UMPQUA CHAPTER, No 11, F. A. M., hold their regular communications every first and third Tuesday in each month. All members in good standing will take due and timely notice and govern themselves accordingly. Visiting companions are invited to meet with the chapel when convenient.

J. C. FULLERTON, H. P.

W. I. FRIEDLANDER, Sec'y.

All persons receiving a sample copy of the REVIEW will consider it an invitation to become a subscriber, and will write us a card to send it right along.

SOIREE.—The Umpqua Hose Company's entertainment Wednesday evening was largely attended at Slocum's hall, and all went merry as the "marriage bells," until the "wee sma' hours." It was a success.

THANKSGIVING DINNER.—That Thanksgiving dinner at the McClallen House yesterday was superb, think of it, turkey, chicken, goose, and other meats, cranberry sauce, and every thing that an epicure might desire. The supper on Wednesday.

NEW ARRANGEMENTS.—We have made arrangemnts for 1886 to give the New York World and the REVIEW to all subscribers the same as for 1885. Three dollars in advance secure both papers for one year. 1886 will be a great political year in this country.

"SCRUBS."—Every exchange that came to our table this week without exception, so far as we saw, and we looked closely to find what the testimony would be, is against the course of the Oregonian in reference to J. H. Mitchell. Surely Oregon is afflicted with many a "Scrub."

TEN CENT STAMP.—The public is informed that nothing but the special ten-cent stamp can be used upon a rapid delivery letter, to which must be added a two-cent stamp, making twelve cents in all. The idea that twelve cents in ordinary stamps will secure rapid delivery is erroneous.

GOOD POETRY.—The verses on first page headed "Lines" by Miss Rice on the death of her brother, are we think the most suitable we have printed or read for a long time. While they are melancholy, yet they breathe a confiding gentle spirit, that is equal to J. G. Holland on "Woman." Miss Rice is a remarkable writer.

LOOK HERE.—We make another offer to our many subscribers:—We will furnish you with the "Practical Farmer" a weekly 16 page paper, established 1855 published in Philadelphia, and the REVIEW, for one year for $3.25 in advance. This is the best offer made to farmers, stock and dairy men. Price of Farmer $2.00 per year.

REMOVAL.—E. G. Hursh has removed his office into S. Marks & Co's. brick, and occupies the rooms vacated by Dr. M. W. Davis. Mr. Hursh as an attorney at law, will give strict attention to all business intrusted to his care, he will look after your heriditaments both corporeal and incorporeal, and will settle all disputes in favor of his clients.

ANOTHER VIEW.—A prominent citizen writes his views of the senatorial election, and signs himself "A Democrat." Of course we give the views of all that may write in a candid way as he has done, and give due respect to all. He takes us to task mildly, and we have no disposition to resent it, for we think our course has been a consistent one.

SECOND CROPS.—Here's another item for some of our eastern friends who are enjoying ten degrees below zero: This week Hon. Jos. Craven and Sam Goff have brought us ripe blackberries on the vine. Ripe tomatoes and beans have been picked from the garden in the city within the last ten days. Second crops of Red June apples are common. How's that for high?—West Side.

DESERVES CREDIT.—Our cotemporary, D. S. K. Buick deserves credit for the enterprise he has displayed in putting steam power in his office to run his machinery Both the paper and job presses are now run by steam. He now does our press work, and does it well You need not send away for anything you want done in the printing line, it can all be done in Roseburg, and at fair prices. The REVIEW and Plaindealer offices can do now as nice job work as you will find most anywhere.

COOS BAY RAILROAD AGAIN.—The inexhaustable resources in Douglas and Coos counties of coal, lumber, gold mines, grass, and with proper attention, vegetables, fruits, dairy products, and other industries, make an argument to capitalists, to come and build a railroad which is unanswerable. It would be of incalculable benefit to all concerned, to build a line from Roseburg to Coos Bay and Port Orford. A route has been already surveyed, and found to be practicable, and a road could be constructed at a very reasonable cost, in comparason with many roads built in the west. This would open up in all this vast territory in Southern Oregon a means of transportation which would be renumerative and expeditious. Benton county is now enjoying the value of a competitive road to the amount of 6 cents per bushel more for wheat than is given by any other route. Then let us have a railroad to the coast from Roseburg.

