

ROSEBURG REVIEW.

FRIDAY, MARCH 13th, 1885.

LAUREL LODGE A. F. M. WILL HOLD regular meetings on Wednesday or before each full moon.

PHILANTHROPIC LODGE, No. 8, I. O. O. F., meets on Thursday evening of each week at 7 o'clock, in their hall at Roseburg.

UNION ENCAMPMENT, No. 9, I. O. O. F., meets at Odd Fellows' Hall on the first and third Fridays of every month.

A. C. MARKS, Scribe

TEACHERS EXAMINATION.—A regular quarterly examination of applicants for teacher's certificate will be held in Roseburg on Friday March 27, 1885 commencing at 9 o'clock A. M.

ASSESSING.—Our energetic School Clerk, T. Ford, is in the field assessing property according to the late tax imposed.

TAXES.—From Clerk Ford, we learn that taxable property of this school district is 367,679.75 and the tax would amount to 1471.90.

CLUBBING RATES.—We have made such arrangements with the N. Y. World as to be able to furnish the World and Review for one year for $3.00.

THE INTERNATIONAL HOTEL.—We call special attention to the advertisement of the International hotel which appears in this issue.

APPOINTED JUDGE.—Governor Moody Monday appointed L. B. Stearns, of Portland, as the additional circuit judge of the fourth judicial district.

COLONY EXPECTED.—A public meeting was held at Washburn a few weeks ago, and it was determined to send Captain and Dr. Stone to Southern Oregon to "spy out the land."

COTTON BALE.—Now if you want to see a genuine, old fashioned, bale of cotton right from the sunny south, go to Asher Marks and he will take pleasure in showing you a part of the great exposition now going on in New Orleans.

ROBBER RECOVERED.—The bodies of Mrs. Mary Jilson and two children who were drowned in Applegate creek near Kirbyville several weeks since were recovered last Friday.

HOW TO BUILD UP A TOWN.—An exchange under the above caption offers the following advice which we give as applicable to all towns in general and this town in particular.

THE SETTING SOUTHWARD.—Southern Oregon appears the objective point of a large percentage of most of the immigrants who turn their faces westward with the view of making this their future permanent homes.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Spring is here. Drummers are more plentiful. "How do you like the cabinet?"

A few decorations are still visible. The fire boys should take a little practice. Read the Inaugural Address on outside.

Spring time has surely come gentle Annie. The skating rink still attracts large numbers.

Job work neatly and promptly executed at this office. Sheriff Taylor is building a handsome addition to his dwelling.

The Grant's Pass Argus has appeared. It is published by Kehler Gabbert. Prof. Burnett the celebrated violinist, late of Vermont, was in town this week.

"To appoint or not to appoint" is the question that bothers Gov. Moody. The Medford "Monitor" at last has reached our table. It is neutral—very neutral.

Now is the season of the year to beautify city property by putting out shade trees. What is the matter with Drain and some other places, no correspondence this week.

Correspondents should address all letters intended for publication to Editor Review. A new Real Estate office will be opened in Roseburg. Full particulars next week.

The salaries of District Judges were increased to $3,000 per year by the last legislature. Look on slanderers as direct enemies to civil society; as persons without honor, honesty or humanity.

Saloon keepers in the Valley are taking out licenses for one year under the old law before the raise comes into effect. The boundary line between Douglas and Lane counties was not changed. The bill to that effect being defeated in the Senate.

Through an oversight last week we missed mentioning Harry Williams as one of the gentlemen aides at the grand celebration. Salem has been selected by Congress as the permanent location for the U. S. Indian training school, now located at Forest Grove.

We are pleased to note the great improvement in the Roseburg Review since Bro. Bell's accession to the tripod.—West Side. We have repeatedly stated that we would pay no attention to anonymous contributions.

Sign your name in full or your communication will go to the waste-basket. John Levin has retired from the grocery business and the Parrott Bros. will move their boot shop into the house he has vacated.

They may build a brick the coming year. We want to know why it is that when a baby is clean and nicely dressed it won't come to us; but when he is covered with taffy and bread and butter he insists upon climbing all over us.

The last two copies of the REVIEW have been in much demand. The special features being the Poetry by Clark Melville and the description of the Celebration. A live paper is appreciated by all.

