ROSEBURG REVIEW.

FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1885.

STATE NEWS.

Four postoffices in this state have been discontinued recently, three east of the mountains and Dundee, one, in Yamhill county.

Appropriation for the Forest Grove industrial school for this year aggregates $46,500, of which $10,000 it for building fund.

The Curry county court allowed $2.50 for panther scalps; $2.50 for bear; $4.00 for cayote; $1.50 for wilcat and 5cts. each for muskrat and blacktailed rabbits.

Many citizens of Grant county are making an effort to re-organize their agricultural society. It is proposed to offer stock to the amount of $5,000. About $1,200 have already been subscribed.

The contract for building the fish ladder has been let. The state legislature has made two appropriations for this work, one two years ago and one at the last session. They are made to allow the female salmon to ascend the falls to hatch.

The Colorado editors are "doing" Oregon.

The Ashland woolen mill has an order from a Portland firm for 1,000 pair of blankets.

The new Cathedral in Portland will be dedicated with great pomp and ceremony on the 15th of August.

Edward J. Dawne, of Salem, has been appointed United States Judge for the district of Alaska. His salary will be $3,000 per year and all traveling expenses. This is a very nice billet.

One hundred horses will take part in the races at the State fair in September.

Mrs. M. B. Miller of Dallas, Polk county, wants tidings of her husband, who has been away from his home since last November.

The Grant County Agricultural Society will be reorganized, about $1200 worth of stock having already been subscribed.

The new roller process of making flour will supplant the burrs in the Imperial mills at Oregon city, workmen being now engaged in making the change.

The officers and guards of the State Penitentiary have adopted a plain, neat, comfortable uniform. The color chosen is New York Police blue, and the garments are made according to the prevailing styles, the coat and vest being ornamented with brass buttons.

The estimated wheat surplus for Oregon this year is 20,000,000 bushels, and half as much for Washington territory. Even at the low prices now prevailing, this will bring a great deal of money into the northwest.

The government snag-puller is now at work on the Willamette river, between Salem and Corvallis; operations are facilitated by the very low stage of water.

The Umatilla Indians continue firm in the determination to not accept the terms of the Slater bill. The people of Pendleton and Umatilla county who are hungering for the reservation lands are growing anxious, and are indulging in a good deal of extravagant talk.

The Kings of Business.

The great masters of business have no mysteries, no cunning tricks. They simply serve the public with great skill and systematic fidelity. That is all their cunning. A. T. Steward once held language something like this in conversation with a friend: People come to me and ask me what is the secret of success in business. Why, I have no secret. I tell them my business has been a matter of principle from the start. If the Golden Rule can be incorporated into purely commercial affairs, it has been done in this establishment, where every customer is treated precisely as the seller himself would like to be treated were he a customer. What I mean is this: First of all, nothing is misrepresented and no faults are concealed. Then the price is fixed once for all, at the lowest possible figure.

Finally, neither the circumstances of the buyer nor the magnitude of his purchase are suffered to influence the salesman in his conduct or demeanor. In our dealings with employees the same principle of justice is adhered to.

After a pause, Mr. Stewart added:

Of course, I don't speak of this as deserving of praise. We find it absolutely necessary. An establishment like this could not be conducted for any length of time in any other way. The one thing which we cannot afford is a violation of principle.

In the whole world I do not believe there can be found one business of forty years standing which is not founded on the same principle of giving a good dollar's worth for a dollar.

NOTES AND NEWS.

A destructive forest fire is reported on the Nootsack river a few days since. One logging firm is reported to have lost $8,000 in cattle and from roads burned. Fifteen or twenty families lost their dwellings, together with a large amount of stock.

The canal across the Isthmus of Corinth, which baffled several of the Roman emperors, and was a favorite of Julius Caesar's, is approaching within a measurable distance of completion.

The largest bridge in the world crosses Lake Pontchartrain, at New Orleans, and is twenty-two miles in length. It is trestle-work on piles, and is made of cypress wood which was first saturated with creosote oil, which renders it impervious to moisture and proof against the attack of barnacles.

Young ladies at a certain Western college are taught how to make bread. When they graduate they are known as college-bread women, and are in great demand with house-keepers.

Tarsus, the birthplace of St. Paul, now boasts of a Young Men's Christian Association vigorously at work, and of a native Bible-woman successfully engaged in teaching her sex from house to house.

