farquar in this city on Monday evening the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Farquar. One of the members of our force was present and reports that all went as merry as a wedding bell until the wee small hours of morning. Good music was furnished and dancing was indulged in. Excellent refreshments were served and all were happy.

PERSONALS.

Arthur Williams of Oakland is in town. Walt Wheeler is in Portland on business. Mr. Omega Oaks, our photographer, is pruning his orchard.

There are some slight hopes that Gen. Gordon may be alive. Hon. C. Ball claims to be the champion heavy-weight thrower.

Hutchings will commence a writing school at the Grange hall Monday. Col. J. C. Vallerton went to Salem this week to help solve the senatorial puzzle.

Hon. J. O. Booth, was in town this week, on business connected with our foundry. Geo. W. Dittmick, of Elkton, made his friends in this city a flying visit last week.

Miss Klippel, of Jacksonvill, made Roseburg a short visit, returning home Monday evening. Archbishop Wm. H. Gross, of Georgia, has been appointed Archbishop of Oregon by Pope Leo.

Miss Della Partie, one of Roseburg's fairest belles, has gone to Portland to attend the sister's school. Mr. J. Metcalf and family, who have been residents of our city for six months past, returned to California this week. Society people will miss them.

Judge L. L. McArthur, of the Dalles, will attend the inauguration of President Cleveland. Several other distinguished Oregon gentlemen will be there.

Rev. Father Blanchett, of Jacksonville, was in our city over Sunday on his return from East Portland, where he had gone to attend the death-bed of Father Mackin.

Dr. G. H. Flett has returned to Junction from a short visit to friends at this place. He has formed a partnership with Dr. Wortman in practice and the drug business and will locate at Monroe.

W. Y. Masters Esq. now of Portland and a graduate of the State Agricultural College, is comfortably associated with the law firm of Kelley & Moreland. From his looks we infer that he is doing a thriving business.

B. A. Stanard, late of Texas, called on us this week. He is an old typo and was editor of a paper in Texas under the auspices of the Grange, called the "Independent Farmer." He hopes to settle with us and is now with his family at the Central Hotel.

A. W. Mensor, lately of Roseburg, has concluded to situate himself in Medford, Jackson County. He will engage in the general merchandise business, and knowing him as we do, a first class business man, upright and just, fair dealing with his motto, and in a live little town like Medford, he will surely find success will crown his labors.

The other day when we were in Corvallis we were agreeably surprised to meet Mr. G. W. Smith, whom we met years ago at Ashland. He is still pursuing the even tenor of his way, in the jewelry, watch and clock repairing business, and in fact he can do anything, in his line in first class, workmanship style. We know him of old, and he will give you satisfaction in his dealings. Do not forget to call on George W. Smith Main St. Corvallis Oregon.

Charity. The person who neglects to do good to others when an opportunity occurs may pass on through life, die rich, bequeath all to some public institution: yet in point of greatness or charity the poor wayfarer man who acts the part of the good Samaritan excels him. Though a man be poor he can be polite he can give an agreeable expression which reflects a halo of light and revives hope in all who have any redeemable qualities. Louis C. Hill.

"I Don't Feel Like Work." It makes no difference what business you are engaged in: whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little cut of sorts." It would be money in your pocket. One hour of good, rejoicing health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

The Housewife's Favorite. We will send free for one entire year, to every lady who sends us at once the names of ten married ladies, at same address, and 12 two-cent stamps for postage, our handsome, entertaining and instructive Journal, devoted to Fashions, Fancy Work, Decorating, Cooking and Household matters. Regular price, $1.00. Send to-day, and secure next number. Address, DOMESTIC JOURNAL, Nunda, N. Y.

Oregon's Wealth.

The total value of Taxable property in 1883-84 was $75,306,953, an increase of over $11,000,000 over 1882-83. The tax was $441,145.19 for 1883-84. The value of land was $35,208,038; of town lots, $13,875,008; of improvements, $10,430,045; of merchandise, $13,122,048; household furniture, etc., $2,841,034.

The number of horses and mules was 131,146, value, $5,364,935; cattle, 284,647, value, $5,215,831; sheep, 1,033,968, value, $2,246,870; swine, 112,846, value, $293,965.