SERENADE.—Last Friday evening the citizens of Roseburg tendered Hon. Binger Herman and family a farewell serenade at their beautiful residence in this city. The Y. D. and Junior Bands alternated and gave the best of music, whereupon Hon. W. F. Benjamin brought Judge Mosher from the crowd that had assembled, to the foot of the steps of the Hon. gentleman's house and introduced him. Judge Mosher made remarks as only the Judge can, and said "that if all were not unanimous in voting for you, we are all unanimous now, in believing that you will represent the whole country without partiality.' Next the "silver tongued orator," Hon. L. F. Lane was presented, and he drew a mental picture of the occasion, of the departure, of the journey, and of the work to be done for our young State, that could be excelled only by himself, (and we even have doubts about that,) and which was splendid to look upon. At the close of this fraternal mosaic by Mr. Lane, Mr. Herman steped forward and said that words were inadequate to express his gratitude for this kindly demonstration. He made extended remarks, after which at least 200 people took him by the hand and said fare well.

Within the past six weeks 27,000 dozen of Iowa eggs have been sold in this city. Some small lots of butter also coming in from the same state and an importation of dressed chickens is expected before long. It is evident that the poultry of this state needs reorganization.—Oregonian.

The custom of bridesmaids wearing orange blossoms was derived from the Saracens, among whom the orange blossom was regarded as a symbol of prosperous marriage, a circumstance which is partly to be accounted for by the fact that, in the east, the orange-tree bears ripe fruit and blossoms at the same time.

Evolution is at last proved to be an established fact beyond the shadow of a doubt. The renowned Cæsar class have discovered that as late as in the time of Cæsar, men had wings and flew from one place to another. It is too bad that Darwin in all his reading did not find out this important fact, but better late than never.—State Journal.

The Prohibition Star has made its appearance, and shines brightly. It is a self-luminous body, and reflects but little borrowed light. It will be in perihelion about the first of June or November 1886, when it will shine with the most dazzling brilliancy. The Star is a success young gentlemen, bon voyage.

Salem, Oregon, Nov. 18, 1885.

Hons. John Lane and W. F. Benjamin,—My Dear Friends:-Your kind congratulatory dispatch received late last evening. Accept my sincere thanks. The victory is overwhelming. The vindication all that could be desired. Very Sincerely and Truly Yours

John H Mitchell.

The pharse "a wheel within a wheel" undoubtedly had its origin in the Bible. In Ezek. i. 16 we find the expression, "a wheel in the middle of a wheel" The revisers of the Bible have adopted the popular phrase "a wheel within a wheel," whether as a more correct transcript of the original or in deference to the common phrase is known only to themselves.

Geo. W. Jones living near town informs us that two quails of an unknown variety have made their appearance at his place. They are smaller in size than the Oregon quail and closely resemble the snipe in color. They are quick and graceful in their movements, but seem to be quite tame running about the barn yard with the domestic fowls. Hunters hands and guns off.

Ha! ha! ha! Why do I laugh? Because that other chap claims to have my head quarters, its a perfect imposition and I want the public to know that my Depot is at L. Langenberg's and has been for over ten years. Go there and you will be well treated. You will find everything in my line, cheap for cash.

Respectfully yours,

Santa Claus.

Over 60 members have joined in a charter for an Eastern Star Chapter at Roseburg, the following are the names of the officers elect, J. R. N. Bell, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Julia Abraham, Worthy Matron; Mrs. Geo. Beath, Worthy Associate Matron; M. F. Rapp, Secretary; Mrs. Rapp, Treasurer. John Hartin of Looking Glass it is reported was assaulted on his way to the I. O. O. F. Lodge last Saturday night a week ago, and was left unconsicous, and is yet confined to his bed. The three parties that did the deed are supposed to have become incensed at Mr. Hartin, because he was a witness in some whiskey cases before the last Grand Jury. If these reports are true, we ask what are we coming to?

Southern Antidote for Malaria.

It is generally known that Simmons Liver Regulator, purely vegetable, is relied upon to secure immunity from all malarial disorders. That this medicine does this is proven by its popularity, and any one who has lived in the South has seen its curative effects and the protection it gives against the return of this weakening and dangerous malady. It acts more promptly than calomel or quinine, without any of the injurious consequences following their use.

An Enterprising, Reliable House.

A. C. Marsters can always be relied upon, not only to carry in stock the best of everything, but to secure the Ageney for such articles as have well-known merit, and are popular with the people, thereby sustaining the reputation of being always enterprising, and ever reliable. Having secured the Agency for the celebrared Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption will sell it on a positive guarantee. It will surely cure you and every effection of Throat, Lungs, and Chest, and to show our confidence, we invite you to call and get a Trial Bottle Free.

