Mount Scott Items.

Mr. Chas. Hatfield and family of Roberts Creek are visiting at Mr. W. Hughes this week.

Mr. J. R. Poe of Mt. Scott, has moved to Roberts Creek to engage in farming, we wish Jim success.

Miss Annie Britt, who has been absent for some months past, is among us again to the delight of her many friends.

Mr. Owen Atterbury is talking of renting the Henry Shaft place from his brother Tim, and if he does, of course he will need a cook.

Mr. Wm. Trask was rather poorly last week, had a difficulty in breathing, but was relieved by Dr. Davis of this place, and is now as well as usual.

The winds begin to whistle around the corners of buildings again, warning the people that Winter and Fall rains are approaching, and to prepare for the same before it is too late.

Messrs. Ed. Singleton and Ed. Hinkle have leased the Jeff Singleton place for five years so we are informed, and as the boys have an aversion to batching we predict a wedding, and probably two, this fall.

A number of the farmers in this vicinity have purchased new wheat cleaners from an agent whose name we have not learned. The mills do splendid work, and all are well pleased as far as we have been able to ascertain.

A flock of quail and a couple of jack rabbits, attend the Mt. Scott school every evening after the children return home, and appropriate the crumbs thrown from the dinner buckets and baskets, and the teacher says they are becoming quite gentle.

Messrs. Jacob Ledgerwood and Joseph Thompson of Roberts Creek, are hunting and fishing on the North Umpqua, up about Rock Creek, and we hope the undertaker of Roseburg will be prepared for the solemn occasion on Mr. Ledgerwoods return.

We miss the mail carrier Mr. Singleton's regular Wednesday visit to Mt. Scott, as this is the day to forward the items. However we console ourselves by the thought that President Cleveland is retrenching and trying to reduce expenses as much as possible in the government affairs. FABER.

Elk Head Locals.

Our cinnabar mines are still running with a small force of Chinamen, Tommy Todd boss.

Mr. Emerson and his estimable wife have returned from their trip to Coquille City.

Mr. Wm. Wells of Perrydale Polk County is at present visiting relatives in this place.

M. P. Harris has a fine turning lay from which he turns out some excellent work.

The rain has cleared up the smoke, smothered the fires, and we breath pure air once more.

The social party given at John Woodson's on the evening of the 4th inst. was pronounced by those present to be a very enjoyable affair.

A party consisting of John Woodson, C. C. Roberts, Dick Stoffer and others started for the Siuslaw country last Monday with a view of locating.

Mr. Huff of this place has just harvested about twelve acres of as fine buckwheat as ever grew. He also has a new variety of beardless barley which did well.

Jimmy Sterling's "racks" have been seen in this valley last Wednesday. He had better look a little out as another "feller" is after the same girl. "Read tresspass act."

Mr. Z. Cox who recently sold his place here has purchased Mrs. Doherty's farm in Scott's Valley. We are glad that we do not loose him entirely, as Mr. Cox is a good citizen and a christian gentleman. XERXES.

The Habit of Saving.

Children who have a little money ought to practice saving something.

Many boys and girls of to-day hardly know a higher use for any money that comes into their hands than spending it for some foolish thing as quickly as possible.

To such a lesson in self-denial and economy is very important.

As go the boy's pennies and dimes, so, very likely, will go the man's dollars and hundreds by and by.

Without having the spirit of a miser, the person accustomed to save has more pleasure in laying up than the spendthrift ever knows.

The way to keep money is to earn it fairly and honestly.

Money so obtained is pretty certain to abide with its possessor.

But money that is inherited, or that in any way comes without a fair and just equivalent, is almost certain to go as it came.

The young man who begins saving a few dollars a month, and thriftly increases his store—every coin being a representative of good, solid work, honestly and manfully done—stands a better chance to spend the last half of his life in affluence and comfort, than he who, in his haste to become rich, obtains money by dashing speculations, or the devious means which abound in the foggy region lying between fair dealing and actual fraud.

Among the wisest and most thrifty men of wealth, the currant proverb is, money goes as it comes.

Let the young make a note of this and see that their money comes fairly, that it may long abide with them.

A Philadelphia man buys for half a cent a pound, tons of old rubber overshoes, rubber overcoats, belts, car springs and hose, and makes them into toys for the children and chewing gum for the girls.—Philadelphia Record.

A Pretty Woman's Secret.

Fear of discovery, when she resorts to false hair and dyes, is a source of constant anxiety to her. The very persons from whom she most desires to hide the waning of her charms are the ones most likely to make the discovery. But there is no reason why she should not retain and retain all the beauty of hair that was her pride in youth. Let her use AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and, not only will her hair cease to fall out, but a new growth will appear where the scalp has been denuded; and locks that are turning gray, or have actually grown white, will return to their pristine freshness and brilliance of color. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR cures

Hereditary Baldness.

GEORGE MAYER, Flatonia, Texas, was bald at 23 years of age, as his ancestors had been for several generations. One bottle of HAIR VIGOR started a growth of soft, downy hair all over his scalp, which soon became thick, long, and vigorous.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Is not a dye, but, by healthful stimulation of the roots and color glands, speedily restores to its original color hair that is Turning Grey.

MRS. CATHERINE PEARCE, Point of Rocks, Md., had her hair suddenly blanched by fright, during the late civil war. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR restored it to its natural color, and made it softer, glossier, and more abundant than it had been before.

Scalp Diseases

Which cause dryness, brittleness, and falling of the hair, dandruff, itching, and annoying sores, are all quickly cured by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It cured HERBERT BOYD, Minneapolis, Minn., of intolerable Itching of the Scalp; J. N. CARTER, JR., Occoquan, Va., of Scald Head; Mrs. D. V. S. LOVELACE, Lovelaceville, Ky., of Tetter Sores; Miss BESSIE H. BEDLOE, Burlington, Vt., of Scalp Disease and Dandruff. Torpidity of the roots of the hair, which, if neglected, may result in incurable baldness, is readily cured by AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. As

A Toilet Luxury

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR has no equal. It is colorless, cleanly, delightfully perfumed, and has the effect of making the hair soft, pliant, and glossy.
