

ROSEBURG REVIEW.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1885.

THE GOSPEL OF LOVE.

The conduct of the "Oregonian" is inexplicable. While the whole world has mourned over the grave of Grant; while from every Southern hamlet has leaped words of sympathy and from every Northern home has gone forth tenderness and love; and the bonds of the Union were never so strong, and the renewed love of brotherhood is being pledged in every word and thought and deed in this sacred time, the "Oregonian" is making piteous appeals to the prejudices and hatred of men. It calls all these sentiments that do the nation honor, all these tokens that give expressions to the hearts of men, "nonsense and gush."

ECONOMICAL ADMINISTRATION.

The present administration of Grover Cleveland will be noted as the most economical and truly business one in American history. Economy pervades every department and to a strictness that would do honor to the most painstaking private firm. The cutting down of the number of employees goes on in every department throughout the length and breadth of the land. The treasury department alone dispenses with 1,000 clerks at Washington; the navy department is to be completely re-organized and the work of the government is to be constructed at its own navy yards; the internal department has adopted the most stringent economic laws, even going so far as to cut off the leaks in the stationary supply and dispensing with clerical help in all offices of the grade of the Roseburg land offices. In fact the people will find that the Cleveland administration will jealously guard their interests and that a saving of several millions of dollars annually will be the result. This is as it should be.

INDIAN CENSUS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—By Indian Inspector Armstrong, the census of the Cheyennes was found to be 2167 and 1207 respectively. They had been drawing rations for ten years for 3769 and 2198 members respectively. The saving in beef and flour alone by the new census is $150,000 a year.

The above shows the rascality of the Indian agents for the last ten years, and also shows that the new administration is determined to hunt the rascals down. Why was not this outrage looked into before? We want an answer.

A REPUBLICAN friend of ours and a member of the legislature complains to us that he did not receive any list of four names from the Portland bosses to choose his senatorial candidate from. We are sorry John Hancock but they probably considered you like the Colorado juryman who when the jury retired threw himself on the floor, with the sage remark: "When you agree boys, wake me up." When the bosses agree, John, they will let you know.

Gov. MOODY has doubtless become convinced that an extra session would be a very unpopular thing. He will probably be guided by the wishes of the people and let the whole matter be settled at the polls next June. We trust this is the case and if it is it will raise the Governor considerably in the estimation of the people.

Gov. DAVID B. HILL, of New York, will doubtless be the Democratic nominee for the Governorship. He is a Jacksonian Democrat, honest and able. While entertaining very strong views himself he has a wonderful power of conciliating factions. By some he is considered the ablest political manager since Tilden's time.

If Harvey would drop that bloody shirt a moment he might express his opinion on the question of an extra session. We have all along thought he kept that shirt a waving to keep from seeing Mitchell.

THAT COURT HOUSE ONCE MORE.

The Josephine County Court House issue while only a local matter is attracting considerable attention and is the subject of much misrepresentation by the press throughout the State. The facts in the case appear to be that the people voted to have the county seat at Grant's Pass. This precinct of Grant's Pass includes quite a region of country and in the wisdom of the County Court they accepted Mr. Abraham's liberal proposition and ordered the county buildings to be erected on a lot donated by him. Mr. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., of Portland, has had an injunction served and the county is forced to defend its action. Messrs. Crockett, Payne and Platter, the judge and commissioners, did the very best thing they could for the county and are upheld by the people. Judge Crockett was an old resident of Douglas county and a man of the strictest integrity. And Messrs. Payne and Platter are representative men, honorable and of good business qualifications. Mr. Bourne seems to be actuated by some ulterior object, as the following from the Grant's Pass Argus aptly states the issue:

Mr. Abraham has performed all his contractual promises faithfully. A shout of approbation can be heard rising from the miners cabin, the farm, workshop and store, and spreading throughout the confines of Josephine county, saying to the County Judge and Commissioners "well done thou good and faithful servant of the people. We endorse your good work." The present location of the county buildings does not or would not materially affect the value of adjoining lands. If Josephine county is impoverished by expensive lawsuits; the blame will rest on Jonathan Bourne, Jr.; not the Commissioners.