The new school house at Albany Oregon was dedicated last Friday a week ago. It is a beautiful structure, of which the citizens of Albany ought to feel proud. The Disseminator says.

"On last Friday afternoon Albany's completed, superb new school building was opened to the public, and its fine appointments viewed and admired by the throng of visitors present.

The sliding doors of the two upper west rooms were opened, and the beautiful large audience room thus formed was packed full of people, who listened to the interesting and instructive address by Prof. T. F. Campbell of the Corvallis agricultural college. The exercises were opened with scripture reading by Prof. E. N. Condit, followed with prayer by Rev. Dr. Irvine, and Prof. Campbell's address."

A Short Letter.

Why is it true that many grand thoughts and noble sentiments do not reach the people through the press. Because the religious press will not publish them, neither will the secular press for fear of opposition to, or from the religious press.

Should they form a league to suppress truth which is calculated to enlighten and elevate mankind, is not the truth as forcible if uttered on the street as from the pulpit? Is it not as true if spoken by a peasant, as if proclaimed by a king? Now Mr. Editor I petition you to publish one sentiment for me which is as follows.—We cannot attain the highest state of civilization and intellectuality without equality of rights, according to the relation we sustain to each other.

L. C. HILL.

who resort to Hosteter's Stomach Bitters, experience speedier and more complete relief than they can hope to do by the use of quinine. This well authenticated fact is of itself sufficient to have established a high reputation for the Bitters. But the article is not a specific merely for the various forms of malarial disease, it endows the system with a degree of vigor, and reforms its irregularities with a certainty that constitutes its best defense against disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, specially rife where the atmosphere and water are miasma tainted. Fever and ague, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake are remedied and prevented by it, and it also removes dyspepsia, constipation, rheumatism &c. Take this medicine on the first indication that the system is out of order, and rest assured that you will be grateful for the hint.

T. F. Farnsworth Esq., known now as the weather prophet, says we will have fine weather until February, and then look out for your grain which has been sown for it will freeze out. If this be true, you had better quit throwing your seed away.

NOW-WITKA.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently precededby a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanco's Pile remedy, which acts directly upon the parts effected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanco Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Dr. S. Hamilton.

DRAIN ITEMS.

If it happen that these lines are not carried beyond their destination, and reach the REVIEW office before the day of publication it will be a relief to your correspondent.

I didn't have to hunt for items this week, for Sol, as usual, let his garrulous tongue loose, and in conversation with his best girl, told about everything there is to be told. Of course I'll not repeat all the sweet things he said, but merely those that would interest your readers. He remarked that the literary club organized last term by the students of the Normal School, is proving to be an important factor in the mental culture of the young folks. He says that the increased facility in extempore speech is remarkable.

His best girl suggested that an equally refined factor might be found in the daily vocal music lessons, which now enable the students to carry all the parts of a difficult chorus successfully. Sol seemed to be much pleased with this remark, for he prides himself on his tenor voice, so he launched out in a complimentary rhapsody on alto voices. I got so tired of this that I came near leaving in disgust, but he changed suddenly, to express his joy in the fact that the man who sought to locate a gin mill in our scholastic village, vented his anathemas, in despair, because no man would, at any price, rent rooms to him, for any such purpose. Think of it! A town of four hundred inhabitants, in Douglas county, with moral force enough to be prohibitory in its very nature and essence! I have never been as proud of Drain, as now. But in my pride I wander from the subject.

Sol then went on to remark that Mr. McGuire's lecture, of last Wednesday evening was a success. He then ramarked that Rev. S. Gittins preached an excellent sermon last Sunday evening. Then his limber organs of speech reverted to the fact that the Christain Church has purchased an organ for its Sunday School, and that it is a great assistance to the faithful teachers who labor so zealously to fit the children for upright moral citizenship. God speed their noble work.

The Methodist Sunday School was conducted by J. W. Krewson, last Sunday in the absence of Sup'd't Booth. He reports a pleasant session, and a considerable increase in the school library. Sol tells me that M. C. Johnson will preach next Sunday morning. The attendance of course will be good.

