ROSEBURG REVIEW.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 18, 1885.

THE REPUBLICAN IDEA.

Senators Sherman and Hoar have rounded the slogan of the Republican party. It is the old story of the suppression of the colored vote in the South. Upon this plank Senator Hoar proposes to stand if there are not three men in the whole country to stand with him.

According to these high authorities the colored vote of the South is solidly Republican and must ever remain so. This then solves the riddle of the "solid South." And as the negroes are solid, the whites must necessarily unite and in the contest of races the Anglo-Saxon must ever be victorious.

If the negroes are nothing but machines to vote Republican tickets then Senator Sherman or any other man should know that as a consequent result the whites will be Democrats or whatever represents the opposition.

This would be the case on the Pacific coast if the Chinese were made voters. It would be the death of the political party to which they solidly attached themselves.

But the question of the solid south will be solved when the negroes become intelligent enough to divide. The division of the whites will be the natural consequence. But as long as Senator Sherman can say Virginia should cast 160,000 Republican votes because there are that many negroes there he answers the question why the whites are united in opposition.

This is not a pleasant subject and it is one that should be discussed in candor and calmness. It looks to us something like self-preservation for the south to be solid until the negro vote is intelligent enough to vote on the great issues as individuals and not as a collective mass.

Congressional Work.

The next session of Congress which meets in December will have a great amount of business to transact. The tariff laws will be up for necessary revision, the silver question will be open for discussion, civil service reform brought into prominence and many other issues argued and some decided.

To some extent everything will receive a partisan support and opposition on account of the House being Democratic and the Senate Republican. This will make it necessary for the Democracy to make a united and harmonious array. President Cleveland's policies will doubtless be the keynotes of the stand to be occupied by the Democracy. We hardly believe however that the administration will be endorsed on the silver question, as the people want silver and will not be satisfied with the gold standard only. However the administration has had sufficient foresight not to make any decided stand upon this important issue until Congress has met. This will tend to simplify matters greatly and will aid much in uniting the Democracy on a firm and progressive platform for the contests of 1886 and '88.

Endorsed.

Democratic state conventions have been held since the inauguration of a Democratic administration in Iowa, Ohio and Mississippi. Most heartily has the administration been endorsed in each state. The Iowa Democrats find in Cleveland a man of "solid judgement, concientious integrity, unswerving fidelity, patriotism and courage, equal to that of Andrew Jackson," and commend his record thus far, including his zeal in behalf of reform. The Ohio Democrats congratulate the President upon his cabinet; upon the auspicious beginning they have made in the necessary reforms of the government, and heartily endorse their administration. The Mississippi convention finds in his policy "nothing to condemn, but everything to inspire confidence in his wisdom, integrity and Statesmanship," and expresses its unqualified indorsement of the same. Apparantly the popular admiration for consistency and courage will make itself felt in the Democratic party and will prove more potent than the grumbling of disappointed spoil-seekers.

It continues to be made apparent that some very useful reform work may be accomplished by concentrating the work to be done in certain departments of the public service and thus compressing the force employed. A move in this direction has just been made by Secretary Manning, upon the recommendation of the lately appointed surveyor of the port of New York, Through the dismissal of superfluous employes, the reduction of the saleries of others, and the consolidation of offices where one official can efficiently discharge the duties now assigned to two or more, he hopes to effect an important saving in the expenses of running the large office at New York city. The plan is one which can doubtless be followed with useful results in many branches of the public service.

Matters in Oregon.

The active organization of the Democratic party for the important election of 1886 in Oregon should now be commenced. The state is Republican only because Multnomah county is Republican and it has generally been conceded that money had much to do with Republican majorities in Portland. The clean, able, progressive and honest administration of President Cleveland should and has strengthened the Democratic party with the people and the result will be a largely increased vote in the interior. Republican dissensions will also add much to Democratic prospects.

It strikes us though that a Democratic daily at Portland is a necessity for the approaching election. As the Democracy is now, it is like an army without a commander.

Almost An Accident.