If all the direct war tax of '61 is returned to the State that paid it, Oregon will have $35,541 more to squander, principally in greenbacks, perhaps silver certificates. It is pretty sure to come.

A wagger was won some days ago by a young man in Louisiana, N. C., who bet he could drink a quart of whisky in forty minutes, but the stakes made up a very small part of his funeral expenses.

It was our pleasure to fall in company with Frank Bybee son of Wm. Bybee of Jackson county, who was going home from the State University, and will return next fall and perhaps complete his course.

Hon. James Crawford died at Oakland California recently. Mr. Crawford was Superintendent of the mint at Carson City Nevada, and was well and favorably known by Judge Fitzhugh of Roseburg.

General Grant's days are numbered. Let us forget his weakness, his mistakes, his grievous errors and his misfortunes, and let only his noble qualities and his military achievements be remembered.

The Charter and Ordinances of the City of Roseburg compiled by Lane & Lane, of this city, printed by D. C. Ireland & Co., Portland is got up in first-class style both in method of arrangement and style of printing.

Dr. M. A. Flinn, Representative of Marion county, and wife have been spending a few days this week, in town testing our climate, and are at the McClallen House. We hope they will conclude to stay with us.

According to the new directory, the population of Portland proper is 33,000. This is not including the Chin-see who number 2,000, nor does it take into consideration East Portland or Albina, which would swell the total to 43,000.—News.

The State Agricultural Society is now assured of success, says the Salem Statesman. The Governor will soon appoint the necessary eight members of the Board on the part of the State. The society has a ready name as its four, A. J. Apperson of Clackamas, M. Wilkins of Lane, R. A. Irwin of Linn, and R. E. Bybee of Multnomah.

O. H. McGuire of Wilmington Delaware, was enroute from Portland Oregon to U. S. Columbia South America, via, San Francisco Aspinwall, and Baranquilla, to take the position of Auditor on a rail road there. Mr. McGuire was married in the same city with Thomas F. Bayard, and says that Mr. Cleveland made a good selection.

A. W. Mangor has returned to Roseburg with the intention of remaining several months for the purpose of introducing his "patent-combination shirts." It is new and just what every body wants. It comprises four garments in one, and when once worn and worn will take the place of all other shirts. Success attend him in his new undertaking.

The Bible used in administering the oath of office to President Cleveland on Wednesday last in Washington was a small Morocco-covered, gilt-edge volume, pretty well worn. It is the Bible which Cleveland's mother gave him when he left home as a young man, and at his special request the committee had it in readiness for the ceremony. when it was concluded and before laying it down the President reverently kissed the book.

HERE AND THERE.

Sunshine and shower. Good weather this week. Our clabbings are splendid.

Wanted $10,000 in exchange for the Review. H. C. Stanton has fresh arrivals of new goods.

Read the New York World and the Review also. F. R. Hill, of Wilbur, was in our city, Saturday.

Ed. Baum has opened a confectionery store at Eugene. Boys must now keep away from the Depot at train time.

Oregon has only one senator, when she is entitled to two. Edward Sheridan is building an addition to his dwelling.

Hon. Geo. Riddle was in Roseburg last Thursday on business. Wm. Walker has been engaged to teach the Deer creek school.

Fifty pieces of silver table ware to be given away at the City Bakery. The U. S. Senate has decided that the Governor can appoint a Senator.

John O'Connell has gone to San Diego to reside. Good wishes go with him. Geo. Beath will have a fine fence around his premises as soon as he finishes it.

'Tis pleasant to see one's name in print; A book is a book, though there's nothing in it. Daff Livingstone, of Fossil, Gilliam county, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

F. P. Cronemiller took a flying trip to Jacksonville Saturday, returning on Monday's train. Phil Da Motta has erected a fine bar.

Phil pole sign in front of his palatial tonorial establishment. Louis Belis has coffee and new fresh groceries for sale. Go around to the corner and see him.

Prof. Kendall is in town this week, and is on his way to take charge of a school in Looking Glass. Thomas Hendricks had to give a little deeper than usual for Indiana, but he brought it up all right.

