DEATH OF GENERAL GRANT.

Gen. Ulysses S. Grant died at Mt. McGregor New York Thursday morning at 7.10 A. M., of cancer after a lingering illness of nine months duration, during which time he has shown the greatest fortitude. All the members of his family were at his bedside as the old hero passed silently away. He was conscious to the last recognizing his friends with his eyes but being unable to articulate for several hours. Ulysses S. Grant was born in Point Pleasant, Ohio, April 27th 1822. In 1839, he was appointed to West Point where he graduated in 1843. His name was really Hiram but this was misplaced by the S. in his appointment papers and so remained. He was appointed a 2d Lieut. of Infantry and attached to the 4th regiment on the Missouri frontier. He served during the Mexican war first engaging in the conflict at Palo Alto, In 1848 he married Miss Julia Dent of St. Louis, and in 1852 he accompanied his regiment to Oregon and in 1853 was made a Captain at Vancouver. He resigned army life in 1854 and at the breaking out of the Civil war was working for his father in the leather trade at Galena, Illinois. He raised a company of volunteers at Springfield, and was then made Colonel of the 21st regiment. Was made a Brigadier General Aug. 23, 1861. February 15th, 1862, he captured Fort Donelson, the first great victory for the forces of the Union. He was immediately commissioned a Major General and his name was in the mouth of all loyal men as the hope and stay of the Union. In July he assumed command of the Army of Tennessee and on July 4th 62 Vicksburg fell and Grant was made a Major General in the regular army. On March 1st 1864 was made Lieutenant General of the Army and thus was the first to command all the Union forces. Then followed the advance on Richmond and the Georgia campaign and the final surrender of Lee at Appomattox. In 1868 he was elected President of the United States and was re-elected in 1872.

These are the brief points in a most eventful and useful life, and the name of U. S. Grant is one of the immortal names of American history. Whatever may have been his faults they are but as a speck upon the sun. The brilliancy of his life, the great service he rendered to his country, his fortitude in the great death struggle will shine forth with ever increasing brightness and ages yet unborn, will sing the praise of America's Greatest Captain—the born leader of men. For his grave flowers shall be ever gathered and his brow has been wreathed with immortelles and laurel—the emblems of victory.

THE REVIEW is called to task for presuming to advise a Republican Governor. This is a pleasant state of affairs, indeed! Gov. Moody is only governor of the Republican party; we thought he was governor of the State of Oregon. Of course if he is only governor of a political party he will call an extra session. We trust he has a more exalted idea of his position.

EVERY sensible man knows that if the last Legislature had elected a senator that no one would think of calling an extra session. Every sensible man will therefore know that if an extra session is called, it will be only for political effect, and every sensible man will consequently denounce Gov. Moody as a mere party tool.

THE President is said to have remarked of Col. Bill Morrison that he is "a man to tie to." Experience has certainly shown that he serves a better purpose as a hitching post than as a runner in a senatorial contest.—Ex.

WE UNDERSTAND that Gov. Moody is seeking for an excuse to call an extra session of the Legislature. We hope this is not true for the people are loth to believe their executive simply the tool of politicians.

RETRENCHMENT has struck Oregon. Seven employes of the Portland custom house have been dismissed as unnecessary. The Cleveland administration is careful with the people's money.

THE Ohio Prohibitionists have placed an entire State ticket in the field and expect to poll 100,000 votes. Prohibition is rapidly coming to the front.

JOHN ROACH the great ship-builder, has failed. He was the builder of the Dolphin the despatch boat that Secretary Whitney refused to accept.

THE Cholera epidemic in Spain is frightful to contemplate. Hundreds of deaths occurring daily.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY COURT HOUSE.

The Times of Jacksonville in its issue of last Friday under the above head refers to our fellow townsman, Mr. Abraham as "the irrepressible Sol Abraham of Roseburg," and states that he has succeeded in capturing the new county buildings for his addition to Grant's Pass. If the word "irrepressible" is intended to bear its ordinary significance, meaning, "not to be put down—deterred—overcome—subdued," then it truly conveys a very enviable compliment to Mr. Abraham. The illustrious and immortal Jackson was proud to be esteemed a man of indomitable will and invincible force of character. But the word "capture" as herein used involves a covert insult to the Court which was vested with the power and sole discretion of selecting the site for the county buildings. The Times is surely not warranted in insinuating that the honorable men thus involved were subject for "capture" by any one however "irrepressible," or to improper influences from any source whatever.

Hon. Jesse Crockett, County Judge, was for years a resident of Douglas county and is too well liked and too well known to require the suggestion of defence. Commissioners Piatt and Payne and the Trustee and Clerk of the county, Hon. Chas. Hagles are gentlemen of high probity and purity of character. It is true, as stated by the Times, that before the election Mr. Abraham made public an offer to aid the county in the way of constructing buildings rendered necessary by the change in the county seat provided these buildings were located in the railroad addition to Grant's Pass. No doubt the extent and liberality of this offer, considering the financial condition of the county, and other proper circumstances, induced the Judge and Commissioners to accept the same. Who should doubt the wisdom or prudence of this course, much less question motives? Mr. Abraham's offer did not become an executory contract but at the moment of acceptance it was executed. The money promised was paid and the land pledged was turned over to the County, and by order of the Court sold and the proceeds rendered at once available to the County. The town lots are in the hands of the Trustees for the benefit of the County and are beyond the control of Mr. Abraham. Unfortunately for the spirit of our Jacksonville-friend there is no case that can possibly arise requiring the application of that Oregon Supreme Court decision referred to. The truth is, Mr. Abraham, so far as we can learn, has acted liberally and honorably, and the officers of the county prudently and wisely for the people.

As for what one, Hon. Johnathan Bourne, Jr., of Portland, has done or may do, we know not and we care not. We are the partisan of no man—Bourne nor Abraham. We sincerely hope that neither owns Josephine county and that neither has the power to dictate where, how or when its public buildings may be located. We would not be glad to know that such was the law however much it might rejoice the hearts of the Times. We are "irrepressible" in our wishes for the prosperity of Josephine county and the happiness of its good people.

SOME of our cotemporaries are mistaking billings-gate for argument. The day for such journalism has passed. Men who have opinions are not afraid to declare them in plain and simple English and are always ready to listen to any arguments of those who think differently. But no one pays any attention to simple abuse. It is this style more than any other that marks the decadence of the Republican party. Its press is offensively abusive and unaccounted, such remarks as "Hendricks, Randall and the whole herd of lesser Democratic demagogues," with their "series of stupid howls," "the dishonest and hypocritical pratings of the Democratic press;" "political slysters," etc. etc. ad nauseum convince no one of any fact save the patent one that the author had no argument save abuse.

Not a single argument has been pronounced in favor of an extra session. Its friends fret and fume but do not reason. The Portland Daily News admitted it to be the Senatorial question and evolved the altogether startling idea that it was worth $30,000 in dignity to elect a man rather than a point him! And the additional declaration that the Senator could not get acquainted with the routine in two years. As the News' candidate has been there before, this last would not hold good and we fail to see any dignity that a State could have in possessing a $30,000 Senator.

The gubernatorial contest in Ohio this year will be of national importance as it will be the first expression of the people in a close State since the advent of the Cleveland administration. The Republicans have re-nominated Parker, who was defeated by Hoadly.