While coming home from the burial of Mr. Humphrey's child Hon. Binger Hermann, J. C. Fullerton, Mr. Peterson, Miss W. Mosher, Miss Langenberg, Mr. Langenberg, and E. F. Walsh concluded to come by way of the R. R. which is much shorter than the wagon road, and while on the middle of the high tressle we heard a noise and on looking back saw the freight train coming down upon us at full speed. We had not a moment to spare for scarcely had we time to select a stringer each than the train of thirty cars came thundering over us. Fullerton's dog was thrown and struck Peterson on the head which nearly knocked him off. I thought it took the train an hour to pass over us while we were all huddled up in a little heap and hanging on for dear life. The R. R. Co. ought to blow a whistle before they get to that cut. I won't take the railroad any more. W.

The Mound Builders.

Rev. P. A. Moses A. M. of Tangent Oregon, last winter wrote four exhaustive articles on the Mound Builder question, giving an entirely new theory for their formation. They were first secured by the Albany Democrat, and last week we purchased them from the scientific gentlemen, for the REVIEW, and they will appear for four weeks consecutively, the first appearing next week. Therefore you may lose something good if you do not secure the REVIEW. Other articles in the same vein will follow these, and yet we will have room left to attend to all the jolities afloat, and an eye on the extra session.

Classical.

In last weeks Democrat appears a poem entitled "A Prophecy" which is local in nature, written evidently by local talent and bears a classical air that is in proud contrast with the sickly stuff that newspapers are continually seeking to avoid. The poem refers to the gods of the ancients and connects our oceans our plains and giants of the forests with them so happily that one is really reminded of the grace, ease and smoothness of a Virgil or a Homer.

Card of Thanks.

The wife and children of the late Louis Jones deceased, take this method of thanking the people of Oakland and vicinity for the many acts of kindness shown during his short illness, and especially for their presence and assistance in performing the last sad rites of burial, and while the remembrance of the occasion will always sadden our hearts, it will also keep fresh in our minds the extreme kindness and universal respect showu us.

SEVERAL parties have tried to make it appear that Josephine county is undertaking a big contract in a law contest with millionaire Bourne, Jr. But now come the Portland papers with the information that Mr. Bourne is asking for exemption from paying taxes on the ground that he owes more than he is worth. Thus one by one the roses fall, and the big game is found to be only bluff and wind.

TIMES are getting better in the east, factories are opening up men are being employed, merchandise and produce raising in value and a general revival of trade noted. This conclusively proves that the assertion that hard times and instability would follow a Democratic administration was unfounded.

IT IS now pretty generally conceded that the Keady liquor law will have to go before the Supreme Court for final decision on its constitutionality. The saloon-keepers of Lake and Klamath counties are not satisfied with Judge Webster's decision and are violating it.

WITH regard to this civil service business, President Cleveland is following out the strict letter of the law. If our good Republican friends thought that civil service reform meant their retention in office for ever and a day they were mistaken.

THE death of Hon. Henry Warren adds a new factor to the situation as respecting the vacant senatorship. In the case of an extra session there would have to be a special election in Yamhill county, to elect a senator to succeed Mr. Warren.

Hard Times.

While money is close, wages and prices low, expenses should be cut down in every household. Economy the watch word for Mothers, head off Doctor bills, by always keeping in the house, a bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. Stops Croup and pain in the Chest in one night. It is just the remedy for hard times. Price 50 cts. and $1.00. Samples free. Sold by S. Hamilton.

If intemperance should break out among horses and cattle there would be an extra session of Congress called in less than three weeks to stay the evil and protect the people and property.

It is given out as a certainty that the O. P. road is to be finished to a connection with the Chicago & Northwestern at Boise City Idaho.

PROHIBITION is coming to the front in all the states. The Republican organization in Kentucky has given way to the new party.

THE New York election this fall promises to be as lively a contest as usual. John Kelly has again assumed to dictate to Tammany.

IT IS now more than probable that Gov. Moody will appoint a Senator instead of re-convening the Legislature.

IMMIGRATION.

