LOCAL ITEMS.

Rain is wanted. F. H. Noble is doing well at New Tacoma. J. R. Hervey and wife were in West Roseburg visiting this week.

J. C. Flood, of Portland, is in town and most probably will remain. Oakland is lively, our visit there last Saturday convinced us of that fact.

Go to Bunnell & Bowen Bros. and get your work done. They still lead. Several bands of sheep will be driven this season from this section to Montana.

E. G. Young & Co. are doing a thriving business in Oakland. Fair dealing is their motto. Do you know why so many were trading at Alonzo Brown's last week, because they get good bargains there.

If you want any insurance on your buildings, in good Companies, be sure and call on Cassius Gault in Oakland. The best foundry work done at Bunnell & Bowen Bros. Get your horses shod there, your wagons mended and repaired there.

W. T. McCulloch will sell you a sweet juicy beef steak, as can be found in Oakland for we tried one last Saturday morning. See his new ad. Smith Bailey has started out at Oakland in his old business in good style.

Chenoweth and Stearns are always ahead, because they get up early, and offer such splendid bargains, that people will buy in the face of hard times. Did you see the new hats worn by our fair ladies the last few days,—reason they read Mrs. Hoover's new ad. Go there and purchase if you want to be attractive.

McClellan banquet for the Masons last Saturday night was simply splendid. Such a table, O such a table, it glistened, and so did some of the epicures because of surfeit. Mrs. E. P. Hotchkiss near the depot on Rose street has opened out in first-class style in the most fastidious way.

Anton Lau at Oakland is first-class in all he undertakes. Go and have your watch to run with the standard time, and then you will always be on hand exactly at the right time for dinner. See his ad. Mrs. S. A. Hutchinson of Oakland can sell you anything in the millinery line, that will make you both dressy and attractive.

Call on her immediately. She is doing a fine business as her ad will show. We are informed that J. J. Crawford, a former sheriff of Douglas county, who for several years past has been a resident of South America, is now in Indiana, and will return to Roseburg at no distant date.

Roseburg keeps posted on the war question and all other important issues. Note this, from 90 to 100 Oregonians are taken here daily. Mr. Jones has worked up a true trade. Quite a number of copies of the Standard and News are taken also.

He is building a large stone enclosure around his well, and by a windmill will raise the water some 40 feet above the ground, and by the use of 200 feet of hose, will tender his commodious house a place of almost entire safety.

THE OREGON BEAUTY.—Mr. N. B. Reed of San Francisco recently purchased in Linn county an 8 year old chestnut sorrel Clydesdale mare weight 1200 lbs. which bears the euphonious name of the Oregon Beauty. The great attraction is her long flowing silky mane which is over seven feet long, and a tail to correspond. The mare was in our county this week as Mr. Reed was taking her overland to his home.

SENDAY SCHOOL.—Last Sunday we attended Sunday School at the Presbyterian Church, and found 79 persons (11 and young in attendance. Some older Christians in this town ought to be ashamed, when we tell you there were only two married ladies and three married gentlemen in attendance.

Look out for L. C. Beardsley, lumber man and sash and door man. Call on him for terms and buy of him the very best material. J. T. Hinkle was thrown from a horse Wednesday and was considerably bruised, but no bones were broken, and he is doing very well under the circumstances.

Rev. F. P. Tower agent Willamette University will preach at Riddles second Sunday in May at 11 o'clock, and at Canyonville at night. Do not fail to attend. Our County Judge and Deputy Sheriff, were piling boards and removing rubbish, while four prisoners looked on complacently and struck the attitude of "boss".

The new meat market has opened on the corner opposite Carlons livery stable, owned by Isaac Mathews, who will give you your moneys worth. Call and get a good slice. The young men of Looking Glass and vicinity are practicing for a grand tournament to be ridden some time in the near future. Restoro to us the days of knight errantry.

Owing to a general clean-up and re-arrangement of the office, just lots of good matter was crowded out of this issue. When we get everything in order the REVIEW will boom. Now since F. P. Hogan has returned you can get the best bargains at his store that has been offered for a long time. Tommy Williams is still behind the counter to wait on you as of yore.

I have resigned the agency of the Travellers Accident Insurance Company in favor of J. K. N. D., and would request all the old patrons, and many new ones, to give him their support. W. N. Moore. We of the REVIEW office acknowledge the compliments of Miss Edith Smick, in the fragrance of a beautiful bouquet. May garlands strew your pathway, and your influence for good be as fragrant as the flowers you sent us.

Prof. Benson has been on a three weeks tour of visitation among the schools in the north part of the county, and reports some advancement all along the line. The Professor is wide awake to the school work of Douglas county. The St. Charles has received a fresh impulse by the accession of our old friend C. W. Knowles, whom we knew with so much pleasure at the Clarendon in years gone by. He is a partner in the business connected with the St. Charles Hotel Portland Oregon.

