PINKEYE.

A Remarkable Cure of a Horse.

In the fall of 1883 I had a valuable horse taken with the pinkeye, resulting in blood poison. After nine months of doctoring with all the remedies to be found in horse books, I despaired of a cure. His right hind leg was as large as a man's body, and had on it over forty running sores. He was a most pitiable looking object. At last I thought of Swift's specific, and commenced to use it. I used fifteen bottles. In August last all symptoms of the disease disappear d. There have been no signs of a return, and the horse has done a mule's work on my farm ever since.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

—The treasury of the Baptist Home Missionary Society is in such a depleted condition that appointments have been only made for six months, fears being felt that money enough may not be contributed to pay a full year's salaries.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

—There were 600 Frenchmen at Oxford the past term—quite an unprecedented number. The general style of living demands less expense than formerly, and no man finds it now incumbent on him to give wine parties as of yore.

—At a Sunday-school convention, objection having been raised to the unhealthful influence of many of the books in the libraries, a superintendent rose and suggested that they should be weeded out and sent to the poor children out West.—Harper's Bazar.

—Miss Mary Caldwell, a wealthy Catholic lady of Baltimore, has given $300,000 to be used for the establishment of a Catholic university for the better education of the priesthood, on the plan proposed by Bishop Spaulding. The Plenary Council has accepted the gift.—Baltimore Sun.

—Mr. John Scott, who recently closed a ten weeks' term of free high school in the town of Holden, Me., says that in all that time he had no occasion to speak reprovingly to any one of his scholars. He says he has taught fourteen years and never before had such an experience as this, and he asks his fellow-teachers of this country to tell him whether any one of them can say as much for any school taught by them.—Troy Times.

—The new catalogue of Dartmouth College, New Hampshire, shows that there are now 42 members of the faculty and 402 students, the latter being divided as follows: Collegiate Department, 244; Chandler Scientific School, 74; Agricultural College, 28; Medical College, 44; Thayer School of Engineering, 12. In the Academic Department 19 are from Maine, 98 from New Hampshire, 54 from Vermont, and 33 from Massachusetts. Outside of New England nineteen States and Territories are represented.

—The Rochester Post-Express is doing a commendable work in showing up the defects of country school sanitation. The yards and surroundings of many school-houses in the country are indescribably filthy. Some of the details can not be referred to in a public journal, and are sickening to contemplate. There may be some excuse for faulty sanitation in crowded cities, but there is none in the country. It is high time that attention was called to this evil. If the cholera were to come to this country it would make short work with the people who live in such neighborhoods.—Chicago Journal.

PUNGENT PARAGRAPHS.

—In London a "pony" is a five-pound note, in this country a glass of beer, and in the dictionary a small horse.—Yonkers Gazette.

—An experienced housewife in a long article tells "how to save your dishes from being broken." It is unnecessary. All you have to do is to put them away and eat off of tin dishes.

—My dear sir, you cannot always reason correctly from analogy. Because, for example, red-skinned apples make the best jelly, it does not follow that a red-faced man makes the best husband.—Chicago Journal.

—"What is economy?" asks the Philadelphia North American. We'll tell you. It is paying ten cents for a cigar and compelling your wife to turn her last season's dress to make it do another winter. The country is fairly bulging with such economy.—Norristown Herald.

—A girl who had become tired of single blessedness, thus wrote to her intended: "Dear Jim, come right off if you are coming at all; Edward Keiderman is insistin' that I shall have him; and he hugs and kisses me so continually that I can't hold out much longer."—Boston Post.

—A festive dude came into our sanctum. He had a poem; we kindly thanktum. With the office club we gently planktum over the top of his phizaranktum. He swore an oath which sounded like blanktum, and gazed at us like a dinged old cranktum, and then there was a vacancy in our sanctum.—Evansville Argus.

—"Well, Dobkins, are you going to the club to-night?" "I haven't made up my mind yet." "Haven't? Why it's time to be there now." "I know, but my wife hasn't got back from the woman's meeting yet." "Ah, I see. You can't make up your mind till your wife brings it home."—Chicago Tribune.

—She had named Friday of the following week as the day for the wedding. "But Friday is an unlucky day," said George. "O, so it is!" she exclaimed; "I had forgotten that. No, it wouldn't do to be married on Friday." "How would Saturday or Monday do?" suggested George, tenderly. The girl hesitated and blushed a little. Then she said: "I—I think Thursday would be better, George."—Detroit Post.

—"Does you know John Jackson?" asked Jim Webster of Pete Simpson. "I should say I does know him. He is an awful sly cuss." "What has he ever done that was so berry smart?" "The other day I seed him walking along on the opposite side of Austin Avenue. I called out 'John!' two or free times. De niggah made out as if he didn't heah me. I overtuck him and cotched him by de arm, and dang by buttons if he wasn't anudder niggah entirely. You bet he am a sly one."—Texas Siftings.

The Ostrich as a Kicker.

