THE PESENT ADMINISTRATION. It is becoming evident that the Cle veland administration is becoming tower of strength with the people. It possesses broad statesmanship thorough honesty and a desire to please the people. Old wrongs are to be righted and the government is to be in the interest of the people, After all the people are satisfied with honesty and economy. They look upon the government simply as a complicated machine for th transaction of necessary business and the foundation of successful business in any branch is economy and strict honesty. Party ties never set more lightly on the American people than at the present time. For years there has been a gravitation towards independence of thought and action. A hide-bound, thick and thin partisan is becoming a historical relic. The world moves, parties have become recognized as mere necessary evils and unfit nominations must not be made by either organization. Men are now more thor. oughly judged than formerly and all things even the best man for an office at the hands of the people will receive it. But this judging of men should place the parties more on their guard. Good men, thoroughly honest and capable, in barmony with the administration politically should be selected for office, so that the Democratic party can stand or fall by the Cleveland administration. This is the duty the Democracy owes to President Cleveland and it is willing to assume the responsibility. 'A thorough Democratic administration-ably, honestly and economically conducted must be the highest aim of President Cleveland.

EXTRA SESSION. ANY reference that is made in regard to the great expence of an extra session of the Legislature is met by our pleasant cotemporary with an allusion to the extravagance of the Grover-Chadwick administration. In other words by the appearance in their midst of Sol. it wishes Gov. Moody to be extravagant with the people's money because other folks were. This is a brilliant idea The Governor will doubtless act upon proclaiming the praises of John and the such good advice. Shame on such reasoning! We inform our esteemed cotemporary and the Governor likewise that the people do not wish to stand the expence of an extra session. What is the good of it? To be frank, it is simply to give Oregon a Republican senator for six years. It is because the party managers are ofraid that the threw himself on all fours and present State will go Democratic two years from now. Let Gov. Moody appoint a senator and remand the issue to the people. This is fair, this is right, this High Judge, who held a glittering chain is just, this is honest. We give Gov. Moody fair warning and his political ling assumed the appearance of a stork future rests upon his decision. pockets and their political rights.

The political crisis is ended and the agony is over. Lord Salisbury has been formally proclaimed Premier. The result amply justified the predictions of those who said last week that as soon as he had secured all the advantages possible for him to get he would take up the reins of power. It also confirms the realty and potency of the Queen's interference. Even Radicals admit that the throne is still part of the British Government, and if it is a fifth wheel it is quite important, without which the carriage could not well be turned. All club land is highly elated over the p.ospects of the new Ministry, and is making and unmaking multitudes of States for all posts in the gift of the new Government. The sudden solution of the problem has been a surprise to almost every one, because the drift of recent events had not been watched and understood.

OF COURSE, if Gov. Moody has the sound of the lowing named settler has filed notice of his in-senatorial bee in his bonnet and expects to be elected senator by the reconvened Legislature, the matter is settled and all the people have to do is settled and all the people have to do is to pay $30,000 to witness the great farce-second appearance of the world renowned Oregon Legislature in its own great and transcendant specialties

The party lash is being used to its The party lash is being used to its utmost to coerce Gov. Moody into calling an extra session. There would be absolutely no excuse for his action. He has the power to fill the vacancy for two years and then the people will for two years and then the people will have decided the matter.

Portland, Oregon, June 22, 1885. The unusual quiet which has reigned upreme throughout the city since the WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER adjournment of the Legislature was broken by the announcement of the secand coming of John whoes surname is Mitchell. When the oracle proclaimed that he was come to stay there was a great commotion in high places, there was "Weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth." When the telegraph announced that he tarried for a time at a burg in the valley of the mountains straightway did George the Mighty take unto himself an assistant and start for the valley hard by to prepare the way and make known unto the great master the trials in store for him. So soon as the oracle announced to the brethren the mission of George the Mighty. Harvy the scribe took himself straightwav unto the Great High Judge, and said nato him "Oh Judge, our enemy is come upon us unawares, he has come like a thief in the night, to steal away from us those honors which we have toiled for lo these many years." A pallor as of an ashen hue overspread the ruddy countenance of the Great High Judge who in tremulous tones said "Oh! Harvy my boy go straightway and ssue an edict and call the brethren to a council in the sanctum that we may devise means to circumscribe and overthrow our common enemy." And straightway did Harvy the scrice do the bidding of his master. In a short time there was gathered together beneath the light of chandiliers, the Great High Judge, Harvy the scribe, Laundulet the charioteer, Henry the money changer and David the stripling.