Father Heinrich was cut angling. He said that he must eat, that he must have fish, for it is Lent yet. Buy Lake Shore Baking Powders, and get one of those elegant prizes.

For sale at the City Bakery. Jeweler Jaskulek, was in the metropolis this week. Look out for some new additions to his already large stock.

Born to the wife of W. H. White, engineer, a girl last Monday. All doing well, and are proud and happy. Russia and England are about to be involved in a serious war over their Asiatic boundaries. American wheat is going up, ergo.

Isadore Caro left for San Francisco on Monday evening's train. He will be gone probably a month, combining business with pleasure. Jacob Wise, of Wise Bros. & Co., Myrtle Point, was visiting old friends in Roseburg this week. He looks as happy as in yore old time.

R. Pickett, the young man who was the artist for A. G. Walling's History of Southern Oregon, is attending the San Francisco School of Art Designs. S. T. Garrison will return to Roseburg and take charge of the Central Hotel about the 1st of April. We bespeak for him a liberal patronage.

Young Turpin from Canyonville is a boarder in the jail at present, for disturbing the peace, by throwing rocks at a house, the particulars of which we did not learn. Dra. Patton and Dierdich will return to their Portland practice April 1st. Those desiring treatment, medical or dental, must be governed accordingly and apply at once.

We slept on one of the new spring beds of Geo. Tyler's, last night, and we scarcely could get up at all, so pliable and soft. Try one and see for yourself. See his ad. this week. Noah Cornutt has bought out the Johnson store at Riddle, and will hereafter conduct the business in a successful way no doubt. Success to you is the wish of this office.

John Neville has leased the Roseburg Soda Works, and will conduct the same in a business like manner the coming year. Soda, Sarsaparilla, Ginger Ale, Syrups all on hand. Lane & Lane have accepted the Agency for the county for the Mutual Trust Fund Life Association of New York. This is the cheapest known form of Life Insurance and is also perfectly safe.

In the interest of the Order of Good Templars of this place all members are requested to be present at the regular meeting next Tuesday evening as important business demands attention and something for the good of the order is in preparation. H. Luhrs, Sec.

The board of school directors of Roseburg district will meet at the Court House next Thursday for the purpose of equalizing the school tax just levied. All persons interested are invited to come. Rev. H. P. Webb will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning, and at Pine Grove at 2 o'clock p. m. and Rev. J. R. N. Bell will fill his appointment in the evening at his church.

Mr. Draper an agent called this week and showed us some valuable hints on the subject of insurance. His is a good company no doubt, and by calling on Lane and Lane you can get particulars. Smith Bailey and Harry Roberts returned Saturday from a trip to the Coast. Mr. Roberts bargained for a ranch at Denmark, Curry county, and thinks of going there in the Summer to embark in the cattle business.

Rev. J. R. N. Bell called up street from the train on Tuesday. Glad to see him looking so well. He reports a good work in his Church at Independence. Mrs. S. A. Hutchinson will open a fine stock of millinery goods, in the store recently occupied by Law the jeweler. Mrs. Hutchinson always keeps the best quality of goods.

Geary Young, of the old and well known firm of E. G. Young & Co. went to Walla Walla the first of this week, including a business and pleasure trip in one. We wish Geary a pleasant trip. Mrs. Cora Wilson and Miss Maggie Medley will open a millinery store this week over Page & Dennicks Drug Store. As these are both ladies of excellent taste, success is sure to attend their new enterprise.

The REVIEW is rapidly gaining favor. Its many subscribers are well pleased, and we think each one should send in a new subscriber. The paper goes away east of the Rockies and is gladly received and appreciated as expressed by a lady in a letter, from the old Country recently.

J. W. Webb, Grand Lecturer, I. O. G. T. will lecture in the Baptist Church on Wednesday March 18. It is not often our people have an opportunity to listen to so able a speaker as Mr. Webb, so we hope all who can will give him a hearing. The band of Hope is especially invited to be present and to occupy front seats.

From Myrtle Creek. Every body making garden. Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Hall's flowers are doing well. Father Dillard preached here last Sunday.

The school meeting passed off quietly. John Hall was elected Trustee. Every one says he is the right man in the place. Myrtle Creek people are very jubilant over the favorable prospects of having a new school house.