We, of course, attribute Mr. Bourne's inattention to this place mainly to his rush of business in Portland, as his name is connected with the R. E. Co. as an attorney. We wish he would attend strictly to his railroad business and not harass and trouble our people in the erection of their own buildings. This is the first attention or aid they have ever received from Jonathan Bourne, Jr., and there is no telling what said attention will cost Josephine county.

WE CORRECT AN ERROR.

We notice in some of our cotemporaries a disposition to do the REVIEW a grave injustice in the accusation that it is a Democratic newspaper sailing under an Independent banner. There is nothing two-faced about the REVIEW. It is an outspoken and fearless Democratic journal, and avows itself as such. It believes that the war is over and that its results have been accepted in good faith; it believes thoroughly in the magnificent destiny of the American people and the perpetuity of the institutions of freedom. It has allied itself with one of the great political parties because it is only through organization that any good can be accomplished. No one has a greater contempt for those newspaper pirates that sailing under the name of Independent are willing to espouse any cause for mercenary motives. Our neighbors will discover that the REVIEW has opinions of its own which it is not afraid to avow.

While espousing the cause of democracy, thoroughly endorsing the honest and able administration of President Cleveland and contending for revenue and civil service reform, the REVIEW will in its own way and in its own manner give at all times a succinct and honest reason for the faith that is within us.

POSTERS for the coming state fair are out. They are handsome ones, too, and were printed in Cincinnati. There is nothing like promoting home manufacture and patronizing home industries. For the advancement of this laudable purpose state fairs are supposed to be of great value as advertising mediums of home productions. Upon this is based the chief, if not their only claim to the public patronage upon which they exist. Hence, no one should be surprised that the managers of this state exhibit should help the cause along by getting their work done in Cincinnati. Now let the job printers of Oregon come up with a line display at Salem in September. Let no opportunity to return a generous courtesy be neglected. The space in the grand pavilion of the state agricultural society is ample. Cincinnati houses will probably not compete.—Telegram.

THE Prohibition party in Ohio claim to be able to cast from 50,000 to 100,000 votes at the approaching state election. They have taken for their motto Blaine's magnetic designation that "Prohibition is a state issue." It works something like a boomerang that suggestion does.

By the death of a supreme judge in Ohio, the prohibition question comes prominently to the front in the state, as by filling the vacancy with a prohibitionist they would have a majority of the Court.

THE Prohibition party of Oregon is making its initiatory organization in Portland. It will probably be strong enough to stand alone by the next election.

THE Coast Mail says there is not a Republican in Coos county in favor of an extra session and ridicules the Silverton Appeal's nomination of Gov. Moody.

Reset on all Sides

By malaria, how shall we escape the dread infection? Is the question which the denizens of fever and ague districts ask themselves. The answer comes from our former sufferers who for years have escaped the visitations of the periodic scourge, through the protecting influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. When the necessity for using preventive measures arises, use this means of prevention at once. It regulates the liver, facilitates digestion, and liberates impurities from the system, when such exist, by promoting healthful action of the bowels and kidneys. Act early. In all regions where miasmatic vapors breed disease, it is absolutely necessary to be provided with a safeguard, and though a sojourn in such localities is destined to be brief. No one can afford to breathe malaria for a short time. The Bitters is a sovereign specific for rheumatism, debility and nervousness. Keep it on hand.

Walter Jackson an old time friend of ours was in Roseburg Saturday dealing in his fine tobaccos as usual.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosancho's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts effected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosancho Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Dr. S. Hamilton.

Better than she Expected.

Your letter received. In reply I am happy to say that Parker's Hair Balm did much more for me than you said it would, or than I expected. My hair has not only stopped falling out, but the bald spots are all covered, and all my hair has grown thicker, softer and more lively than it was before my sickness a year ago. Thank you again and again." Extract from letters of Mr. B. M. T. West Fifty-third street, New York.

A Walking Skeleton.

Mr. E. Springer, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes: "I was afflicted with lung fever and abscess on lungs, and reduced to a walking skeleton. Got a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which did me so much good that I bought a dollar bottle. After using three bottles found myself once more a man, completely restored to health, with hearty appetite, and a gain in flesh of 48 lbs." Call at S. Hamilton's Drug Store and get a free trial bottle of this certain cure for all Lung Diseases, Large bottles $1.
