WEDDING.-Cart, N. Johansen, of Astoria, was married on the evening of the 4th to Mrs Mary A. Lunev, in this city, the Rev. John Howard, efficiating. We wish the happy couple a long and prosperous life.

FLOWERS .- We return our thanks to Mrs. W. B. Drake, of Myrtle Creek, for a beautiful boquet of elegant flowers of rarest bucs and e quisite o'cr. Also for a sheath of Pampa grass twelve feet in height-quite a curiosity and rich as an ornament.

THE BAND STAND .- Under the able management of Malausena & Clements, the band stand is progressing finely. We acknowledge the following additional subscriptions: F. P. Hogan $1, M. O. Wimberly $1, J. B. Horner $1, Col. Lane $1. Subscriptions are still invited.

LECTURE. - Last Friday evening Mr. L. C. Hill, of Myrtle Creek, delivered an interesting lecture at the Court House on "Human Progress" to a small but appreciative audience. Mr. Hill is a fluent rapid talker, sensible at all times, and eloquent as the occasion demands. At some future time he will again address a Roseburg audience and we bespeak for him a crowded house.

NEW INVENTION .- While at Oakland last week we had the good fortune to interview Mack Gangras in regard to his new discovery, The workings of the machine are yet secret, so far as the public is concerned. It is nearly the perpetual motion, and has a wonderful generating power, which can be used to advantage in connection with all machinery. The inventor discribed the process, by which the machine operates very minutely, and he styles the contrivance a "self-feeder." One of our leading citizens has bought the entire right from Mack Jangras, paying the handsome sam of $60,000 therefor. Ben Agee Esq. is the fortunate purchaser.

A 16,000 GALLON TANK. -We were shown by that accommodating landford, Richard Thomas, of Oakland, last Monday, all about his new enterprise. He has lately had a tank constructed sixty-live feet high, and the well twenty-six feet deep, making a column of water to be lifted ninety-one feet, which is done by a turbine wind wheel, manufactured at Salem, Oregon. He has 300 feet of hose which entirely protects his and al a jacent buildings. In order to get a full supply of water, Mr. Thomas is now digging a new well about ten feet in diameter. The whole, up to the present time, has cost about $1500. We wish the undertaking great suc-