The Virginia tin mines are producing oxide of tin carrying from 40 to 60 per cent., and the best ore pays a profit of $100 per ton for shipment to England

The Emperors of Austria and Germany will meet at Gastein on the 7th of August.

It is not very important to pronounce names correctly, but it is just as well to do so. Most people in speaking of Monsignor Caple and Mr. Parnell put the accent on the last syllable. It should be on the first.

There is on hand in the United States sub-treasury at San Francisco the nice little sum of $90,000,000 in gold, silver and currency. It is estimated it will require twenty men nearly two months to count the money.

It is horrible to learn that 221 children under five years of age died in this city in the month of June. Who is to blame? Are our houses and sewers so faulty, our doctors so inefficient, or are the mothers so careless?—San Francisco Ex.

"We have got to practice the most rigid economy at such times as these," remarked a man to a crowd on the sidewalk. "I have stopped all the papers for which I formerly subscribed, and don't buy candy, toys and such trumpery for the children. Times are hard. Come in, boys, and take a drink!"

The Marquis of Salisbury, who succeeded Gladstone as premier, is the lineal descendant and namesake of Robert Cecil, the first earl of Salisbury, Queen Elizabeth's famous secretary of state and the enemy of Essex and Raleigh.

The United States has 163,940 miles of telegraph line, or three times as much as any other country in the world. Russia comes next with 53,736 miles. France, Germany, Austria and Australia all rank ahead of Great Britain. The United States has double the number of telegraph offices and forwards twice as many telegrams annually as any other country on the globe.

A Northren Pacific express messenger reports that the excitement over the Pine Valley mines continues unabated. Four pounds of rock were recently sent to Baker City and reduced there, and $61.40 worth of gold taken from it A man who took up a claim there a few weeks ago recently sold it for $15,000, although he had done but comparitively little work upon it. Miners are going into this section every day, and it is claimed that the district is the richest that has been discovered for some time. New finds are being reported daily.

It is easy enough to reduce cane sugar to glucose, but to reverse the process is a problem which has defied the skill of all the chemists in the world. It may be solved sometime—probably will—and the fortunate discoverer of this great secret of nature will find himself in possession of a source of wealth which will make the income of a Rothschild or Vanderbilt a small flair in comparison.

The civilized world, at a moderate estimate, consumes annually 6,000,000,000 pounds of sugar. Were there a process discovered for the artificial manufacture of cane sugar, the growing of beets and cane would have to be abandoned as unprofitable. At a royalty of 1 per cent. per pound, the fortunate discoverer, fortified with his patents, would net an annual income of $600,000,000 per annum. Or even at the modest royalty of one-tenth per cent. per pound, his income would be $60,000,000. With such a golden outlook, is it any wonder that chemists dream and inventors labor for the key which shall unlock nature's guarded secret?

Flags were placed at half-mast in Victoria in honor of General Grant.

The members of the journalistic fraternity of the northwest have had their hands full this season entertaining visiting brethren (and sisters) from Iowa and Colorado. These press excursions seem to be pleasant affairs. Now, why may it not be in order for the scribes of the northwest to pack their gripsacks, gather their wives and sweethearts under their arms and take a trip (say next summer) to some neighboring territory? Since exploring new country is the style, why not make a raid on Alaska? They have a host of papers up there, and no doubt we will be royally entertained. What say you, boys?—Vindicator.

The San Francisco Argonaut bitterly denounces the mercenary press of California, which took money from Claus Spreckels and defamed De-Young. It as much as says that young Spreckels was acquitted by the use of money. No one, who has any knowledge of court methods in San Francisco, doubts the insinuation.

MINERAL WATER.

S. HAMILTON, Agent, Roseburg, Or.

GEO. W. JONES:

Dear Sir—I have delayed answering your letter in order to send you the enclosed certificate Mr. Bart Reeve declines to give testimonial as present for the reason that he has been under the treatment of a number of Physicians and think they might not like it if he were to make the affirmation of the effect your Mineral Water had upon him. I will describe the case to you as near as I can: He had been sick about two years and an unnatural belt had formed around him just below the ribs. He drank your Mineral Water three or four days and the belt went off in such a way as to cause his legs and feet to swell but that soon disappeared, and he is now in comfortable health. The doctors had all given up that he could not get well. There are a number of persons here who have spoken to me for some of the water to use in various cases, and I would like to use a little myself. I think it is the best nervous remedy I ever know, Please send me five gallons of the water.

Respectfully,

Jefferson, Oregon. E. A. HANSEE.