Dr. Sketchly, who has charge of the ostrich farm at Anahlem, was plucking one of the things one day. When they pluck them a stocking is kept on the head to blind the bird. While he can not see he is quiet, but if his blinkers get uncovered then he "goes for" the plucker. The doctor moved his arm so as to disturb the stocking, and instantly he saw what was done and went head first out of the pen, not caring for any more plumes just then. As he tumbled head first over the fence the bird let fly a kick which, striking a fence-board, made toothpicks of a whole panel length. The mule's occupation as a kicker is gone in this country since the ostrich came.—Los Angeles Express.

—"Curious, isn't it?" remarked Mrs. Bascom. "Here I've been reading these 'Notes on Husbandry,' regularly ever since we subscribed to the Farmer, and they haven't said one word, so far as I can see 'about husbands' or matrimony either."—Burlington Free Press.

ALL FOR 50 CENTS.

Mr. E. C. Walker, Editor "Track and Road," The Spirit of the Times, New York, after an exhaustive interview with all leading horsemen, stablemen, sportsmen, drivers and breeders of horses of the country, states that St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure, will do all that is claimed for it in the cure of aches, pains and suffering in man and beast.

A SECOND EMPHATIC ENDORSEMENT.

Mr. Wm. B. Mitchell, editor of the Journal-Press, St. Cloud, Minn., wrote to Mr. Wm. Penn Nixon, asking if a card with his signature, recommending Compound Oxygen, was genuine. Mr. Mitchell writes: "The following letter from Mr. Wm. Penn Nixon, the well-known editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, explains itself, and will be read with interest:

"THE INTER-OCEAN,
Chicago, Jan. 16, 1883.

"Mr. W. B. Mitchell, St. Cloud, Minn.:

"DEAR SIR:—I am always happy to bear testimony to the great value of Compound Oxygen, as manufactured by Drs. Starkey & Palen, Philadelphia. I think it the most important remedy for throat and lung troubles that was ever discovered. I feel that it saved my life, and am always glad to recommend it to those suffering from such troubles. The card was not only genuine, but I endorse the remedy now as fully as I did in the card.

"Very truly yours,
"WM. P. NIXON."

Our "Treatise on Compound Oxygen," containing a history of the discovery and mode of action of this remarkable curative agent, and a large record of surprising cures in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., and a wide range of chronic diseases, will be sent free. Address DRS. STARKEY & PALEN, 1109 and 1111 Girard street, Philadelphia.

All orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment directed to H. E. Mathews, 606 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, will be filled on the same terms as if sent directly to us in Philadelphia.

ESPECIALLY TO WOMEN.

"Sweet is revenge especially to women," said the gifted, but naughty, Lord Byron. Surely he was in bad humor when he wrote such words. But there are complaints that only women suffer, that are carrying numbers of them down to early graves. There is hope for those who suffer, no matter how sorely, or severely, in Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Safe in its action it is a blessing, especially to women and to men, too, for when women suffer, the household is askew.

It is now thought that no further trouble need be expected on the Isthmus of Panama.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST

NO ONE NEED SUFFER.

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian Remedy) called Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Indian Pile Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment: "I have used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Ointment." HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Regeneration for enfeebled systems suffering from a general want of tone, and its usual concomitants, dyspepsia and nervousness, is seldom derivable from the use of a nourishing diet and stimuli of appetite, unaided. A medicine that will effect a removal of the specific obstacle to renewed health and vigor, that is a genuine corrective, is the real need. It is the possession of this grand requirement which makes Hostetter's Stomach Bitters so effective as an invigorant. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

—Two young ladies entered a cigar store, and one of them said, timidly: "Have you any choice cigars sir? I want them for a present." "Oh, yes, Miss," replied the tobacconist, "we have any choice you like from a cent a piece up." "I think I will take some of the 1-cent ones, then, if they are choice. I had no idea that choice cigars were so cheap. Won't Charlie be delighted?" she said to her companion as they left the store. "Poor boy! He is so fond of a choice cigar, and they will taste all the better," she added, with a little blush, "for having come from me."—N. Y. Times.

—Doubtful flattery: Doctor—"You see, wifey, dear, I have pulled my patient through, after all. A very critical case, I can tell you." His wife—"Yes, dear hubby; but then you are so clever in your profession. Ah, if I had only known you five years earlier I feel certain my first husband—my poor Thomas—would have been saved."

The Mirror

is no flatterer. Would you make it tell a sweeter tale? Magnolia Balm is the charmer that almost cheats the looking-glass.

DON'T EAT IN A HURRY.

A health journal says that people ought to take three-quarters of an hour for dinner. This is well if there is enough dinner to hold out so long. The penalty for hurrying meals, as most people do, is a grievous attack of dyspepsia. In such a case you will have to resort to Brown's Iron Bitters for cure, as did Mr. J. R. Pinkston, Shorter's Depot, Ala., who writes, "I found relief in Brown's Iron Bitters after years of suffering from dyspepsia."

The loss by the destruction of Aspinwall is put at from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000.

AN OFFENSIVE BREATH

Is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he have any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. It is a delicate matter to speak of, but has parted not only friends but lovers. Bad breath and catarrh are inseparable. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases as thousands can testify.