Sol says that Rev. R. Booth has been telegraphed to preach a thanksgiving sermon for us, but at this time, his answer has not been received. We all hope that the answer will be favorable, for his able sermons are greatly appreciated by the Drain people——just here Sol tried to kiss his girl, so I blushed and slipped away. In order to regain my composure I walked down the street, and met the affable landlady of the Drain Hotel who reminded me that your typo made a mistake last week, in saying that Mrs. B. pointed out the pie-biter, when, in fact, I wrote, Mrs. H. While this was being explained, I observed that the hotel was filled with patrons who wore a well-fed, satisfied air. Next I passed the store of our friend Cellers, and the genial smile on his handsome face, told of brisk trade and good times.

Then I passed on to Drain & Co.'s store and found Charley unpacking the largest stock of boots and shoes, ever brought to our town. Charley says that cash bargains are to be had in this line. On the other side of the house I saw samples, and a notice to the effect that you can get suits of clothes made to order at prices ranging from sixteen to twenty-five dollars.

I found Schlosser and Ostertag still eating sour Krout and doing good work in their line. At the Drug store I saw a splendid stock of holiday goods from which our people will select their Christmas gifts.

Then Ed. Estes called me in and allowed me to sample a fine stock of French candies and other good things, all of which reminds us that the Chistmas holidays are close at hand, when drums, tin horns, and other tortures on the part of ye small boys, will remind us of an amatuer brass band.

I visited the Normal School again, today, and among the hundred intelligent faces there, I saw the new ones, of Miss Hamilton, Miss Green, Mr. O. C. Brown and Roscoe Green, of Roseburg, and Jesse and David Butler, of Scottsburg.

There was a law suit this week, presided over by Judge Mulvaney, in which Henry Beckley was plaintiff and Mr. Roberts defendant. Messrs. Perkins and Krewson acted as attorneys, and the case was decided in favor of the plaintiff.

CASARALTAN.

Rice Hill Items.

The rainy season has commenced.

Mr. Marsh has moved in to his fine dwelling.

Dr. I. F. Rice is on the lookout for practice.

Stock looks fine through this section of the county.

Mr. Fisher lost several head of sheep in the late wind storm.

Miss Katie Marsh has been very sick but is improving slowly.

Mr. W. C. Stuart has gone to England. I will never tell the reason why.

Mr. Wesly Smith is going into the bee business. Look out for honey next season.

Mr. I. E. Rice fattened a goose for thanksgiving and then forgot the day, so the goose was freed.

Mr. John Kellogg has taken up a place, settled down in life and now thinks of giving Miss——a call.

BRADY.

Riddle Items.

No news from the Nickell mines.

L. R. Mynatt killed a black bear recently.

Mr. John Catching is at work with his Hydraulic, delving the mines.

S. S. Catching thinks of moving to Middle Creek to start his saw mill.

G. K. Quine was severely kicked by a horse, but is able to be around.

J. R. Stearns, of Jackson Co., is visiting friends and relatives in the valley.

Mr. J. Jennings and family move to Grants Pass soon to take charge of a hotel.

Mr. Asbery Harmond was married Sunday to Miss Ollie Davis. Joy be with them.

Miss Mollie Quine is talking of making her many friends in Washington Territory, a visit.

We understand that neighbor Nichols contemplates turning his beef cattle out, rather than ship at such low prices.

Writing school under the management of M. E. Pogue closed Saturday evening, having an average of over thirty eight scholafs,

The class had a newspaper read which was a very enjoyable affair. The Professor is an excellent penman, and gives very good satisfaction where ever he goes.

EXPRESS

Our new Post master, W. N. Moore, wears his newly acquired honors with grace and ease. We have no doubt that he will make a faithful servant.

EVOLUTION WITH AN "R."

We have found the missing link. It is neither animal, vegatable, nor mineral, simply a letter; only this and nothing more. But it means a great deal. It deals with circles instead of straight lines. All straight lines have a beginning and an end. The circle is the emblem of eternity. It begins nowhere and ends in the same place. Genesis instead of Pangenesis. Ascent as well as descent. Revolution instead of Evolution. All things return to their source. Rivers to the ocean run. The sun hasteth to the place whence it arose. The seasons follow in endless succession. All things are full of labor. There is no new thing under the sun. From these random theses we gather the general proposition—Revolution is the law of the universe.

Revolution plays no pranks. All is harmonious. Center and circumference never collide. An endless succession of rings may occupy the same space without touching. The sun, moon and stars in their several orbits are nicely balanced between the opposing forces of centripetation and centrifugation. Unity in diversity and harmony in variety is another lesson in nature's school.

Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return. Here is science 6000 years old and none the worse for the wear. The various steps from the lowest forms of unorganized matter up to man proclaim his kinship to the Cosmos. His spiritual nature, a little lower than the angels, manifests his divine kinship. Midway from nothing to the Deity, he supplies the only link between the material and the spiritual.