In conversation with a gentleman from Looking Glass, we learn that the I. O. O. F. Brethern had a splendid time there last Saturday night celebrating Good supper, good audience, and Col. Fullerton did credit to himself in his oration, and gave universal satisfaction to the Craft. Hon. P. P. Hogan has returned from the east. He saw the sights and they were manifold. He looks hale and hearty. We asked him to write us a history of his trip, and we hope that he will do so. He is a fine runner, he caught a boat in New Orleans. You ask him about it.

The Esmond Hotel in Portland has opened out under the most auspicious circumstances, with Thomas Guinean at the helm. The Portland papers give a most graphic description of the ovation on the evening of the first opening. Go there and be content with the very best our metropolis affords. Last week we published an abbreviated correspondence from Olalla concerning the road question in that section. Now we shall have nothing further to do in the matter, except to say, that we should always hear both sides of any question to prevent imposition upon ourselves or our friends. From what we can learn the County Court acted with the best light before them, and they felt they were discharging their whole duty. With this explanation, we rest.

P. P. Wright living on the North Umpqua River, was killed on John Dixon's place last Monday evening. The facts are about as follows, he and a comrade were working for John Dixon, making rails, and they had fallen a large cedar tree across another tree lying alongside the deep gulch and Mr. Wright had gone out some forty feet from the stump of the cedar, and was cutting it off when the great weight broke the tree into and precipitated him into the gulch below some 12 or 15 feet and the tree fell with great force upon him, crushing the body fearfully. He died about five o'clock P. M. and he died about eleven o'clock that night. Dr. Hoover was called, but before he reached there the spirit had flown. Bro. Wright was a good man and we knew him to be a christian, walking worthy of his calling. May he rest in peace.

The skating rink still flourishes and is well patronized. School Superintendent Frank Benson was in town recently visiting the Academy and other schools. Herman Anlauf has returned from his long visit to the Rogue river valley. He says that orders for his patent candlestick flow in from every side.

Elmer Palmer and bride have taken up their abode in our village, with the smoke-stack at the mill unharmed, forsooth, your correspondent took the cake. Friday night will be given the A. O. U. W. supper, which will doubtless be an elegant affair, for while the male members don't know enough to turn a flapjack, they are blessed with wives who are splendid cooks.

If you had been in our city this week you would have met Mr. G. W. Harry a guest at the residence of J. W. Krewson. What he is in town for, Miss K. could tell you, if she would, and if she doesn't, I will (next week). Prof. Benson received this week, a communication from the State Board of Education containing the prescribed course of study of the State Normal School at Drain. This course of study will be published in circular form in a few days.

A town lyceum was organized last Friday week, with the following officers: J. C. Drain, President; H. L. Benson, Vice President; B. B. Lane, Secretary. At the next regular meeting they will discuss the absorbing question of female suffrage, with Dr. Kuykendall and Judge Goodell as the leading disputants.

Everybody went to Palmer Hall on a pleasant evening recently, to attend the entertainment by the local Dramatic Club, under the name of the "Western Minstrels." The success of the entertainment reflects credit upon the performers and upon the manager, Charley Stephens. We hope they'll give us another, soon. CASABLANCA.

AT CANYONVILLE!

The 66th Anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America Joyously Commemorated.

A SPRING DAY RIDE IN NATURE'S GLOWING BEAUTY. SWEET MUSIC AND GRAND ORATION.

ASUMPTIOUS DINNER, GRAND BALL AND GENEROUS HOSPITALITY.

Sunday morning in company with many others we took our seat in a hack and started for Canyonville to attend the Odd Fellows celebration at that place on the 66th anniversary of the organization of American Odd Fellowship. It was pleasant to get out in the open air and behind a good team to go over winding road over hill and valley by rippling waters and sparkling streams. The sun shone with gentle rays and the wind caressed us as softly as a mother's kiss.

Nature wore her brightest garb, her gentlest smile and sweetest laugh, and spoke with impressive grandeur the eternal truths that make the heart swell with a touch of the happiness of divine inspiration and surcharges the soul with sweet faith as through Nature we hold closer communion with Nature's God. But who has not enjoyed the peace, the sweet repose of a spring day ride, taken as a recreation, when all the world seems so grand and life so real! Heigh-ho! Dreaming again!

After several hours, we arrived at our destination the advance guard of the Roseburg delegation, which continued to pour in until the shades of night began to fall. We were well received and were at once made to feel perfectly at home. The Yankee Doodle Band came in a solid body and stopped at Myrtle Creek and discoursed sweet music. At Canyonville in the evening it furnished sacred music that harmonized so sweetly with the surroundings and added an impressive charm to the day.