The coming year will see thousands of immigrants seeking homes in Oregon. Preparations should be made to receive them. Combined effort and zealous work would result in materially adding to the population of Douglas county, to the development of its great resources, to the founding of new enterprises and the consequence would be better markets, labor employed and good times. Douglas county is a vast empire, larger than the state of Connecticut, with great natural resources, unsurpassed water power, valuable grazing and agricultural lands. Its mineral wealth has never been developed but from every spur that jets out from the Cascade and Coast ranges can be found evidences of gold, silver, iron, coal and cinnabar. With other advantages it boasts the best wool in the whole world and Umpqua valley wool is quoted at the head in Philadelphia, Boston and Liverpool. Taking all in all the future growth of our county promises to be phenomenal. Its lovely climate, free alike from extremes of heat and cold, with cyclones and tornadoes unknown, combine with its other great advantages to make it a veritable garden of eden.

It is this vast territory of country, rich in untold wealth, awaiting development, awaiting the capitalists and the laborer, destined to become the happy home of thousands, that the REVIEW represents. It is no pent up Utica, but an empire in all that is necessary for human progress and human destiny. Proper means should be taken to fully advertise this marvelous region to the people of the East. At least a large share of the immigration that comes to Oregon could be and should be induced to settle among the vine-clad hills and beauteous valleys of the Umpqua.

That Twenty Years Set Back.

That must be a good thing to set the temperance cause back twenty years. Hence the two grand old parties under whose legislation the whiskey traffic has realized its present proportions, will not be troubled for at least twenty years to come. That is good.

Mr. Editor; let me summarize the results of this setting back since last November.

By a vote of nine states legislatures textbooks have been adopted teaching the effects of alchohol on the human body. In these states a teacher cannot get a certificate to teach until he has passed an examination on this point.

Oregon, Tennessee and Rhode Island have submitted constitutional amendments forever prohibiting the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquor.

The states of Iowa, Kansas and Maine have strengthened there prohibitary laws and closed every distillery and brewery in those states.

Every southern state has been marching on to solid victory under local option until two thirds of southern territory to day is free from this traffic. At the recent election in Kentucky, Judge Fox on an out and out prohibition platform received 51,000 votes.

In the beginning of 1884 the entire annual issue of temperance papers was less than 65,000 copies. To-day it exceeds 300,000. Yet it is dead. Today in evey state where an election takes place a complete prohibition ticket is in the field. Yet it is set back twenty years. Today you cannot nominate a candidate from Constable to President but the liquor question enters into the contest, yet it has been set back twenty years, to all of which we say Amen. Realizing that another setback such as was experienced in 1884 will carry the prohibition party into the white house. KNARC.

What Parents Fear.

Many persons—especially parents—object to many quack rostrums as likely to engender or encourage a love for strong drink They are right. Better die of disease than of drunkenness. The use of Parker's Tonic does not involve this danger. It not only builds up the system, curing all ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys, but it stimulates without intoxicating and absolutely cures the appetite for liquor.

NEW THIS WEEK.

WORTHY Of Confidence.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla is a medicine that, during nearly 40 years, in all parts of the world, has proved its efficacy as the best blood alterative known to medical science.

SARSAPARILLA (extracted from the root of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla) is its base, and its powers are enhanced by the extracts of Yellow Dock and Stillingia, the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other potent ingredients.

IS your blood vitiated by derangements of the digestive and assimilatory functions? is it tainted by Scrofula? or does it contain the poison of Mercury or Contagious Disease?

THE leading physicians of the United States, who know the composition of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, say that nothing else so good for the purification of the blood is within the range of pharmacy.

ONLY by the use of this remedy is it possible for a person who has corrupted blood to attain sound health and prevent transmission of the destructive taint to posterity.

THOROUGHLY effective renovation of the system must include not only the removal of corruption from the blood, but its enrichment and the strengthening of the vital organs.

RELIABLE witnesses, all over the world, testify that this work is better accomplished by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA than by any other remedy.

BLOOD that is corrupted through disease is made pure, and blood weakened through diminution of the red corpuscles is made strong, by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

PURIFYING the blood and building up the system require time in serious cases, but benefit will be derived from the use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA more speedily than from anything else.

MEDICINE for which like effects are falsely claimed, is abundant in the market, under many names, but the only preparation that has stood the test of time, and proved worthy of the world's confidence, is

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