Grant a make half mortal; half immortal,
Grant the soul of man eternal, or in man
The series ends: Wide yawns the gap,
Connection is no more; checked reason halts,
Her next step wants support,
Striving to climb she tumbles from her scheme
A scheme analogy pronounced so true.

Faithful to the Divine law of revolution man returns to his source. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was, and the spirit unto the God who gave it. Revolution is written on the heavens above and the earth beneath, but there is not one solitary fact to prove the theory of pangenesis. In the British museum there is not a relic of the transmutation of species. In all that vast collection of antiquities the Evolutionist cannot point to one specimen to prove his theory of Descent. Geology does not yield one iota of evidence to prove that man is a result of natural selection. According to the admission of Evolutionists themselves, it is at best an unproved theory. No wonder it has been called the wildest dream of materialism, for like the baseless fabric of a vision it melts away.

SIT LUX.

Scott Valley Items.

We have a good lawful excuse Bro. Bell, have been "on the wing," been moving, been assisting Mrs. Xerxes in arranging household fixtures all but the stove pipe and that we depended on our next door neighbor who is a very patient man and never gets angry, so it was arranged that he would perform that duty we first ascertained that he had no Senatorial aspirations and then in company with Mrs. Xerxes took a short walk, we were not out long when madam thought she heard distant thunder but we knew better; that stove pipe we suggested that it would be a wise thing in our Legislature to elect Binger Herman to the United States Senate, she was positive that it was going to storm and persisted on returning home we then thought it prudent to take shelter at Mr. Sam Carr's house where we found a hearty welcome. Mr Carr is one of our best farmers, takes the REVIEW and San Francisco Examiner, plants white corn and votes the Democratic ticket.

The Misses Applegate are attending the Normal school at Drain.

The Bryant lumber mill is running under the management of Wright & Goodell.

A. C. Applegate will farm very extensive this winter and we wish him an abundant harvest

John Applegate's fine residence in the upper part of the valley looms up and when completed will add much to the appearance of his fine farm.

We also notice that Robert Long and his father Uncle Johnny Long were making substantial improvements on their newly purchased place.

We noticed that George Applegate (Buck) was making some improvements on his fine residence and his farm work for the winter is just commencing.

Miss Benson closed her school in this valley for the winter, what a pity, she is a first-class teacher and the district will have a hard time to find her equal.

Privately Bro. Bell we know of a large flock of turkeys that will come in about right. Christmas, (that is if that fellow has got the stove pipe up.)

XERXES.

Thanksgiving services were held at the Presbyterian church yesterday by the pastors of the city.

BORN.

MENSOR—Born to the wife of A. W. Mensor a son. The child was still born. Mrs. Mensor is improving slowly.

STERLING. SEYMOUR.—Jas. A. Sterling to Mrs. Elizabeth Seymour of Marcellus N. Y. by Rev. Mr. Thorham, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of that place.

James we wish you unbounded joy, may happiness and health be yours.

DIED.

HERVEY.—Mary Hervey on Clarke's Branch died Wednesday evening of Consumption. Her remains were intered to-day at myrtle Creek cemetery. How sad, when the youth of our land are taken away by death. We sympathize with the sorrowing friends.

Geo. S. Kincaid one of the proprietors of the Eugene City Journal died last Monday and was buried Tuesday in the Masonic cemetry under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. order. A large concourse followed him to the grave. A true and faithful servant has gone to rest.

SHRUM.—Miss Avarilla Shrum of Mt. Scott died Thursday evening and will be buried tomorrow.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and friends.

A PUZZLE.

We give below a puzzle furnished us by a young lady of Portland of literary merit, and offer as a prize to anyone who will solve the puzzle, the REVIEW for one year free. This will require much study, but the information attained in the labor bestowed, will more than compensate for the trouble. The answers must be your own work.

WOMAN.

Each line is a quotation from separate standard authors of England and America, and is the result of diligent research among the extensive and varied writings of thirty leading poets.

1. Woman! blest partner of our joys and woes!
2. Blessing and blest wherever she goes.
3. Eager to hope, but not less firm to bear;
4. O born to soothe distress and lighten care.
5. Profound as reason and as justice dear;
6. Yet suffering vice compels her tear.
7. Meekly to bear with wrong and cheer decay
8. And wipe the mourner's bitter tear away.
9. O wo