Monday morning the sun rose in richest splendor and the few clouds of the day before were dispersed. At an early hour "the band began to play" and the crowd to gather. Hon. D. S. K. Buick, of Myrtle Creek, as President of the day then formed the procession, with the band to lead, the Douglas Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. followed by the Rebekah Lodge, with the visiting members next, all in proper regalia, and the citizens in general in carriages and on foot to bring up the rear. The walk to the grove was pleasant, and here had been made every arrangement for the comfort of all. Seats had been prepared in the shade and a tasty stand erected. After prayer by Rev. H. P. Webb, the Opening Song of the Order was pleasantly sung. In a few brief and pointed remarks President Buick described the meaning of the meeting, and in appropriate terms introduced as the speaker of the day, Mrs. Mattie A. Bridge.

Mrs. Bridge said she had intended to give her lectures on the "Mission of Odd Fellowship," but out of deference to the visitors from Roseburg, who had heard that, she would deliver her new lecture, which she had just completed and delivered for the first time at Ashland. Although on the same general plan, it excels the other in research, power and artistic skill and we trust a Roseburg audience will have an opportunity to hear this great effort. We can but say of this most talented and gifted lady who has been called the Queen of the American Rostrum that on this occasion she fully justified the claim.

It was a pretty picture. One that will ever be kept green in the memory of those present. Beneath the over-arching sky of azure blue, with the grand and lofty mountain for a background, there had been constructed out of rude boards, covered with nature's beauteous overglides, the speaker's stand. On all sides were the listening throng held entranced by the magnetism, the beauty and the eloquence of the orator, whose words of wit, pathos and truth struck responsive chords in the hearts of all. The young first protected us from the morning sun and earth in her robes of green seemed like enchanted fairy land—and when the speaker traced the the historic lines of man's advancement, of the great bloodless victory of Justice, Truth and Right over Selfishness, Wealth and Power, there could but come to one and all a fervent "Thank God" for the blessings of this enlightened age, and when in lofty periods and glowing sentences she showed that the eternal principles of Odd Fellowship, unnamed and unorganized, had been the spring from which flowed this mighty river, we began to realize that that great force now thoroughly organized and equipped under the name of Odd-Fellowship was the greatest motive power in this rest, less advancement, in this restless torrent that was sweeping all before it—to lie down and worship at the throne of the Good, the True and the Beautiful. Thus carried on the current of her eloquence, lost in her sublime sentences we realized the greatness of man and the wonderful capacity of his soul; and when she spoke of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man—she seemed to raise herself above and out of the world—and stood like some Prophetic Vision pointing out to man a new road through the pearly gates of friendship, love and truth to all that is worth living for and to all that one could die for. Great was the day, great was the theme—but greater and adding a halo to all was the earnestness of the magnificent woman who spoke from the rich fountain of her heart such noble truths that lighted the spark of hope in every heart, and whose magic eloquence made the whole world kin.

After the Closing Ode and music the crowd wended its way to the Woreley Hotel where a sumptuous and elegant dinner was served in an evergreen arbor. The rest of the day was spent in the usual sports and the discoursing of sweetest strains by the far-famed Yankee Doodle Band who won golden opinions from all. Roseburg cannot be too proud of this band, of its music, and of the young gentlemen who compose it. At night was given the Grand Ball and it was a magnificent affair. The music was excellent, the calling perfect the supper elegant, the ladies both beautiful and attractive and the gentlemen polite and attentive. Thus passed the time away and on Tuesday morning we were again en route home having enjoyed ourselves thoroughly and to the fullest extent in sharing the generous hospitality of the citizens of Canyonville.

There can be no qualities essential for the ill arising, inactive condition of each and Bowls. Ever that it should be perfect and young of both sexes, at times; that it should be acceptable to the taste and the stomach; that should never fail to act promptly and, though, yet painlessly, and it should give strength to those organs. It is now well known that Syrup of Figs possesses those qualities in a pre-eminent degree. S. Hamilton is agent for Roseburg.

Washed-Out Hair. There is a sort of pallid, chalky complexion which the novelists call a "washed-out complexion." It is ghastly enough, and no mistake. Washed-out, faded, discolored, or parti-colored hair is almost as repulsive and melancholy. Parker's Hair Balsam will restore your hair to its original color, whatever it was brown, auburn or black. Why wear moss on your head, when you may easily have lively, shining hair.

A Startling Discovery. Physicians are often startled by remarkable discoveries. The fact that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and all Throat and Lung diseases is daily curing patients that they have given up to die, is startling them to realize their sense of duty, and examine into the merits of this wonderful discovery; resulting in our best Physicians using it in their practice. Trial Bottles free at S. Hamilton's Drug Store. Regular Size $1.00.