Gross value of all property, $108,648,233; indebtedness, $27,177,661; exemption, $5,463,118. The number of polls was 19,720; number of school children, 69,076; wealth per capita, $621.62.

Douglas county has the largest number of acres of improved land, 504,366, but Linn county leads as to value, $5,131,520, Marion second, Yamhill third, of course Multnomah heads the list on town lots, $7,274,915, with Marion second and Linn third. On merchandise also Multnomah stands first, Marion second, Clatsop third, Linn fourth. In money also Portland is first, Marion second, Umatilla third, Yamhill fourth and Linn fifth.

Portland has the most household furniture, then Marion, Linn; and Union is the horse county, 17,441, Grant second, Wasco third and then Umatilla, Baker, Crook, in their order. Grant leads in the number of cattle 74,614, followed by Baker, Crook, Lake, Union, Lane and Wasco.

Umatilla is the sheep county, 240,651. Wasco, Grant, Douglas, Crook after it. Jackson takes the swine, 13,235, Douglas second, Lane third.

Under the last assessment Multnomah pays the largest tax, Linn next and then Umatilla, Marion, Lane, Yamhill.

From Arkansas. You having taken the place of so welcome and regular a guest, the Independent I think it not amiss to let you know how far your wings reached on the first spread. The shadow of your helmman will not be as lengthy as that of the Independent's but will make up in width and while Fred is your boatsman you need not fear to be handled with or without glasses.

A few items may not be amiss. The month of January was very cold, a solid sheet of ice throughout the state, here the thermometer was six degrees below zero with sharp winds. This city is about fifty years old, was entirely destroyed in time of the war and rebuilt by the same old energetic citizens or their descendants. The city is built on a hill, consequently cannot be hid. On the hill a short distance to the west, is located the State Industrial Institute where the young ideas are taught to shoot. The reputation of this College may well be envied by the boasted regions where all the blizzards come from. The depot on the Frisco & St. Louis R. R. is favorably situated between the two points. I have not seen a saloon in the state, nor a drop of spirituous drink sold within six miles of this place, except by druggists. There are no street lamps, all retire in due time and none dare to molest. Money matters here as elsewhere is rather thin but the people have a stiff upper lip. A. A. ENGELS. Fayetteville, Ark., Feb. 1st.

Mt. Scott Notes. Success to the REVIEW. Stock of every description looks fine. Once more the farmers have laid their plows to rest. Early grain never looked better than at the present time. Owing to the game law that is in force the deer are as numerous as chickens around a barnyard. We understand that Mr. Reames takes charge of the Patterson mill post-office, Mr. Shrum resigning. Our old time and musical friend, Henry Boltinghouse, gave Mt. Scott a flying visit last week. Come again. The young bloods of this part anticipate on making the earth tremble in the way of firing off anvils on the 4th of March. A young cyclone swept through this locality last Sunday evening, but we are happy to state that no serious damage was done. Mr. J. F. Thomason can boast of one of the finest orchards in the country we have no doubt that Mr. Thomason in course of time will be able to supply the demand which the best fruit market affords. The literary society conducted by Messrs. Reams and Chapman, is doing finely the following are the officers: Mr. J. Chapman, President; Mr. Reams, Vice president; Mrs. Reams and Miss Sarah Wimberly, Critics; Miss Rennie Attebury, Treasurer.

Syrup of Figs.

Nature's own true Laxative. Pleasant to the Palate, acceptable to the Stomach, harmless in its nature, painless in its action. Cures habitual Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion and Kidney ills. Detter than bitter, nauseous Liver Medicines, pills, salts and draughts. Sample bottles free, and large bottles for sale by S. Hamilton.

The Bloom of Beauty. On her brow indicates the glow of health within. What a change from the invalid of a few months ago. Do you know the secret of her renewed health? We will tell you. When she found that the pleasant liquid fruit remedy—Syrup of Figs—is as agreeable to the taste as it is effective in cleansing the system, calming the nerves and awakening the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and bowels to a healthy activity, she began using it, and you see the result. Ladies wishing to know if the Syrup of Figs really possesses such wonderful efficacy, can obtain a trial bottle free of charge at S. Hamilton's Drug Store.
